GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,

BY a Government Notice dated the 3d June 1847, the practice of obtaining by impressment, Oxen, Horses, and Wagons for the conveyance of the Circuit Judges was discontinued, and His Excellency the Administrator of the Government, being of opinion that the circumstances of the Colony do not require the longer continuance of so objectionable a practice for any other Branch or Department of the Public Service, hereby notifies for general information, that from and after this date, the system of compulsory impressment for any Public Service must terminate.

In future all Officers of the Government who are required to travel on Public Duty at the Public expense, must make their own arrangements for their conveyance, under such instructions as they may from time to time receive

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, Cape Town,
8th March 1848.

IT having been represented to the Administrator of the Government, that some Farms (or places) are attached to or form part of Divisions or Districts, which might be more conveniently made to form parts of adjacent Divisions or Districts, His Excellency has directed it to be notified, that any proprietor who may be inconvenienced from such a cause, is requested to communicate thereon to this Office, with a view to relief being afforded by the transfer of his place to an adjacent Division or District.

His Excellency does not wish existing boundaries, either of Fieldcornetries, Districts, or Divisions, in any way to influence the general or individual convenience—the sole desire of the Government in fixing boundaries being, to promote the convenience of the inhabitants, by shortening as much as is practicable the distances they have to travel to attend upon a Civil Commissioner or Resident Magistrate.

Facility of access arising from the absence of Mountain Barriers or other material obstructions, equally with density of population, at any particular locality, will always be duly considered in defining boundaries of Divisions and Districts, since it must be obvious that persons residing nearer to the nearest seat of Magistracy would, in some cases, be less inconvenienced by travelling a greater distance to a more remote one, than by overcoming greater obstacles to reach the nearest.

By His Excellency's Command,

Secretary to Government.

Colonial Office, 6th March 1848.

A Letter having been received, by the Secretary to Government, from Captain LLOYD, R.N. Resident Magistrate of Port Elizabeth, relative to the Wreck of the Brig "Lady Leith," in which the loss of that Vessel is attributed to the passing between the Roman Rock and the shore; and as it appears that Mr. SALMOND, who sent to the assistance of the "Lady Leith," is of opinion, that the Roman Rock forms part of a Reef extending from the land, and spreading to a considerable distance in that neighborhood:—

It is strongly recommended to Commanders of Vessels not to pass between the Roman Rock at the shore, or to hug the land in that neighbourhood, until a proper survey shall have been held of such Reef, and the Rocks in the Vicinity.

THURSDAY, MARCH 16, 1848.

PROCLAMATION

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH.

Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Administrator of the Government of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice Admiral of the same; and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the Affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c. &c.

I hereby PROCLAIM, DECLARE, and MAKE KNOWN, that for the Government of the Territory between the Orange and Vaal Rivers, now under the Sovereignty of Her Majesty, as made known in my Proclamation of the Third day of February last, the system as follows will be pursued.

The British Resident, Major Warden, in the absence of the High Commissioner, is Paramount, and is the President-in-Chief of all Boards or Commissions, which may be formed for all, and whatever purposes.

The post of Major Warden as British Resident and Magistrate, will be Bloemfontein. A Civil Commissioner and Resident Magistrate, combined in one person, will be stationed at Wenberg, and one in the most eligible and populous neighbourhood of the Caledon River. These Civil Commissioners and Magistrates will have a Clerk and two constables attached to each, to issue and serve summonses, and to conduct criminals to Colesberg. No person of color is ever to be employed in conveying summonses, or in the execution of any point of law, nor are any of the military at present stationed at Bloemfontein, to be employed in matters of a civil nature.

The Civil Commissioners and Magistrates will collect the Quit-rents of their respective Districts, receive the Amounts to be derived from Licences to Traders, Fines, and Monies which may arise, as the Revenue of Her Majesty's Subjects beyond the Orange River; and will transmit to the High Commissioner Quarterly Accounts of such receipts and the disposal thereof, for publication in the English and Dutch Languages, that all may be acquainted with the state of the funds.

The Magistrates will keep a daily record of their proceedings, cases and decisions, and every three months a summary of the whole will be transmitted by the British Resident and other Magistrates direct to the High Commissioner, who will submit them to the Chief Justice or one of the Puisne Judges, for examination and comment, in order to insure a correct and uniform administration of justice.

The Civil Commissioners and Magistrates for Wenberg and the Caledon River, will proceed to their destination via Bloemfontein with the least possible delay, taking with them their clerks and constables; the latter they must endeavour to engage.

A Land Commission will be formed, consisting of the British Resident, as President-in-Chief; the Civil Commissioner and Magistrate of the District in which the Board is held, who will preside in the absence of the British Resident; two Land Surveyors; and one Burgher of the district elected by the people, as members; and the Clerk to the Magistrate of the District, in which the Commission are employed, will act as Clerk to the Land Commission.

The first duty of this Commission is to divide the territory under the Sovereignty of Her Majesty, between the Great Orange and Vaal Rivers, into three districts; the first to be designated that of Bloemfontein, the second that of the Caledon River, the third that of Wenburg.

Each of these Districts to be divided into Field Commandants and Field-Cornets, the selection of persons for these duties, to be made by the majority of the people over whom they are to exercise authority.

The Commission will then register each farm,—take the census of the Population,—record the size of the farm,—and, according to the value of the land, fix the amount of Quit-rent, from two to eight pounds per annum, which are to be regarded as the minimum and maximum rates.

This done, the Commission will have in their possession printed forms to the following purport:—

"The farm of _____ now occupied by _____ is granted to _____ at a Quit-rent of £ _____ per annum; and this shall be his Title-deed and right of occupation until a survey be made, and a more formal document be furnished to him."

(Signed) _____

(To be signed by the President of the Commission.)

Whenever the Natives have a complaint to make as to land, or upon any other subject, the Land Commission will carefully investigate such complaint, and decide positively and unequivocally. Such decision shall be final.

The Burghers are reminded that they now hold their lands, owing to the arrangements which with much difficulty were entered into by Her Majesty's High Commissioner with the Native Chiefs, from Her Majesty in perpetuity, and not on a lease of 40 years as formerly, upon the express condition of paying a Quit-rent to be established by the Board, "and that every able-bodied man turns out in the defence of Her Majesty and her Allies, either with arms or as special Constables, as may be required by the British Resident and Magistrates."

The British Resident, Magistrates, and Land Commission will clearly understand they are placed in this Territory under the paramount authority of Her Majesty, for no other purpose than that of ameliorating the condition of the people, Native as well as Christians: they will, through the medium of the Native Chiefs, redress all grievances, after a mild and patient hearing. All must be equally protected, then all will derive that mutual benefit which a state of harmony, unanimity, and peace alone leads to and will attain. Consistency, plain dealing, and honesty of purpose on the part of the Magistrates, and guiding their conduct by the great fact that their position is one requiring benevolence and consideration, as well as promptitude and determination in their decisions, which must be unequivocal and clearly comprehensible, is the line of conduct which, if energetically pursued, will ensure respect, confidence, and good-faith in all classes of the Community within their respective Districts. Whatever their intercourse with the People induces them to consider would be beneficial to the community (they are to treat no man's opinion with contempt) they will propose, through the British Resident, to the High Commissioner, upon whose exertions for the welfare of all, they may depend, as the Representative of our gracious Sovereign.

These are the outlines of a system which will work itself into maturity,—its wants being supplied as they shew themselves; but the less it is shackled with legal technicalities and subtleties, the more simple it is; hence the more comprehensible, and better calculated for an infant Society.

As this system progresses, markets shall be established at Bloemfontein, Winberg, and on the Caledon River. A weekly Post is in progress from Colesberg via Bloemfontein and Winberg, with a branch to the Caledon River, across the Drakenberg, to Pietermaritzburg and Port Natal. The Magistrates' Clerks will act as Postmasters.

Nursery gardens shall be established in each District; garden seeds, fruit and timber trees being in great demand. These gardens, when once established, must support themselves; no expense to the community will thereafter be tolerated.

It is expected that the Quit-rents and Licences to Traders will realise from £5,000 to £10,000 a-year. The expense of Government will be—

The Revenue, whatever it may be, shall be managed with the greatest possible economy, and the surplus shall be appropriated for the exclusive benefit of those who contribute towards it on the other side of the Orange River.

All arrangements and appointments whatever, are made pending the confirmation of Her Majesty's High Commissioner.

WITH reference to the Proclamation of this day's date, notifying the intended Sale of several extents of Crown Lands, on Saturday, the 18th day of March next, in which the upset prices are stated at per acre,—His Excellency the Governor desires it to be publicly known that at such Sales the term acre will be considered by the Government synonymous with half a morgen Rhyndland, and that in the Titles consequent upon such Sales, one half morgen will be included for every acre then purchased.

By Command of His Excellency the Administrator of the Government,

(Signed) J. A. LE SUEUR,
Pro Secretary to Government, absent on duty.

Colonial Office, Cape Town,
8th March 1848.

IT having been represented to the Administrator of the Government, that some Farms (or places) are attached to or form part of Divisions or Districts, which might be more conveniently made to form parts of adjacent Divisions or Districts, His Excellency has directed it to be notified, that any proprietor who may be inconvenienced from such a cause, is requested to communicate thereon to this Office, with a view to relief being afforded by the transfer of his place to an adjacent Division or District.

His Excellency does not wish existing boundaries, either of Fieldcornetries, Districts, or Divisions, in any way to influence the general or individual convenience—the sole desire of the Government in fixing boundaries being, to promote the convenience of the inhabitants, by shortening as much as is practicable the distances they have to travel to attend upon a Civil Commissioner or Resident Magistrate.

Facility of access arising from the absence of Mountain Barriers or other material obstructions, equally with density of population, at any particular locality, will always be duly considered in defining boundaries of Divisions and Districts, since it must be obvious that persons residing nearer to the nearest seat of Magistracy would, in some cases, be less inconvenienced by travelling a greater distance to a more remote one, than by overcoming greater obstacles to reach the nearest.

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Colonial Office, 6th March 1848.

A Letter having been received, by the Secretary to Government, from Captain LLOYD, R.N. Resident Magistrate of Port Elizabeth, relative to the Wreck of the Brig "Lady Leith," in which the loss of that Vessel is attributed to the passing between the Roman Rock and the shore; and as it appears that Mr. SALMOND, who sent to the assistance of the "Lady Leith," is of opinion, that the Roman Rock forms part of a Reef extending from the land, and spreading to a considerable distance in that neighborhood:—

It is strongly recommended to Commanders of Vessels not to pass between the Roman Rock at the shore, or to hug the land in that neighbourhood, until a proper survey shall have been held of such Reef, and the Rocks in the Vicinity.

REGULATIONS

RESPECTING THE CIVILIANS AT THE MILITARY POSTS IN BRITISH KAFFRARIA.

1. All Civilians located at the Military Posts in British Kaffraria are considered as Camp followers, and must consequently obey the orders which are issued by the Commandant of Kaffraria, or the Officers commanding the different posts.

2. No Civilian will be permitted to carry on any trade or vend any wares, unless he shall take out a licence.

3. No others than licensed traders, or persons employed in the public service, will be permitted to build or reside at any of the Posts, without the special permission in writing of the Commandant of Kaffraria.

4. When a Civilian wishes to build a house, he will apply to the Officer commanding the Post for a written permission to do so. He must himself occupy such house, and will not be permitted to transfer it to any other person, without the written permission of the Officer commanding the Post. He must understand that his house is liable to be pulled down, if it shall at a future time be found to interfere with the Military defence of the Post, or if it shall prove in any way destructive of good order and cleanliness.

5. Each house must be built on the ground pointed out by the Officer commanding the station.

6. All houses must be built in the European fashion, and no Kaffir huts will be allowed.

7. Every Kaffir hut on the different Posts, or within the distance of two miles of them, must be removed by the 1st April 1848, or they will be pulled down.

8. Every Civilian who has cattle in his possession must send in a list of them to the Officer commanding the Post, stating for what purpose he keeps them. No person will be allowed to graze cattle beyond what he requires to draw his trading wagons, and sufficient milch cows for his own use. All cattle must be branded with their owners' initials; they must when at grass be guarded by armed herds, and sent out to graze in the direction pointed out by the Officer commanding the Post.

If these rules be not observed, the cattle will receive no protection from the Military, nor will aid be given in recovering them if lost. Civilians must understand, that the grass near the Posts is required for the horses and oxen in the public service, and that the being allowed to graze their cattle is an indulgence which must not be abused.

9. No carcase of animals, bullocks' heras, offal, broken bottles, or rubbish of any kind, must be seen on or near the Posts. Places for the discharge of all rubbish will be pointed out to the Civilians, and every person will be held responsible for the cleanliness of the neighbourhood of his house.

10. Every Civilian who has a piece of ground allotted to him for building, must enclose it with a wall or fence, otherwise it will be considered as not belonging to him, and will be allotted to some other person.

11. Every lot which is granted for building must be built on within a month from the date of the allotment, or it will be granted to another person.

12. No Civilian will be allowed to employ any Soldier without permission from the Officer commanding the Post. The Soldiers will be altogether prohibited entering the house of any Trader or Civilian who disobeys this injunction.

13. No sale of spirituous liquors will be allowed in British Kaffraria to soldiers or others. The Officer commanding at a Post will, on its being reported to him that liquor has been sold, cause the house of the individual accused of selling it to be searched, and all spirituous liquors found therein to be confiscated and handed over to the Commissariat. On a repetition of the offence, he will cause a Board of Officers to assemble, and enquire into the facts of the case; and if such Board is of opinion that the existence of the house belonging to the individual selling the liquor is destructive of good order, the Officer commanding the Post will cause such house to be pulled down, confiscating any spirituous liquors which may be found on the premises. He will then order the offender to quit the Post.

14. Licensed Traders will be permitted to bring into the Province any cases of spirits in bottle, for which officers in the public service may give them orders. They must, however, apply to the Brigade Major for a pass for such cases, specifying their contents, for whom ordered, and by what road they will enter the Province; and on their arrival at a Post, they must apply to the Officer commanding it for permission to hand them over to the Officer for whom they have been ordered.

15. Hotel-keepers who have taken out licences will be permitted to furnish those travellers who may lodge in their houses with wine or beer; but they will not be allowed to sell spirituous liquors to any one, nor will they be permitted to have a tap or canteen attached to their houses. They will not be allowed to carry on a general trade, or sell provisions, wine, or beer to other than travellers who may lodge in their Hotels. If houses of this description be found in any way destructive of good order, the Officer commanding at a Post will, on receiving the report of a Board of Officers to that effect, cause them at once to be pulled down, and the owners turned off the Post.

SALE OF VALUABLE LANDED PROPERTY AND STOCK,

IN THE IMMEDIATE VICINITY OF THE TOWN OF SWELLENDAAM.

THE Undersigned announces the Public Sale of the whole of his LANDED PROPERTY, STOCK, &c. on

Wednesday & Thursday
The 5th and 6th April 1848.

This fine Property consists of the delightful Residence and richly cultivated Estate of Rotterdam, measuring 586 acres of rich alluvial soil, bearing heavy crops of Grain, Potatoes, and every description of Vegetable Produce.

In rendering this pleasant Residence suitable for a Gentleman's Family, in enclosing the Lands and Gardens, and bringing a plentiful supply of Water for their irrigation, no expense has been spared by the present Proprietor, so that an intending Purchaser would enter under the most favorable circumstances. The DWELLING HOUSE is commodious, the Rooms spacious and lofty, with plank floors and excellent attics. It is surrounded by shady Oaks, Orange and other Fruit Trees. There is splendid Stabling for 20 Horses, Coach House, Smith's Work Shop, Shed, and numerous useful Out-buildings; also large Paddocks and inclosed Camps for young Horses, to the breeding of which the place is so remarkably well adapted.

ALSO, The very valuable adjoining Grazing and Arable Farm 'BAKKERLEY'S PLAATS,' measuring 1,280 Acres, situated on the Banks of a magnificently broad reach of the Breede River, extending from near the Race Course of Swellendam to the junction of the Buffeljachts River. These banks are covered with fine timber and mimosa trees, affording abundance of wood for building purposes, fuel, and Tanner's Bark, always in demand. The Arable Land is of great extent and fertility, yielding large crops of Wheat, Barley and Oats, which may be carried at once from the field or thrashing floor to the daily market in Swellendam, being only one hour's ride.

There is a substantial Dwelling House, newly thatched, and Stable, situated near the River on the Property.

The vicinity of this Estate to the rising Town of Swellendam, possessing the advantages of Church in the Dutch and English Services, Market, the best medical aid, and means of instruction, must always insure its increasing value.

AN INFALLIBLE HAIR DYE. ROWLAND'S MELECOMIA.

The most successful LIQUID PREPARATION ever known in this or any other country, for Dying the HAIR OF THE HEAD, WHISKERS, MUSTACHIOS, and EYEBROWS, a natural and permanent BROWN or BLACK, so exactly resembling the natural colour of the Hair as to defy detection. It is perfectly innocent in its nature, is free from unpleasant smell and can be used by any Lady or Gentleman with the greatest ease and secrecy. Its effects are so permanent, that neither water nor perspiration will influence them; and it is entirely free from those properties (usual in Hair Dyes) which give an unnatural red or purple tint to the Hair.—Price 5s.

The following interesting communication was sent to Messrs ROWLAND and SON, 29, Hatton Garden, London.
23, Mason Street, Old Kent Road.

GENTLEMEN.—About August, 1839, my hair began to fall off, and in so rapid a manner, that in the space of a month my head was almost divested of hair. I tried several preparations for its recovery without the slightest benefit, when one day your circular, in "Collins' Memoranda," caught my eye. I ventured on the purchase of a small bottle of ROWLAND'S MACASSAR OIL, after using which I found my hair was beginning to re-appear, and accordingly I purchased a larger bottle, which when finished, I felt satisfied that I had proved in my own person all you profess as to its restorative qualities; in short, after two months steady perseverance in its use, I had as good a head of hair as at any time of my life, for which permit me to offer my thanks. I have delayed writing to you for six months (from the time of leaving off the Oil) wishing to test the permanence of its restoration. I find it continues as firm and thick as before it began to fall off, with every prospect of its continuance.

I am, gentlemen,
Yours obediently,
JOHN FOSTER.

The Premiums are payable yearly in advance; or, at the option of the Assured, half-yearly, with a slight increase of the rate.

The Capital and Profits of this Institution are the ENTIRE PROPERTY of the holders of Policies of Insurance.

The Profits will be divided amongst the holders of Policies, at the termination of every period of THREE YEARS, after the year 1850, when the first distribution will take place; and each holder may determine that his Share shall be added to the sum assured by him;—or converted into a present payment;—or applied in reduction of the future annual premiums payable by him.

The pecuniary advantages, therefore, are the greatest that can be secured to Policy-holders in any Institution of this nature.

Any Person whose Life is assured, and who has paid Five Annual Premiums, may proceed direct to any part of this Colony, and to any dependency thereof;—and to any part of Europe in time of peace, at his pleasure.

Any Person whose Life is assured may proceed direct to any part of this Colony, and to any dependency thereof by sea and by land, at his pleasure.

For those who have not paid Five Annual Premiums, a Licence from the Board of Directors, but no additional Premium, is required when they proceed beyond the limits of this Colony and the dependencies thereof.

No Institution of this nature, it will therefore be seen, can reasonably consult the convenience of the assured to a greater extent.

By comparing the Rates or Scale of Premiums, the Public will perceive that those adopted by this Society are lower than those adopted by any respectable and safe Companies, in which, of course, a proper return for paid-up Capital, for risks, with profit to the Shareholders, must be provided for, as well as the benefit of the Assured or Policy-holders.

In this Society the Members and Policy-holders being the only Shareholders, receive back directly whatever excess of Rate the Tables may still retain. Every error, therefore, fully corrects itself;—and in this respect, also, MUTUAL ASSURANCE SOCIETIES excel all others.

The Principle and Tables of the Scottish Equitable Life Assurance Society have been adopted; and that Society in the course of only thirteen years from its commencement, after meeting all demands, sets forth, that its "NETT REALISED FUNDS amounts to £263,719 6 8,"—although in Scotland the rate of interest is more than FORTY PER CENT. LOWER THAN AT THE CAPE.

JOHN FAIRBAIRN, Chairman.

N.B. Office of the Society, 12, Heerengracht, Cape Town. Office Hours from 9 o'clock A.M., to 4 o'clock P.M.

The Directors, and all persons connected with the management of the Society, have signed a declaration that they will preserve inviolable secrecy as to all business transacted with the Society.

PROCLAMATIE

DOOR ZYNE EXCELLENTIE LUIT-GENERAAL SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH

Baronet, Ridder Groot Kruis, van de Hoog-Edelen Orde van het Bad, Kolonel 2de Battalion Scherpschutters, Administrateur van het Gouvernement van de Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop, en den Ressort van dien, en Ordinaris, en Vice-Admiraal van dezelve; en Harer Majesteits Hooge Commissaris voor het afdoen en vereffenen van de Zaken van het Grondgebied in Zuid Afrika, belendend aan en annex de Oostelyke en Noordelyke Grenzen van de gezegde Kolonie, enz. enz. enz.

IK PROCLAMEER, VERKLAAR en MAAK BEKEND by deze, dat voor het Gouvernement van het grondgebied tusschen de Oranje en Vaalrivieren, thans onder het Oppergebied van Hare Majesteit, zoo als bekend is gemaakt in myne Proclamatie van den 3den Feb. II. het volgende stelsel zal worden opgevolgd:—

De Britsche Resident, Majoor Warden, is in de afwezigheid van den Hoogen Commissaris, het Hoofd, en is de President en Chef van alle Collegien of Commissien, die voor allen en welk doeleinde ook worden opgericht.

De post van Majoor Warden, als Britsche Resident en Magistraat, zal zyn te Bloemfontein. Een Civile Commissaris en Resident Magistraat, in een persoon vereenigd, zal gestationeerd worden te Winberg, en een in de geschikste en volkrykste nabuurschap van de Caledonsrivier. Deze Civile Commissarissen en Magistraten zullen hebben een klerk en twee gerechtsdienaars, aan elk hunner toegevoegd, om dagvaardingen uit te vaardigen en te exploiteeren en om gevangenen naar Colesberg overtebrengen. Geen persoon van kleur zal ooit worden gebezigt om te dagvaarden, of in de uitvoering van eenig punt des regts, ook zullen geene militairen, thans te Bloemfontein gestationeerd, in zaken van eenen civilen aard worden gebezigt.

De Civile Commissarissen en Magistraten zullen de Erfpachtpenningen van hunne respectieve districten verzamelen, het bedrag ontvangen, heenkommende wegens licentien aan handelaars, boeten en gelden, welke mogen voorspreken als de inkomsten van Harer Majesteits onderdanen over de Oranjerivier, en zullen aan den Hoogen Commissaris kwartaals rekeningen moeten overzenden van zoodanige ontvangsten, en de beschikking daarvan, om in het Engelsch en Hollandsch te worden gepubliceerd, opdat een ieder bekend moge worden met den staat der fondsen.

De Magistraten zullen eene dagelyksche aantekening houden van hunne verrigtingen, zaken en besluiten, en alle drie maanden zal een kort verslag daarvan worden overgezonden door den Britschen Resident en andere Magistraten, rechtstreeks naar den Hoogen Commissaris, die dezelve zal submitteren aan den Hoofd-Justicier of een der jongere Regters ter examioatie en aauwmerking, ten einde eene juiste en eenparige uitoefening des regts te verzekeren.

De Civile Commissarissen en Magistraten voor Winberg en Caledonsrivier, zullen zoo spoedig mogelijk naar de plaats hunner bestemming vertrekken over Bloemfontein, met zich nemende hunne klerken en gerechtsdienaars, zullende zy laatstgemelde moeten trachten te engageren.

Er zal eene Land-Commissie worden geformeerd, bestaande uit den Britschen Resident, als Oppers-President, den Civilen Commissaris en Magistraat van het district, alwaar de vergadering gehouden wordt, die voorzitten zal, by afwezigheid van den Britschen Resident, twee Inspecteurs, en een burger van het district, door het volk gekozen, als leden, en de klerk van den Magistraat van het district, waar de Commissie gebezigt wordt, zal als klerk van de Land-Commissie ageren.

De eerste pligt van deze Commissie zal zyn, om het grondgebied onder het oppergezag van Hare Majesteit, tusschen de Groote Oranje en Vaalrivieren, in drie districten te verdeelen, het eerste te worden genoemd, dat van Bloemfontein, het tweede dat van Caledonsrivier, en het derde dat van Winberg.

Elk van deze districten zal worden verdeeld in Veldkommandantschappen en Veldkornetschappen, de kiezing van personen tot deze diensten zal geschieden door de meerderheid van het volk, waarover zy het gezag zullen uitoefenen.

De Commissie zal vervolgens elke plaats registreren—de begroting van de bevolking opnemen—bekend stellen de grootte van de plaats—en, volgens de waarde van het land, het bedrag der erfpachtpenningen bepalen, van twee tot acht ponden per jaar, hetgeen zal worden beschouwd als het minimum en maximum der heffingen.

Dit geschied zynde, zal de Commissie in het bezit worden gesteld van gedrukte vormen van den volgende inhoud:—

De plaats van ———— thans geoccupeerd door ———— is uitgegeven aan ———— tegen een erfpacht van £ ———— per jaar; en dit zal zyn erfgrondbrief zyn en regt van bezit, tot dat eene opmeting zal zyn geschied en een meer formeel document aan hem uitgereikt.

bondgenooten uittrekt, hetzy met wapenen dan wel als speciale onstabels, zoo als door den Britschen Resident en de Magist-raten zal worden gevorderd.

De Britsche Resident, Magistralen, en Land Commissie moeten wel verstaan, dat zy in dit grondgebied geplaatst zyn onder het oppergezag van Hare Majesteit, tot geen ander doel, dan om den staat van het volk, inboorlingen zoowel als christenen, te verbeteren; zy zullen, door middel van de Inlandsche Opperhoofden alle bezwaren, na een zachtmoedig en geduldig verhoor, uit den weg ruimen. Een ieder moet gelykelyk worden beschermd, dan ook zal een ieder dat wederkeerig nut trekken, waartoe een staat van eendragt, eengezindheid en vrede, alleen leiden en bereiken kan. Bestaanbaarheid, rondborstigheid en opregtheid van doel aan den kant der Magistralen, en hun gedrag regelende naar de groote daadzaak, dat hun stand, toegenezenheid en inschikkelijkheid, zoowel als naauwgezetheid en vastheid in hunne besluiten vordert, welke ondubbelzinnig en duidelyk te verstaan moeten zyn, is de gedragsregel, welke kraachtadig opgevolgd, achtung, vertrouwen en goede trouw, in alle klassen der maatschappy, in hunne onderscheidene districten zullen bevorderen. Wat ook in hun omgang met het volk mogt voorkomen nuttig te zyn voor de maatschappy (zy behooren niemands gevoelen met verachting van zich te werpen) zullen zy, door middel van den Britschen Resident aan den Hoogen Commissaris voordragen, op wiens pogingen tot het welzyn van een ieder, zy zich verlaten kunnen, als den vertegenwoordiger van onzen Genadigen Souverein.

Deze zyn de schetsen van een stelsel, hetwelk zichzelve tot ryphheid zal brengen—zullende in deszelfs behoeften worden voorzien, naarmate zy zich voordoen: maar hoe minder hetzelfde gebonden is aan regtsgeleerde kunststermen en uitvlugten, des te eenvoudiger is het, van hier des te verstaanbaarder en beter berekend voor een ontlukende Maatschappy.

Naarmate dit stelsel zich ontwikkelt, zullen er markten worden opgericht te Bloemfontein, Winberg en aan de Caledonsrivier. Er zal een wekelijksche Post opgericht worden van Colesberg over Bloemfontein en Winberg, met een tak naar Caledonsrivier, over den Draakberg naar Pietermaritzburg en Port Natal. De Magistraats Klerken zullen als Postmeesters ageren.

Er zullen kweektuinen worden opgericht in elk district; zynde tuinzaaden, vruchten en boomen voor timmerhout, in grooten aanvraag: Deze tuinen eens daargesteld, zullen zichzelve moeten onderhouden; de maatschappy zal daaraan voor dezelve met geene kosten mogen worden belast.

Men verwacht dat de erfpachtpenningen en licentien voor handelaars, een bedrag van £6000 tot £10.000 per jaar zal opleveren. De kosten van het Gouvernement zullen zyn:—

maat van inkomsten zyn, van drie of vier duizend ponden, tot opbodwing van Kerken en Scholen, en salaris van Pre-dikanten en Schoolmeesters.

De inkomsten, welke die ook mogen zyn, zullen met de grootste zuinigheid worden aangewend, en het meerder bedragen zal uitsluitend diegenen bevoordeelen, die daartoe bydragen aan de andere zyde van de Oranje Rivier.

Alle beschikkingen en benoemingen, van welken aard ook, worden gemaakt, onder afwachting van de confirmatie van Harer Majesteits Hooge Commissaris.

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. E. de Administrateur des

GOVERNEMENTS KENNISGEVING.

Koloniale Secretary, 8 Maart. 1848.

DAAR het ter kennis van den Administrateur des Gouvernements is gebracht dat sommige Plaatsen gehecht zyn aan, of een deel maken van Afdelingen of Districten, welke met meer geryf deelen zouden kunnen worden gemaakt van aangelegene Districten of Afdelingen, zoo heeft Zyne Excellentie gelast bekend te maken, dat iedere eigenaar, die ongelegenheid zal lyden uit zoodanige oorzaak gezocht wordt zulks bekend te maken aan dit Kantoor, opdat hem relief zal kunnen worden geschonken door het overbrengen van zyne Plaats tot een aangrenzende District of Afdeling.

Zyne Excellentie verlangt niet dat de bestaande Grenzen, hetzy van Veldkornetschappen, Districten, of Afdelingen, in eenige mate het algemeene of private gemak zullen be-lemmeren, zynde het eenige verlangen van het Gouvernement in het bepalen der limieten, het bevorderen van het gemak der Ingezeten, door het verkorten, zooveel als mogelyk is, van de Afstanden welke zy moeten reizen om zich voor eenen Civilen Commissaris of Resident Magistraat te begeven.

Gemak van toegang, ontstaande uit het afzyn van Gebergten of andere wezenlyke hinderpalen, te gelyk met digtheid van bevolking, op eenige byzondere plek, zal altdy behoort worden in aanzien genomen in het bepalen van Grenzen van Districten of Afdelingen, daar het opvallend moet zyn dat personen die het naaste wonen aan den naasten Magistraat, in sommige gevallen minder ongerief zouden lyden, door een grooter afstand te reizen naar eenen meer verwyderden, dan in het overkomen van grooten hinderpalen om den naasten te bereiken.

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. E. de Administrateur des Gou-vernements,

(Get.) JOHN MONTAGU,
Gouvernements Secretaris.

THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE Government Gazette.

THURSDAY, MARCH 23, 1848.

PROCLAMATION

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH.

Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Administrator of the Government of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice Admiral of the same; and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the Affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c. &c.

I hereby PROCLAIM, DECLARE, and MAKE KNOWN, that for the Government of the Territory between the Orange and Vaal Rivers, now under the Sovereignty of Her Majesty, as made known in my Proclamation of the Third day of February last, the system as follows will be pursued.

The British Resident, Major Warden, in the absence of the High Commissioner, is Paramount, and is the President-in-Chief of all Boards or Commissions, which may be formed for all, and whatever purposes.

The post of Major Warden as British Resident and Magistrate, will be Bloemfontein. A Civil Commissioner and Resident Magistrate, combined in one person, will be stationed at Wenberg, and one in the most eligible and populous neighbourhood of the Caledon River. These Civil Commissioners and Magistrates will have a Clerk and two constables attached to each, to issue and serve summonses, and to conduct criminals to Colesberg. No person of color is ever to be employed in conveying summonses, or in the execution of any point of law, nor are any of the military at present stationed at Bloemfontein, to be employed in matters of a civil nature.

The Civil Commissioners and Magistrates will collect the Quit-rents of their respective Districts, receive the Amounts to be derived from Licences to Traders, Pines, and Monies which may arise, as the Revenue of Her Majesty's Subjects beyond the Orange River; and will transmit to the High Commissioner Quarterly Accounts of such receipts and the disposal thereof, for publication in the English and Dutch Languages, that all may be acquainted with the state of the funds.

The Magistrates will keep a daily record of their proceedings, cases and decisions, and every three months a summary of the whole will be transmitted by the British Resident and other Magistrates direct to the High Commissioner, who will submit them to the Chief Justice or one of the Puisne Judges, for examination and comment, in order to insure a correct and uniform administration of justice.

The Civil Commissioners and Magistrates for Wenberg and the Caledon River, will proceed to their destination via Bloemfontein with the least possible delay, taking with them their clerks and constables; the latter they must endeavour to engage.

A Land Commission will be formed, consisting of the British Resident, as President-in-Chief; the Civil Commissioner and Magistrate of the District in which the Board is held, who will preside in the absence of the British Resident; two Land Surveyors; and one Burgher of the district elected by the people, as members; and the Clerk to the Magistrate of the District, in which the Commission are employed, will act as Clerk to the Land Commission.

The first duty of this Commission is to divide the territory under the Sovereignty of Her Majesty, between the Great Orange and Vaal Rivers, into three districts; the first to be designated that of Bloemfontein, the second that of the Caledon River, the third that of Wenburg.

Each of these Districts to be divided into Field Commandants and Field-Cornets, the selection of persons for these duties, to be made by the majority of the people over whom they are to exercise authority.

The Commission will then register each farm,—take the census of the Population,—record the size of the farm,—and, according to the value of the land, fix the amount of Quit-rent, from two to eight pounds per annum, which are to be regarded as the minimum and maximum rates.

This done, the Commission will have in their possession printed forms to the following purport:—

"The farm of _____ now occupied by _____ is granted to _____ at a Quit-rent of £ _____ per annum; and this shall be his Title-deed and right of occupation until a survey be made, and a more formal document be furnished to him."

(Signed) _____

(To be signed by the President of the Commission.)

Whenever the Natives have a complaint to make as to land, or upon any other subject, the Land Commission will carefully investigate such complaint, and decide positively and unequivocally. Such decision shall be final.

The Burghers are reminded that they now hold their lands, owing to the arrangements which with much difficulty were entered into by Her Majesty's High Commissioner with the Native Chiefs, from Her Majesty in perpetuity, and not on a lease of 40 years as formerly, upon the express condition of paying a Quit-rent to be established by the Board, "and that every able-bodied man turns out in the defence of Her Majesty and her Allies, either with arms or as special Constables, as may be required by the British Resident and Magistrates."

The British Resident, Magistrates, and Land Commission will clearly understand they are placed in this Territory under the paramount authority of Her Majesty, for no other purpose than that of ameliorating the condition of the people, Native as well as Christians: they will, through the medium of the Native Chiefs, redress all grievances, after a mild and patient hearing. All must be equally protected, then all will derive that mutual benefit which a state of harmony, unanimity, and peace alone leads to and will attain. Consistency, plain dealing, and honesty of purpose on the part of the Magistrates, and guiding their conduct by the great fact that their position is one requiring benevolence and consideration, as well as promptitude and determination in their decisions, which must be unequivocal and clearly comprehensible, is the line of conduct which, if energetically pursued, will ensure respect, confidence, and good-faith in all classes of the Community within their respective Districts. Whatever their intercourse with the People induces them to consider would be beneficial to the community (they are to treat no man's opinion with contempt) they will propose, through the British Resident, to the High Commissioner, upon whose exertions for the welfare of all, they may depend, as the Representative of our gracious Sovereign.

These are the outlines of a system which will work itself into maturity,—its wants being supplied as they shew themselves; but the less it is shackled with legal technicalities and subtleties, the more simple it is; hence the more comprehensible, and better calculated for an infant Society.

As this system progresses, markets shall be established at Bloemfontein, Winberg, and on the Caledon River. A weekly Post is in progress from Colesberg via Bloemfontein and Winberg, with a branch to the Caledon River, across the Drakenberg, to Pietermaritzburg and Port Natal. The Magistrates' Clerks will act as Postmasters.

Nursery gardens shall be established in each District; garden seeds, fruit and timber trees being in great demand. These gardens, when once established, must support themselves; no expense to the community will thereafter be tolerated.

It is expected that the Quit-rents and Licences to Traders will realise from £5,000 to £10,000 a-year. The expense of Government will be—

There will be, it is hoped therefore, an annual surplus Revenue of three or four thousand pounds, for the erection of Churches and Schools, and salary of Ministers and Schoolmasters.

The Revenue, whatever it may be, shall be managed with the greatest possible economy, and the surplus shall be appropriated for the exclusive benefit of those who contribute towards it on the other side of the Orange River.

All arrangements and appointments whatever, are made pending the confirmation of Her Majesty's High Commissioner.

objectionable a practice for any other Branch or Department of the Public Service, hereby notifies

Public Service must terminate.

In future all Officers of the Government who are

BY HIS EXCELLENCY LIEUTENANT GENERAL SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH, Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Administrator of the Government of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice-Admiral of the same and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa, adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS, by a Proclamation, bearing date the 12th day of January, 1848, pursuant to certain provisions contained in the Royal Charter for the better and more effectual Administration of Justice in this Colony, bearing date the 4th day of May, 1832, I did, by virtue of the said Provisions, order, direct, and appoint, that, for the purpose of holding the then ensuing Circuit Courts, the Colony should be divided into Ten Circuit Districts, which said Districts were in the said Proclamation named and set forth. And whereas it is expedient to make provision for the hearing and determining of Cases arising in the Divisions of Victoria and Albert respectively, I do hereby, in pursuance and by virtue of the Provisions of the said Charter, Order direct and appoint that the 4th Circuit District in the Proclamation aforesaid nominated and defined, shall comprehend the Division of VICTORIA, as well as, and together with, the Division of ALBANY, and that the 6th Circuit Court in the said Proclamation nominated and defined shall comprehend the Division of ALBERT, as well as, and together with, the Division of CRADOCK.

And I further order, direct and appoint, that the day and place heretofore fixed and announced for holding a Circuit Court for the Division of Albany, shall be and stand as the day and place fixed for the holding of a Circuit Court for the 4th District, comprehending, as aforesaid, the Divisions of Albany and Victoria, and that the day and place heretofore fixed and announced for holding a Circuit Court for the Division of Cradock shall be and stand as the day and place fixed for holding a Circuit Court for the 6th District, comprehending, as aforesaid, the Divisions of Cradock and Albert;—the said Courts respectively to be held before one of the Judges of the Supreme and Circuit Courts of this Colony, for hearing and determining all Cases, Civil and Criminal, cognizable and triable by the said Circuit Courts, and in doing such other matters and things as, by Law, the said Judges are empowered to do.

And I strictly charge and command all Civil Commissioners, Justices of the Peace, Deputy-Sheriffs, Field-Cornets, and other Officers, that they be aiding and assisting the said Courts as they shall answer the contrary at their peril.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, Cape Town,
8th March 1848.

IT having been represented to the Administrator of the Government, that some Farms (or places) are attached to or form part of Divisions or Districts, which might be more conveniently made to form parts of adjacent Divisions or Districts, His Excellency has directed it to be notified, that any proprietor who may be inconvenienced from such a case, is requested to communicate thereon to this Office, with a view to relief being afforded by the transfer of his place to an adjacent Division or District.

His Excellency does not wish existing boundaries, either of Fieldcornetries, Districts, or Divisions, in any way to influence the general or individual convenience—the sole desire of the Government in fixing boundaries being, to promote the convenience of the inhabitants, by shortening as much as is practicable the distances they have to travel to attend upon a Civil Commissioner or Resident Magistrate.

Facility of access arising from the absence of Mountain Barriers or other material obstructions, equally with density of population, at any particular locality, will always be duly considered in defining boundaries of Divisions and Districts, since it must be obvious that persons residing nearer to the nearest seat of Magistracy would, in some cases, be less inconvenienced by travelling a greater distance to a more remote one, than by overcoming greater obstacles to reach the nearest.

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Colonial Office, 6th March 1848.

A Letter having been received, by the Secretary to Government, from Captain LLOYD, R.N. Resident Magistrate of Port Elizabeth, relative to the Wreck of the Brig "Lady Leith," in which the loss of that Vessel is attributed to the passing between the Roman Rock and the shore; and as it appears that Mr. SALMOND, who sent to the assistance of the "Lady Leith," is of opinion, that the Roman Rock forms part of a Reef extending from the land, and spreading to a considerable distance in that neighborhood:—

It is strongly recommended to Commanders of Vessels not to pass between the Roman Rock at the shore, or to hug the land in that neighbourhood, until a proper survey shall have been held of such Reef, and the Rocks in the Vicinity.

By Command of His Excellency the Administrator of the Government.

Secretary to Government.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
7th March 1848.

HIS Excellency the Administrator of the Government being of opinion that the public interests, as well as the personal convenience of the Unofficial Members, will best be consulted by holding the Meetings of the Legislative Council of this Colony at stated periods, and not, as heretofore, by summoning the Members from time to time as circumstances might require;—hereby notifies his intention of holding two Sessions of Council during each year, the first to take place in May, and the other in October.

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
22nd March, 1848.

WITH reference to the accompanying Minute of this day's date, which the Administrator of the Government has directed to be published for general information, respecting the Improvement and future management of Gaols, Lock-up Houses, and Houses of Correction; His Excellency has been pleased to appoint the following Gentlemen, as Members of the Board of Commissioners of Public Prisons:—

The Hon. J. MONTAGU, Esq., Chairman.
CLERKE BURTON, Esq.,
WILLIAM HOPE, Esq.,
The Rev. Dr. ADAMSON,
Dr. INNES.

By Command of His Excellency the Administrator of the Government,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

MINUTE.

Government House, 22nd March 1848.

IN no departments of the Government of this Colony does there exist a more urgent necessity for extension and substantial improvement, than in Prisons and Prison Discipline.

Previous to the institution of the present system of Convict discipline in 1844, all sentences of imprisonment either with or without hard labour were carried out in the District Gaols and the Penal Establishment on Robben Island.

At that time my predecessor Sir George Napier thus remarks on the state of Prisons and Prison discipline:—"The present system does not only not contemplate, but by its very arrangements either neutralises or wholly counteracts that process of reformatory discipline, which is essential to the salutary exercise of Penal Justice, a process, which while it strictly regards the extent and degree of punishment awarded for the offence committed, seeks, both on moral and political grounds, to rescue the delinquent from the power of vicious habits or degrading propensities; and aims to restore him, if possible, to society, prepared to resist its temptations from a higher motive than the dread of punishment consequent on crime."

No description of mine can more forcibly or truly depict the evils resulting from the state in which both Prisons and Prison discipline now are, than that I have just quoted.

And, although the system of Convict discipline instituted in 1844 has been attended with the most beneficial results in respect to all Male Convicts sentenced to imprisonment with hard labour for periods exceeding three months, yet the evil remains in all its intensity as it regards those on whom its baneful influence is most to be deplored. I allude to female and untried prisoners, and to those convicted of petty offences and misdemeanours.

From the Returns annually made by the Resident Magistrates, it appears that there are in all twenty-three Gaols throughout the Colony. Were the principle of separation, now being extensively practised in the Gaols of England, adopted here, these Gaols would not be capable of accommodating more than 171 Prisoners; whilst, according to the practice that has hitherto obtained, they are reported as capable of containing 1235,—an amount wholly disproportionate to the average dimensions of the cells and the prison accommodation generally, if the ends for which a Prison is solely erected are kept in view, viz: safe custody, punishment, and reformation.

It further appears, as might naturally be inferred from the above statement, that no attempt at classification has ever been made or could be, beyond the mere separation of the sexes, and that, in some instances, but very imperfectly,—the defective state of the Gaols in some Districts imposes the necessity of the nightly use of fetters, to ensure the safe custody of the Prisoners, whether untried or convicted,—and that air, exercise, and healthy employment form no part of the system. As a natural consequence, punishments for offences within the Prison have been frequent, in the shape of flogging, irons, and solitary confinement.

By Ordinance No. 24, 1847, entitled an Ordinance "for Improving the Gaols of the Colony," I have been vested with full powers, under its provisions, to take such steps as may appear to me advisable for the improvement of the Colonial Prisons, for the due classification of the Prisoners, and for the establishment of such a system of Prison Discipline as appears best calculated not only to punish but to reform.

To effect this, I propose to place all Prisons Lock-up Houses, and Houses of Correction under the direction and control of a Board, to be called the General Board of Commissioners of Prisons. To this Board will be added Local Boards for the immediate inspection and supervision of the several Gaols, and for aiding the General Board in carrying out such measures of improvement as shall from time to time receive my sanction.

To the General Board will be committed the charge of administering the funds that are voted by the Legislative Council for the erection of new Gaols and the improvement of the old.

PROCLAMATIE

DOOR ZYNE EXCELLENTIE LUIT-GENERAAL

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH

Baronet, Ridder Groot Kruis, van de Hoog-Edelen Orde van het Bad, Kolonel 2de Battalion Scherpschutters, Administrateur van het Gouvernement van de Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop, en den Ressorte van dien, en Ordinaris, en Vice-Admiraal van dezelve; en Harer Majesteits Hooge Commissaris voor het afdoen en verfeenen van de Zaken van het Grondgebied in Zuid Afrika, belendend aan en annex de Oostelyke en Noordelyke Grenzen van de gezegde Kolonie, enz. enz. enz.

IK PROCLAMEER, VERKLAAR en MAAK BEKEND by deze, dat voor het Gouvernement van het grondgebied tusschen de Oranje en Vaalrivieren, thans onder het Oppergezag van Harer Majesteit, zoo als bekend is gemaakt in myne Proclamatie van den 3den Feb. II. het volgende stelsel zal worden opgevolgd:—

De post van Majoor Warden, als Britsche Resident en Magistraat, zal syn te Bloemfontein. Een Civile Commissaris en Resident Magistraat, in een persoon vereenigd, zal gestationeerd worden te Winberg, en een in de geschikte en volkrykste nabuurschap van de Caledonsrivier. Deze Civile Commissarissen en Magistralen zullen hebben een klerk en twee gerechtsdienaars, aan elk hunner toegevoegd, om dagvaardingen uit te vaardigen en te exploiteeren en om gevangenen naar Colesberg overtebrengen. Geen persoon van kleur zal ooit worden gebezigt om te dagvaarden, of in de uitvoering van eenig punt des regts, ook zullen geene militairen, thans te Bloemfontein gestationeerd, in zaken van eenen civilen aard worden gebezigt.

De Civile Commissarissen en Magistralen zullen de Erfpachtpenningen van hante respectieve districten i zamelen, het bedragen ontvangen, heenkomen de wegens licentien aan handelaars, boeten, en gelden, welke mogen voortspuiten als de inkomsten van Harer Majesteits onderdanen over de Oranjerivier, en zullen de Hoogen Commissaris kwartaals rekeningen moeten oorzenden van zoodanige ontvangsten, en de beschikking daarvan, om in het Engelsch en Hollandsch te worden gepubliceerd, opdat een ieder bekend moge worden met den staat der fondsen.

De Magistralen zullen eene dagelyksche aantekening houden van hunne verrigtingen, zaken en besluiten, en alle drie maanden zal een kort verslag daarvan worden overgezonden door den Britschen Resident en andere Magistralen, regtstreeks naar den Hoogen Commissaris, die dezelve zal submitteren aan den Hoofd-Justicier of een der jongere Regters ter examinatie en aanteekening, ten einde eene juiste en eenparige uitoefening des regts te verzekeren.

De Civile Commissarissen en Magistralen voor Winberg en Caledonsrivier, zullen zoo spoedig mogelijk naar de plaats hunner bestemming vertrekken over Bloemfontein, met zich nemende hunne klerken en gerechtsdienaars, zulende zy laatstgemelde moeten trachten te engageren.

Er zal eene Land-Commissie worden geformeerd, bestaande uit den Britschen Resident, als Oppers-President, den Civile Commissaris en Magistraat van het district, alwaar de vergadering gehouden wordt, die voorzitten zal, by afwezigheid van den Britschen Resident, twee Landmeesters, en een burger van het district, door het volk gekozen, als leden, en de klerk van den Magistraat van het district, waar de Commissie gebezigt wordt, zal als klerk van de Land-Commissie ageren.

De eerste plicht van deze Commissie zal zyn, om het grondgebied onder het oppergezag van Harer Majesteit, tusschen de Grootte Oranje en Vaalrivieren, in drie districten te verdeelen, het eerste te worden genoemd, dat van Bloemfontein, het tweede dat van Caledonsrivier, en het derde dat van Winberg.

Elk van deze districten zal worden verdeeld in Veldkommandantschappen en Veldkornetschappen, de kizing van personen tot deze diensten zal geschieden door de meerderheid van het volk, waarover zy het gezag zullen uitoefenen.

De Commissie zal vervolgens elke plaats registreren—de bevolking van de bevolking opnemen—bekend stellen de grootte van de plaats—en, volgens de waarde van het land, het bedragen der erfchaptpenningen bepalen, van twee tot acht ponden per jaar, hetgeen zal worden beschouwd als het minimum en maximum der belastingen.

Dit geschied zynde, zal de Commissie in het bezit worden gesteld van gedrukte vormen van den volgende inhoud:—
De plaats van ———— thans geoccupeerd door ———— is uitgegeven aan ———— tegen een erfchap van £ ———— per jaar; en dit zal zyn erfgrondbrief zyn en regt van bezit, tot dat eene opmeting zal zyn geschied en een meer formeel document aan hem is uitgereikt.

Geteekend ————

Wanneer de inboorlingen klachten intebrengen hebben omtrent land, of omtrent eenig ander onderwerp, zal de Land-Commissie zoodanige klage nauwkeurig onderzoeken, en stellig en onduidelzinnig uitspraak doen. Zoodanige uitspraak zal beslissend zyn.

De Burgers worden herinnerd, dat zy nu hunne landeryen hebben, uithoofde van de overeenkomsten, welke met vele meere zyn getroffen tusschen Harer Majesteits Hoogen Commissaris en de Inlandsche Opperhoofden, van Harer Majesteits bevestiging, en met op een huur contract van 40 jaren, zoo als voorheen, onder uitdrukkele voorwaarden, van erfchaptpenningen te betalen, door het Collegie vastgesteld, en "dat elke weerbare naam tot verdediging van Harer Majesteits en hare belangen uittrekt, hetzy met wapenen dan wel als speciale constabels, zoo als door den Britschen Resident en de Magistralen zal worden gevorderd.

De Britsche Resident, Magistralen, en Land Commissie moeten wel verstaan, dat zy in dit grondgebied geplaatst zyn onder het oppergezag van Harer Majesteit, tot geen ander doel, dan om den staat van het volk, inboorlingen zoowel als christenen, te verbeteren; zy zullen, door middel van de Inlandsche Opperhoofden alle bezwaren, na een zachtmoedig en geduldig verhoor, uit den weg ruimen. Een ieder moet gelykelyk worden beschermd, dan ook zal een ieder dat wederkeurig nut trekken, waartoe een staat van eendragt, eensgezindheid en vrede, alleen leiden en bereiken kan. Bestaanbaarheid, rondborstigheid en opregtheid van doel aan den kant der Magistralen, en hun gedrag regelende naar de groote daadzaak, dat hun stand, toegenegenheid en inschikelykheid, zoowel als nauwgezetheid en vastheid in hunne besluiten vordert, welke ondubbelzinnig en duidelyk te verstaan moeten zyn, is de gedragsregel, welke krachtadig opgevolgd, achtung, vertrouwen en goede trouw, in alle klassen der maatschappy, in hunne onderscheidene districten zullen bevorderen. Wat ook in hun omgang met het volk mogt voorkomen nuttig te zyn voor de maatschappy (zy behooren niemands gevoelen met verachting van zich te werpen) zullen zy, door middel van den Britschen Resident aan den Hoogen Commissaris voordragen, op wiens pogingen tot het welzyn van een ieder, zy zich verlaten kunnen, als den vertegenwoordiger van onzen Genadigen Souverein.

Deze zyn de schetsen van een stelsel, hetwelk zichzelve tot ryphed zal brengen—zullende in deszelfs behoeften worden voorzien, naarmate zy zich voordoen: maar hoe minder hetzelfde gebonden is aan regtsgeleerde kunstneren en uitvlugten, des te eenvoudiger is het, van hier des te verstaanbaarder en beter berekend voor eene ontlukkende maatschappy.

Naarmate dit stelsel zich ontwikkelt, zullen er markten worden opgericht te Bloemfontein, Winberg en aan de Caledonsrivier. Er zal eene werkelyksche Post opgericht worden van Colesberg over Bloemfontein en Winberg, met een tak naar Caledonsrivier, over den Draakberg naar Pietermaritzburg en Port Natal. De Magistraats Klerken zullen als Postmeesters ageren.

Er zullen kweektuinen worden opgericht in elk district; zynde tuinzaden, vruchten en boomen voor timmerhout, in grooten aanvraag: Deze tuinen eens daargesteld, zullen zichzelf moeten onderhouden; de maatschappy zal daarna voor dezelve met geene kosten mogen worden belast.

Men verwacht dat de erfchaptpenningen en licentien voor handelaars, een bedrag £5000 tot £10.000 per jaar zal opleveren. De kosten van het Gouvernement zullen zyn:—

Zyne Excellentie verlangt niet dat de bestaande Grenzen, hetzy van Veldkornetschappen, Districten, of Afdeelingen, in eenige mate het algemeene of private getak zullen be- lemmeren, zynde het eenige verlangen van het Gouverne- ment in het bepalen der limiten, het bevorderen van het gemak der Ingezetenen, door het verkorten, zooveel als mogelyk is, van de Afstanden welke zy moeten reizen om zich voor eenen Civilen Commissaris of Resident Magistraat te begeven.

Gemak van toegang, ontstaande uit het afzyn van Geberkten of andere wezenlyke hinderpalen, te gelyk met digtheid van bevolking, op eenige byzondere plek, zal altyd behoorlyk worden in aanzien genomen in het bepalen van Grenzen van Districten of Afdeelingen, daar het op- vallend moet zyn dat personen die het naaste wonen aan den naasten Magistraat, in sommige gevallen minder on- geryf zouden lyden, door een grooter afstand te reizen naar eenen meer verwyderden, dan in het overkomen van g ooter hinderpalen om den naasten te bereiken.

By Order of His Excellency
Her Majesty's High Commissioner,
(Signed) RICHARD SOUTHEY, Secretary.

MANIFESTO.

WHEREAS some evil-minded Persons, prone to wickedness, to mischief, and to evil ways, have been in the Territory beyond the Orange River over which I have proclaimed the Sovereignty of Her Majesty; have been calling meetings to pervert the true spirit and meaning of my Proclamations of the 3d and 10th February; and have been assuming the characters of my Agents to gain the will of the people for the purposes of wicked excitement; and have been showing my signature to the Proclamation of the 3d February, professing it to be a document containing far different sentiments from the reality;—I deem it my duty to publish an explanation of the motives which have induced me to establish a Government over deluded, disappointed, and dissatisfied men, who have expatriated themselves from the Land of their Fathers—from the homes which reared them—from relatives and friends, with whom their social intercourse contributes to their happiness,—from their Pastors, their Churches, and consequently their God. Many of these men, indeed the majority, are personally known to me,—their hospitality I have received in their former comfortable homes and good houses,—their services I have admired when in the field under my command against a common enemy. These bonds of affection, which originated in 1835—6, have subsequently been cemented by various events. I was invited from within the Colony and from beyond the Orange River, to see the condition of these my friends; and to devise some measures to bring them back to social comforts, to harmony and confidence in one another, to their Church, and to their neglected God, who teaches us to gather together in prayer and thankfulness to Him. I established, under the blessing of Divine Providence, I trust a lasting peace with the Gaika and T'Slambie Kaffirs, and in 54 days from my landing I was among my old friends, who had thus invited Colonel Smith to see their condition and to ameliorate it. I was received every where with unmistakable marks of affection, with addresses, rejoicings, firings, and every demonstration of delight. Upon one occasion about thirty assembled near the Drakenberg, and after receiving me with every expression of personal regard, told me they had been endeavouring to establish a Government of their own, and hoped to succeed. We parted in amity. I had not proceeded two miles when several followed me, assuring me such was not the voice of half the number. They depicted their state of misery from want of Churches and Laws, declared that they had not seen a Church for ten years, they could neither marry their daughters nor bury their dead, that their Children were uneducated, and that they should become ignorant Barbarians, and Slaves to the Black Natives, who had Missionaries, Schools, and Chapels, while they were totally unprovided. They stated, with tears in their eyes, that they feared to speak before one another, that there was no mutual confidence, no reliance upon one another's actions. I told one of the party a leading part of what I proposed to do. He begged me to delay issuing the Proclamation until some meetings in contemplation should have taken place. I said, "Very well, I shall not do it until I have seen your great guide." Upon my seeing him, he urged upon me to issue it, promising to explain that he recommended it, as it would strengthen his hands to induce all to a system of rule; and the equity of the Land Question was such it carried conviction with it. If he did so he has acted up to his word; if he did not he has deceived both you and me.

You have indeed had no Government for years, are you happier? Are you richer? Are you better Christians? You are miserable, you are paupers, the half of you ruined. You are receding from your Faith, with no ministers of the Holy Gospel to consult and to confide in; while your brothers, your cousins, your friends, under a just and free Government, are happy and con-

Op last van Zyne Excellentie de Hooze Commissaris, (Get.) RICHARD SOUTHEY, Secretaris.

MANIFEST, OF OPENBARE VERKLARING.

ADEMAAL er eenige boosaardige personen, geneigd tot snoodheid, ondeugd, en kwaadgezindheid, in het Landgebied aan de overzyde van de Oranje Rivier, over hetwelk ik de Souvereiniteit van Hare Majesteit heb geproclameerd, geweest zyn;—byeenkomsten hebben gehouden om de ware bedoeling en meening van myne Proclamatien van den 3 en 10 February te verdraaijen; en hebben voorgegeven myne Agenten te zyn om de neiging van het volk te gewinnen tot einden van kwaade opwekking; en myne naamteekening onder de Proclamatie van den 3 February hebben aangevozen, voorgevende dat dezelve een Document is dat gevoelens geheel verschillend van de ware behelst;—acht ik het myn pligt een uitleg te publiceren vande beweegredenen welke my noopten om een Gouvernement daartestellen over misleide, teleurgestelde, en misnoegde menschen, die uit het Land hunner Vaders zyn uitgeweken,—de woningen daar zy in groot geworden zyn hebben verlaten,—afgescheiden van bloedverwanten en vrienden, de gezellige omgang met wien strekte tot hun geluk,—van hunne leeraars, hunne kerken, en gevolgelyk ook hun God. Velen dezer menschen, inderdaad, de meeste hunner, zyn my persoonlyk bekend,—hunne gastvryheid heb ik gesmaakt in hunne vorige genoegelyke huisgezinnen en goede woningen;—hunne diensten heb ik met bewondering gade geslagen wanneer zy onder myn bevel in het veld waren tegen eenen almeenen vyand. Deze banden van toegenueghheid, welke in 1835-6, ontstaan zyn, zyn naderhand door verschillende gebeurtenissen versterkt geworden. Ik ben genoodigd geworden van binnen de Kolonie en van de andere zyde van de Oranje Rivier, om te zien in welken staat myne vrienden zich bevinden, en eenige middelen te beramen om hen tot den gezelligen kring terug te brengen, tot eensgezindheid en vertrouwen in elkander, tot hunne Kerk, en tot hunnen verwaarloosden God, die ons leert te zamen te vergaderen in den gebede en dankzering tot Hem. Ik heb, onder den zegen des Allerhoogsten, zoo ik vertrouw eenen bestendigen vrede hersteld met de Gaika en T'Slambie Kafferstammen, en in 54 dagen sedert myne aankomst was ik onder myne oude vrienden, die aldus Kolonel Smith hadden verzocht om hunnen toestand te komen bezien en denzelven te verbeteren. Ik ben overal ontvangen geworden met de allerduidelijkste blyken van toegenueghheid, met adressen, verheugingen, salutschoten, en alle betooningen van blydschap. Op eene zekere gelegenheid zyn omtrent dertig personen naby Drakenberg te zamen gekomen, en na my met alle betooning van persoonlyk respect ontvangen te hebben, maakten zy my bekend dat zy getracht hadden hun eigen Gouvernement daartestellen, en hoopten daarin te zullen slagen. Wy scheidden in vriendschap. Ik had naauwelyks twee mylen afgelegd, wanneer verscheiden my navolgden, en my verzekerden dat zulks niet de stem van de helft van hun getal was. Zy schilderden den staat van ellende in welken zy verkeerden uit gebrek aan Kerken en Wetten; verklaarden dat zy in geen tien jaren eene Kerk hadden gezien; zy konden hunne dochters niet getrouwd krygen noch hunne dooden begraven; dat hunne kinderen zonder opvoeding blyven; en dat zy onkundige Barbaren en Slaven van de Zwarte Natien zouden worden, die Zendingen, Scholen, en Kerken hadden, terwyl zy van alles ontbloot waren. Zy verklaarden, met betraande oogen, dat zy bevreesd waren om in elkanders byzyn te spreken, want er bestond geen wederkerig vertrouwen, en men kon niet op elkanders handlewyze staat maken. Ik maakte aan een hunner bekend de voornaamste zaken welke ik voornemens was te verrigten. Hy verzocht my de uitvaardiging der Proclamatie te vertragen tot dat eenige byeenkomsten welke bestemd waren, zouden zyn afgeloopen. Ik zeide, "Zeer wel, ik zal het niet doen voor dat ik uw groote leidsman zal gezien hebben." Toen ik hem zag, spoorde hy my aan om dezelve uittevaardigen, beloofde dat hy zoude verklaren dat hy zulks aanbevolen had, daar het zyne handen zoude versterken om alle tot een stelsel van regeringsvorm te bewegen; en de billykheid van de Land questie was zoodanig, dat zy overtuiging met zich voerde. Indien hy zulks gedaan heeft, dan heeft hy zyn woord bevestigd; indien hy zulks niet gedaan heeft, dan heeft hy beide u en my bedrogen.

Gy hebt inderdaad sedert jaren geen Gouvernement gehad. Zyt gy gelukkiger? zyt gy ryker? zyt gy betere Christenen?—Gy zyt ellendig, gy zyt armen, den helft uwer zyn geruineerd. Gy wykt af van uw geloof, zonder leeraars om mede te raadplegen of in te vertrouwen; terwyl uwe broeders, uwe neven, uwe vrienden, onder een regtvaardig en vry Gouvernement, tented, are shipping wool and corn, selling valuable horses, sheep, and cattle; and enjoying all the blessings a good conscience effects, and Civilisation and Christianity ensure—going to their church on a Sunday with their elegant spans of Horses and Wagons, with their happy wives and children,—while your Sundays are spent in your miserable huts,—not the good houses you were reared in,—wretched and unhappy,—your manly and truly good hearts desiring a state of things, the wicked endeavour to thrust from your grasp; but which they shall not.

I shall now proceed to lay before you and the world, the motives which have actuated me, comprised in two words,—“your benefit.” You have called on me to assist you, I have done so,—vide my Proclamations of the 3rd of February and the 8th of March, in which last I have endeavoured, clearly, distinctly, and unequivocally, to set forth the Government calculated to render you—what you are not now—happy.

The ill-disposed have endeavoured to pervert facts—to startle the credulous—to alarm the timid—and to excite all to aid their own restless and uncontrollable dispositions. First, then, let us consider the practical effect of my paternal feelings for your welfare, for the satisfaction of your friends and relations within the Colony, who so desire to see you preserved in civilization, with a home to dwell on, a school for your children, and a church for you to pray in.

By the Treaties and Arrangements entered into in February 1845, between Sir Peregrine Maitland and Adam Kok, and other Native Chiefs occupying the Territories North of the Great Orange River, it was settled “that all agreements entered into by British Subjects residing in that Territory, with Natives, for the purchase of Land, should be of non-effect, or be held to be only the lease of the said Land for forty years, at the expiration of that period, the land with all improvements should revert to the original proprietors without any remuneration to the farmer for buildings, &c., and that all Lands held on leases of shorter dates, should on the expiration of the lease revert to the Natives on the same conditions.

That a certain portion of the Land then occupied by British Subjects between the Orange River and a Branch of the Riet River, called the “Kromelembog Spruit,” should be termed “Unalienable Territory,” and which, as the leases fall in, should not be re-let, but the occupants quit those places, and retire without the line of demarcation, the Riet River.

That portion of the Territory North and East of the Kromelembog Spruit, should be termed “Alienable Territory,” which the Natives might, if they chose, at the termination of the current leases, re-let at such exorbitant rates as they might fix, so that as leases expired the Natives could raise the rents according to the increased value of the property caused by the labour and expenditure of the Farmers upon it, and without making any payment for such labour and expenditure, notwithstanding the Farmer, during the existence of the lease, was obliged to pay quitrents, one half of which went to the Natives! A state of things most unsatisfactory to all parties, was the cause of constant quarrels and dissensions, and the Farmer felt himself an outcast, and subject to the will of uncivilized men.

This state of doubt and uncertainty has immediately changed by my visit; a fresh agreement entered into with Captain Adam Kok, the Farmer holds his Lands upon a first and indisputable right from Her Majesty of England, for which, you all know, you, at the time, shed tears of gratitude, and called down blessings upon me.

I have taken you from your King, Captain Kok, and the Great Chiefs whose Serfs you were, holding your Land on insecure tenure, and in constant apprehension of being turned off.—Was this right for a manly Africander? Have I not rescued you from so degrading, so uncertain, a state?

Thus do you hold your Lands in perpetuity in Captain Adam Kok's Country. I then entered into engagements with the great Chiefs Moshesh, Morokko, Moletsani, Sikonyella, &c. They rejoiced in what I proposed, and every Burgher now holds his Lands on the Faith of Her Majesty and from no Native whatever; while protection is afforded to the white man as well as to the black.

My every act has been the study of your benefit, the desire to place in your own hands, to every practicable extent, the governing of yourselves by yourselves. You are to choose your own Field-Commandants, your own Field-Cornets, you are to have one of yourselves upon the Land Commission, you are to give your free opinion to the Magistrates whom I place among you, that I may hear your wants, desires, and wishes, with the sole view of supplying them. Every fraction of the Revenue, arising from the trifling Quintents demanded of you, is for your benefit, for your rule, for your Schools, for your Churches, for your God. You go to bed at night returning thanks to the Omnipotent Protector of all,—“This is my home, my own undisputed home, home, sweet home;—my wife will be protected, my children educated, my devotion ensured, markets will be established for my worldly benefit.” You sleep the sleep of happiness, for God is with you. You rise in the morning; and with devotional effusion of gratitude, ere you proceed to your daily labour, you see your wife and your children around you without fear or trembling, without doubt or uncertainty. Excitement is succeeded by content, and the voice at first whispers,—“We thank our old friend Colonel Smith for what he has done.” Shortly the voice loudly exclaims,—“Smith is our Governor; he it is who has induced us to rule ourselves under his fostering care; we thank him as our Governor.”

What have I done for your Countrymen in Natal, part of Her Majesty's dominions? I found them wandering, they knew not whither, from their homes, their standing crops, and their excellent gardens cultivated by their own hands; their wives, and children, and flocks, and herds exposed to the miseries of a rainy season. I took such steps as to ensure their return to their comfortable homes; and I appointed the man who has great influence with you one of a Land Commission, the result of the labours of which would ensure the great point,—undisputed right of possession of your Land.

Pause then, I pray you, my friends, ere you allow wicked agitators to excite you to permit your well-disposed minds to drive peace, happiness, and

gelukkig en te vrede zyn, wol en koorn afscheppen, kostbare paarden, schapen en vee verkoopen, en alle zegeningen genieten welke een goed geweten opleveren, en beschaving en godsdienst daarstellen, 's Zondags naar u Kerk gaan met hunne fraaije spannen paarden en wagens, met hunne vergenoegde vrouwen en kinderen, terwijl uwe Zondagen doorgebracht worden in uwe ellendige hutten, niet in de goede huizen waarin gy opgevoed zyn, maar woest en onvergenoegd, uwe mannelyke en waarlyke goede harten begeren een staat van zaken welke de kwaadgezinde buiten uw bereik trachten te stellen, doch hetgeen zy niet zullen doen.

Ik zal nu overgaan om voor u en de wereld de beweegredenen open te leggen die my hebben bestuurd, toen ik de twee woorden gebruikte “uw voordeel.” Gy hebt tot my geroepen om u te helpen: dit heb ik gedaan; zie myne Proclamatie van den 3den February, en 8sten Maart, waarin ik getracht heb duidelyk, klaar, nadrukkelyk, en ondubbelzinnig te doen verstaan, dat het gouvernement ten doel had om u te maken, hetgeen gy thans niet zyt,—namelyk, gelukkig.

De kwalijkgezinden hebben getracht de waarheid te verdraaijen, den ligtgeloovigen te verschrikken, den vreesachtigen te beangstigen, en allen aan te sporen om behulpzaam te zyn in hunne eigene rusteloze en onbetwistbare geneigdheden. Laat ons dan ten eerste de werkdadige uitkomst overwegen van myne vaderlyke gevoelens tot uwe welvaart, ter voldoening van uwe vrienden en betrekkingen binnen de kolonie, die zoo zeer begeren u bevestigd te zien in de beschaving, met een huis om in te wonen, een school voor uwe kinderen, en eene kerk om in te bidden.

Door de Tractaten en Schikkingen gemaakt in February 1845, tusschen Sir Peregrine Maitland en Adam Kok, en andere plaatselyke Opperhoofden, in bezit van de Landstreken ten Noorden van de Oranje Rivier, werd bepaald, “dat alle overeenkomsten gemaakt tusschen Britsche Onderdanen in die landstreken woonachtig en Inboorlingen, voor het koopen van Land, van geene kracht zouden wezen, of gehouden zullen worden slechts eene verhuuring te zyn van het gez. Land voor veertig jaren, na verloop waarvan, het land, met al de verbeteringen, terug zoude vallen op de oorspronkelyke eigenaren, zonder eenige vergoeding aan den boer voor gebouwen, enz., en dat alle landeryen voor een korten tyd verhuurd, na verloop van het huurcontract, zouden terug vallen op de Inboorlingen onder dezelfde voorwaarden.

Dat een zeker gedeelte van het land, toen bewoond door Britsche Onderdanen tusschen de Oranje Rivier en de Tak van de Riet Rivier, genaamd de “Kromelleboog Spruit” genoemd zoude worden “Onvervreemdbaar Grondgebied,” hetwelk, nadat de huurcontracten zyn verlopen, niet weder moesten worden verhuurd, maar de bewoners de plaatsen moesten verlaten, en zich zoude begeven buiten de bepaalde linie—de Riet Rivier.

Dat gedeelte van de landstreek ten noorden en oosten van de Kromelleboog Spruit moest genoemd worden “Vervreemdbaar Grondgebied,” hetwelk de Inboorlingen, indien zy zulks verkozen, na verloop van de onvolbrachte huurcontracten, wederom konden verhuren voor zulke buitensporige pryzen als zy mogten bepalen; zoo dat de Inboorlingen, na elk verloop van een huurcontract, de huurpryzen konden verhoogen volgens de vermeerderde waarde van het eigendom, veroorzaakt door den arbeid en uitgaaf der boeren op hetzelfde, en zonder iets te betalen voor zoodanigen arbeid en uitgaaf, niet tegenstaande dat gedurende het bestaan des huurcontracts verplicht was de Erfpacht te betalen, de helft waarvan de Inboorlingen kregen!—deze staat van zaken zeer ongenoeglyk voor alle partyen, was de oorzaak van vele twisten en verdeeldheden, en de boer gevoelde zich een verworping, en onderworpen aan den wil van onbeschaafde menschen.

Deze staat van twyfel en onzekerheid is dadelyk veranderd door myn bezoek; eene nieuwe overeenkomst werd gemaakt met Adam Kok; de Boer behoudt zyn land met een eerst en onbetwistbaar regt, van Hare Majesteit van Engeland, waarvoor, zoo als gy allen weet, gy, te dier tyd, tranen van dankbaarheid stortet, en de zegen des hemels voor my afsmeektet.

Ik heb u afgenomen van uwen koning Kapitein Kok en de groote Opperhoofden, wiens knechten gy waart, uw land onder een onzeker regt bezittende, en u eenige gedurige vrees van verjaagd te worden. Was dit regt voor eenen mannelyke Afrikaander? Heb ik u niet gered uit zulk eene verlagende, zulk eenen onzekeren toestand

Op deze wyze blyft gy uw land bezitten in eenwigdurendheid, in het grondgebied van Adam Kok. Ik heb toen onderhandelingen gemaakt met de groote Opperhoofden Moshesh, Morokko, Moletsani, Sikonyella, enz. Zy verheugden zich in hetgeen ik voorstelde, en ieder burger bezit nu zyn land onder de trouw van Hare Majesteit en van geen Inboorling hoegenaamd; terwijl bescherming wordt verleend zoowel aan blanken als aan zwarten.

Elk myner daden was eene ernstige overdenking van uw voordeel, eene begeerte om, zoo verre als het doenlyk was, u te laten regeren door uzelf. Gy hebt de magt uw eigene Veld commandanten te kiezen, uw eigen Veldkornetten,—een van u moet eene plaats hebben in de Land-Commissie, gy moet uw gevoelens openlyk aan den dag leggen aan de Magistraten die ik onder u plaats, opdat ik uwe ontberingen, begeerten, en wenschen moge hooren, met het eenig oogmerk, om dezelve te vervullen. Iedere penning van de Inkomsten, voortspruitende uit de Erfpacht van u geeischt, is tot uw voordeel, tot uwe regering, tot uwe scholen, tot uwe kerken, tot uwen God. Gy gaat des avonds naar bed, den almachtige beschermder der wereld dankende,—“Dit is myn huis, myne eigene onbetwiste woning, hier ben ik te huis, hoe aangenaam! myne vrouw zal worden beschermd, myne kinderen opgevoed, myne godsdienst gevestigd,—markten zullen worden opgericht tot myn tydelyk voordeel.” Gy slaapt de slaap des geluks, want God is met u. Gy staat op in den morgen en met eene godsverheerlykende uitstorting van dankbaarheid, ziet gy, voor dat gy naar uwen dagelykschen arbeid begint, uwe vrouw en uwe kinderen om u heen zonder vrees of beving, zonder twyfel of onzekerheid. Opgewondenheid wordt door tevredenheid opgevolgd, en ten eerste fluistert de stem “Wy zegen onze oude vriend Colonel Smith dank voor hetgeen hy gedaan heeft,” Niet lang duurt het of de stem roept luidkeels uit:—“Smith is onze Gouverneur; hy is het die ons aangespoord heeft onszelfen te regeren, onder zyne minzame zorg; we danken hem als onze Gouverneur.”

Wat heb ik voor uwe landgenooten gedaan te Natal, een gedeelte van Hare Majesteits Bezittingen? Ik vond hen dwalende, zy wisten niet waarheen, van hunne woningen, hun oningeoogste producten, hunne uitmuntende tuinen die zy met hunne eigene handen hebben bearbeid, hunne vrouwen, hunne kinderen, en kudden en vee blootgesteld aan de ellende van een regenachtig jaargety. Ik nam zulke maatregelen welke hunne gerydlyke woningen konden verzekeren; en ik stelde eenen man die veel invloed onder u heeft aan als een van de Land Commissie, de uitslag van welker arbeid de verzekering moest daarstellen van die groote zaak,—onbetwist regt van de bezittingen uws lands.

Stu dan stil, bid ik u, myne vrienden, voor dat gy u door aanhangers laat opwinden, om uwe, ten goede geneigde gemoederen, toe te laten, vrees, geluk, comforts, now within your grasp, from your doors. What object had I in wandering, an exile as it were, among you; when duty commanded me to repair to the seat of Government, where my services were so much required, in travelling hundreds of miles and living in a wagon, but that of endeavouring to do good to old friends who required one to show himself to them? On my return your Countrymen poured down blessings on my head for my exertions in your behalf. Are such devoted acts for your welfare, are your own interests, to be cast aside? Is your future prospect of happiness, your future hope in Eternal Life, to be driven from you by wicked designers and ambitious men, who have their own ends alone to serve? Are your wives to be left in tears for your absence, or to be rendered widows, and are your children to be uneducated and homeless? Is base ingratitude to usurp the seat of reason?

The prosperity of a nation is materially dependent on a just system of Government and Finance,—the leading principles of which are, that every individual shall contribute to the maintenance of a Government in proportion to the property he possesses, to protect him from domestic tyranny or foreign aggression; and that every individual contributing a quota shall have a voice in regulating the scheme of his Government and the disbursement of the revenue.—I have given you this in every practicable form.

When at Winberg, on the presentation of an Address, I was asked for Soldiers;—I exclaimed "Soldiers! You around me are my Soldiers," meaning that peaceable Citizens are their own Soldiers, and require no military aid whatever. This expression has been perverted; and you have been taught to believe, not thinking for the moment, that I am to make you all Soldiers! For what? Because I love Peace, and require no military in my operations to carry out what I desire? Is not all Southern Africa the seat of Peace, without one drop of blood having been shed by my authority, or one blow struck? Am I the man to require soldiers for any ordinary purpose? But there are causes so sacred to the Lord and in the eyes of the world, as to demand military interference;—hence I have proclaimed that you hold your Lands subject to military service; and I do so for the sole purpose of providing for the time of need. But if you never load your firelock until I ask you, it may be turned into what all arms are best fitted for—Plough-shares.

Now, my friends!—my half lost friends and wavering christians! I have addressed you as Colonel Smith, I have appealed to your feelings as men, as fathers of families, as reasoning human beings possessing immortal souls. I have exerted myself to the extent of my abilities and my energies. I now turn from Colonel Smith to the Governor of this Colony;—and I PROCLAIM TO YOU that I will carry out, or die in the attempt, the provisions of the Proclamations I have framed for your exclusive benefit and by your own desire, and the factious demagogue shall tremble at that name which he even now respects, and for which you all so far, and wide, and loudly proclaimed your love. You well know I never forfeited my word. You well know, for many of you have served with me in the field, the velocity with which I wield the sword. Do not suppose that I have stripped myself of the means by sending home troops. I tell you, and tell you truly and honestly, I hold in readiness a force of guns, cavalry, and tried British Soldiers, who in fifteen days should be among you, men capable of causing stouter hearts than yours to quail. When I commanded you were brave; now! you have no head you dare confide in, your hearts are in the wrong place, your cause being unjust,—an ignorant, discontented few endeavouring to excite the many. Do you talk of resistance and assemblages,—you whom two years ago a few dragoons rode over like sheep? Do you presume to imagine that you are able to do what no mass of demagogues has ever yet done,—the undisciplined to resist, and successfully maintain a protracted resistance against, the disciplined force of a regular Government?

But oh! how I hate and detest the name of war and commotion! The many battle scenes I have witnessed arise like phantoms to my imagination. But as I abhor war, so will I terribly wield its power if you drive me from your affection. If you compel me to wield the fatal sword, after all I have attempted for you, the crime be upon your own heads; and while my Troops shall exult in Victory, I will weep, as you have seen me do, over the fallen, the defeated, the deluded; your lands shall be wrested from you, your houses destroyed, your herds swept off, your own hearts blackened by wicked ingratitude, and your faithful, your generous friend, who has exerted himself for your exclusive benefit, turned into the Avenger of Evil! You shall become like the Ishmaelites of old, "your hand shall be against every man, and every man's hand shall be against you." "Vengeance is mine," saith the Lord; and in His name, and for the benefit of His creatures, would I smite those I so love, and to whom I have so endeavoured to prove that I do so.

There are limits to the extent of the most virtuous feelings in this worldly and uncertain trial of Life. Aid me, as I desire you, to preserve them to us; and as in generous and uncorrupted minds the superiority of Religion carries us through the calamities of this transient life, let us together thus pray:—

Lord of all Power and Might, Disposer of all Things, good and evil, deign to look down upon us frail and sinful creatures; teach us who are our true friends, preserve and strengthen us in all the trials of temptation, defend us from the evil practices of wicked men, teach us to worship Thee with our hearts, our minds, our souls, devoted unto Thee through Jesus Christ; direct our hearts and our actions towards our neighbour; teach us so to live that our course in this life may lead us to Life Eternal; teach us to forgive our enemies and to love our friends; teach us after a peaceable life to look forward to that re-union in Heaven, the fountain of our hopes on Earth, the happy place of rest for our immortal souls. When we must put off the mortal garment, and lie down on the bed of Death, let us be at Peace with Thee Oh Lord, at Peace with the world, and at Peace with our own hearts!!! This grant us, O Lord, Our God Almighty, through Jesus Christ.—Amen.

en genoeglykheid, nu in uw bereik, van uwe deuren te dryven. Welk oogmerk had ik in het rondzwerven onder u, een balling als het ware, toen de pligt my gebod naar de zetel van het Gouvernement my te begeven, waar myne diensten zoo zeer werden vereischt, in het overreizen van honderden van mylen, en wonende in een wagen, dan een poging om aan oude vrienden goed te doen die slechts wenschten iemand te hebben die zich aan hen vertoonde? By myne terugkomst hebben uwe landgenooten zegeningen over myn hoofd geregend voor myn inspanningen tot uw welzyn. Moeten zulke toegewyde daden tot uw welzyn, moeten uwe eigene belangen ter zyde worden geworpen? Moet uwe toekomstige vooruitzichten van geluk, uwe hoop hiernamaals in het eeuwige leven, van u worden verwyderd door goddelooze ontwerpers en heerschzuchtige menschen, die slechts hunne eigene eind-oogmerken willen bereiken? Moeten uwe vrouwen in tranen worden gelaten voor uw afzyn, of weduwen worden gemaakt, en moeten uwe kinderen onopgevoed en huizeloos worden gelaten? Moet lage ondankbaarheid de zitplaats der rede in bezit nemen?

Toen ik te Winberg, by gelegenheid van het presenteren van een Adres, gevraagd werd om soldaten,—riep ik uit: "Soldaten! gy, rondom my, zyt myne Soldaten," daardoor te kennen gevende, dat vreedzame Burgers hunne eigene soldaten zyn, en geen militaire hulp hoegeenaamd noodig hebben. Deze uitdrukking is verdraaid geworden, en gy zyt geleid geworden te gelooven, voor de oogenblik niet bezinnende, dat ik van u allen soldaten wilde maken! Waarom? Omdat ik de vrede lief heb en geene krygsmagten noodig heb in myne handelingen om hetgeen ik begeer uit te werken? Is niet geheel Zuid Afrika de zetel van vrede zonder dat een druppel bloeds op myn gezag werd vergoten, of een slag is gedaan? Ben ik de man die soldaten voor een gewoon oogmerk vereischen zal? Maar er zyn oorzaken zoo heilig aan den Heer en in de oogen der wereld, dat zy de tusschenkomst van eene legermagt noodzakelyk maken;—hierom heb ik geproclameerd dat gy uwe landeryen behoudt, onderworpen aan de Burgerdienst; en ik doe zulks met het eene oogmerk om te zorgen voor den tyd van nood. Maar als gy nooit uw geweer laadt voor dat ik het van u begeer, kan hetzelfde worden veranderd in het geen alle wapenen het meest geschikt toe zyn—namelyk ploegscharen.

Nu mynen vrienden! myn half-verloren vrienden en aarzelande christenen! Ik heb u aangesproken als Kolonel Smith,—ik heb my beroepen op uwe gevoelens als menschen, als vaders van huisgezinnen, als redelyke menschelyke wezens, onsterfelyke zielen bezittende. Ik heb gedaan wat ik kon zoo ver myn vermogens en krachten my toelieten. Nu spreek ik tot u, niet meer als Kolonel Smith maar als de Gouverneur dezer Volkplanting, en ik PROCLAMEER AAN U, dat ik de voorzieningen van de proclamatie, die ik tot uw uitsluitelyk voordeel, en op uwe eigene begeerte heb vervaardigd, ten uitvoer zal brengen, of in de poging sneven zal. De twistzieke volkschreeuwer zal sidderen by den naam die hy nu zelfs eerbiedigt, en voor welk gy allen, wyd en zyd en luidkeels uwe gehechtheid hebt verklaart. Gy weet wel dat ik nooit myn woord heb verzaakt. Gy weet wel, want velen van u hebben met my in de oorlog gediend, de snelheid waarmede ik het zwaard hanteer. Denk niet dat ik my van de middelen beroofd heb door het naar huis zenden der troepen. Ik zeg u, en ik zeg het u als een oprecht en eerlyk man, ik houd een magt in gereedheid van kanonnen, ruitery, en beproefde Britsche soldaten, die binnen vyftien dagen onder u zullen zyn, mannen geschikt om stoutere harten dan de uwe te doen beven. Toen ik het bevel over u had, waart gy dapper; nu! hebt gy geen opperhoofd waarin gy vertrouwen stellen kunt, uwe harten zyn in de verkeerde plaats, omdat uwe zaak onregtvaardig is,—eenige weinige domme misnoegde menschen trachtende de menigte aan te bitsen. Spreekt gy van wederstand en byeenkomsten, gy, die twee jaren geleden door een klein getal dragonders als schapen omver gereden werd! Durft gy u verbeelden dat gy in staat zyt te doen, hetgeen eene menigte van oproermakende windzakken nimmer hebben kunnen doen,—de ongeoeffenden, de geoeffende legermagt van een geregeld Gouvernement, te wederstaan, en een langdurige wederstand voltehouden?

Dan ach, welk een afschuw heb ik zelfs voor den naam van oorlog en beroering. De vele veldslagen welke ik bygewoond heb, komen als schimmen voor mynen geest. Doch even als ik den oorlog haat, zal ik deszelfs verschrikkelyke kracht handhaven wanneer gy my van uwe toegenegenheid afscheid. Indien gy my noopt het noodlottige zwaard te zwaaien, na al hetgeen ik voor U beproefd heb, zoo blyve de misdaad op uw eigen hoofd; en hoewel myn troepen in triomf zullen juichen, zal ik wenen, gelyk gy my hebt zien doen, over de gevallen, de verslagenen, de misleiden,—uwe landen zullen u ontnomen worden; uwe huizen vernield, uwe kudden weggevaagd, uwe eigene harten zwartgeverwd door goddelooze ondankbaarheid; en uwe getrouwe, uwe edelmoedige vriend, die zich ten uwen behoeve heeft afgesloofd, veranderd in een wreker van het kwaad.—Gy zult worden gelyk de Ismaelieten van ouds, "uwe hand zal tegen elk man zyn, en elk mans hand zal tegen u zyn." "Wraak is de myne," zegt de Heere; en in zynen naam, en tot nut van zyne schepselen, zou ik hen tuchtigen, die ik zoo bemin, en wien ik getracht heb te bewyzen dat ik zulks doe.

Er bestaan grenspalen voor de deugdzaamste gevoelens in deze wereldsche en onzekere beproeving des levens. Komt my te hulp, gelyk ik u verzoek, om dezelve te bewaren; en zoo als in weldadige en onbedorvene harten, de verhevenheid van Godsdiens ons door moeiljkheden van dit voorbygaand leven voortvoert, laten wy te zamen bidden:—

Heer van alle Kracht en Magt, Beschikker van alle dingen, goed en kwaad, verwaardig U nedertezien op ons, zwakke en zondige Schepselen; leer ons wie onze ware vrienden zyn; bewaar en versterk ons in alle beproevingen en verzoekingen; behoed ons tegen de slechte daden van goddelooze menschen, leer ons U te aanbidden met onze harten, onze zinnen, onze zielen, U toegedaan door Jezus Christus; rigt onze harten en onze daden jegens onze naasten; leer ons alzoo te leven dat onze loop in dit leven ons brengen mag tot het eeuwige leven; leer ons onze vyanden te vergeven, en onze vrienden lief te hebben; leer ons, na een vreedzaam leven, uit te zien na die vereeniging in den hemel, de bron van onze hoop op aarde, de gelukkige plaats der rust voor onze onsterfelyke zielen.—Wanneer wy het sterfelyk kleed moeten afleggen, en op het doodsbed nederliggen, laten wy vrede hebben met u, o Heer! Vrede met de wereld, en vrede met onze eigene harten!!! Schenk ons dit, o Heer, onze Almagtige God, door Jezus Christus.—AMEN.

NOTICE.

*Government House, Cape Town,
27th March 1848.*

By Order of His Excellency Her Majesty's High Commissioner, RICHARD SOUTHEY.

Secretary.

(Copy.)

No. 11.
King William's Town,
March 16th, 1848.

His Excellency

The High Commissioner.

SIR,—Your Excellency has, probably, been made acquainted with the circumstances attending the murder of Mr. Ingram, at Grobbelaar's Kloof, near Graham's Town. As soon as I received intelligence of it, I lost no time in setting the two Divisions of the Kaffir Police at work to trace the Kaffirs who were said to have escaped; and, on hearing that a Kaffir who was killed on the occasion belonged to Sonto's tribe, I directed Mr. Brownlee to call on Sonto to use his endeavors to bring to light the accomplices in the murder.

Your Excellency will see, by the accompanying copy of a letter from Mr. Brownlee, that Sonto has delivered up Umbilini, a Kaffir, who acknowledges having been present at the period of the murder.

I have directed Mr. Brownlee to hand this man over to the Civil Power in the Colony, that he may be dealt with according to the law.

I have also directed Mr. Brownlee to convey to Sonto my approval of his conduct, and to state to him that I should not fail to bring it under Your Excellency's notice.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your Excellency's most obedient and humble Servant,

Colonel and Chief Commissioner.

Colonel MACKINNON.

SIR,—I have the honor to report, for your information, that Umbilini, of Sonto's tribe, and who escaped from Grobbelaar's Kloof, is now in custody at this place, having been brought in by Sonto.

Umbilini states that only one person was with him, namely Cele, the son of Khulu, that at the farm where Cele was shot, while he and Umbilini were opening the Kraal fence, Cele told him to sit down, and sat down himself, and Cele threw an Assagai.

Umbilini states, that simultaneously with Cele's throwing the Assagai, two shots were fired, and that he (Umbilini) did not throw an Assagai but ran off, and knows nothing further of what occurred.

From the nature of the case, and the excitement which it would create, I deemed it advisable to send off an express to report the apprehension of Umbilini, and to obtain instructions as to what is to be done with him.

I have requested Mr. Davies to put heavy Irons on him, and to keep him strictly guarded until I hear from you.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
CHARLES BROWNLEE,
Assist. Gaika Commissioner.

No. 12.

His Excellency

The High Commissioner.

SIR,—I have the honor to report, that Vonya and Malawana, Counsellors of Kreili, arrived here on the 17th Instant, with a message from that Chief, to the effect that he was desirous of making compensation to the Missionary, the Revd. Mr. Gladwyn, and to the Government Agent, Mr. W. Fynn, who were stationed at Butterworth, previous to the last War (in 1846) for the destruction of their Property at that place.

Vonya is the Counsellor who has been employed by Kreili in all communications with us since your Excellency's arrival, and may be regarded as the faithful interpreter of his sentiments.

Previous to returning an answer to Kreili on this subject, I felt it to be my duty to ascertain from the messengers:—

1st. Whether Kreili distinctly understood that no demand had been made on him by your Excellency at the Meeting on the 7th January, or subsequently, at his interview with me, for compensation for the destruction of this property?

2d. Whether this offer was perfectly spontaneous on Kreili's part, or whether it arose from any communication which he had had with, or any suggestion which had been made to him by, Mr. Gladwyn or Mr. Fynn?

3rd. Whether he was aware of the value of the property, and was prepared to make compensation to so large an amount? (Mr. Gladwyn states the losses incurred by the Mission at £600, and Mr. Fynn estimates his loss at £150.)

4th. In what way he proposed to collect the tribute, and whether by coercion? That the Government would allow of no eating up, or of any force being used, either as regards his own People, or the Fingoes located near Butterworth.

The messengers stated in answer, "that Kreili perfectly understood that no demand had been made on him. That the offer was spontaneous on his part, and suggested itself to him on his hearing that your Excellency had alluded, at the meeting on the 7th January, to the destruction of this Property; and that it arose from his wish to show that he had not sanctioned it himself. That it had not been suggested to him by Mr. Gladwyn, or Mr. Fynn, that he himself mentioned it to them, but that they told him that the compensation would not be accepted without the sanction of the Government, and that he (Kreili) must himself apply to me for permission to make it. That Kreili was aware of the value of the property destroyed, and was prepared to make full compensation for it. That he would use no violence in so doing; but that he would assemble his people, a great many of whom were concerned in the destruction of this property, and would by persuasion induce them to give up cattle sufficient to raise the required sum. That his own brothers were those who were principally to blame. That he perfectly understood that the Government would sanction no violence or eating up to procure the compensation."

I desired the messengers to return to Kreili, and inform him that I would make your Excellency acquainted with his offer, and would send him an answer, either by messenger or through Mr. Fynn, on his return to Kreili's Country. That, in the mean time, no attempt must be made by him to collect any tribute for the purpose of compensation.

Whatever view your Excellency may take of this offer, and whether or not your Excellency may be disposed to allow compensation to be made by any Chief, who may of his own free will offer it, for the destruction of the property of the Missionaries or Government Agents during the war, I am persuaded that your Excellency will regard this offer of Kreili's as an unequivocal proof of his contrition for the part he took in the war, and of his desire to preserve peaceful relations with us for the future.

I have contented myself with referring the matter entirely to your Excellency's decision, and shall await instructions before I make any further communication to Kreili on the subject.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your Excellency's most obedient, humble servant,

Col. and Chief Commissioner.

Colonel MACKINNON,

&c. &c. &c.

SIR,—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 19th instant, reporting the message from Heili, and his desire to indemnify the Mission and Mr. Fynn for the losses his people so wantonly occasioned them, by burning the Mission, and destroying Mr. Fynn, the Resident's property. Your queries to Heili's messengers are very judicious; and I enclose a written message to Heili. I have too much confidence in your discretion to dictate the measures you are to adopt in conveying to Heili my acceptance of his voluntary act of repentance; and I rejoice to observe that the system I have entrusted to your conduct so gradually progresses towards an establishment of the desired order of things, which this act of Heili's, and of Sonto's discovering and at once giving up a murderer, so forcibly demonstrates.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,
(Signed) H. G. SMITH.

N.B.—Mr. Shaw, the Superintendent of the Wesleyan Missionaries, while he is much gratified with this spontaneous act of Heili's, strongly urges upon me the acceptance of his proffered indemnification;—a view in which, for many and obvious reasons, I fully and cordially concur.

The Chief HEILI.

The Inkosi Inkulu, Smith, has received from his brother, Colonel Mackinnon, his son Heili's message, desiring to indemnify the losses many of his wicked people occasioned the Mission and Mr. Fynn. Butterworth was, by bad men, destroyed, burnt, and pillaged—the property of these good men who went among Heili's people to preach the Word of Almighty God, and to make Heili and his people to be Christians and civilized like their brothers, the English;—and Fynn was the great friend of Heili. For such wicked acts my son Heili, of his own accord and good-will, and with a strong feeling of repentance, now comes forward to repair the evil, by paying for the losses occasioned. The sum is very large, £600 to the Mission and £150 to Mr. Fynn. This has been fully explained to my son Heili, who has promised to "eat up" no one, but to collect a portion of cattle from each of his people who were connected with these wicked acts of demolition of that house placed among them for their good.

My son Heili! twelve years ago I was your great friend, and as I grieved to hear you had been led away by bad advice into a wicked war, so do I now rejoice to see you repentant to man and, I hope, to God. This reparation my son so wisely desires to make, to show his people the wrong they have done, and his and their repentance, is, I hope, a great step towards my son becoming at once a "Christian." I pray you, therefore, to go to your Missionary, and say he must make you worship God as he, and I your father, and all good English people do. Then would you be happy,—then would your people follow your example,—then would Almighty God bless you,—your cattle would increase,—your fields be covered with houses and cultivation,—then would you bless the English through that great God Almighty who brought them among your people. Do this, my son, and you will live to thank your father, and to hope for eternal life and happiness hereafter.

(Signed) H. G. SMITH.

I have sent Fynn back to you, as you desire.

*Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
22nd March, 1848.*

WITH reference to the accompanying Minute of this day's date, which the Administrator of the Government has directed to be published for general information, respecting the improvement and future management of Gaols, Lock-up Houses, and Houses of Correction; His Excellency has been pleased to appoint the following Gentlemen to be Members of the General Board of Commissioners of Public Prisons:—

The Hon J. MONTAGU, Esq., Chairman.

CLERKE BURTON, Esq.,

WILLIAM HOPPE, Esq.,

The Rev. Dr. ADAMSON,

Dr. INNES.

By Command of His Excellency the Administrator of the Government,

(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

Government House, 22nd March 1848.

IN no department of the Government of this Colony does there exist a more urgent necessity for extensive and substantial improvement, than in Prisons and Prison Discipline.

Previous to the institution of the present system of Convict discipline in 1844, all sentences of imprisonment, either with or without hard labour, were carried out in the District Gaols and the Penal Establishment on Robben Island.

At that time my predecessor Sir George Napier thus remarks on the state of Prisons and Prison discipline:—"The present system does not only not contemplate, but by its very arrangements either neutralises or wholly counteracts that process of reformatory discipline, which is essential to the salutary exercise of Penal Justice,—a process, which while it strictly regards the extent and degree of punishment awarded for the offence committed, seeks, both on moral and political grounds, to rescue the delinquent from the power of vicious habits or degrading propensities, and aims to restore him, if possible, to society, prepared to resist its temptations from a higher motive than the dread of punishment consequent on crime."

No description of mine can more forcibly or truly depict the evils resulting from the state in which both Prisons and Prison discipline now are, than that I have just quoted.

And, although the system of Convict discipline instituted in 1844 has been attended with the most beneficial results, in respect to all Male Convicts sentenced to imprisonment with hard labour for periods exceeding three months, yet the evil remains in all its intensity as it regards those on whom its baneful influence is most to be deplored. I allude to female and untried prisoners, and to those convicted of petty offences and misdemeanours.

From the Returns annually made by the Resident Magistrates, it appears that there are in all twenty-three Gaols throughout the Colony. Were the principle of separation, now being extensively practised in the Gaols of England, adopted here, these Gaols would not be capable of accommodating more than 171 Prisoners; whilst, according to the practice that has hitherto obtained, they are reported as capable of containing 1235,—an amount wholly disproportionate to the average dimensions of the cells and the prison accommodation generally, if the ends for which a Prison is solely erected are kept in view, viz: safe custody, punishment, and reformation.

It further appears, as might naturally be inferred from the above statement, that no attempt at classification has ever been made, or could be, beyond the mere separation of the sexes, and that in some instances, but very imperfectly,—that the defective state of the Gaols in some Districts imposes the necessity of the nightly use of fetters, to ensure the safe custody of the Prisoners, whether untried or convicted,—and that air, exercise, and healthy employment form no part of the system. As a natural consequence. punishments for offences within the Prison have been frequent, in the shape of flogging, irons, and solitary confinement.

By Ordinance No. 24, 1847, entitled an Ordinance "for Improving the Gaols of the Colony," I have been vested with full powers under its provisions, to take such steps as may appear to me advisable for the improvement of the Colonial Prisons, for the due classification of the Prisoners, and for the establishment of such a system of Prison Discipline as appears best calculated not only to punish but to reform.

To effect this, I propose to place all Prisons Lock-up Houses, and Houses of Correction under the direction and control of a Board, to be called the General Board of Commissioners of Prisons. To this Board will be added Local Boards for the immediate inspection and supervision of the several Gaols, and for aiding the General Board in carrying out such measures of improvement as shall from time to time receive my sanction.

To the General Board will be committed the charge of administering the funds that are voted by the Legislative Council for the erection of new Gaols and the improvement of the old.

(Signed) H. G. SMITH.

PROCLAMATION

BY HIS EXCELLENCY LIEUTENANT GENERAL SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH,

Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Administrator of the Government of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice Admiral of the same; and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the Affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c. &c.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY LIEUTENANT GENERAL SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH.

Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Administrator of the Government of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice Admiral of the same; and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the Affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c. &c.

I hereby PROCLAIM, DECLARE, and MAKE KNOWN, that for the Government of the Territory between the Orange and Vaal Rivers, now under the Sovereignty of Her Majesty, as made known in my Proclamation of the Third day of February last, the system as follows will be pursued.

The British Resident, Major Warden, in the absence of the High Commissioner, is Paramount, and is the President-in-Chief of all Boards or Commissions, which may be formed for all, and whatever purposes.

The post of Major Warden as British Resident and Magistrate, will be Bloemfontein. A Civil Commissioner and Resident Magistrate, combined in one person, will be stationed at Wenberg, and one in the most eligible and populous neighbourhood of the Caledon River. These Civil Commissioners and Magistrates will have a Clerk and two constables attached to each, to issue and serve summonses, and to conduct criminals to Colesberg. No person of color is ever to be employed in conveying summonses, or in the execution of any point of law, nor are any of the military at present stationed at Bloemfontein, to be employed in matters of a civil nature.

The Civil Commissioners and Magistrates will collect the Quit-rents of their respective Districts, receive the Amounts to be derived from Licences to Traders, Fines, and Monies which may arise, as the Revenue of Her Majesty's Subjects beyond the Orange River; and will transmit to the High Commissioner Quarterly Accounts of such receipts and the disposal thereof, for publication in the English and Dutch Languages, that all may be acquainted with the state of the funds.

The Magistrates will keep a daily record of their proceedings, cases and decisions, and every three months a summary of the whole will be transmitted by the British Resident and other Magistrates direct to the High Commissioner, who will submit them to the Chief Justice or one of the Puisne Judges, for examination and comment, in order to insure a correct and uniform administration of justice.

The Civil Commissioners and Magistrates for Wenberg and the Caledon River, will proceed to their destination via Bloemfontein with the least possible delay, taking with them their clerks and constables; the latter they must endeavour to engage.

A Land Commission will be formed, consisting of the British Resident, as President-in-Chief; the Civil Commissioner and Magistrate of the District in which the Board is held, who will preside in the absence of the British Resident; two Land Surveyors; and one Burgher of the district elected by the people, as members; and the Clerk to the Magistrate of the District, in which the Commission are employed will act as Clerk to the Land Commission.

The first duty of this Commission is to divide the territory under the Sovereignty of Her Majesty, between the Great Orange and Vaal Rivers, into three districts; the first to be designated that of Bloemfontein, the second that of the Caledon River, the third that of Wenberg.

Each of these Districts to be divided into Field Commandants and Field-Cornets, the selection of persons for these duties, to be made by the majority of the people over whom they are to exercise authority.

The Commission will then register each farm,—take the census of the Population,—record the size of the farm,—and, according to the value of the land, fix the amount of Quit-rent, from two to eight pounds per annum, which are to be regarded as the minimum and maximum rates.

This done, the Commission will have in their possession printed forms to the following purport:—

"The farm of _____ now occupied by _____ is granted to _____ at a Quit-rent of £ _____ per annum; and this shall be his Title-deed and right of occupation until a survey be made, and a more formal document be furnished to him."

(Signed) _____

(To be signed by the President of the Commission.)

Whenever the Natives have a complaint to make as to land, or upon any other subject, the Land Commission will carefully investigate such complaint, and decide positively and unequivocally. Such decision shall be final.

The Burghers are reminded that they now hold their lands, owing to the arrangements which with much difficulty were entered into by Her Majesty's High Commissioner with the Native Chiefs, from Her Majesty in perpetuity, and not on a lease of 40 years as formerly, upon the express condition of paying a Quit-rent to be established by the Board, "and that every able-bodied man turns out in the defence of Her Majesty and her Allies, either with arms or as special Constables, as may be required by the British Resident and Magistrates."

The British Resident, Magistrates, and Land Commission will clearly understand they are placed in this Territory under the paramount authority of Her Majesty, for no other purpose than that of ameliorating the condition of the people, Native as well as Christians: they will, through the medium of the Native Chiefs, redress all grievances, after a mild and patient hearing. All must be equally protected, then all will derive that mutual benefit which a state of harmony, unanimity, and peace alone leads to and will attain. Consistency, plain dealing, and honesty of purpose on the part of the Magistrates, and guiding their conduct by the great fact that their position is one requiring benevolence and consideration, as well as promptitude and determination in their decisions, which must be unequivocal and clearly comprehensible, is the line of conduct which, if energetically pursued, will ensure respect, confidence, and good-faith in all classes of the Community within their respective Districts. Whatever their intercourse with the People induces them to consider would be beneficial to the community (they are to treat no man's opinion with contempt) they will propose, through the British Resident, to the High Commissioner, upon whose exertions for the welfare of all, they may depend, as the Representative of our gracious Sovereign.

These are the outlines of a system which will work itself into maturity,—its wants being supplied as they shew themselves; but the less it is shackled with legal technicalities and subtleties, the more simple it is; hence the more comprehensible, and better calculated for an infant Society.

As this system progresses, markets shall be established at Bloemfontein, Winberg, and on the Caledon River. A weekly Post is in progress from Colesberg via Bloemfontein and Winberg, with a branch to the Caledon River, across the Drakenberg, to Pietermaritzburg and Port Natal. The Magistrates' Clerks will act as Postmasters.

Nursery gardens shall be established in each District; garden seeds, fruit and timber trees being in great demand. These gardens, when once established, must support themselves; no expense to the community will thereafter be tolerated.

It is expected that the Quit-rents and Licences to Traders will realise from £5,000 to £10,000 a-year. The expense of Government will be—

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, Cape Town,
8th March 1848.

IT having been represented to the Administrator of the Government, that some Farms (or places) are attached to or form part of Divisions or Districts, which might be more conveniently made to form parts of adjacent Divisions or Districts, His Excellency has directed it to be notified, that any proprietor who may be inconvenienced from such a cause, is requested to communicate thereon to this Office, with a view to relief being afforded by the transfer of his place to an adjacent Division or District.

His Excellency does not wish existing boundaries, either of Fieldcornets, Districts, or Divisions, in any way to influence the general or individual convenience—the sole desire of the Government in fixing boundaries being, to promote the convenience of the inhabitants, by shortening as much as is practicable the distances they have to travel to attend upon a Civil Commissioner or Resident Magistrate.

Facility of access arising from the absence of Mountain Barriers or other material obstructions, equally with density of population, at any particular locality, will always be duly considered in defining boundaries of Divisions and Districts, since it must be obvious that persons residing nearer to the nearest seat of Magistracy would, in some cases, be less inconvenienced by travelling a greater distance to a more remote one, than by overcoming greater obstacles to reach the nearest.

By His Excellency's Command,

Secretary to Government.

A Letter having been received, by the Secretary to Government, from Captain LLOYD, R.N. Resident Magistrate of Port Elizabeth, relative to the Wreck of the Brig "Lady Leith," in which the loss of that Vessel is attributed to the passing between the Roman Rock and the shore; and as it appears that Mr. SALMOND, who sent to the assistance of the "Lady Leith," is of opinion, that the Roman Rock forms part of a Reef extending from the land, and spreading to a considerable distance in that neighborhood:—

SALE OF VALUABLE LANDED PROPERTY AND STOCK,

IN THE IMMEDIATE VICINITY OF THE TOWN OF SWELLENDAM.

Wednesday & Thursday
The 5th and 6th April 1848.

This fine Property consists of the delightful Residence and richly cultivated Estate of Rotterdam, measuring 586 acres of rich alluvial soil, bearing heavy crops of Grain, Potatoes, and every description of Vegetable Produce.

In rendering this pleasant Residence suitable for a Gentleman's Family, in enclosing the Lands and Gardens, and bringing a plentiful supply of Water for their irrigation, no expence has been spared by the present Proprietor, so that an intending Purchaser would enter under the most favorable circumstances. The DWELLING HOUSE is commodious, the Rooms spacious and lofty, with plank floors and excellent attics. It is surrounded by shady Oaks, Orange and other Fruit Trees. There is splendid Stabling for 20 Horses, Coach House, Smith's Work Shop, Shed, and numerous useful Out-buildings; also large Paddocks and inclosed Camps for young Horses, to the breeding of which the place is so remarkably well adapted.

ALSO, The very valuable adjoining Grazing and Arable Farm "BAKKER'S PLAATS," measuring 1,280 Acres, situated on the Banks of a magnificently broad reach of the Breede River, extending from near the Race Course of Swellendam to the junction of the Buffeljachs River. These banks are covered with fine timber and mimosa trees, affording abundance of wood for building purposes, fuel, and Tanner's Bark, always in demand. The Arable Land is of great extent and fertility, yielding large crops of Wheat, Barley and Oats, which may be carried at once from the field or thrashing floor to the daily market at Swellendam, being only one hour's ride.

There is a substantial Dwelling House, newly thatched, and Stable, situated near the River on the Property.

The vicinity of this Estate to the rising Town of Swellendam, possessing the advantages of Church in the Dutch and English Services, Market, the best medical aid, and means of instruction, must always insure its increasing value.

KAAPSTAD DEN 30STEN MAART 1848.

BERIGT.

Gouvernements Huis, 27 Mei 1848.

Zyne Excellentie de Hooge Commissaris heeft heeft goed gevonden de publicatie te gelasten van de volgende Documenten.

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. E. Hare Majesteits Hooger Commissaris, RICHARD SOUTHEY Secretaris.

No. 11. King Williams Town, 16 Maart 1848.

MYNHEER, — Uwe Excellentie is waarschijnlijk bekend gemaakt met de omstandigheden van de moord van den Heer Ingram, van Grobbelaars Kloof, naby Grahamstad. Zoo spoedig als ik het bericht had ontvangen heb ik geen tyd verzuimd om de beide Afdeelingen van de Kaffer Politie aan aan het werk te zetten, om de Kaffers na te sporen, die men zeide dat ontkomen waren, en hoorende dat een Kaffer die by die gelegenheid gedood is, behoorde tot Sontos Stam, gelastte ik den Hr. Brownlee zich naar Sonto te begeven, en te trachten de medeplichtigen in den moord aan het licht te brengen.

Uwe Excellentie zal zien uit de nevensgaande Copy van eenen Brief van den Hr. Brownlee, dat Sonto, Umbilini heeft opgegeven, een Kaffer die erkent dat hy tegenwoordig is geweest by het plegen van den moord.

Ik heb mede den Hr. Brownlee gelast dezen man over te geven aan de Civile magt in de Kolonie, om naar regten te worden behandeld.

Ik heb mede den Hr. Brownlee gelast aan Sonto myne goedkeuring van zyn gedrag te kennen te geven, en hem te zeggen, dat ik niet zal verzuimen hetzelfde ter kennis van uwe Excellentie te brengen.

Ik heb de eer te zyn,
Mynheer,
Uwer Excellencies zeer geboorname en Ootmoedige Dienaar, (Get.) GEO. MACKINNON.

RICHARD SOUTHEY.

Fort Cox, 15 Maart 1848.

Aan Kolonel MACKINNON.

Mynheer, — Ik heb de eer te rapporteren, ter uwer informatie, dat Umbilini, van Sontos stam, en die ontkomen is van Grobbelaars Kloof, nu alhier in hechtenis is, zynde ingebragt door Sonto.

Umbilini zegt, dat er maar een persoon by hem was, namelijk Cele, de zoon van Kulu; dat op de plaats waar Cele is doodgeschoten, terwyl hy en Umbilini de Kraal-deur openden, Cele hem zeide om neer te zitten, en zelf ging zitten, en toen de assagaai wierp.

Umbilini vermeld, dat op denzelfden tyd toen Cele de assagaai wierp, twee schoten werden gedaan, en dat by (Umbilini) geen assagaai had geworpen, maar weg gelugt was, en niets verder van het gebeurde wist.

Ik heb den Hr. Davies verzocht hem zwaar te kelen en hem strikt te laten bewaken, tot ik verder van u hoor.

Ik heb de eer te zyn,
Ued. ootmoedige Dienaar, (Get.) C. BROWNLEE.
Assistent Gaika Commissaris.

No. 12. King Williams Stad, 19 Maart 1848.

Aan Zyne Excellentie Den Hooge Commissaris.

MYNHEER, — Ik heb de eer te rapporteren dat Vonya en Malawaan, Raadsheeren van Kreili, alhier zyn aangekomen op den 17den, met eene boodschap van dat Opperhoofd, inhoudende dat hy verlangend was compensatie te maken aan den Zending, den Ferw. Heer Gladwyn, en aan den Gouvernements Agent den Heer Fynn, die voor des laaststen oorlog (in 1846) te Butterworth waren gestationeerd, voor de vernieling van hun Eigendom op die plaats. Vonya is de Raadsheer die door Kreili is geberigt geworden in alle communicatie met ons, en kan terecht worden beschouwd als de getrouwe tolk van Zyne gevoelens.

Voor ik een antwoord aan Kreili gaf op dit onderwerp, voelde ik het myn pligt van den bode te verzoeken:—

1. Of Kreili duidelijk verstaat dat geen aanvraag by hem gedaan is door Uwe Excellentie by de Byeenkomst van den 7den January, of onderhand by zyne conferentie met my, om vergoeding voor de vernieling van d't Eigendom.
2. Of dit aanbod volkomen vrijwillig was van de zyde van Kreili, of dat het ontstond uit eenige communicatie welke hy had gehad met, of eenige voordragt hem gedaan door den Heer Gladwyn of den Heer Fynn.

3. Of hy bekend was met de waarde van het Eigendom, en bereid was schadeloosstelling te geven tot zulk een

groot braden? (De Heer Gladwyn berekend de verliezen geleden door de Zending op £600; de Heer Fynn, begroot zijn verlies op £150)

4. (Op welke wyze hy voorstelt de som byeen te brengen, en of hy dwang? Dat het Gouvernement geen "opeten" zou toelaten, noch het gebruik van eenig geweld hetzigen zyn eigen volk, of tegen de Fingos naby Butterworth gevestigd.

De boodschappers zeiden in antwoord "dat Kreili volkomen verstond dat er geen aanvraag by hem gedaan was. Dat het aanbod vrijwillig was van zyne zijde, en zich aan hem had opgedaan toen Uwe Excellentie by de byeenkomst van den Tiden had gedooeld, op de vernieling van hun Eigenden; en dat het ontstond uit zyn verlangen om te toonen dat hy het niet zelf had goedgekeurd. Dat het niet aan hem was voorgesteld door den Hr. Gladwyn, of den Hr. Fynn, dat hy het zelf aan hem voordragen had, en dat zy hem gezegd hadden, dat geene compensatie zou worden aangeboden zonder de goedkeuring des Gouvernements, en dat hy (Kreili) zelf aansoek doen moest, om verlost te worden. Dat Kreili bekend was met de waarde van het vernield Eigendom, en bereid was er voldoening voor te geven. Dat hy daarin geen geweld zou gebruiken, maar dat hy zyn volk zou byeenbrengen waarvan velen betrokken waren, in de vernieling van het Eigendom, en dat hy hen door overreding zou overhalen om vee genoeg onder hen byeen te brengen. Dat zyn eigen Broeders diegene waren, die meest te laken waren. Dat hy volkomen begreep, dat het Gouvernement geen geweld of opeten zou toelaten, ten einde de vergoeding by en te brengen."

Ik verlangde de boodschappers terug te keeren naar Kreili, en hem te berichten, dat ik Uwe Excellentie zou bekend maken met zyn aanbod en hem een antwoord zenden, by bode of door den Hr. Fynn, op zynen terugtocht naar Kreilis land. Dat hy inmiddels geene poging doen moest om eenige schatting te heffen, voor het einde van compensatie.

Welk inzigt Uwe Excellentie nemen moge van dit aanbod, en hetzyl Uwe Excellentie al of niet gezind zy toetelaten dat vergoeding worde gedaan door eenig Opperhoofd, die het uit zyn eigen vryen wil zal aanbieden voor de vernieling van het eigendom van de Zendingen of Gouvernements Agenten, gedurende den oorlog, ben ik overtuigd dat Uwe Excellentie dat aanbod van kracht zal beschouwen, als een onduidelzinnig bewijs van zyn berouw over het deel dat hy genomen heeft in den oorlog, en van zyn verlangen om de vreedzame betrekkingen met ons in het vervolg te onderhouden.

Ik heb my vergenoegd met de zaak geheel aan Uwe Excellentie beslissing te laten, en zal wachten naar instructie voor ik eenige verdere communicatie zend aan Kreili, over dit onderwerp.

Ik heb de eer te zyn,

Mynheer,

Uwe Excellentie zeer gehoorzame en ootmoedige Dienaar,

(Get.) GEO. MACKINNON,
Kolonel en Hoofd Commissaris.

RICHARD SOUTHEY.

Gouvernements Huis, Kaapstad, 26 Maart 1848.
Kol. MACKINNON.

Mynheer, — Ik heb de eer de ontvangst te erkennen van uwen brief van den 19 dezer, rapporterende de Boodschap van Heili en zyn verzoeken om de Zendingen en den Hr. Fynn schadeloos te stellen voor de verliezen welke zyn volk, zoo baldadig hebben te weeg gebracht, door het verbranden van de Zending en het vernielen van het eigendom van den Heer Fynn, den Resident. Uwe vragen aan Heilis bode zyn zeer verstandig, en ik encloseer een schriftelyk antwoord aan Heili. Ik heb te veel vertrouwen op uwe discretie om u de maatregelen voor te schrijven welke gy nemen moet in het toezien aan Heili van wyne aanneming van zyne vrijwillige daad van berouw, en ik verheug my te zien dat het stelsel dat ik aan uw bestier heb toevertrouwd, zoo trapsgewys voortgaat, tot een daerstelling van de verhangende orde van zaken, welke deze daad van Heili, en dus ook ontdekken en dadelijk opgeven van den moordenaar, zoo duidelyk bewyzen.

Ik heb de eer te zyn,

Mynheer,

Uw gehoorzame Dienaar,

(Get.) H. G. SMITH.

N.B.—De Hr. Shaw, de Superintendent van de Wesleyanische Zendingen, terwijl hy zeer voldaan is met deze vrijwillige daad van Heili, dringt my ten sterksten aan, de aangeboden schadeloosstelling aan te nemen, een inzigt waarin ik om vele en klare redenen volkomen instem.

(Get.) H. G. SMITH.

Voor Copy conform,
RICHARD SOUTHEY.

Gouvernements Huis, Kaapstad,
26 Maart 1848.

Aan het Opperhoofd HEILI.

De Inkosi Inkulu, Smith, heeft van zynen broeder Kolonel Mackinnon de boodschap van zynen zoon Heili ontvangen, verlangende de verliezen te vergoeden, welke zyne booze lieden te weeg hebben gebracht aan de Zending van den Hr. Fynn. — Butterworth is door booze lieden vernield, verbrand en geplunderd — het eigendom van deze goede menschen die onder Heilis volk waren gegaan om hen het Evangelie van den Almachtigen te verkondigen, en om Heili en zyn volk tot Christenen te maken, en beschaafd te maken, is vernield. Voor zulke booze daden komt wyne zoon Heili uit zyn eigen vryen en goede wil, en met een krachtig getoel van berouw, nu vooruit, om het kwaad weder goed te maken, door het betalen van de schade. De som is zeer groot £600 aan de Zending en £150 aan den Hr. Fynn, dat is ten vollen verklaard aan wyne zoon Heili, die belooft niemand te zullen "opeten" maar een gril vee byeen te brengen van ieder van zyn volk, die in verband is geweest met deze booze daden van het vernielen van dat huis, daar geplaatst voor hun goet.

Myn zoon Heili! twaalf jaren geleden was ik uw grootvriend, en daar het my leed deed te hooren dat gy verleidi waart door slechten raad tot eenen boozen oorlog, zoo doet het my nu genoegen u berouwhebber te zien jegens den mensch, en, ik hoop, jegens God. Deze vergoeding welke myn zoon zoo wyselyk verlangt te maken, ten einde zyn volk het kwaad te doen zien dat het gedaan heeft, is, hoop ik, een groote stap voor mynen zoon om eens een "Christen" te worden. Ik bid u daarom om te gaan naar uwen Zending, en hem te zeggen, hy moet u God doen dienen, zoo als hy doet, en ik, uw vader, en alle goede Engelschen doen, — dan zoudt gy gelukkig zyn; dan zou uw volk uw voorbeeld volgen, dan zou de Almachtige God u zegenen, dan zou uw vee vermeerdere, uwe velden bedekt zyn met huizen en landbouw, dan zoudt gy de Engelschen zegenen door dien grooten Almachtigen God, die ben in uw midden heeft gebracht. Dor dit, myn zoon, en gy zult leven om uwen vader te danken, en te hopen op eeuwig leven en geluk hierna maals.

(Get.) H. G. SMITH.

Ik heb Fynn tot u terug gezonden, zoo als gy verlangt.

(Get.) H. G. SMITH.

PROCLAMATIE

DUOR ZYNE EXCELLENTIE LUIT-GENERAAL

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH

Baronet, Ridder Groot Kruis, van de Hoog-Edelen Orde van het Bad, Kolonel 2de Battalion Scherpschutters, Administrateur van het Gouvernement van de Kolonie de Knap de Goede Hoop, en den Ressort van dien, en Ordinaris, en Vice-Admiraal van dezelve; en Harer Majesteits Hooge Commissaris voor het afdelen en verheffen van de Zaken van het Grondgebied in Zuid Afrika, belendend aan en annex de Oostelyke en Noordelyke Grenzen van de gezegde Kolonie, enz. enz.

IK PROCLAMEER, VERKLAAR en MAAK BEKEND by deze, dat voor het Gouvernement van het grondgebied tusschen de Oranje en Vaalrivieren, thans onder het Oppergebied van Hare Majesteit, zoo als bekend is gemaakt in myne Proclamatie van den 3den Feb. li. het volgende stelsel zal worden opgevolgd: —

De Britsche Resident, Majoor Warden, is in de afwezigheid van den Hoogen Commissaris, het Hoofd, en is de President en Chef van alle Collegien of Commissien, die voor allen en welk doeleinde ook worden opgericht.

De post van Majoor Warden, als Britsche Resident en Magistraat, zal zyn te Bloemfontein. Een Civile Commissaris en Resident Magistraat, in een persoon vereenigd, zal gestationeerd worden te Winberg, en een in de geschikte en volkrykste nabuurschap van de Caledonsrivier. Deze Civile Commissarissen en Magistraten zullen hebben een klerk en twee gerechtsdienaars, aan elk hunner toegevoegd, om dagvaardingen uit te vaardigen en te exploiteeren en om gevangenen naar Colesberg overtebrengen. Geen persoon van kleur zal ooit worden gebezigt om te dagvaarden, of in de uitvoering van eenig punt des regts, ook zal geen militair, thans te Bloemfontein gestationeerd, in zaken van een civilen aard worden gebezigt.

De Civile Commissarissen en Magistraten zullen de Erfpachtpenningen van huize respectie districten i zamelen, het bedragen ontvangen, heenkomen de wegens licentie aan handelaars, boeten, en gelden, welke mogen voortspuiten als de inkomsten van Hare Majesteits onderdanen over de Oranjerivier, en zullen aan den Hoogen Commissaris, kwartaals rekeningen moeten overzenden van zoodanige ontvangsten, en de beschikking daarvan, om in het Engelsch en Hollandsch te worden gepubliceerd, opdat een ieder bekend moge worden met den staat der fondsen.

De Magstraten zullen een dagelyksche aantekening houden van hunne verrigtingen, zaken en besluiten, en alle drie maanden zal een kort verslag daarvan worden overgezonden door den Britschen Resident en andere Magistraten, regtsrecks naar den Hoogen Commissaris, die dezelve zal submittieren aan den Hoofd-Justicier of een der jongere Regters ter examinatie en aarmerking, ten einde eene juiste en eenparige uitoefening des regts te verzekeren.

De Civile Commissarissen en Magistraten voor Winberg en Caledonsrivier, zullen zoo spoedig mogelijk naar de plaats hunner bestemming vertrekken over Bloemfontein, met zich nemende hunne klerken en gerechtsdienaars, zullende zy laatsgemelde moeten trachten te engageren.

Er zal een Land-Commissie worden geformeerd, bestaande uit den Britschen Resident, als Opper-President, den Civile Commissaris en Magistraat van het district, alwaar de vergadering gehouden wordt, die voorzitten zal, by afwezigheid van den Britschen Resident, twee Landmeesters, en een burger van het district, door het volk gekozen, als leden, en de klerk van den Magistraat van het district, waar de Commissie gebezigt wordt, zal als klerk van de Land-Commissie ageren.

De eerste plegt van deze Commissie zal zyn, om het grondgebied onder het oppergezag van Hare Majesteit, tusschen de Grootte Oranje en Vaalrivieren, in drie districten te verdeelen, het eerste te worden genoemd, dat van Bloemfontein, het tweede dat van Caledonsrivier, en het derde dat van Winberg.

Eik van deze districten zal worden verdeeld in Veldkommandantschappen en Veldkornetschappen, de kiezing van personen tot deze diensten zal geschieden door de meerderheid van het volk, waarover zy het gezag zullen uitoefenen.

De Commissie zal vervolgens elke plaats registreren — de begrooting van de bevolking opnemen — bekend stellen de grootte van de plaats — en, volgens de waarde van het land, het bedragen der erfpachtpenningen bepalen, van twee tot acht ponden per jaar, hetgeen zal worden beschouwd als het minimum en maximum der heffingen.

Dit geschied zynde, zal de Commissie in het bezit worden gesteld van gedrukte vormen van den volgende inhoud: —

De plaats van — thans geoccupeerd door — is uitgegeven aan — tegen een erfpacht van £ — per jaar; en dit zal zyn erfgrondbrief zyn en regt van bezit, tot dat eene opmeting zal zyn geschied en een meer formeel document aan hem uitgereikt.

Geteekend

Wanneer de inboorlingen klagten intebrengen hebben omtrent land, of omtrent eenig ander onderwerp, zal de Land-Commissie zoodanige klagte nauwkeurig onderzoeken, en stellen en onduidelzinnig uitspraak doen. Zoodanige uitspraak zal beslissend zyn.

De Burgers worden herinnerd, dat zy nu hunne landeryen heuden, uithoofde van de overeenkomsten, welke met vele moeite zyn getroffen tusschen Harer Majesteits Hoogen Commissaris en de Inlandsche Opperhoofden, van Hare Majesteits eeuwige duren, en niet op een huur contract van 40 jaren, zoo als voorheen, onder uitdrukkelijke voorwaarden, van erfpachtpenningen te betalen, door het College vastgesteld, en "dat elke weerbare man tot verdediging van Hare Majesteits en hare bondgenooten uittrekt, hetzyl met wapenen dan wel als speciale constabels, zoo als door den Britschen Resident en de Magistraten zal worden gevorderd.

De Britsche Resident, Magistraten, en Land Commissie moeten wel verstaan, dat zy in dit grondgebied geplaatst zyn onder het oppergezag van Hare Majesteit, tot geen ander doel, dan om den staat van het volk, inboorlingen zoowel als christenen, te verbeteren; zy zullen, door middel van de Inlandsche Opperhoofden alle bezwaren, na een zachtmoedig en getuldig verhoor, uit den weg ruimen. Een ieder moet gelykelyk worden beschermd, dan ook zal een ieder dat wederkeerig nut trekken, waartoe een staat van eendragt, eensgezindheid en vrede, alleen leiden en bereiken kan. Bestaanbaarheid, rondvorsigheid en opregtheid van doel aan den kant der Magistraten, en hun gedrag regende naar de groote daadzaak, dat hun stand, toegenegenheid en inschikkelijkheid, zoowel is nauwgezetheid en vastheid in hunne besluiten vordert, welke onduidelzinnig en duidelyk te verstaan moeten zyn, is de gedragsregel, welke krachtigdadig opgevolgd, achtung, vertrouwen en goede trouw, in alle klassen der maatschappy, in hunne onderscheidene districten zullen bevorderen. Wat ook in hun omvang met het volk mogt voorkomen nuttig te zyn voor de maatschappy (zy behooren niemaands gevoelen met verachting van zich te werpen) zullen zy, door middel van den Britschen Resident aan den Hoogen Commissaris voordragen, op wiens pogingen tot het welzijn van een ieder, zy zich verlaten kunnen, als den vertegenwoordiger van onzen Genadigen Souverein.

Deze zyn de schetsen van een stelsel, hetwelk ziezelve tot rypheld zal brengen — zullende in dezelfde behoeften worden voorzien, naarmate zy zich voordoen; maar hoe minder hetzelfde gebouwen is aan regtgeleerde kunstlermen en uitlugten, des te eenvoudiger is het, van hier des te verstaanbaarder en beter berekend voor eene ontluikende maatschappy.

Naarmate dit stelsel zich ontwikkelt, zullen er markten worden opgericht te Bloemfontein, Winberg en aan de Caledonsrivier. Er zal een wekelyksche Post opgericht worden van Colesberg over Bloemfontein en Winberg, met een tak naar Caledonsrivier, over den Draakberg naar Pietermaritzburg en Port Natal. De Magistraats Klerken zullen als Postmeesters ageren.

Er zullen kweektuinen worden opgericht in elk district; zyde tuinzaden, vruchten en boomen voor timmerhout, in grooten aanvraag: Deze tuinen eens daargesteld, zullen ziezelve moeten onderhouden; de maatschappy zal daarna voor dezelve met geene kosten mogen worden belust.

Men verwacht dat de erfpachtpenningen en licentie voor handelaars, een bedragen £5000 tot £10 000 per jaar zal opleveren. De kosten van het Gouvernement zullen zyn: —

Zyne Excellentie verlangt niet dat de bestaande Grenzen, hetzy van Veldkornetschappen, Districten, of Afdeelingen, in eenige mate het algemeene of private gemak zullen belemmeren, zynde het eenige verlangen van het Gouvernement in het bepalen der limiten, het bevorderen van het gemak der Ingezeten, door het verkorten, zooveel als mogelijk is, van de Afstanden welke zy moeten reizen om zich voor eenen Civilen Commissaris of Resident Magistraat te begeven.

Gemak van toegang, ontstaande uit het afzyn van Gebirgen of andere wezenlyke hinderpalen, te gelyk met digtheid van bevolking, op eenige byzondere plek, zal altyd behoorlyk worden in aanzien genomen in het bepalen van Grenzen van Districten of Afdeelingen, daar het opvallend moet zyn dat personen die het naaste woen aan den naasten Magistraat, in sommige gevallen minder onperryf zouden lyden, door een grooter afstand te reizen naar eenen meer verwyderden, dan in het overkomen van grooter hinderpalen om den naasten te bereiken.

MINUTE.

Gouvernements Huis, den 22 Maart 1848.

In geene departementen van het Gouvernement dezer Kolonie bestaat er eene dringender noodzakelijkheid ter uitbreiding en stellige verbetering, dan in Gevangenen en Gevangenhuisacht.

Voor de daarstelling van het tegenwoordig stelsel van bandieten tucht in 1844, werden alle vonnissen tot gevangenschap, met of zonder dwang-arbeid, voltrokken binnen de districten gevangenen en het straf etablissement te Robben Eiland.

Destyds maakte myn voorganger Sir George Napier deze aanmerking over den staat van gevangenen en gevangenhuisacht:—"Het tegenwoordige stelsel beoogt niet alleen niet, maar vrydelst of werkt door dezelfde schikkingen dat beloop van hervormende tucht tegen, hetwelk onmisbaar is voor de heilzame uitoefening van strafrecht; een beloop hetwelk, terwijl het nauwkeurig let op de uitgestrektheid en de mate van opgelegde straf voor de gepleegde misdaden, zoo wel op zedelyke als staatkundige gronden, den misdadiger zoekt te ontwringen aan de magt van slechte gewoonte of vernederende eigenschappen; en streeft om hem, indien mogelijk, terug te geven aan de maatschappij, voorbereid om hare verleidingen te weerstaan uit een hooger beginsel dan de vrees voor straf welke misdadig achtervolgt."

Geene beschrijving door myzelven kan een krachtadiger of nauwkeuriger toelichting ophangen van het kwaad ontstaande uit den staat waarin gevangenen en gevangenhuisacht thans zyn, dan die, pas door my aangehaald.

En hoewel het stelsel van bandietentucht in 1844 daargesteld, vergezeld is gegaan van de aller voordeelste gevolgen in zigt tot alle mannelijke bandieten, govensid tot gevangenschap met dwangarbeid voor tyden drie maanden te bovengangende, blijft evenwel het kwaad in al dezels groothed heerschen, wat betreft diegenen op wien dezels schadelijken invloed het meest te betreuren is. Ik bedoel vrouwelyke en onveroordeelde gevangenen, en diegenen die van kleine misdaden en overtredingen zyn overtuigd.

Uit de jaarlyksche opgaven van Resident Magistraten blykt het dat er in het geheel 23 gevangenen in de Kolonie zyn. Indien het grondbeginzel van afzondering, in de gevangenen van Engeland zoo algemeen in zwang, alhier werd ingevoerd, zouden deze gevangenen niet meer dan 171 gevangenen kunnen geryven: teryl d-zelve, volgens de toelichting bestaande gewoonte, gezegd worden 1235 te kunnen bevatten—een getal geheel en al ongeveendredig aan de gemiddelde grootte der cellen en gevangenis geryf in het algemeen, indien men let op de eindel waartoe een gevangenis alleen is daargesteld, namllyk, veilige bewaring, straf hervorming.

Het blykt verder, gelyk natuurlyk uit bovenstaande opgave kan worden afgeleid, dat geene poging ter klassificatie immer is of kon worden gedaan, buiten de bloote afzondering arken, en dit, in alle gevallen, slechts ten deele;—de gebrekkige staat der gevangenen in eenige districten legt de noodzakelijkheid op om 's nachts gebruik te maken van kooijen ter verzekering van de gevangenen, hetz veroordeeld of niet—en d. l. lucht, beweging en gezonde bezigheid geen gedeelte van het stelsel uitmaken. Als een natuurlyk gevolg, zyn straffen binnen de gevangenis menigvuldig geweest, in de gedaante van geeseling, kettingen en eenzame opsluiting.

Door Ordonnantie, No. 24—1847, getituleerd eene Ordonnantie, "Ter verbetering van de Gevangenen in de Kolonie," ben ik niet volle magt bekled, onder derzelver voorzieningen, om zoodanige stappen te nemen, als my raadzam mogen voorkomen, ter verbetering der koloniale gevangenen, ter behoorlyke klassificatie van gevangenen, en ter daarstelling van gevangenis-tucht, als het best berekend zullen zyn niet alleen ter straffing maar ook ter hervorming.

Om dit te doen, stel ik voor, alle gevangenen en verbeteringen te stellen onder opzigt en beheer van een college, te worden genoemd het Algemeen College van Commissarissen van Gevangenen. By dit college zullen gewest worden plaatselyke collegien voor de onmiddelyke inspectie en toezigt over de onderscheidene gevangenen, en ter ondersteuning van het algemeen college in het uitvoeren van zoodanige maatregelen van verbetering als van tyd tot tyd door my zullen worden goedgekeurd.

Aan het Algemeen College zal worden opgedragen de zorg over de administratie der geldmiddelen welke door den Wygeveende Staat gestemd worden ter daarstelling van gevangenen en ter verbetering van de oude.

NOTICE.

Government House,
Cape Town, 29th March 1848.

By Order of His Excellency
Her Majesty's High Commissioner,
(Signed) RICHARD SOUTHEY, Secretary.

MANIFESTO.

WHEREAS some evil-minded Persons, prone to wickedness, to mischief, and to evil ways, have been in the Territory beyond the Orange River over which I have proclaimed the Sovereignty of Her Majesty; have been calling meetings to pervert the true spirit and meaning of my Proclamations of the 3d and 10th February; and have been assuming the characters of my Agents to gain the will of the people for the purposes of wicked excitement; and have been showing my signature to the Proclamation of the 3d February, professing it to be a document containing far different sentiments from the reality;—I deem it my duty to publish an explanation of the motives which have induced me to establish a Government over deluded, disappointed, and dissatisfied men, who have expatriated themselves from the Land of their Fathers—from the homes which reared them—from relatives and friends, with whom their social intercourse contributes to their happiness,—from their Pastors, their Churches, and consequently their God. Many of these men, indeed the majority, are personally known to me,—their hospitality I have received in their former comfortable homes and good houses,—their services I have admired when in the field under my command against a common enemy. These bonds of affection, which originated in 1835—6, have subsequently been cemented by various events. I was invited from within the Colony and from beyond the Orange River, to see the condition of these my friends; and to devise some measures to bring them back to social comforts, to harmony and confidence in one another, to their Church, and to their neglected God, who teaches us to gather together in prayer and thankfulness to Him. I established, under the blessing of Divine Providence, I trust a lasting peace with the Gaika and T'Slambie Kaffirs, and in 54 days from my landing I was among my old friends, who had thus invited Colonel Smith to see their condition and to ameliorate it. I was received every where with unmistakable marks of affection, with addresses, rejoicings, firings, and every demonstration of delight. Upon one occasion about thirty assembled near the Drakenberg, and after receiving me with every expression of personal regard, told me they had been endeavouring to establish a Government of their own, and hoped to succeed. We parted in amity. I had not proceeded two miles when several followed me, assuring me such was not the voice of half the number. They depicted their state of misery from want of Churches and Laws, declared that they had not seen a Church for ten years, they could neither marry their daughters nor bury their dead, that their Children were uneducated, and that they should become ignorant Barbarians, and Slaves to the Black Natives, who had Missionaries, Schools, and Chapels, while they were totally unprovided. They stated, with tears in their eyes, that they feared to speak before one another, that there was no mutual confidence, no reliance upon one another's actions. I told one of the party a leading part of what I proposed to do. He begged me to delay issuing the Proclamation until some meetings in contemplation should have taken place. I said, "Very well, I shall not do it until I have seen your great guide." Upon my seeing him, he urged upon me to issue it, promised to explain that he recommended it, as it would strengthen his hands to induce all to a system of rule; and the equity of the Land Question was such it carried conviction with it. If he did so he has acted up to his word; if he did not he has deceived both you and me.

BERIGT.

Gouvernements Huis, Kaapstad, 29 Maart 1848.

ZYNE Excellentie de Hooge Commissaris heeft goedgevonden te gelasten dat het volgende Manifest gepubliceerd worde.

Op last van Zyne Excellentie den Hooge Commissaris,
(Get.) RICHARD SOUTHEY, Secretaris.

NADEMAAL er eenige boosaardige personen, geneigd tot snoodheid, ondeugd, en kwaadgezindheid, in het Landgebied aan de overzyde van de Oranje Rivier, over hetwelk ik de Souvereiniteit van Hare Majesteit heb geproclameerd, geweest zyn;—byeenkomsten hebben gehouden om de ware bedoeling en meening van myne Proclamatien van den 3 en 10 February te verdraaijen; en hebben voorgegeven myne Agenten te zyn om de neiging van het volk te gewinnen, tot einden van kwaade opwekking; en myne naamteekening onder de Proclamatie van den 3 February hebben aangegeven, voorgevende dat dezelve een Document is dat gevoelens geheel verschillend van de ware behelst;—acht ik het myn pligt een uitleg te publiceren van de beweegredenen welke my noopten om een Gouvernement daartestellen over misleide, teleurgestelde, en misnoegde menschen, die uit het Land hunner Vaders zyn uitgeweken,—de woningen daar zy in groot geworden zyn hebben verlaten,—afgescheiden van bloedverwanten en vrienden, de gezellige omgang met wien strekte tot hun geluk,—van hunne leeraren, hunne kerken, en gevolgelyk ook hun God. Velen dezer menschen, inderdaad, de meeste hunner, zyn my persoonlyk bekend,—hunne gastvryheid heb ik gesmaakt in hunne vorige genoegelyke huisgezinnen en goede woningen;—hunne diensten heb ik met bewondering gade geslagen wanneer zy onder myn bevel in het veld waren tegen eenen algemeenen vyand. Deze banden van toegenueidheid, welke in 1835—6, ontstaan zyn, zyn naderhand door verschillende gebeurtenissen versterkt geworden. Ik ben genoodigd geworden van binnen de Kolonie en van de andere zyde van de Oranje Rivier, om te zien in welken staat myne vrienden zich bevinden, en eenige middelen te beramen om hen tot den gezelligen kring terug te brengen, tot eensgezindheid en vertrouwen in elkander, tot hunne Kerk, en tot hunnen verwaarloosden God, die ons leert te zamen te vergaderen in den gebede en dankzegging tot Hem. Ik heb, onder den zegen des Allerhoogsten, zoo ik vertrouw, eenen bestendigen vrede hersteld met de Gaika en T'Slambie Kafferstammen, en in 54 dagen sedert myne aankomst was ik onder myne oude vrienden, die aldus Kolonel Smith hadden verzocht om hunnen toestand te komen bezien en denzelven te verbeteren. Ik ben overal ontvangen geworden met de allerduidelijkste blyken van toegenueidheid, met adressen, verheugingen, salutschoten, en alle betooningen van blydschap. Op eene zekere gelegenheid zyn omtrent dertig personen naby Drakenberg te zamen gekomen, en na my met alle betooning van persoonlyk respect ontvangen te hebben, maakten zy my bekend dat zy getracht hadden hun eigen Gouvernement daartestellen, en hoopten daarin te zullen slagen. Wy scheidden in vriendschap. Ik had naauwelyks twee mylen afgelegd, wanneer verscheiden my navolgden, en my verzekerden dat zulks niet de stem van de helft van hun getal was. Zy schilderden den staat van ellende in welken zy verkeerden uit gebrek aan Kerken en Wetten; verklaarden dat zy in geen tien jaren eene Kerk hadden gezien; zy konden hunne dochters niet getrouwd krygen, noch hunne dooden begraven; dat hunne kinderen zonder opvoeding blyven; en dat zy onkundige Barbaren en Slaven van de Zwarte Natien zouden worden, die Zendelingen, Scholen, en Kerken hadden, terwyl zy van alles ontbloot waren. Zy verklaarden, met betraande oogen, dat zy bevreemd waren om in elkanders byzyn te spreken, want er bestond geen wederkerig vertrouwen, en men kon niet op elkanders handelwyze staat maken. Ik maakte aan een hunner bekend de voornaamste zaken welke ik voornemens was te verrigten. Hy verzocht my de uitvaardiging der Proclamatie te vertragen tot dat eenige byeenkomsten welke bestemd waren, zouden zyn afgeloopen. Ik zeide, "Zeer wel, ik zal het niet doen voor dat ik uw groote leidsman zal gezien hebben." Toen ik hem zag, spoorde hy my aan om dezelve uittevaardigen, beloofde dat hy zoude verklaren dat hy zulks aanbevolen had, daar het zyne handen zoude versterken om alle tot een stelsel van regeringsvorm te bewegen; en de billykheid van de Land questie was zoodanig, dat zy overtuiging met zich voerde. Indien hy zulks gedaan heeft, dan heeft hy zyn woord bevestigd; indien hy zulks niet gedaan heeft, dan heeft hy beide u en my bedrogen.

Gy hebt inderdaad sedert jaren geen Gouvernement gehad. Zyt gy gelukkiger? zyt gy ryker? zyt gy betere Christenen?—Gy zyt ellendig, gy zyt armen, de helft uwer zyn geruineerd. Gy wykt af van uw geloof, zonder leeraars om mede te raadplegen of in te vertrouwen; terwyl uwe broeders, uwe neven, uwe vrienden, onder een regtvaardig en vry Gouvernement

You have indeed had no Government for years, are you happier? Are you richer? Are you better christians? You are miserable, you are paupers, the half of you ruined. You are receding from your Faith, with no ministers of the Holy Gospel to consult and to confide in; while your brothers, your friends, your friends, under a just and free Government, are happy and con-

ented, are shipping wool and corn, selling valuable horses, sheep, and cattle; and enjoying all the blessings a good conscience effects, and Civilisation and Christianity ensure—going to their church on a Sunday with their elegant spans of Horses and Wagons, with their happy wives and children,—while your Sundays are spent in your miserable huts,—not the good houses you were reared in,—wretched and unhappy,—your manly and truly good hearts desiring a state of things, the wicked endeavour to thrust from your grasp; but which they shall not.

I shall now proceed to lay before you and the world, the motives which have actuated me, comprised in two words,—“your benefit.” You have called on me to assist you, I have done so,—vide my Proclamations of the 3rd of February and the 8th of March, in which last I have endeavoured, clearly, distinctly, and unequivocally, to set forth the Government calculated to render you—what you are not now—happy.

The ill-disposed have endeavoured to pervert facts—to startle the credulous—to alarm the timid—and to excite all to aid their own restless and uncontrollable dispositions. First, then, let us consider the practical effect of my paternal feelings for your welfare, for the satisfaction of your friends and relations within the Colony, who so desire to see you preserved in civilization, with a home to dwell on, a school for your children, and a church for you to pray in.

By the Treaties and Arrangements entered into in February 1845, between Sir Peregrine Maitland and Adam Kok, and other Native Chiefs occupying the Territories North of the Great Orange River, it was settled “that all agreements entered into by British Subjects residing in that Territory, with Natives, for the purchase of Land, should be of non-effect, or be held to be only the lease of the said Land for forty years, at the expiration of that period, the land with all improvements should revert to the original proprietors without any remuneration to the farmer for buildings, &c., and that all Lands held on leases of shorter dates, should on the expiration of the lease revert to the Natives on the same conditions.

That a certain portion of the Land then occupied by British Subjects between the Orange River and a Branch of the Riet River, called the “Kromelombog Spruit,” should be termed “Unalienable Territory,” and which, as the leases fall in, should not be re-let, but the occupants quit those places, and retire without the line of demarcation, the Riet River.

That portion of the Territory North and East of the Kromelombog Spruit, should be termed “Alienable Territory,” which the Natives might, if they chose, at the termination of the current leases, re-let at such exorbitant rates as they might fix, so that as leases expired the Natives could raise the rents according to the increased value of the property caused by the labour and expenditure of the Farmers upon it, and without making any payment for such labour and expenditure, notwithstanding the Farmer, during the existence of the lease, was obliged to pay quitrents, one half of which went to the Natives! A state of things most unsatisfactory to all parties, was the cause of constant quarrels and dissensions, and the Farmer felt himself an outcast, and subject to the will of uncivilized men.

This state of doubt and uncertainty has immediately changed by my visit; a fresh agreement entered into with Captain Adam Kok, the Farmer holds his Lands upon a first and indisputable right from Her Majesty of England, for which, you all know, you, at the time, shed tears of gratitude, and called down blessings upon me.

I have taken you from your King, Captain Kok, and the Great Chiefs whose Serfs you were, holding your Land on insecure tenure, and in constant apprehension of being turned off.—Was this right for a manly Africaner? Have I not rescued you from so degrading, so uncertain, a state?

Thus do you hold your Lands in perpetuity in Captain Adam Kok's Country. I then entered into engagements with the great Chiefs Moshesh, Morokko, Moletsani, Sikonyella, &c. They rejoiced in what I proposed, and every Burgher now holds his Lands on the Faith of Her Majesty and from no Native whatever; while protection is afforded to the white man as well as to the black.

My every act has been the study of your benefit, the desire to place in your own hands, to every practicable extent, the governing of yourselves by yourselves. You are to choose your own Field-Commandants, your own Field-Cornets, you are to have one of yourselves upon the Land Commission, you are to give your free opinion to the Magistrates whom I place among you, that I may hear your wants, desires, and wishes, with the sole view of supplying them. Every fraction of the Revenue, arising from the trifling Quitrents demanded of you, is for your benefit, for your rule, for your Schools, for your Churches, for your God. You go to bed at night returning thanks to the Omnipotent Protector of all,—“This is my home, my own undisputed home, home, sweet home;—my wife will be protected, my children educated, my devotion ensured, markets will be established for my worldly benefit.” You sleep the sleep of happiness, for God is with you. You rise in the morning; and with devotional effusion of gratitude, ere you proceed to your daily labour, you see your wife and your children around you without fear or trembling, without doubt or uncertainty. Excitement is succeeded by content, and the voice at first whispers,—“We thank our old friend Colonel Smith for what he has done.” Shortly the voice loudly exclaims,—“Smith is our Governor; he it is who has induced us to rule ourselves under his fostering care; we thank him as our Governor.”

What have I done for your Countrymen in Natal, part of Her Majesty's dominions? I found them wandering, they knew not whither, from their homes, their standing crops, and their excellent gardens cultivated by their own hands; their wives, and children, and flocks, and herds exposed to the miseries of a rainy season. I took such steps as to ensure their return to their comfortable homes; and I appointed the man who has great influence with you one of a Land Commission, the result of the labours of which would ensure the great point,—undisputed right of possession of your Land.

Pause then, I pray you, my friends, ere you allow wicked agitators to excite you to permit your well-disposed minds to drive peace, happiness, and

gelukkig en te vrede zyn, wol en koorn afscheppen, kostbare paarden, schapen en vee verkoopen, en alle zegeningen genieten welke een goed geweten opleveren, en beschaving en godsdienst daargestellen, 's Zondags naar de Kerk gaan met hunne fraaije spannen paarden en wagens, met hunne vergenoegde vrouwen en kinderen, terwijl uwe Zondagen doorgebracht worden in uwe ellendige hutten, niet in de goede huizen waarin gy opgevoed zyt, maar woest en onvergenoegd, uwe mannelyke en waarlyk goede harten begeeren een staat van zaken welke de kwaadgezinde buiten uw bereik trachten te stellen, doch hetgeen zy niet zullen doen.

Ik zal nu overgaan om voor u en de wereld de beweegredenen open te leggen die my hebben bestuurd, toen ik de twee woorden gebruikte “uw voordeel.” Gy hebt tot my geroepen om u te helpen: dit heb ik gedaan; zie myne Proclamatiën van den 3den February, en 8sten Maart, waarin ik getracht heb duidelyk, klaar, nadrukkelyk, en onduidelzighig te doen verstaan, dat het gouvernement ten doel had om u te maken, hetgeen gy thans niet zyt,—namelyk, gelukkig.

De kwalijkgezinden hebben getracht de waarheid te verdraaijen, den ligt-geloovigen te verschrikken, den vreesachtigen te beangstigen, en allen aan te sporen om behulpzaam te zyn in hunne eigene rusteloze en ontembare geneigdheden. Laat ons dan ten eerste de werkdadige uitkomst overwegen van myne vaderlyke gevoelens tot uwe welvaart, ter voldoening van uwe vrienden en betrekkingen binnen de kolonie, die zoo zeer begeeren u bevestigd te zien in de beschaving, met een huis om in te wonen, een school voor uwe kinderen, en eene kerk om in te bidden.

Door de Tractaten en Schikkingen gemaakt in February 1845, tusschen Sir Peregrine Maitland en Adam Kok, en andere plaatselyke Opperhoofden, in bezit van de Landstreken ten Noorden van de Oranje Rivier, werd bepaald, “dat alle overeenkomsten gemaakt tusschen Britsche Onderdanen in die landstreken woonachtig en Inboorlingen, voor het koopen van Land, van geene kracht zonden wezen, of gehouden zullen worden slechts eene verhuur te zyn van het gez. Land voor veertig jaren, na verloop waarvan, het land, met al de verbeteringen, terug zoude vallen op de oorspronkelyke eigenaren, zonder eenige vergoeding aan den boer voor gebouwen, enz., en dat alle landeryen voor een korteren tyd verhuurd, na verloop van het huurcontract, zouden terug vallen op de Inboorlingen onder dezelfde voorwaarden.

Dat gedeelte van de landstreek ten noorden en oosten van de Kromellobog Spruit moest genoemd worden “Vervreemdbaar Grondgebied,” hetwelk de Inboorlingen, indien zy zulks verhozen, na verloop van de onvolbrachte huurcontracten, wederom konden verhuren voor zulke buitensporige pryzen als zy mogten bepalen; zoo dat de Inboorlingen, na elk verloop van een huurcontract, de huurpryzen konden verhoogen volgens de vermeerderde waarde van het eigendom, veroorzaakt door den arbeid en uitgaaf der boeren op hetzelfde, en zonder iets te betalen voor zoodanigen arbeid en uitgaaf, niet-tegenstaande de boer gedurende het bestaan des huurcontracts verplicht was de Erfpacht te betalen, de helft waarvan de Inboorlingen kregen!—een staat van zaken, zeer ongenoeglyk voor alle partijen, was de oorzaak van vele twisten en verdeeldheden, en de boer gevoelde zich een verworping, en onderworpen aan den wil van onbeschaafde menschen.

Deze staat van twyfel en onzekerheid is dadelyk veranderd door myn bezoek; eene nieuwe overeenkomst werd gemaakt met Adam Kok; de Boer behoudt zyn land met een eerst en onbetwistbaar regt, van Hare Majesteit van Engeland, waarvoor, zoo algy allen weet, gy, te dier tyd, tranen van dankbaarheid stortet, en den zegen des hemels voor my afsmeekt.

Ik heb u afgenomen van uren koning, Kapitein Kok, en de groote Opperhoofden, wiens knechten gy waart, uw land onder een onzeker regt bezittende, en in eene gedurige vrees van verjaagd te worden. Was dit regt voor eenen mannelyken Afrikaander? Heb ik u niet gered uit zulk eenen verlagenden, zulk eenen onzekeren toestand.

Op deze wyze blyft gy uw land bezitten in eenwigdurendheid, in het grondgebied van Adam Kok. Ik heb toen onderhandelingen gemaakt met de groote Opperhoofden Moshesh, Morokko, Moletsani, Sikonyella, enz. Zy verheugden zich in hetgeen ik voorstelde, en ieder burger bezit na zyn land onder de trouw van Hare Majesteit, en van geen Inboorling hoegenaamd; terwyl bescherming wordt verleend zoowel aan blanken als aan zwarten.

Elk myner daden was eene ernstige overdenking van uw voordeel, eene begeerte om, zoo verre als het doenlyk was, u te laten regeren door uzelf. Gy hebt de magt uw eigene Veld commandanten te kiezen, uw eigen Veldkornetten,—een van u moet eene plaats hebben in de Land-Commissie, gy moet uw gevoel openlyk aan den dag leggen aan de Magistraten die ik onder u plaats, opdat ik uwe ontheringen, begeerten, en wenschen moge hooren, met het eenig oogmerk, om dezelve te vervullen. Iedere penning van de Inkomsten, voortsdrutende uit de Erfpacht van u geeischt, is tot uw voordeel, tot uwe regering, tot uwe scholen, tot uwe kerken, tot uwen God. Gy gaat 's avonds naar bed, den almachtigen beschermder der wereld dankende,—“Dit is myn huis, myne eigene onbetwiste woning, hier ben ik te huis, hoe aangenaam! myne vrouw zal worden beschermd, myne kinderen opgevoed, myne godsdienst gevestigd,—markten zullen worden opgericht tot myn tydelijk voordeel.” Gy slaapt de slaap des geluks, want God is met u. Gy staat op in den morgen, en met eene godsverheerlykende uitstorting van dankbaarheid, ziet gy, voor dat gy u naar uwen dage yksehen arbeid begeeft, uwe vrouw en uwe kinderen om u heen zonder vrees of beving, zonder twyfel of onzekerheid. Opgewondenheid wordt door tevredenheid opgevolgd, en ten eerste fluistert de stem “Wy zeggen onze oude vriend Kolonel Smith dank voor hetgeen hy gedaan heeft.” Niet lang duurt het of de stem roept luidkeels uit:—“Smith is onze Gouverneur; hy is het die ons aangespoord heeft onszelf te regeren, onder zyne minzame zorg; wy danken hem als onze Gouverneur.”

Wat heb ik voor uwe landgenooten gedaan te Natal, een gedeelte van Hare Majesteits Bezittingen? Ik vond hen dwalende, zy wisten niet waarheen, van hunne woningen, hun oningeoogste producten, hunne uitmuntende tuinen die zy met hunne eigene handen hebben bearbeid, hunne vrouwen, hunne kinderen, en kudden en veetroepen blootgesteld aan de ellende van een regenachtig jaargety. Ik nam zulke maatregelen welke de terugkeering tot hunne geryfelyke woningen konden verzekeren; en ik stelde eenen man die veel invloed onder u heeft aan als een van de Land Commissie, de nitslag van welker arbeid de verzekering moest daargestellen van die groote zaak,—onbetwist regt van de bezittingen uws lands.

Sta dan stil, bid ik u, myne vrienden, voor dat gy u door aanhitzers laat opwinden, om uwe, ten goede geneigde gemoederen, toe te laten, vrede, geluk.

comforts, now within your grasp, from your doors. What object had I in wandering, an exile as it were, among you; when duty commanded me to repair to the seat of Government, where my services were so much required, in travelling hundreds of miles and living in a wagon, but that of endeavouring to do good to old friends who required one to show himself to them? On my return your Countrymen poured down blessings on my head for my exertions in your behalf. Are such devoted acts for your welfare, are your own interests, to be cast aside? Is your future prospect of happiness, your future hope in Eternal Life, to be driven from you by wicked designers and ambitious men, who have their own ends alone to serve? Are your wives to be left in tears for your absence, or to be rendered widows, and are your children to be uneducated and homeless? Is base ingratitude to usurp the seat of reason?

The prosperity of a nation is materially dependent on a just system of Government and Finance,—the leading principles of which are, that every individual shall contribute to the maintenance of a Government in proportion to the property he possesses, to protect him from domestic tyranny or foreign aggression; and that every individual contributing a quota shall have a voice in regulating the scheme of his Government and the disbursement of the revenue.—I have given you this in every practicable form.

When at Winberg, on the presentation of an Address, I was asked for Soldiers;—I exclaimed "Soldiers! You around me are my Soldiers," meaning that peaceable Citizens are their own Soldiers, and require no military aid whatever. This expression has been perverted; and you have been taught to believe, not thinking for the moment, that I am to make you all Soldiers! For what? Because I love Peace, and require no military in my operations to carry out what I desire? Is not all Southern Africa the seat of Peace, without one drop of blood having been shed by my authority, or one blow struck? Am I the man to require soldiers for any ordinary purpose? But there are causes so sacred to the Lord and in the eyes of the world, as to demand military interference;—hence I have proclaimed that you hold your Lands subject to military service; and I do so for the sole purpose of providing for the time of need. But if you never load your firelock until I ask you, it may be turned into what all arms are best fitted for—Plough-shares.

Now, my friends!—my half lost friends and wavering christians! I have addressed you as Colonel Smith, I have appealed to your feelings as men, as fathers of families, as reasoning human beings possessing immortal souls. I have exerted myself to the extent of my abilities and my energies. I now turn from Colonel Smith to the Governor of this Colony;—and I PROCLAIM TO YOU that I will carry out, or die in the attempt, the provisions of the Proclamations I have framed for your exclusive benefit and by your own desire, and the factious demagogue shall tremble at that name which he even now respects, and for which you all so far, and wide, and loudly proclaimed your love. You well know I never forfeited my word. You well know, for many of you have served with me in the field, the velocity with which I wield the sword. Do not suppose that I have stripped myself of the means by sending home troops. I tell you, and tell you truly and honestly, I hold in readiness a force of guns, cavalry, and tried British Soldiers, who in fifteen days should be among you, men capable of causing stouter hearts than yours to quail. When I commanded you were brave; now! you have no head you dare confide in, your hearts are in the wrong place, your cause being unjust,—an ignorant, discontented few endeavouring to excite the many. Do you talk of resistance and assemblages,—you whom two years ago a few dragoons rode over like sheep? Do you presume to imagine that you are able to do what no mass of demagogues has ever yet done,—the undisciplined to resist, and successfully maintain a protracted resistance against, the disciplined force of a regular Government?

But oh! how I hate and detest the name of war and commotion! The many battle scenes I have witnessed arise like phantoms to my imagination. But as I abhor war, so will I terribly wield its power if you drive me from your affection. If you compel me to wield the fatal sword, after all I have attempted for you, the crime be upon your own heads; and while my Troops shall exult in Victory, I will weep, as you have seen me do, over the fallen, the defeated, the deluded; your lands shall be wrested from you, your houses destroyed, your herds swept off, your own hearts blackened by wicked ingratitude, and your faithful, your generous friend, who has exerted himself for your exclusive benefit, turned into the Avenger of Evil! You shall become like the Ishmaelites of old, "your hand shall be against every man, and every man's hand shall be against you." "Vengeance is mine," saith the Lord; and in His name, and for the benefit of His creatures, would I smite those I so love, and to whom I have so endeavoured to prove that I do so.

There are limits to the extent of the most virtuous feelings in this worldly and uncertain trial of Life. Aid me, as I desire you, to preserve them to us; and as in generous and uncorrupted minds the superiority of Religion carries us through the calamities of this transient life, let us together thus pray:—

Lord of all Power and Might, Disposer of all Things, good and evil, deign to look down upon us frail and sinful creatures; teach us who are our true friends, preserve and strengthen us in all the trials of temptation, defend us from the evil practices of wicked men, teach us to worship Thee with our hearts, our minds, our souls, devoted unto Thee through Jesus Christ; direct our hearts and our actions towards our neighbour; teach us so to live that our course in this life may lead us to Life Eternal; teach us to forgive our enemies and to love our friends; teach us after a peaceable life to look forward to that re-union in Heaven, the fountain of our hopes on Earth, the happy place of rest for our immortal souls. When we must put off the mortal garment, and lie down on the bed of Death, let us be at Peace with Thee Oh Lord, at Peace with the world, and at Peace with our own hearts!!! This grant us, O Lord, Our God Almighty, through Jesus Christ.—Amen.

en genoeglykheden, nu in uw bereik, van uwe deuren te dryven. Welk oogmerk had ik in het rondzwerven onder u, een baling als het ware, toen de pligt my gebod naar de zetel van het Gouvernement my te begeven, waar myne diensten zoo zeer werden vereischt; in het overreizen van honderden van mylen, en wonende in een wagen; dan een poging om aan oude vrienden goed te doen die slechts wenschten iemand te hebben die zich aan hen vertoonde? By myne terugkomst hebben uwe landgenooten zegeningen over myn hoofd geregend voor myne inspanningen tot uw welzyn. Moeten zulke toegewyde daden tot uw welzyn, moeten uwe eigene belangen ter zyde worden geworpen? Moet uwe toekomstige vooruitzichten van geluk, uwe hoop hiernamaals in het eeuwige leven, van u worden verwyderd door goddelooze ontwerpers en heerschnuchtige menschen, die slechts hunne eigene eind-oogmerken willen bereiken? Moeten uwe vrouwen in tranen worden gelaten voor uw afzyn, of weduwen worden gemaakt, en moeten uwe kinderen onopgevoed en huizeeloos worden gelaten? Moet lage ondankbaarheid de zitplaats der rede in bezit nemen?

De voorspoed cener natie is byzonder afhankelijk van een regtvaardig stelsel van Regering en Financie, de voornaamste grondbeginselen van welke zyn, dat elk persoon iets zal bydragen ter onderhouding van het Gouvernement, in evenredigheid tot het eigendom dat hy bezit, om hem voor plaatselyke dwingelandy of vreemden aanval te beschermen; en dat ieder persoon die iets bydraagt een stem zal hebben in het regelen van de plannen van zyn Gouvernement, en het beschikken van de Inkomsten. Ik heb u dit in iedere uitvoerbare wyze gegeven.

Toen ik te Winberg, by gelegenheid van het presenteren van een Adres, gevraagd werd om soldaten,—riep ik uit: "Soldaten! gy, rondom my, zyt myne Soldaten," daardoor te kennen gevende, dat vreedzame Burgers hunne eigene soldaten zyn, en geen militaire hulp hoegenaamd noodig hebben. Deze uitdrukking is verdraaid geworden, en gy zyt geleid geworden te gelooven, voor de oogenblik niet bezinnende, dat ik van u allen soldaten wilde maken! Waarom? Omdat ik de vrede lief heb en geene krygsmagten noodig heb in myne handelingen om hetgeen ik begeer uit te werken? Is niet geheel Zuid Afrika de zetel van vrede, zonder dat een druppel bloeds op myn gezag werd vergoten, of een slag is gedaan? Ben ik de man die soldaten voor een gewoon oogmerk vereischen zal? Maar er zyn oorzaken zoo heilig aan den Heer en in de oogen der wereld, dat zy de tusschenkomst van eene legermagt noodzakelyk maken;—hierom heb ik geproclameerd dat gy uwe landeryen behoudt, onderworpen aan de Burgerdienst; en ik doe zulks met het eene oogmerk om te zorgen voor den tyd van nood. Maar als gy nooit uw geweer laadt voor dat ik het van u begeer, kan hetzelfde worden veranderd in het geen alle wapenen het meest geschikt toe zyn—namelyk ploegscharen.

Nu myne vrienden! myne half-verloren vrienden, en aarzelande christenen! Ik heb u aangesproken als Kolonel Smith,—ik heb my beroepen op uwe gevoelens als menschen, als vaders van huisgezinnen, als redelyke menschelyke wezens, onsterfelyke zielen bezittende. Ik heb gedaan wat ik kon zoo ver myn vermogens en krachten my toelieten. Nu spreek ik tot u, niet meer als Kolonel Smith, maar als de Gouverneur dezer Volplanting, en ik PROCLAMEER AAN U, dat ik de voorzieningen van de Proclamatie, die ik tot uw uitsluitelyk voordeel, en op uwe eigene begeerte heb vervaardigd, ten uitvoer zal brengen, of in de poging sneven zal. De twistzieke volkschreeuwer zal sidderen by den naam die hy nu zelfs eerbiedigt, en voor welken gy allen, wyd en zyd en luidkeels uwe gehechtheid hebt verklaart. Gy weet wel dat ik nooit myn woord heb verzaakt. Gy weet wel, want velen van u hebben met my in de oorlog gediend, de snelheid waarmede ik het zwaard hanteer. Denk niet dat ik my van de middelen beroofd heb door het naar huis zenden der troepen. Ik zeg u, en ik zeg het u als een oprecht en eerlyk man, ik houd een magt in gereedheid van kanonnen, ruitery, en beproefde Britsche soldaten, die binnen vyftien dagen onder u zullen zyn, mannen geschikt om stoutere harten dan de uwe te doen beven. Toen ik het bevel over u had, waart gy dapper; nu! hebt gy geen opperhoofd waarin gy vertrouwen stellen kunt, uwe harten zyn in de verreerde plaats, omdat uwe zaak onregtvaardig is,—eenige weinige domme misnoegde menschen trachtende de menigte aan te hitsen. Spreekt gy van wederstand en byeenkomsten, gy, die twee jaren geleden door een klein getal dragonders als schapen omver gereden werd? Durft gy u verbeelden dat gy in staat zyt te doen, hetgeen eene menigte van oproermakende windzakken nimmer hebben kunnen doen,—de ongeoeffenden, de geoeffende legermagt van een geregeld Gouvernement te wederstaan, en een langdurig wederstand volthouden?

Dan ach, welk een afschuw heb ik zelfs voor den naam van oorlog en beroering. De vele veldslagen welke ik bygewoond heb, komen als schimmen voor mynen geest. Doch even als ik den oorlog haat, zal ik deszelfs verschrikkelijke kracht handhaven wanneer gy my van uwe toegenegenheid afscheidt. Indien gy my noopt het noodlottige zwaard te zwaayen, na al hetgeen ik voor U beproefd heb, zoo blyve de misdaad op uw eigen hoofd; en hoewel myne troepen in triomf zullen juichen, zal ik wenen, gelyk gy my hebt zien doen, over de gevallen, de verslagenen, de misleiden,—uwe landen zullen u ontnomen worden; uwe huizen vernield, uwe kudden weggevaagd, uwe eigene harten zwartgeverwd door goddelooze ondankbaarheid; en uwe getrouwe, uwe edelmoedige vriend, die zich ten uwen behoeve heeft afgesloofd, veranderd in een wreker van het kwaad.—Gy zult worden gelyk de Ismaëlieten van ouds, "uwe hand zal tegen elk man zyn, en elk mans hand zal tegen u zyn." "Wraak is de myne," zegt de Heere; en in zynen naam, en tot nut van zyne schepselen, zou ik hen tuchtigen, die ik zoo hemin, en wien ik getracht heb te bewyzen dat ik zulks doe.

Er bestaan grenspalen voor de deugdzaamste gevoelens in deze wereldsche en onzekere beproeving des levens. Komt my te hulp, gelyk ik u verzoek, om dezelve te bewaren; en zoo als in weldadige en onbedorvene harten, de verhevenheid van Godsdienst ons door moeiljkheden van dit voorbygaand leven voortvoert, laten wy te zamen bidden:—

Heer van alle Kracht en Magt, Beschikker van alle dingen, goed en kwaad, verwaardig U nedertezien op ons, zwakke en zondige Schepselen; leer ons wie onze ware vrienden zyn; bewaar en versterk ons in alle beproevingen en verzoekingen; behoed ons tegen de slechte daden van goddelooze menschen, leer ons U te aanbidden met onze harten, onze zinnen, onze zielen, U toegedaan door Jezus Christus; rigt onze harten en onze daden jegens onze naasten; leer ons alzoo te leven dat onze loop in dit leven ons brengen mag tot het eeuwige leven; leer ons onze vyanden te vergeven, en onze vrienden lief te hebben; leer ons, na een vreedzaam leven, uit te zien na die vereeniging in den hemel, de bron van onze hoop op aarde, de gelukkige plaats der rust voor onze onsterfelyke zielen.—Wanneer wy het sterfelyk kleed moeten afleggen, en op het doodsbed nederliggen, laten wy Vrede hebben met u, o Heer! Vrede met de wereld, en Vrede met onze eigene harten!!! Schenk ons dit, o Heer, onze Almagtige God, door Jezus Christus.—AMEN.

NOTICE.

Government House, Cape Town,
27th March 1848.

HIS Excellency the High Commissioner has been pleased to direct the Publication of the following Documents

By Order of His Excellency Her Majesty's High Commissioner,
RICHARD SOUTHEY,
Secretary.

(COPY.)

No. 11.
King William's Town,
March 16th, 1848.

His Excellency
The High Commissioner.

SIR,—Your Excellency has, probably, been made acquainted with the circumstances attending the murder of Mr. Ingram, at Grobbelaar's Kloof, near Graham's Town. As soon as I received intelligence of it, I lost no time in setting the two Divisions of the Kaffir Police at work to trace the Kaffirs who were said to have escaped; and, on hearing that a Kaffir who was killed on the occasion belonged to Sonto's tribe, I directed Mr. Brownlee to call on Sonto to use his endeavors to bring to light the accomplices in the murder.

Your Excellency will see, by the accompanying copy of a letter from Mr. Brownlee, that Sonto has delivered up Umbilini, a Kaffir, who acknowledges having been present at the period of the murder.

I have directed Mr. Brownlee to hand this man over to the Civil Power in the Colony, that he may be dealt with according to the law.

I have also directed Mr. Brownlee to convey to Sonto my approval of his conduct, and to state to him that I should not fail to bring it under Your Excellency's notice.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your Excellency's most obedient and humble Servant,
(Signed) GEO. MACKINNON,
Colonel and Chief Commissioner.

Fort Cox, 16th March, 1848.

Colonel MACKINNON.

SIR,—I have the honor to report, for your information, that Umbilini, of Sonto's tribe, and who escaped from Grobbelaar's Kloof, is now in custody at this place, having been brought in by Sonto.

Umbilini states that only one person was with him, namely Cele, the son of Khulu, that at the farm where Cele was shot, while he and Umbilini were opening the Kraal fence, Cele told him to sit down, and sat down himself, and Cele threw an Assagai.

Umbilini states, that simultaneously with Cele's throwing the Assagai, two shots were fired, and that he (Umbilini) did not throw an Assagai but ran off, and knows nothing further of what occurred.

From the nature of the case, and the excitement which it would create, I deemed it advisable to send off an express to report the apprehension of Umbilini, and to obtain instructions as to what is to be done with him.

I have requested Mr. Davies to put heavy Irons on him, and to keep him strictly guarded until I hear from you.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
CHARLES BROWNLEE,
Assist. Gaika Commissioner.

No 12:
King William's Town,
19th March 1848.

His Excellency
The High Commissioner.

SIR,—I have the honor to report, that Vonya and Malawana, Counsellors of Kreili, arrived here on the 17th Instant, with a message from that Chief, to the effect that he was desirous of making compensation to the Missionary, the Revd. Mr. Gladwyn, and to the Government Agent, Mr. W. Fynn, who were stationed at Butterworth, previous to the last War (in 1846) for the destruction of their Property at that place.

Vonya is the Counsellor who has been employed by Kreili in all communications with us since your Excellency's arrival, and may be regarded as the faithful interpreter of his sentiments.

Previous to returning an answer to Kreili on this subject, I felt it to be my duty to ascertain from the messengers:—

1st. Whether Kreili distinctly understood that no demand had been made on him by your Excellency at the Meeting on the 7th January, or subsequently at his interview with me, for compensation for the destruction of this property?

2d. Whether this offer was perfectly spontaneous on Kreili's part, or whether it arose from any communication which he had had with, or any suggestion which had been made to him by, Mr. Gladwyn or Mr. Fynn?

3rd. Whether he was aware of the value of the property, and was prepared to make compensation to so large an amount? (Mr. Gladwyn states the losses incurred by the Mission at £600, and Mr. Fynn estimates his loss at £150.)

4th. In what way he proposed to collect the tribute, and whether by coercion? That the Government would allow of no eating up, or of any force being used, either as regards his own People, or the Fingoes located near Butterworth.

The messengers stated in answer, "that Kreili perfectly understood that no demand had been made on him. That the offer was spontaneous on his part, and suggested itself to him on his hearing that your Excellency had alluded, at the meeting on the 7th January, to the destruction of this Property; and that it arose from his wish to show that he had not sanctioned it himself. That it had not been suggested to him by Mr. Gladwyn, or Mr. Fynn, that he himself mentioned it to them, but that they told him that the compensation would not be accepted without the sanction of the Government, and that he (Kreili) must himself apply to me for permission to make it. That Kreili was aware of the value of the property destroyed, and was prepared to make full compensation for it. That he would use no violence in so doing; but that he would assemble his people, a great many of whom were concerned in the destruction of this property, and would by persuasion induce them to give up cattle sufficient to raise the required sum. That his own brothers were those who were principally to blame. That he perfectly understood that the Government would sanction no violence or eating up to procure the compensation."

I desired the messengers to return to Kreili, and inform him that I would make your Excellency acquainted with his offer, and would send him an answer, either by messenger or through Mr. Fynn, on his return to Kreili's Country. That, in the mean time, no attempt must be made by him to collect any tribute for the purpose of compensation.

Whatever view your Excellency may take of this offer; and whether or not your Excellency may be disposed to allow compensation to be made by any Chief, who may of his own free will offer it, for the destruction of the property of the Missionaries or Government Agents during the war, I am persuaded that your Excellency will regard this offer of Kreili's as an unequivocal proof of his contrition for the part he took in the war, and of his desire to preserve peaceful relations with us for the future.

I have contented myself with referring the matter entirely to your Excellency's decision, and shall await instructions before I make any further communication to Kreili on the subject.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your Excellency's most obedient, humble servant,

Colonel MACKINNON,
&c. &c. &c.

SIR,—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 19th instant, reporting the message from Heili, and his desire to indemnify the Mission and Mr. Fynn for the losses his people so wantonly occasioned them, by burning the Mission, and destroying Mr. Fynn, the Resident's property. Your queries to Heili's messengers are very judicious; and I enclose a written message to Heili. I have too much confidence in your discretion to dictate the measures you are to adopt in conveying to Heili my acceptance of his voluntary act of repentance; and I rejoice to observe that the system I have entrusted to your conduct so gradually progresses towards an establishment of the desired order of things, which this act of Heili's, and of Sonto's discovering and at once giving up a murderer, so forcibly demonstrates.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,
(Signed) H. G. SMITH.

N.B.—Mr. Shaw, the Superintendent of the Wesleyan Missionaries, while he is much gratified with this spontaneous act of Heili's, strongly urges upon me the acceptance of his proffered indemnification;—a view in which, for many and obvious reasons, I fully and cordially concur.

The Chief HEILI.

The Inkosi Inkulu, Smith, has received from his brother, Colonel Mackinnon, his son Heili's message, desiring to indemnify the losses many of his wicked people occasioned the Mission and Mr. Fynn. Butterworth was, by bad men, destroyed, burnt, and pillaged—the property of these good men who went among Heili's people to preach the Word of Almighty God, and to make Heili and his people to be Christians and civilized like their brothers, the English;—and Fynn was the great friend of Heili. For such wicked acts my son Heili, of his own accord and good-will, and with a strong feeling of repentance, now comes forward to repair the evil, by paying for the losses occasioned. The sum is very large, £600 to the Mission and £150 to Mr. Fynn. This has been fully explained to my son Heili, who has promised to "eat up" no one, but to collect a portion of cattle from each of his people who were connected with these wicked acts of demolition of that house placed among them for their good.

My son Heili! twelve years ago I was your great friend, and as I grieved to hear you had been led away by bad advice into a wicked war, so do I now rejoice to see you repentant to man and, I hope, to God. This reparation my son so wisely desires to make, to show his people the wrong they have done, and his and their repentance, is, I hope, a great step towards my son becoming at once a "Christian." I pray you, therefore, to go to your Missionary, and say he must make you worship God as he, and I your father, and all good English people do. Then would you be happy,—then would your people follow your example,—then would Almighty God bless you,—your cattle would increase,—your fields be covered with houses and cultivation,—then would you bless the English through that great God Almighty who brought them among your people. Do this, my son, and you will live to thank your father, and to hope for eternal life and happiness hereafter.

(Signed) H. G. SMITH.

I have sent Fynn back to you, as you desire.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
22nd March, 1848.

WITH reference to the accompanying Minute of this day's date, which the Administrator of the Government has directed to be published for general information, respecting the Improvement and future management of Gaols, Lock-up Houses, and Houses of Correction; His Excellency has been pleased to appoint the following Gentlemen to be Members of the General Board of Commissioners of Public Prisons:—

The Hon J. MONTAGU, Esq., Chairman.
CLERKE BURTON, Esq.,
WILLIAM HOPE, Esq.,
The Rev. Dr. ADAMSON,
Dr. INNES.

By Command of His Excellency the Administrator of the Government,

(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

Government House, 22nd March 1848.

IN no department of the Government of this Colony does there exist a more urgent necessity for extensive and substantial improvement, than in Prisons and Prison Discipline.

Previous to the institution of the present system of Convict discipline in 1844, all sentences of imprisonment, either with or without hard labour, were carried out in the District Gaols and the Penal Establishment on Robben Island.

At that time my predecessor Sir George Napier thus remarks on the state of Prisons and Prison discipline:—"The present system does not only not contemplate, but by its very arrangements either neutralises or wholly counteracts that process of reformatory discipline, which is essential to the salutary exercise of Penal Justice,—a process, which while it strictly regards the extent and degree of punishment awarded for the offence committed, seeks, both on moral and political grounds, to rescue the delinquent from the power of vicious habits or degrading propensities, and aims to restore him, if possible, to society, prepared to resist its temptations from a higher motive than the dread of punishment consequent on crime."

No description of mine can more forcibly or truly depict the evils resulting from the state in which both Prisons and Prison discipline now are, than that I have just quoted.

And, although the system of Convict discipline instituted in 1844 has been attended with the most beneficial results, in respect to all Male Convicts sentenced to imprisonment with hard labour for periods exceeding three months, yet the evil remains in all its intensity as it regards those on whom its baneful influence is most to be deplored. I allude to female and untried prisoners, and to those convicted of petty offences and misdemeanours.

From the Returns annually made by the Resident Magistrates, it appears that there are in all twenty-three Gaols throughout the Colony. Were the principle of separation, now being extensively practised in the Gaols of England, adopted here, these Gaols would not be capable of accommodating more than 171 Prisoners; whilst, according to the practice that has hitherto obtained, they are reported as capable of containing 1235,—an amount wholly disproportionate to the average dimensions of the cells and the prison accommodation generally, if the ends for which a Prison is solely erected are kept in view, viz: safe custody, punishment, and reformation.

It further appears, as might naturally be inferred from the above statement, that no attempt at classification has ever been made, or could be, beyond the mere separation of the sexes, and that in some instances, but very imperfectly,—that the defective state of the Gaols in some Districts imposes the necessity of the nightly use of fetters, to ensure the safe custody of the Prisoners, whether untried or convicted,—and that air, exercise, and healthy employment form no part of the system. As a natural consequence, punishments for offences within the Prison have been frequent, in the shape of flogging, irons, and solitary confinement.

By Ordinance No. 24, 1847, entitled an Ordinance "for Improving the Gaols of the Colony," I have been vested with full powers, under its provisions, to take such steps as may appear to me advisable for the improvement of the Colonial Prisons, for the due classification of the Prisoners, and for the establishment of such a system of Prison Discipline as appears best calculated not only to punish but to reform.

To effect this, I propose to place all Prisons Lock-up Houses, and Houses of Correction under the direction and control of a Board, to be called the General Board of Commissioners of Prisons. To this Board will be added Local Boards for the immediate inspection and supervision of the several Gaols, and for aiding the General Board in carrying out such measures of improvement as shall from time to time receive my sanction.

To the General Board will be committed the charge of administering the funds that are voted by the Legislative Council for the erection of new Gaols and the improvement of the old.

(Signed) H. G. SMITH.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
7th March 1848.

HIS Excellency the Administrator of the Government being of opinion that the public interests, as well as the personal convenience of the Unofficial Members, will best be consulted by holding the Meetings of the Legislative Council of this Colony at stated periods, and not, as heretofore, by summoning the Members from time to time as circumstances might require;—hereby notifies his intention of holding two Sessions of Council during each year, the first to take place in May, and the other in October.

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, Cape Town,
8th March 1848.

IT having been represented to the Administrator of the Government, that some Farms (or places) are attached to or form part of Divisions or Districts, which might be more conveniently made to form parts of adjacent Divisions or Districts, His Excellency has directed it to be notified, that any proprietor who may be inconvenienced from such a cause, is requested to communicate thereon to this Office, with a view to relief being afforded by the transfer of his place to an adjacent Division or District.

His Excellency does not wish existing boundaries, either of Fieldcornetries, Districts, or Divisions, in any way to influence the general or individual convenience—the sole desire of the Government in fixing boundaries being, to promote the convenience of the inhabitants, by shortening as much as is practicable the distances they have to travel to attend upon a Civil Commissioner or Resident Magistrate.

Facility of access arising from the absence of Mountain Barriers or other material obstructions, equally with density of population, at any particular locality, will always be duly considered in defining boundaries of Divisions and Districts, since it must be obvious that persons residing nearer to the nearest seat of Magistracy would, in some cases, be less inconvenienced by travelling a greater distance to a more remote one, than by overcoming greater obstacles to reach the nearest.

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

In future all Officers of the Government who are required to travel on Public Duty at the Public expense, must make their own arrangements for their conveyance, under such instructions as they may from time to time receive.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office,
Cape Town, 5th April, 1848.

HIS Excellency the Administrator of the Government has been pleased to direct the publication of the following Letter of Instructions to the General Board of Commissioners of Public Prisons; and directs all Public officers and servants of the Government to correspond directly with the Board on all matters relating to their functions and duties. The signature of any member of the commission on the part of the Board is to be considered as conveying the sentiments and authority of the whole Board.

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU.

To the General Board of Commissioners
of Public Prisons.

Colonial Office,
Cape Town, 4th April, 1848.

Gentlemen.—The main objects to be effected by the establishment of the General Board of Commissioners of Public Prisons are stated in the Minute of His Excellency the Administrator of the Government dated 22d. instant.

The great ends of penal discipline are, first, the punishment of crime, and, secondly, the reformation of the offender.

Prior to the year 1844 the latter of these objects had been altogether neglected, and the former very inefficiently secured, as it ever must be by a system which contemplates the removal and punishment of individual criminals rather than the diminution of the general mass of crime.

The abolition in 1845, of the penal settlement at Robben Island, and the employment of the convicted criminals upon the public Roads of the Colony was an important step in advance, and it is very satisfactory to find that the system is working beneficially, not only for the general interests of the public, but for the moral improvement of individual offenders.

But the adoption of this system with reference to male convicts, only rendered it more incumbent on the government, than formerly, to take measures for the improvement of the moral condition of the other classes of prisoners viz., female convicts, persons detained for trial, and prisoners whose sentences to labor or confinement are under thirty days.

It is evident that the public benefit to be derived from the labor of the convicts on public roads, was not the sole inducement which led the Government to adopt the system established in 1844. The words of Sir George Napier quoted by His Excellency the Administrator of the Government in his Minute above alluded to, evidently point to a "process of reformatory discipline" as one of the principal objects which the Government was striving to attain.

And that this is an object which should ever be kept in view in the formation of gaols and prisons is obvious,—the pursuit of it by the government being a duty to society at large as well as to the criminal. It is the only safeguard which society can possess against the constant increase of crime by the periodical enlargement of criminals hardened in vice by companionships with others possibly more degraded than themselves. To the criminal himself every possible exertion on the part of government towards promoting his moral amelioration is also clearly due. Society has no right to create crime under the pretence of punishing it: to confirm the principle of vice in which a criminal has been reared by forming him into contact with others more hardened than himself; and then to turn him loose upon the world, exposed to temptations which have acquired additional force over his mind by the pernicious associations of a prison. By adopting such a course what we call the prevention becomes the promotion of crime; and the prison, instead of being an abode of correction, is turned into a school of vice.

These principles which are true wherever they are enunciated, are peculiarly applicable to this colony. There is here a great scarcity of labor, so that the Government can fairly hold out to the reformed criminal the hope of obtaining honest employment on regaining his liberty. The complaint cannot be made here, which is sometimes too justly made in thickly peopled countries, that the criminal on his enlargement from prison finds himself alone in the world, shunned by society, and is thus left only the alternative of a return to his former course of crime, or starvation. Every man who has the disposition to gain an honest livelihood in this colony has also the means of doing so.

Again, as there is a sufficient demand for honest and steady laborers in the Colony, so is there also a peculiar necessity for the promotion of honest and steady habits among the laboring colonists. The prevailing vice of the native population is indolence, a vice which is proverbially the fruitful source of crime. For this, therefore, among other reasons, prison discipline ought to be so arranged as to create motives to industry, and promote habits of it.

The great principle that prison discipline ought to have for its object as well the reformation of the criminal as the punishment of crime, was, as has been already observed, practically acknowledged by the Colonial Government in 1844; and it now only remains to carry out the principle with reference to persons detained in the public prisons of the Colony.

The reason why this has not been already done is to be found in the insufficient accommodation provided in the public gaols, whereby the classification of the prisoners was rendered impossible, and the separation of the sexes not always secured; discipline and reformation were out of the question; and even safe custody was so uncertain, that in the single month of March in the present year, no less than ten prisoners escaped from the different gaols.

With a view to obviate these difficulties, an Ordinance has been framed "for improving the gaols of this colony," by which it is proposed to remodel the whole system of prison discipline in the colony, and to provide for the proper discipline and reformation of the prisoners.

By this Ordinance (No. 24, of 1847) the power of making rules for the government of the gaols; the duties to be performed by the several officers attached thereto; the food and clothing of the prisoners; the periods for the visits of the Resident Magistrates, the introduction of spirituous liquors &c. into the gaols; and other matters connected with their management, is conferred upon the Governor. It is further provided that a gaoler shall reside in each of the prisons, who is to have no other occupation, and is prohibited from selling any articles to the prisoners either directly or indirectly under a penalty of from £5 to £100. The gaoler is to keep a journal which he is bound to produce to the Resident Magistrate of the district on the occasion of his visits of inspection, and in which he is required to enter all matters worthy of note occurring within the prison; he is further strictly prohibited from receiving any fees from the prisoners, and from punishing any of them on his own responsibility; but he may put them in irons in certain cases, which must be immediately reported to the Resident Magistrate.

This latter officer is required to pay periodical visits to all the gaols in his district, and to report to the Governor the state of discipline maintained, the conduct of the gaoler and inferior officers, the number and description of the prisoners, and all other matters of importance connected with the state of the prison. He is also empowered to punish by solitary confinement with or without spare diet, by hard labor, or personal correction, such of the prisoners as may have offended against prison discipline. He is also empowered to try summarily all prisoners attempting to make their escape from gaol. Gaming and the use of intoxicating drinks are strictly prohibited in the prison.

By the 4th section, which is, perhaps, the most important, it is enacted that the male and female prisoners are to be kept strictly separate, and that the prisoners of each sex are to be divided into six classes, viz:—

- (a) Persons confined under any decree of civil imprisonment.
- (b) Persons committed for want of sureties to keep the peace.
- (c) Persons committed for murder, culpable homicide, rape, robbery, or assault with intent to commit any of those crimes, or in which any dangerous wound is given, arson, house-breaking with intent to commit any crime, or theft of any cattle, sheep, or goats, or other crime of equal degree of guilt with any of the said crimes.
- (d) Persons committed for any crime of a lesser degree of guilt than any of the crimes aforesaid.
- (e) Persons convicted of any such crime as is hereinbefore in letter c set forth.
- (f) Persons convicted of any such crime as is hereinbefore in letter d set forth.

The very necessity of such provisions cannot fail to suggest to any thinking mind the mischievous tendency of the system which they are intended to reform, and under which house-breakers, murderers, and criminals of lower degree are all herded together, to contaminate each other by the communication from one to another of that peculiar kind of vice in which he happens to be most proficient.

His Excellency is of opinion, as stated in his Minute, that the provisions of this Ordinance will be most effectually carried out by a General Board of Commissioners of Public Prisons; and, having accordingly appointed you to form such Commission, he has determined to delegate to you (subject to his approval) the powers and duties conferred upon him by the provisions of the Ordinance in question.

In order to aid the General Board in the performance of its duties, Local Boards will be appointed in all the Country Districts, which will consist of the Resident Magistrate, who will be Chairman ex officio, and two other members, who should be respectable and influential inhabitants of the District.

It will be the duty of the General Board to suggest for His Excellency's approval the names of such Persons in each District as may appear best fitted for this important duty, and at the same time willing to undertake it.

It will also be the duty of the General Board to draw up, for His Excellency's approbation, regulations for the District Boards, who will correspond with the Government through the General Board only.

The first duty of the General and Local Boards will be to turn their attention to the construction of gaols, and providing such prison accommodation as the circumstances of the country seem to require. Security connected with that degree of accommodation which leads to preserve health, is the first object to be sought after, as the constant escape of criminals from the public prisons cannot, on any account, be allowed to continue. But in order to carry out the views of the Legislative Council with reference to the classification of prisoners, it is obvious most of the gaols will require considerable enlargement. Previous to the passing of the Prison Ordinance, a voluminous correspondence took place between the Secretary to Government and several Magistrates resident in the country districts, the whole of which His Excellency has directed to be laid before the General Board for its information. The Board will communicate to His Excellency with all convenient despatch, the course which they would recommend him to adopt in each of the several cases brought under his notice in this correspondence, as well as any general suggestions they may have to make relative to the mode of constructing gaols most convenient for purposes of Prison Discipline.

His Excellency desires that the General Board will keep up such a correspondence with the Local Board as will keep the former in full possession of all necessary information relative to the state of every prison with reference to discipline; the healthy condition and cleanliness of the cells and other parts of the building; the personal cleanliness of the prisoners; their conduct and demeanour in every respect; and all other matters connected with the internal economy of the prisons, and the general working of the system.

His Excellency is also of opinion that it might lead to beneficial result if, in addition to the information to be thus obtained from the Local Boards, a periodical inspection of all gaols, Lock-up-Houses, and Houses of Correction were to be made by some member of the General Board, or by an agent appointed by them from time to time. This, however, is to be understood as a suggestion thrown out for the consideration of the Board rather than as a direction for their guidance; and the Board will take an early opportunity of reporting to His Excellency whether they consider such direct supervision and control to be practicable or advisable.

From the information obtained by these means the Board are requested to draw up an annual report to be laid by His Excellency upon the table of the Legislative Council, in which they will detail their proceedings, and those of the District Boards as reported to them from time to time, and will also make any suggestions which may occur to them relative to the improvement of prison discipline. This report will be accompanied by a detailed account of their disposal of the funds voted by the Legislative Council for the erection and improvement of gaols, the administration of which will rest with the Board.

The Board are requested to understand that the provisions of the Ordinance No. 24 of 1847 are not to be considered as incapable of amendment. In the course of their administrative duties it is not improbable that many valuable amendments may occur to them, which when brought under his notice, will always receive His Excellency's most anxious attention. This remark is particularly applicable to the subject of the classification of the prisoners. In forming rules for the construction of new prisons and for the future government of those already built it will probably be found advisable to make provision for a further sub-division of the classes enumerated in the clause of the Ordinance quoted above, and as a general rule the Board is to understand that the classification directed in that clause is what must at least be made;—but that any more minute classification may be made where the means are available and the Board consider it desirable. The Board will therefore avail themselves of all the information on this important subject which the experience of Europe and America so abundantly supplies, and will not fail, as occasion offers, to submit for His Excellency's sanction such additional improvements in the classification of the separation of Prisoners, as they may think it advisable to recommend.

Another subject of the utmost importance, and which ought to occupy the early attention of the Board is, providing moral and religious education for the prisoners. His Excellency looks upon this as the basis of all reformatory discipline, and feels assured that it is only necessary for him to name it to the Board to obtain for it their most anxious attention, and their cordial co-operation with his efforts to make the provision required.

With reference to the penal system, and the general constitution of the prisons, His Excellency does not think it necessary to give the Board minute instructions, feeling certain that these matters may safely be left to their discretion, and desiring only to state to the Board the general principles upon which he conceives that a well-organized system of prison discipline ought to be founded.

The Board will understand that not only gaols but all Houses of Correction, Lock-up-Houses, and all places devoted to the reception of female prisoners and convicts are equally placed under their administration and control; and in order to assist them as much as possible in the discharge of the duties which they have undertaken gratuitously, all public officers and servants of the Government will be instructed to correspond directly with the Board on all matters relating to their duties and functions.

As the Ordinance for improving the gaols of the colony does not provide for the appointment of general and local Boards, but confers the powers to be exercised by them upon the Governor and Executive Council, it will be necessary for the Board to obtain His Excellency's sanction previous to carrying any of their measures into effect.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,

(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU.

Government House, Cape Town,
3d April 1848.

The Chief FAKU.

From "Smith," now Governor of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, and Inkosi Inkulu of British Kaffraria, to his old friend the faithful Chief Faku, the staunch, and to-be-depended-on ally of Her Majesty the Queen of England. Your own conduct is the best guarantee of your continued faith in, and reliance on, the amity of the British Government during so many years, several of which in times of wicked war and commotions; but Fynn has communicated to me, so many acts of good will to the British Government, your desire for peace and the consequent prosperity of your people, your personal kindness to him, that out of compliment to you, and to show how honorable such conduct is, I send you back your older friend Fynn, in order that you may communicate with me direct; and that he may assist you, and your people, and the missionaries. His brother who has recently left you, I have placed with Kreili. You will learn from Fynn how penitent Kreili and his people are for their wicked conduct in burning the mission station; and this feeling I hope will induce Kreili to become a Christian like our missionaries and all Englishmen. You will also learn from Fynn that I, "Smith," am the Inkosi Inkulu over British Kaffraria, that I occupy it with Soldiers, I will have no more war, that I have lately been to the Chiefs Moshesh, Moroko, Molitsani, Sinkonyala, Captain Adam Kok, and others; that I was near Panda, King of the Zulus, but the rivers were full, and I could not wait to cross, so I sent him a message of friendship, and the desire of Her Majesty of England, that peace shall be everywhere. His answer was what I expected. I tell you all this, that you may have the news, and that you may rely upon my destroying any people who dare attempt to interrupt the "sitting still" of all. Be kind to your missionaries, you have ever been so, and oh! if you, yourself, would but see the blessings which would come to you, did you become a Christian, then should we be brothers, then would you be happy!! That you may do so, my faithful friend Faku, is the hope of your old friend

(Signed) H. G. SMITH.

KAAPSTAD, DEN 6DEN APRIL 1848.

KENNISGEVING.

Gouvernements Huis, Kaapstad, 4den April 1848.

DE volgende broedschap aan het Amaponda Opperhoofd Faku wordt op last van den Hoogen Commissaris gepubliceerd.

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. E. Harer Majesteits Hooge Commissaris,

RICHARD SOUTHEY, Secretaris.

Gouvernements Huis, 3den April 1848.

Aan het Opperhoofd Faku.

Van Smith, tegenwoordig Gouverneur van de Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop, en Inkosi Inkulu van Britsch Kafferland aan zynen oude vriend het getrouwe Opperhoofd Faku, de getrouwe bondgenoot op wien men staat kan maken, van Hare Majesteit, de Koningin van Engeland. Uw eigen gedrag is de beste waarborg voor uwe voortdurende vertrouwen en steun op het Britsche Gouvernement gedurende zoo vele jaren, waarvan velen in tyden van boezen oorlog en verwarring, maar Fynn heeft my bekend gemaakt met zoo vele daden van goeden wil jegens het Britsche Gouvernement, uw verlangen naar vrede, en de gevolgelyke welvaart van uw volk, uw eigen persoonlijk vriendelykheid jegens hem, dat ik, als een bewys van achting voor u en om te toonen hoe eervol zulk gedrag is, uwen ouderen vriend Fynn terug zend, op dat gy directelyk met my zoudt kunnen corresponderen, en opdat hy u en u volk en de zendingen moge helpen. Zynen broeder, die kort geleden van u vertrokken is, heb ik by Kreili geplaatst. Gy zult van Fynn vernemen hoe berouwhebbend Kreili en zyn volk is, over hun boos gedrag in het verbranden van de zendings statie, en dit gevoelen hoop ik, zal Kreili overhalen om een Christen te worden, gelyk onze zendingen en alle Engelschen.

Gy zult mede van Fynn vernemen dat ik "Smith" ben, en de Inkosi Inkulu over Britsch Kafferland, dat ik hetzelfde bezet hou met soldaten. Ik wil geen oorlog hebben; dat ik onlangs ben geweest by de Opperhoofden Moshesh, Morokko, Molitsani, Sinkonyala, Kapt. Adam Kok en anderen; dat ik geweest ben naby Panda, den Koning der Zulus, maar dat de rivieren te vol waren en ik niet kon wachten om over te gaan, zoo dat ik hem eene boodschap van vriendschap heb gezonden, en het verlangen van Hare Majesteit van Engeland, dat er overal vrede zal zyn. Zyn antwoord was wat ik verwachtte. Ik zeg u dit alles opdat gy het nieuws moogt weten en dat gy staat kunt maken dat ik ieder volk zal vernielen dat zal durven pogen het "stilzitten" van allen af te breken. Wees vriendelyk jegens uwe Zendingen; gy zyt zulks altyd geweest, en, och, of gy zelf slechts de zegeningen wildet zien welke u zouden te beurt vallen indien gy een Christen wierdt, dan zouden wy broeders zyn, dan zoudt gy gelukkig wezen. Dat gy zulks doen moogt, myn getrouwe vriend Faku, is de hoop van uwen ouder vriend.

Gouvernements Huis, 27 Maart 1848.

UWE Excellentie de Hooge Commissaris heeft goed gevonden de publicatie te gelasten van de volgende Documenten.

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. E. Hare Majesteits Hooge Commissaris,

RICHARD SOUTHEY, Secretaris.

No. 11. King Williams Town, 16 Maart 1848.

UWE Excellentie is waarschijnlijk bekend gemaakt met de omstandigheden van de moord van den Heer Ingram, aan Grobbelaars Kloof, naby Grahamstad. Zoo spoedig als ik het berigt had ontvangen, heb ik geen tyd verzuimd om de beide Afdelingen van de Kaffer Politie aan het werk te zetten, om de Kaffers na te sporen, die men zeide dat ontkomen waren, en hoorende dat een Kaffer die by die gelegenheid gedood is, behoorende tot Sontos Stam, gelaste ik den Heer Brownlee zich naar Sontos te begeven, en te trachten de medeplichtigen in den moord aan het licht te brengen.

Uwe Excellentie zal zien, uit de nevensgaande Copy van eene Brief van den Hr. Brownlee, dat Sontos, Umbilini heeft opgegeven, een Kaffer die erkent dat hy tegenwoordig is geweest by het plegen van den moord.

Ik heb mede den Hr. Brownlee gelast dezen man over te geven aan de Civile magt in de Kolonie om naar regten te worden behandeld.

Ik heb mede den Hr. Brownlee gelast, aan Sontos myn goedkeuring van zyn gedrag te kennen te geven, en hem te zeggen, dat ik niet zal verzuimen hetzelfde ter kennis van uwe Excellentie te brengen.

Ik heb de eer te zyn,

Mynheer,
Uwer Excellenties zeer gehoorzame en ootmoedige Dienaar,

Aan Kolonel MACKINNON.

MYNHEER,—Ik heb de eer te rapporteren, ter uwer informatie, dat Umbilini, van Sontos Stam, en die ontkomen is van Grobbelaars Kloof, nu alhier in hechtenis is, zynde ingebracht door Sontos.

Umbilini zegt, dat er maar een persoon by hem was, namelijk Cele, de zoon van Kulu; dat op de plaats waar Cele is doodgeschoten, terwyl hy en Umbilini de Kraal-deur openden, Cele hem zeide om neer te zitten, en zelfs ging zitten, en toen de assagani wierp.

Umbilini vermeldt, dat op denzelfden tyd toen Cele de assagani wierp, twee schoten werden gedaan, en dat hy (Umbilini) geen assagani had geworpen, maar weg gevlugt was, en niets verder van het gebeurde wist.

Uit den aard van de zaak en de excitatie welke dezelve moest te weeg brengen, achtte ik het raadzaam eene expresse af te zenden, om de apprehensie van Umbilini te rapporteren, en instructie te bekomen wat met hem moest gedaan worden.

Ik heb den Hr. Davies verzocht hem zwaar te ketenen, en hem strikt te laten bewaken, tot ik verder van u hoor.

Ik heb de eer te zyn,

Uw ootmoedige Dienaar,

No. 12.

King Williams Stad, 19 Maart 1848.

Aan Zyne Excellentie Den Hoogen Commissaris.

MYNHEER,—Ik heb de eer te rapporteren, dat Vonya en Malawana, Raadsheeren van Kreili, alhier zyn aangekomen op den 17den, met eene boodschap van het Opperhoofd, inhoudende dat hy verlangend was compensatie te maken aan den Zending, den Eerw. Heer Gladwyn, en aan den Gouvernements Agent den Heer Fynn, die voor den laatsten oorlog (in 1846) te Butterworth waren gestationeerd, voor de vernieling van hun Eigendom op die plaats.

Vonya, is de Raadsheer die door Kreili is gebezigt geworden in alle communicatie met ons, en kan tergt worden beschouwd als de getrouwe tolk van zyne gevoelens.

Voor ik een antwoord aan Kreili gaf op dit onderwerp, voelde ik het myn plicht van den bode te verzekeren:—

1. Of Kreili duidelyk verstaat dat geen aanvraag by hem gedaan is door Uwe Excellentie, by de Byeenkomst van den 7den January, of naderhand by zyne conferentie met my, om vergoeding voor de vernieling van het Eigendom.

2. Of dit aanbod volkomen vrywillig was van de zyde van Kreili, of dat het ontstond uit eenige communicatie welke hy had gehad, met of eenige voordragt hem gedaan door den Heer Gladwyn of den Heer Fynn.

3. Of hy bekend was met de waarde van het Eigendom, en bereid was schadeloosstelling te geven tot zulk een groot bedrag? (De Heer Gladwyn berekend de verliezen geleden door de Zending op £600; de Heer Fynn, begroot zyn verlies op £150.)

4. Op welke wyze hy voorstelt de som byeen te brengen, en of by dwang? Dat het Gouvernement geen "opeten" zu toelaten, noch het gebruik van eenig geweld hetzy tegen zyn eigen volk, of tegen de Fingos naby Butterworth gevestigd.

De boodschappers zeiden in antwoord "dat Kreili volkomen verstand dat er geen aanvraag by hem gedaan was. Dat het aanbod vrywillig was van zyne zyde, en zich aan hem had opgedaan toen Uwe Excellentie by de byeenkomst van den 7den had gedooft, op de vernieling van hun Eigendom; en dat het ontstond uit zyn verlangen om te toonen dat hy het niet zelf had goedgekeurd. Dat het niet aan hem was voorgesteld door den Hr. Gladwyn, of den Hr. Fynn, dat hy het zelf aan hem voorgedragen had, en dat zy hem gezegd hadden, dat geen compensatie zu worden aangenomen zonder de goedkeuring des Gouvernements, en dat hy (Kreili) zelf aanzooek doen moest, om verlost te worden. Dat Kreili bekend was met de waarde van het vernield Eigendom, en bereid was er voldoening voor te geven. Dat hy daarin geen geweld zou gebruiken, maar dat hy zyn volk zou byeenbrengen waarvan velen betrokken waren, in de vernieling van het Eigendom, en dat hy hen door overtredding zou overhalen om vee genoeg onder hen byeen te brengen. Dat zyn eigen Broeders diegeen waren, die meest te laken waren. Dat hy volkomen begreep, dat het Gouvernement geen geweld of opeten zou toelaten, ten einde de vergoeding byeen te brengen."

Ik verlangde de boodschappers terug te keeren naar Kreili, en hem te berigten, dat ik Uwe Excellentie zou bekend maken met zyn aanbod en hem een antwoord zenden, by hode of door den Hr. Fynn, op zynen terugtocht naar Kreilis land. Dat hy inmiddels geene poging doen moest om eenige schatting te heffen, voor het einde van compensatie.

Welk inzigt Uwe Excellentie nemen moge van dit aanbod, en hetzy Uwe Excellentie al of niet gezind zy toelaten dat vergoeding worde gedaan door eenig Opperhoofd, die het uit zyn eigen vryen wil zal aanbieden voor de vernieling van het eigendom van de Zendingen of Gouvernements Agenten, gedurende den oorlog, ben ik overtuigd dat Uwe Excellentie dat aanbod van kracht zal beschouwen, als een onduidelzinnig bewys van zyn berouw over het deel dat hy genomen heeft in den oorlog, en van zyn verlangen om de vreedzame betrekkingen met ons in het vervolg te onderhouden.

Ik heb my vergenoegd met de zaak geheel aan Uwe Excellenties beslissing te laten, en zal wachten naar instructie voor ik eenige verdere communicatie zend aan Kreili, over dit onderwerp.

Ik heb de eer te zyn,

Mynheer,
Uwe Excellenties zeer gehoorzame en ootmoedige Dienaar,

Kol. MACKINNON.

MYNHEER,—Ik heb de eer de ontvangst te erkennen van uwen brief van den 19 dezer, rapporterende de boodschap van Heili en zyn verlangen om de Zendingen en den Hr. Fynn schadeloos te stellen voor de verliezen welke zyn volk, zoo baldadig hebben te weeg gebragt, door het verbranden van de Zending en het vernielen van het eigendom van den Heer Fynn, den Resident. Uwe vragen aan Heilis bode zyn zeer verstandig, en ik encloseer een schriftelyk antwoord aan Heili. Ik heb te veel vertrouwen op uwe discretie om u de maatregelen voor te schrijven welke gy nemen moet in het toezenden aan Heili van myne aanneming van zyne vrywillige daad van berouw, en ik verheug my te zien dat het stelsel dat ik aan uw bestier heb toevertrouwd, zoo tragsgewys voortgaat, tot een daartelling van de verlangde orde van zaken, welke deze daad van Heili, en Sontos ontdekken en dadelijk op geven van den moordenaar zoo duidelyk bewyzen—

Ik heb de eer te zyn,

Mynheer,
Uw gehoorzame Dienaar,
(Get.) H. G. SMITH.

N.B.—De Hr. Shaw, de Superintendent van de Wesleyaansche Zendingen, terwyl hy zeer voldaan is met deze vrywillige daad van Heili, dringt my ten sterksten aan, de aangeboden schadeloosstelling aan te nemen, een inzigt waarin ik om vele en klare redenen volkomen instem.

Aan het Opperhoofd HEILI.

De Inkosi Inkulu, Smith, heeft van zynen broeder Kolonel Mackinnon de boodschap van zynen zoon Heili ontvangen, verlangende de verliezen te vergoeden, welke zyne booze lieden teweeg hebben gebragt aan de Zending van den Hr. Fynn.—Butterworth is door booze lieden vernield, verbrand en geplunderd—het eigendom van deze goede menschen die onder Heilis volk waren gegaan om hen het Evangelie van den Almagtigen te verkondigen, en om Heili en zyn volk tot Christenen te maken, en beschaafd gelyk hunne broeders, de Engelschen; en Fynn was de groote vriend van Heili. Voor zulke booze daden komt myn zoon Heili uit zyn eigen vrye en goede wil, en met een krachtig gevoel van berouw, nu vooruit, om het kwaad weder goed te maken, door het betalen van de schade. De som is zeer groot £600 aan de Zending en £150 aan den Hr. Fynn, dat is ten vollen verklaard aan mynen zoon Heili, die belooft niemand te zullen "opeten" maar een getal vee byeen te brengen van ieder van zyn volk die in verband is geweest met deze booze daden van het vernielen van dat huis, daar geplaatst voor hun goed.

Myn zoon Heili! twaalf jaren geleden was ik uw proefvriend, en daar het my leed deed te hooren dat gy verleidt waart door slechten raad tot eenen boezen oorlog, zoo doet het my nu genoegen u berouwhebbend te zien jegens den mensch, en, ik hoop, jegens God. Deze vergoeding welke myn zoon zoo wyselyk verlangt te maken, ten einde zyn volk het kwaad te doen zien dat het gedaan heeft, is, hoop ik, een groote stap voor mynen zoon om eenen "Christen" te worden. Ik bid u daarom om te gaan naar uwen Zending, en hem te zeggen, hy moet u God doen dienen, zoo als hy doet, en ik, uw vader, en alle goede Engelschen doen, dan zoudt gy gelukkig zyn; dan zou uw volk uw voorbeeld volgen, dan zou de Almagtige God u zegenen, dan zou uw vee vermeederen, uwe velden bedekt zyn met huizen en landbouw, dan zoudt gy de Engelschen zegenen door dien grooten Almagtigen God, die hen in uw midden heeft gebragt. Doe dit, myn zoon, en gy zult leven om uwen vader te danken, en te hopen op eeuwig leven en geluk hiernamaals.

(Get.) H. G. SMITH.

Ik heb Fynn tot u terug gezonden, zoo als gy verlangt.

UWE Excellentie de Administrateur van het Gouvernement, van gevoelen zynde dat de publieke belangen zoowel als het personeel gemak van de Onofficiële Led n het best zullen worden gediensd door het houden van de Byeenkomsten van den Weigeveenden Raad op bepaalde tyden, en niet zoo als tot nu toe door het oproepen der Leiden van tyd tot tyd, naar mate de omstandigheden zulks vorderen;—greet by deze kennis van zyn voornemen, om twee zittingen van den Raad te houden, de eerste in de maand Mei, en de tweede in October.

Ter Ordonnantie van Zyne Excellentie den Administrateur des Gouvernements,

MET betrekking tot de nevensgaande Minute van dezen datum, welke de Administrateur van het Gouvernement heeft gelast tot algemeen nariet te publiceren, betreffende de verbetering in het toekomstige bestuur van de Gevangenen, heeft Zyne Excellentie goedgevonden de volgende Heeren aan te stellen om te zyn Leden van het algemeene College van Commissarissen van Publieke Gevangenen:—

De Ed. Hr. J. MONTAGU, Voorzitter.
De Wel-Ed. Hr. CLERKE BURTON.

MINUTE.

Gouvernements Huis, den 22 Maart 1848.

In geene departementen van het Gouvernement dezer Kolonie bestaat er eene dringende noodzakelijkheid ter uitbreiding en stevige verbetering, dan in Gevangenen en Gevangenhuisacht.

Voor de daarstelling van het tegenwoordig stelsel van bandieten tucht in 1844, werden alle vonnissen tot gevangenschap, met of zonder dwang-arbeid, voltrokken binnen de distrikts gevangenen en het straf etablissement te Robben Eiland.

Destyds maakte myn voorganger Sir George Napier deze aanmerking over den staat van gevangenen en gevangenhuisacht:—„Het tegenwoordige stelsel beoogt niet alleen niet, maar verdydt of werkt door dezelfde schikkingen dat beoogt van hervormende tucht tegen, hetwelk onmisbaar is voor de heilzame uitoefening van strafregt; een beoogt hetwelk, terwijl het nauwkeurig let op de uitgestrektheid en de mate van opgelegde straf voor de gepleegde misdaad, zoo wel op zedelyke als staatkundige gronden, den misdadiger zocht te ontwringen aan de magt van slechte gewoonten of versderende eigenschappen; en streeft om hem, indien mogelijk, terug te geven aan de maatschappij, voorbereid om hare verleidingen te wederstaan uit een hooger beginsel dan de vrees voor straf welke misdaad achtervolgt.”

Geene beschrijving door myzelven kan een krachtadiger of nauwkeurer taferel ophangen van het kwaad onstaande uit den staat waarin gevangenen en gevangenhuisacht thans zyn, dan die, pas door my aangehaald.

En hoewel het stelsel van bandientucht in 1844 daargesteld, vergezeld is gegaan van de aller voordeeligste gevolgen in opzigt tot alle mannelijke bandieten, govensid tot gevangenschap met dwangarbeid voor tyden drie maanden te bovengaan, blijft evenwel het kwaad in al dezelfde groothed heerschen, wat betreft diegenen op wien dezelfde schadelijken invloed het meest te betreuen is. Ik bedoel vrouwelike en onveroordeelde gevangenen, en diegenen die van kleine misdaden en overtredingen zyn overtuigd.

Uit de jaarlyksche opgaven van Resident Magistraten blykt het dat er in het geheel 23 gevangenen in de Kolonie zyn. Indien het grondbeginsel van afzondering, in de gevangenen van Engeland zoo algemeen in zwang, alhier werd ingevoerd, zouden deze gevangenen niet meer dan 171 gevangenen kunnen geryven: tervyl d-zelve, volgens de tot hertoe bestaande gewoonte, gezegd worden 1235 te kunnen bevatten—een getal geheel en al ongeëvenredigd aan de gemiddelde grootte der cellen en gevangenis geryf in het algemeen, indien men let op de eindten waartoe een gevangenis alleen is daargesteld, namelyk, veilige bewaring, straf en hervorming.

Het blykt verder, gelyk natuurlijk uit bovenstaande opgaaf kan worden afgeleid, dat geene poging ter klassificatie immer is of kon worden gedaan, buiten de bloute afzondering seksen, en dit, in alle gevallen, slechts ten deele;—de gebrekkige staat der gevangenen in eenige distrikten legt de noodzakelijkheid op om 's nachts gebruik te maken van boeien ter verzekering van de gevangenen, hetzy veroordeeld of niet—en dat lucht, beweging en gezonde bezigheid geen gedeelte van het stelsel uitmaken. Als een natuurlijk gevolg, zyn straffen binnen de gevangenis menigvuldig geweest, in de gedaante van geeseling, kettings en eenzame opsluiting.

Door Ordonnantie, No. 24—1847, getituleerd eene Ordonnantie, „Ter verbetering van de Gevangenen in de Kolonie,” ben ik met volle magt bekleed, onder derzelver voorzieningen, om zoodanige stappen te nemen, als my raadzaam mogen voorkomen, ter verbetering der koloniale gevangenen, ter behoorlyke klassificatie van gevangenen, en ter daarstelling van gevangenis-tucht, als het best berekend zullen zyn niet alleen ter straffing maar ook ter hervorming.

Om dit te doen, stel ik voor, alle gevangenen en verbeterhuizen te stellen onder opzigt en beheer van een collegie, te worden genoemd het Algemeen Collegie van Commissarissen van Gevangenen. By dit collegie zullen gevoegd worden plaatselyke collegien voor de onmiddelyke inspectie en het toezigt over de onderscheidene gevangenen, en ter ondersteuning van het algemeen collegie in het uitvoeren van zoodanige maatregelen van verbetering als van tyd tot tyd door my zullen worden goedgekeurd.

Aan het Algemeen Collegie zal worden opgedragen de zorg over de administratie der geldmiddelen welke door den Wetgevende Raad gestemd worden ter daarstelling van nieuwe gevangenen en ter verbetering van de ouden.

Gemak van toegang, onstaande uit het afzyn van Gebergten of andere wezenlyke hinderpalen, te gelyk met digtheid van bevolking, op eenige byzondere plek, zal altyd behoorlyk worden in aanzien genomen in het bepalen van Grenzen van Districten of Afdeelingen, daar het opvallend moet zyn dat personen die het naaste wonen aan den naasten Magistraat, in sommige gevallen minder ongerijf zouden lyden, door een grooter afstand te reizen naar eenen meer verwyderden, dan in het overkomen van grooter hinderpalen om den naasten te bereiken.

Government House,
Cape Town, 29th March 1848.

By Order of His Excellency
Her Majesty's High Commissioner,
(Signed) RICHARD SOUTHEY, Secretary.

MANIFESTO.

WHEREAS some evil-minded Persons, prone to wickedness, to mischief, and to evil ways, have been in the Territory beyond the Orange River over which I have proclaimed the Sovereignty of Her Majesty; have been calling meetings to pervert the true spirit and meaning of my Proclamations of the 3d and 10th February; and have been assuming the characters of my Agents to gain the will of the people for the purposes of wicked excitement; and have been showing my signature to the Proclamation of the 3d February, professing it to be a document containing far different sentiments from the reality;—I deem it my duty to publish an explanation of the motives which have induced me to establish a Government over deluded, disappointed, and dissatisfied men, who have expatriated themselves from the Land of their Fathers—from the homes which reared them—from relatives and friends, with whom their social intercourse contributes to their happiness,—from their Pastors, their Churches, and consequently their God. Many of these men, indeed the majority, are personally known to me,—their hospitality I have received in their former comfortable homes and good houses,—their services I have admired when in the field under my command against a common enemy. These bonds of affection, which originated in 1835—6, have subsequently been cemented by various events. I was invited from within the Colony and from beyond the Orange River, to see the condition of these my friends; and to devise some measures to bring them back to social comforts, to harmony and confidence in one another, to their Church, and to their neglected God, who teaches us to gather together in prayer and thankfulness to Him. I established, under the blessing of Divine Providence, I trust a lasting peace with the Gaika and T'Slambie Kaffirs, and in 54 days from my landing I was among my old friends, who had thus invited Colonel Smith to see their condition and to ameliorate it. I was received every where with unmistakable marks of affection, with addresses, rejoicings, firings, and every demonstration of delight. Upon one occasion about thirty assembled near the Drakenberg, and after receiving me with every expression of personal regard, told me they had been endeavouring to establish a Government of their own, and hoped to succeed. We parted in amity. I had not proceeded two miles when several followed me, assuring me such was not the voice of half the number. They depicted their state of misery from want of Churches and Laws, declared that they had not seen a Church for ten years, they could neither marry their daughters nor bury their dead, that their Children were uneducated, and that they should become ignorant Barbarians, and Slaves to the Black Natives, who had Missionaries, Schools, and Chapels, while they were totally unprovided. They stated, with tears in their eyes, that they feared to speak before one another, that there was no mutual confidence, no reliance upon one another's actions. I told one of the party a leading part of what I proposed to do. He begged me to delay issuing the Proclamation until some meetings in contemplation should have taken place. I said, "Very well, I shall not do it until I have seen your great guide." Upon my seeing him, he urged upon me to issue it, promised to explain that he recommended it, as it would strengthen his hands to induce all to a system of rule; and the equity of the Land Question was such it carried conviction with it. If he did so he has acted up to his word; if he did not he has deceived both you and me.

You have indeed had no Government for years, are you happier? Are you richer? Are you better Christians? You are miserable, you are paupers, the wail of you ruined. You are receding from your Faith, with no ministers of the Holy Gospel to consult and to confide in; while your brothers, your cousins, your friends, under a just and free Government, are happy and con-

MANIFEST, OF OPENBARE VERKLARING.

NADEMAAL er eenige boosaardige personen, geneigd tot snoodheid, ondeugd, en kwaadgezindheid, in het Landgebied aan de overzyde van de Oranje Rivier, over hetwelk ik de Souvereiniteit van Hare Majesteit heb geproclameerd, geweest zyn;—byeenkomsten hebben gehouden om de ware bedoeling en meening van myne Proclamatien van den 3 en 10 February te verdraaijen; en hebben voorgegeven myne Agenten te zyn om de neiging van het volk te gewinnen, tot eindigen van kwaade opwekking; en myne naamteekening onder de Proclamatie van den 3 February hebben aangegeven, voorgevende dat dezelve een Document is dat gevoelens geheel verschillend van de ware behelst;—acht ik het myn pligt een uitleg te publiceren van de beweegredenen welke my noopten om een Gouvernement daar te stellen over misleide, teleurgestelde, en misnoegde menschen, die uit het Land hunner Vaders zyn uitgeweken,—de woningen daar zy in groot geworden zyn hebben verlaten,—afgescheiden van bloedverwanten en vrienden, de gezellige omgang met wien strekte tot hun geluk,—van hunne leeraren, hunne kerken, en gevolgelyk ook hun God. Velen dezer menschen, inderdaad, de meeste hunner, zyn my persoonlyk bekend,—hunne gastvryheid heb ik gesmaakt in hunne vorige genoegelyke huisgezinnen en goede woningen;—hunne diensten heb ik met bewondering gade geslagen wanneer zy onder myn bevel in het veld waren tegen eenen algemeenen vyand. Deze banden van toegeneigdheid, welke in 1835—6, ontstaan zyn, zyn naderhand door verschillende gebeurtenissen versterkt geworden. Ik ben genoodigd geworden van binnen de Kolonie en van de andere zyde van de Oranje Rivier, om te zien in welken staat myne vrienden zich bevinden, en eenige middelen te beramen om hen tot den gezelligen kring terug te brengen, tot eensgezindheid en vertrouwen in elkander, tot hunne Kerk, en tot hunnen verwaarloosden God, die ons leert te zamen te vergaderen in den gebede en dankzegging tot Hem. Ik heb, onder den zegen des Allerhoogsten, zoo ik vertrouw, eenen bestendigen vrede hersteld met de Gaika en T'Slambie Kafferstammen, en in 54 dagen sedert myne aankomst was ik onder myne oude vrienden, die aldus Kolonel Smith hadden verzocht om hunnen toestand te komen bezien en denzelve te verbeteren. Ik ben overal ontvangen geworden met de allerduidelykste blyken van toegeneigdheid, met adressen, verheugingen, salutschoten, en alle betooningen van blydschap. Op eene zekere gelegenheid zyn omtrent dertig personen naby Drakenberg te zamen gekomen, en na my met alle betooning van persoonlyk respect ontvangen te hebben, maakten zy my bekend dat zy getracht hadden hun eigen Gouvernement daartestellen, en hoopten daarin te zullen slagen. Wy scheidden in vriendschap. Ik had naauwelyks twee mylen afgelegd, wanneer verscheiden my navolgden, en my verzekerden dat zulks niet de stem van de helft van hun getal was. Zy schilderden den staat van ellende in welken zy verkeerden uit gebrek aan Kerken en Wetten; verklaarden dat zy in geen tien jaren eene Kerk hadden gezien; zy konden hunne dochters niet getrouwd krygen, noch hunne dooden begraven; dat hunne kinderen zonder opvoeding blyven; en dat zy onkundige Barbaren en Slaven van de Zwarte Natien zouden worden, die Zendelingen, Scholen, en Kerken hadden, terwyl zy van alles ontbloot waren. Zy verklaarden, met betraande oogen, dat zy bevreesd waren om in elkanders byzyn te spreken, want er bestond geen wederkerig vertrouwen, en men kon niet op elkanders handelwyze staat maken. Ik maakte aan een hunner bekend de voornaamste zaken welke ik voornemens was te verrigten. Hy verzocht my de uitvaardiging der Proclamatie te vertragen tot dat eenige byeenkomsten welke bestemd waren, zouden zyn afgeloopen. Ik zeide, "Zeer wel, ik zal het niet doen voor dat ik uw groote leidsman zal gezien hebben." Toen ik hem zag, spoorde hy my aan om dezelve uittevaardigen, beloofde dat hy zoude verklaren dat hy zulks aanbevolen had, daar het zyne handen zoude versterken om alle tot een stelsel van regeringsvorm te bewegen; en de billykheid van de Land questie was zoodanig, dat zy overtuiging met zich voerde. Indien hy zulks gedaan heeft, dan heeft hy zyn woord bevestigd; indien hy zulks niet gedaan heeft, dan heeft hy beide u en my bedrogen.

Gy hebt inderdaad sedert jaren geen Gouvernement gehad. Zyt gy gelukkiger? zyt gy ryker? zyt gy betere Christenen?—Gy zyt ellendig, gy zyt armen, de helft uwer zyn geruineerd. Gy wykt af van uw geloof, zonder leeraars om mede te raadplegen of in te vertrouwen; terwyl uwe broeders, uwe neven, uwe vrienden, onder een regtvaardig en vry Gouvernement, tented, are shipping wool and corn, selling valuable horses, sheep, and cattle; and enjoying all the blessings a good conscience effects, and Civilisation and Christianity ensure—going to their church on a Sunday with their elegant spans of Horses and Wagons, with their happy wives and children,—while your Sundays are spent in your miserable huts,—not the good houses you were reared in,—wretched and unhappy,—your manly and truly good hearts desiring a state of things, the wicked endeavour to thrust from your grasp; but which they shall not.

I shall now proceed to lay before you and the world, the motives which have actuated me, comprised in two words,—“your benefit.” You have called on me to assist you, I have done so,—vide my Proclamations of the 3rd of February and the 8th of March, in which last I have endeavoured, clearly, distinctly, and unequivocally, to set forth the Government calculated to render you—what you are not now—happy.

The ill-disposed have endeavoured to pervert facts—to startle the credulous—to alarm the timid—and to excite all to aid their own restless and uncontrollable dispositions. First, then, let us consider the practical effect of my paternal feelings for your welfare, for the satisfaction of your friends and relations within the Colony, who so desire to see you preserved in civilization, with a home to dwell on, a school for your children, and a church for you to pray in.

By the Treaties and Arrangements entered into in February 1845, between Sir Peregrine Maitland and Adam Kok, and other Native Chiefs occupying the Territories North of the Great Orange River, it was settled “that all agreements entered into by British Subjects residing in that Territory, with Natives, for the purchase of Land, should be of non-effect, or be held to be only the lease of the said Land for forty years, at the expiration of that period, the land with all improvements should revert to the original proprietors without any remuneration to the farmer for buildings, &c., and that all Lands held on leases of shorter dates, should on the expiration of the lease revert to the Natives on the same conditions.

That a certain portion of the Land then occupied by British Subjects between the Orange River and a Branch of the Riet River, called the “Kromelombog Spruit,” should be termed “Unalienable Territory,” and which, as the leases fall in, should not be re-let, but the occupants quit those places, and retire without the line of demarcation, the Riet River.

That portion of the Territory North and East of the Kromelombog Spruit, should be termed “Alienable Territory,” which the Natives might, if they chose, at the termination of the current leases, re-let at such exorbitant rates as they might fix, so that as leases expired the Natives could raise the rents according to the increased value of the property caused by the labour and expenditure of the Farmers upon it, and without making any payment for such labour and expenditure, notwithstanding the Farmer, during the existence of the lease, was obliged to pay quitrents, one half of which went to the Natives! A state of things most unsatisfactory to all parties, was the cause of constant quarrels and dissensions, and the Farmer felt himself an outcast, and subject to the will of uncivilized men.

This state of doubt and uncertainty has immediately changed by my visit; a fresh agreement entered into with Captain Adam Kok, the Farmer holds his Lands upon a first and indisputable right from Her Majesty of England, for which, you all know, you, at the time, shed tears of gratitude, and called down blessings upon me.

I have taken you from your King, Captain Kok, and the Great Chiefs whose Serfs you were, holding your Land on insecure tenure, and in constant apprehension of being turned off.—Was this right for a manly Africander? Have I not rescued you from so degrading, so uncertain, a state?

Thus do you hold your Lands in perpetuity in Captain Adam Kok's Country. I then entered into engagements with the great Chiefs Moshesh, Morokko, Moletsani, Sikonyella, &c. They rejoiced in what I proposed, and every Burgher now holds his Lands on the Faith of Her Majesty and from no Native whatever; while protection is afforded to the white man as well as to the black.

My every act has been the study of your benefit, the desire to place in your own hands, to every practicable extent, the governing of yourselves by yourselves. You are to choose your own Field-Commandants, your own Field-Corps; you are to have one of yourselves upon the Land Commission, you are to give your free opinion to the Magistrates whom I place among you, that I may hear your wants, desires, and wishes, with the sole view of supplying them. Every fraction of the Revenue, arising from the trifling Quitrents demanded of you, is for your benefit, for your rule, for your Schools, for your Churches, for your God. You go to bed at night returning thanks to the Omnipotent Protector of all,—“This is my home, my own undisputed home, here, sweet home;—my wife will be protected, my children educated, my devotion ensured, markets will be established for my worldly benefit.” You sleep the sleep of happiness, for God is with you. You rise in the morning; and with devotional effusion of gratitude, ere you proceed to your daily labour, you see your wife and your children around you without fear or trembling, without doubt or uncertainty. Excitement is succeeded by content, and the voice at first whispers,—“We thank our old friend Colonel Smith for what he has done.” Shortly the voice loudly exclaims,—“Smith is our Governor; he it is who has induced us to rule ourselves under his fostering care; we thank him as our Governor.”

What have I done for your Countrymen in Natal, part of Her Majesty's dominions? I found them wandering, they knew not whither, from their homes, their standing crops, and their excellent gardens cultivated by their own hands; their wives, and children, and flocks, and herds exposed to the miseries of a rainy season. I took such steps as to ensure their return to their comfortable homes; and I appointed the man who has great influence with you one of a Land Commission, the result of the labours of which would ensure the great point,—undisputed right of possession of your Land.

Pause then, I pray you, my friends, ere you allow wicked agitators to excite you to permit your well-disposed minds to drive peace, happiness, and

gelukkig en te vrede zyn, wol en koorn afschepen, kostbare paarden, schapen en vee verkoopen, en alle zegeningen genieten welke een goed geweten opleveren, en beschaving en godsdienst daarstellen, 's Zondags naar de Kerk gaan met hunne fraaije spannen paarden en wagens, met hunne vergenoegde vrouwen en kinderen, terwijl uwe Zondagen doorgebracht worden in uwe ellendige hutten, niet in de goede huizen waarin gy opgevoed zyt, maar woest en onvergenoeg, uwe mannelyke en waarlyk goede harten begeeren een staat van zaken welke de kwaadgezinde buiten uw bereik trachten te stellen, doch hetgeen zy niet zullen doen.

Ik zal nu overgaan om voor u en de wereld de beweegredenen open te leggen die my hebben bestuurd, toen ik de twee woorden gebruikte “uw voordeel.” Gy hebt tot my geroepen om u te helpen: dit heb ik gedaan; zie myne Proclamatie van den 3den February, en 8sten Maart, waarin ik getracht heb duidelyk, klaar, nadrukkelyk, en ondubbelzinnig te doen verstaan, dat het gouvernement ten doel had om u te maken, hetgeen gy thans niet zyt,—namelyk, gelukkig.

De kwalykgezinden hebben getracht de waarheid te verdraaijen, den ligt-geloovigen te verschrikken, den vreesachtigen te beangstigen, en allen aan te sporen om behulpzaam te zyn in hunne eigene rusteloze en ontembare geneigdheden. Laat ons dan ten eerste de werkdadige uitkomst overwegen van myne vaderlyke gevoelens tot uwe welvaart, ter voldoening van uwe vrienden en betrekkingen binnen de kolonie, die zoo zeer begeeren u bevestigd te zien in de beschaving, met een huis om in te wonen, een school voor uwe kinderen, en eene kerk om in te bidden.

Door de Tractaten en Schikkingen gemaakt in February 1845, tusschen Sir Peregrine Maitland en Adam Kok, en andere plaatselyke Opperhoofden, in bezit van de Landstrecken ten Noorden van de Oranje Rivier, werd bepaald, “dat alle overeenkomsten gemaakt tusschen Britsche Onderdanen in die landstrecken woonachtig en Inboorlingen, voor het koopen van Land, van geene kracht zouden wezen, of gehouden zullen worden slechts eene verhuring te zyn van het gez. Land voor veertig jaren, na verloop waarvan, het land, met al de verbeteringen, terug zoude vallen op de oorspronkelyke eigenaren, zonder eenige vergoeding aan den boer voor gebouwen, enz., en dat alle landeryen voor een korteren tyd verhuurd, na verloop van het huurcontract, zouden terug vallen op de Inboorlingen onder dezelfde voorwaarden.

Dat een zeker gedeelte van het land, toen bewoond door Britsche Onderdanen tusschen de Oranje Rivier en de Tak van de Riet Rivier, genaamd de “Kromelleboog Spruit,” genoemd zoude worden “Onvervreemdbaar Grondgebied,” hetwelk, nadat de huurcontracten zyn verlopen, niet weder moest worden verhuurd, maar de bewoners de plaatsen moesten verlaten, en zich zoude begeven buiten de bepaalde linie—de Riet Rivier.

Dat gedeelte van de landstreek ten noorden en oosten van de Kromelleboog Spruit moest genoemd worden “Vervreemdbaar Grondgebied,” hetwelk de Inboorlingen, indien zy zulks verkozen, na verloop van de onvolbrachte huurcontracten, wederom konden verhuren voor zulke buitensporige pryzen als zy mogten bepalen; zoo dat de Inboorlingen, na elk verloop van een huurcontract, de huurpryzen konden verhoogen volgens de vermeerderde waarde van het eigendom, veroorzaakt door den arbeid en uitgaaf der boeren op hetzelfde, en zonder iets te betalen voor zoodanigen arbeid en uitgaaf, niet tegenstaande de boer gedurende het bestaan des huurcontracts verplicht was de Erfpacht te betalen, de helft waarvan de Inboorlingen kregen!—een staat van zaken, zeer ongenoeglyk voor alle partyen, was de oorzaak van vele twisten en verdeeldheden, en de boer gevoelde zich een verworping, en onderworpen aan den wil van onbeschaafde menschen.

Deze staat van twyfel en onzekerheid is dadelyk veranderd door myn bezoek; eene nieuwe overeenkomst werd gemaakt met Adam Kok; de Boer behoudt zyn land met een eerst en onbetwistbaar regt, van Hare Majesteit van Engeland, waarvoor, zoo als gy allen weet, gy, te dier tyd, tranen van dankbaarheid stortet, en den zegen des hemels voor my afsmeektet.

Ik heb u afgenomen van uwen koning, Kapitein Kok, en de groote Opperhoofden, wiens knechten gy waart, uw land onder een onzeker regt bezittende, en in eene gedurige vrees van verjaagd te worden. Was dit regt voor eenen mannelyken Africander? Heb ik u niet gered uit zulk eenen verlagenden, zulk eenen onzekeren toestand.

Op deze wyze blyft gy uw land bezitten in eeuwglurendheid, in het grondgebied van Adam Kok. Ik heb toen onderhandelingen gemaakt met de groote Opperhoofden Moshesh, Morokko, Moletsani, Sikonyella, enz. Zy verheugden zich in hetgeen ik voorstelde, en ieder burger bezit nu zyn land onder de trouw van Hare Majesteit, en van geen Inboorling hoegenaamd; terwijl bescherming wordt verleend zoowel aan blanken als aan zwarten.

Elk myner daden was eene ernstige overdenking van uw voordeel, eene begeerte om, zoo verre als het doenlyk was, u te laten regeren door uzelf. Gy hebt de magt uw eigene Veld commandanten te kiezen, uw eigen Veldkornetten,—een van u moet eene plaats hebben in de Land-Commissie, gy moet uw gevoel openlyk aan den dag leggen aan de Magistraten die ik onder u plaats, opdat ik uwe onthoringen, begeerten, en wenschen moge hooren, met het eenig oogmerk, om dezelve te vervullen. Iedere penning van de Inkomsten, voortdruittende uit de Erfpacht van u geëischt, is tot uw voordeel, tot uwe regering, tot uwe scholen, tot uwe kerken, tot uwen God. Gy gaat 's avonds naar bed, den almachtigen beschermder der wereld dankende.—“Dit is myn huis, myne eigene onbetwiste woning, hier ben ik te huis, hoe aangenaam! myne vrouw zal worden beschermd, myne kinderen opgevoed, myne godsdienst gevestigd,—markten zullen worden opgerigt tot myn tydelijk voordeel.” Gy slaapt de slaap des geluks, want God is met u. Gy staat op in den morgen, en met eene godsverheerlykende uitstorting van dankbaarheid, ziet gy, voor dat gy u naar uwen dage yksehen arbeid begeeft, uwe vrouw en uwe kinderen om u heen zonder vrees of beving, zonder twyfel of onzekerheid. Opgewondenheid wordt door tevredenheid opgevolgd, en ten eerste fluistert de stem “Wy zegenen onze oude vriend Kolonel Smith dank voor hetgeen hy gedaan heeft.” Niet lang duurt het of de stem roept luidkeels uit:—“Smith is onze Gouverneur; hy is het die ons aangespoord heeft onszelfen te regeren, onder zyne minzame zorg; wy danken hem als onze Gouverneur.”

Wat heb ik voor uwe landgenooten gedaan te Natal, een gedeelte van Hare Majesteits Bezittingen? Ik vond hen dwalende, zy wisten niet waarheen, van hunne woningen, hun oningeoogste producten, hunne uitmuntende tuinen die zy met hunne eigene handen hebben bearbeid, hunne vrouwen, hunne kinderen, en kudden en vee troepen blootgesteld aan de ellende van een regenachtig jaargety. Ik nam zulke maatregelen welke de terugkeering tot hunne geryfelyke woningen konden verzekeren; en ik stelde eenen man die veel invloed onder u heeft aan als een van de Land Commissie, de uitslag van welker arbeid de verzekering moest daarstellen van die groote zaak,—onbetwist regt van de bezittingen uws lands.

Sta dan stil, bid ik u, myne vrienden, voor dat gy u door aanhitzers laat opwinden, om uwe, ten goede geneigde genoederen, toe te laten, vrede, geluk.

comforts, now within your grasp, from your doors. What object had I in wandering, an exile as it were, among you; when duty commanded me to repair to the seat of Government, where my services were so much required, in travelling hundreds of miles and living in a wagon, but that of endeavouring to do good to old friends who required one to show himself to them? On my return your Countrymen poured down blessings on my head for my exertions in your behalf. Are such devoted acts for your welfare, are your own interests, to be cast aside? Is your future prospect of happiness, your future hope in Eternal Life, to be driven from you by wicked designers and ambitious men, who have their own ends alone to serve? Are your wives to be left in tears for your absence, or to be rendered widows, and are your children to be uneducated and homeless? Is base ingratitude to usurp the seat of reason?

The prosperity of a nation is materially dependent on a just system of Government and Finance,—the leading principles of which are, that every individual shall contribute to the maintenance of a Government in proportion to the property he possesses, to protect him from domestic tyranny or foreign aggression; and that every individual contributing a quota shall have a voice in regulating the scheme of his Government and the disbursement of the revenue.—I have given you this in every practicable form.

When at Winberg, on the presentation of an Address, I was asked for Soldiers;—I exclaimed "Soldiers! You around me are my Soldiers," meaning that peaceable Citizens are their own Soldiers, and require no military aid whatever. This expression has been perverted; and you have been taught to believe, not thinking for the moment, that I am to make you all Soldiers! For what? Because I love Peace, and require no military in my operations to carry out what I desire? Is not all Southern Africa the seat of Peace, without one drop of blood having been shed by my authority, or one blow struck? Am I the man to require soldiers for any ordinary purpose? But there are causes so sacred to the Lord and in the eyes of the world, as to demand military interference;—hence I have proclaimed that you hold your Lands subject to military service; and I do so for the sole purpose of providing for the time of need. But if you never load your firelock until I ask you, it may be turned into what all arms are best fitted for—Plough-shares.

Now, my friends!—my half lost friends and wavering christians! I have addressed you as Colonel Smith, I have appealed to your feelings as men, as fathers of families, as reasoning human beings possessing immortal souls. I have exerted myself to the extent of my abilities and my energies. I now turn from Colonel Smith to the Governor of this Colony;—and I PROCLAIM TO YOU that I will carry out, or die in the attempt, the provisions of the Proclamations I have framed for your exclusive benefit and by your own desire, and the factions demagogue shall tremble at that name which he even now respects, and for which you all so far, and wide, and loudly proclaimed your love. You well know I never forfeited my word. You well know, for many of you have served with me in the field, the velocity with which I wield the sword. Do not suppose that I have stripped myself of the means by sending home troops. I tell you, and tell you truly and honestly, I hold in readiness a force of guns, cavalry, and tried British Soldiers, who in fifteen days should be among you, men capable of causing stouter hearts than yours to quail. When I commanded you were brave; now! you have no head you dare confide in, your hearts are in the wrong place, your cause being unjust,—an ignorant, discontented few endeavouring to excite the many. Do you talk of resistance and assemblages,—you whom two years ago a few dragons rode over like sheep! Do you presume to imagine that you are able to do what no mass of demagogues has ever yet done,—the undisciplined to resist, and successfully maintain a protracted resistance against, the disciplined force of a regular Government?

But oh! how I hate and detest the name of war and commotion! The many battle scenes I have witnessed arise like phantoms to my imagination. But as I abhor war, so will I terribly wield its power if you drive me from your affection. If you compel me to wield the fatal sword, after all I have attempted for you, the crime be upon your own heads; and while my Troops shall exult in Victory, I will weep, as you have seen me do, over the fallen, the defeated, the deluded; your lands shall be wrested from you, your houses destroyed, your herds swept off, your own hearts blackened by wicked ingratitude, and your faithful, your generous friend, who has exerted himself for your exclusive benefit, turned into the Avenger of Evil! You shall become like the Ishmaelites of old, "your hand shall be against every man, and every man's hand shall be against you." "Vengeance is mine," saith the Lord; and in His name, and for the benefit of His creatures, would I smite those I so love, and to whom I have so endeavoured to prove that I do so.

There are limits to the extent of the most virtuous feelings in this worldly and uncertain trial of Life. Aid me, as I desire you, to preserve them to us; and as in generous and uncorrupted minds the superiority of Religion carries us through the calamities of this transient life, let us together thus pray:—

Lord of all Power and Might, Disposer of all Things, good and evil, deign to look down upon us frail and sinful creatures; teach us who are our true friends, preserve and strengthen us in all the trials of temptation, defend us from the evil practices of wicked men, teach us to worship Thee with our hearts, our minds, our souls, devoted unto Thee through Jesus Christ; direct our hearts and our actions towards our neighbour; teach us so to live that our course in this life may lead us to Life Eternal; teach us to forgive our enemies and to love our friends; teach us after a peaceable life to look forward to that re-union in Heaven, the fountain of our hopes on Earth, the happy place of rest for our immortal souls. When we must put off the mortal garment, and lie down on the bed of Death, let us be at Peace with Thee Oh Lord, at Peace with the world, and at Peace with our own hearts!!! This grant us, O Lord, Our God Almighty, through Jesus Christ.—Amen.

Government House,

en genoeglykheden, nu in uw bereik, van uwe deuren te dryven. Welk oogmerk had ik in het rondzwerven onder u, een balling als het ware, toen de pligt my gebod naar de zetel van het Gouvernement my te begeven, waar myne diensten zoo zeer werden vereischt; in het overreizen van honderden van mylen, en wonende in een vagen; dan een poging om aan oude vrienden goed te doen die slechts wenschten iemand te hebben die zich aan hen vertoonde? By myne terugkomst hebben uwe landgenooten zegeningen over myn hoofd geregend voor myne inspanningen tot uw welzyn. Moeten zulke toegewyde daden tot uw welzyn, moeten uwe eigene belangen ter zyde worden geworpen? Moet uwe toekomstende vooruitzichten van geluk, uwe hoop hierna maals in het eeuwige leven, van u worden verwyderd door goddelooze ontwerpers en heerschzuchtige menschen, die slechts hunne eigene eind-oogmerken willen bereiken? Moeten uwe vrouwen in tranen worden gelaten voor uw afzyn, of weduwen worden gemaakt, en moeten uwe kinderen onopgevoed en huizeloos worden gelaten? Moet lage ondankbaarheid de zitplaats der rede in bezit nemen? De voorspoed eener natie is byzonder afhankelyk van een regtvaardig stelsel van Regering en Financie, de voornaamste grondbeginselen van welke zyn, dat elk persoon iets zal bydragen ter onderhouding van het Gouvernement, in evenredigheid tot het eigendom dat hy bezit, om hem voor plaatselyke dwingelandy of vreemden aanval te beschermen; en dat ieder persoon die iets bydraagt een stem zal hebben in het regelen van de plannen van zyn Gouvernement, en het beschikken van de Inkomsten. Ik heb u dit in iedere uitvoerbare wyze gegeven.

Toen ik te Winberg, by gelegenheid van het presenteren van een Adres, gevraagd werd om soldaten,—riep ik uit: "Soldaten! gy, random my, zyt myne Soldaten," daardoor te kennen gevende, dat vreedzame Burgers hunne eigene soldaten zyn, en geen militaire hulp hoegenaamd noodig hebben. Deze uitdrukking is verdraaid geworden, en gy zyt geleid geworden te gelooven, voor de oogenblik niet bezinnende, dat ik van u allen soldaten wilde maken! Waarom? Omdat ik de vrede lief heb en geene krygsmagten noodig heb in myne handelingen om hetgeen ik begeer uit te werken? Is niet geheel Zuid Afrika de zetel van vrede, zonder dat een droppel bloeds op myn gezag werd vergoten, of een slag is gedaan? Ben ik de man die soldaten voor een gewoon oogmerk vereischen zal? Maar er zyn oorzaken zoo heilig aan den Heer en in de oogen der wereld, dat zy de tusschenkomst van eene legermagt noodzakelyk maken;—hierom heb ik geproclameerd dat gy uwe landeryen behoudt, onderworpen aan de Burgerdienst; en ik doe zulks met het eene oogmerk om te zorgen voor den tyd van nood. Maar als gy nooit uw geweer laadt voor dat ik het van u begeer, kan hetzelfde worden veranderd in het geen alle wapenen het meest geschikt toe zyn—namelyk ploegscharen.

Nu myne vrienden! myne half-verloren vrienden, en aarzelende christenen! Ik heb u aangesproken als Kolonel Smith,—ik heb my beroepen op uwe gevoelens als menschen, als vaders van huisgezinnen, als redelyke menschelyke wezens, onsterfelyke zielen bezittende. Ik heb gedaan wat ik kon zoo ver myn vermogens en krachten my toelieten. Nu spreek ik tot u, niet meer als Kolonel Smith, maar als de Gouverneur dezer Volkplanting, en ik PROCLAMEER AAN U, dat ik de voorzieningen van de Proclamatie, die ik tot uw uitsluitelyk voordeel, en op uwe eigene begeerte heb vervaardigd, ten uitvoer zal brengen, of in de poging sneven zal. De twistzieke volkschreeuw zal siddren by den naam die hy nu zelfs eerbiedigt, en voor welken gy allen, wyd en zyd en luidkeels uwe gehechtheid hebt verklaart. Gy weet wel dat ik nooit myn woord heb verzaakt. Gy weet wel, want velen van u hebben met my in de oorlog gediend, de snelheid waarmede ik het zwaard hanteer. Denk niet dat ik my van de middelen beroofd heb door het naar huis zenden der troepen. Ik zeg u, en ik zeg het u als een oprecht en eerlyk man, ik houd een magt in gereedheid van kanonnen, ruitery, en beproefde Britsche soldaten, die binnen vyftien dagen onder u zullen zyn, mannen geschikt om stoutere harten dan de uwe te doen beven. Toen ik het bevel over u had, waart gy dapper; nu! hebt gy geen opperhoofd waarin gy vertrouwen stellen kunt, uwe harten zyn in de verkeerde plaats, omdat uwe zaak onregtvaardig is,—eenige weinige domme misnoegde menschen trachtende de menigte aan te hitsen. Spreekt gy van wederstand en byeenkomsten, gy, die twee jaren geleden door een klein getal dragonders als schapen omver gereden werd? Durft gy u verbeelden dat gy in staat zyt te doen, hetgeen eene menigte van oproermakende windzakken nimmer hebben kunnen doen,—de ongeoeffenden, de geoeffende legermagt van een geregeld Gouvernement te wederstaan, en een langdurige wederstand volthouden?

Dan ach, welk een afschuw heb ik zelfs voor den naam van oorlog en beroering. De vele veldslagen welke ik bygewoond heb, komen als schimmen voor mynen geest. Doch even als ik den oorlog haat, zal ik deszelfs verschrikkelijke kracht handhaven wanneer gy my van uwe toegenegenheid afscheidt. Indien gy my noopt het noodlottige zwaard te zwaayen, na al hetgeen ik voor U beproefd heb, zoo blyve de misdaad op uw eigen hoofd; en hoewel myne troepen in triomf zullen juichen, zal ik wenen, gelyk gy my hebt zien doen, over de gevallen, de verslagenen, de misleiden,—uwe landen zullen u ontnomen worden; uwe huizen vernield, uwe kudden weggevoagd, uwe eigene harten zwartgeverwd door goddelooze ondankbaarheid; en uwe getrouwe, uwe edelmoedige vriend, die zich ten uwen behoeve heeft afgesloofd, veranderd in een wreker van het kwaad.—Gy zult worden gelyk de Ismaëlieten van ouds, "uwe hand zal tegen elk man zyn, en elk mans hand zal tegen u zyn." "Wraak is de myne," zegt de Heere; en in zynen naam, en tot nut van zyne schepselen, zou ik hen tuchtigen, die ik zoo bemin, en wien ik getracht heb te bewyzen dat ik zulks doe.

Er bestaan grenspalen voor de deugdzaamste gevoelens in deze wereldsche en onzekere beproeving des levens. Komt my te hulp, gelyk ik u verzoek, om dezelve te bewaren; en zoo als in weldadige en onbedorvene harten, de verhevenheid van Godsdienst ons door moeilijkheden van dit voorbygaand leven voortvoert, laten wy te zamen bidden:—

Heer van alle Kracht en Magt, Beschikker van alle dingen, goed en kwaad, verwaardig U nedertezien op ons, zwakke en zondige Schepselen; leer ons wie onze ware vrienden zyn; bewaar en versterk ons in alle beproevingen en verzoeken; behoed ons tegen de slechte daden van goddelooze menschen, leer ons U te aanbidden met onze harten, onze zinnen, onze zielen, U toegedaan door Jezus Christus; rigt onze harten en onze daden jegens onze naasten; leer ons alzoo te leven dat onze loop in dit leven ons brengen mag tot het eeuwige leven; leer ons onze vyanden te vergeven, en onze vrienden lief te hebben; leer ons, na een vreedzaam leven, uit te zien na die vereeniging in den hemel, de bron van onze hoop op aarde, de gelukkige plaats der rust voor onze onsterfelyke zielen.—Wanneer wy het sterfelyk kleed moeten afleggen, en op het doodsbed nederliggen, laten wy Vrede hebben met u, o Heer! Vrede met de wereld, en Vrede met onze eigene harten!!! Schenk ons dit, o Heer, onze Almagtige God, door Jezus Christus.—AMEN.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, Cape Town,
8th March 1848.

HAVING been represented to the Administrator of the Government, that some Farms (or places) are attached to or form part of Divisions or Districts, which might be more conveniently made to form parts of adjacent Divisions or Districts, His Excellency has directed it to be notified, that any proprietor who may be inconvenienced from such a cause, is requested to communicate thereon to this Office, with a view to relief being afforded by the transfer of his place to an adjacent Division or District.

His Excellency does not wish existing boundaries, either of Fieldcornetries, Districts, or Divisions, in any way to influence the general or individual convenience—the sole desire of the Government in fixing boundaries being, to promote the convenience of the inhabitants, by shortening as much as is practicable the distances they have to travel to attend upon a Civil Commissioner or Resident Magistrate.

Facility of access arising from the absence of Mountain Barriers or other material obstructions, equally with density of population, at any particular locality, will always be duly considered in defining boundaries of Divisions and Districts, since it must be obvious that persons residing nearer to the nearest seat of Magistracy would, in some cases, be less inconvenienced by travelling a greater distance to a more remote one, than by overcoming greater obstacles to reach the nearest.

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
8th March 1848.

BY a Government Notice dated the 3d June 1847, the practice of obtaining by impressment, Oxen, Horses, and Wagons for the conveyance of the Circuit Judges was discontinued, and His Excellency the Administrator of the Government, being of opinion that the circumstances of the Colony do not require the longer continuance of so objectionable a practice for any other Branch or Department of the Public Service, hereby notifies for general information, that from and after this date, the system of compulsory impressment for any Public Service must terminate.

In future all Officers of the Government who are required to travel on Public Duty at the Public expense, must make their own arrangements for their conveyance, under such instructions as they may from time to time receive.

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

Excellency the Administrator of the Government, of the 27th January 1848, announcing the terms and conditions upon which Kafir Youths might be apprenticed within the Colony; Notice is hereby given, that applications from persons who have not yet obtained any, and who may still be desirous of doing so, are to be made to this office, inserting therein the number and description of Kafirs required, in order that the necessary arrangements may be made, for conveying them over land, to the respective Civil Commissioners, who will be authorized on their arrival to apprentice them to the applicants.

By Command of his Excellency the Administrator of the Government, the Administrator of the Government desires it to be notified, that all correspondence attaching to described by His Excellency's Proclamation of the 19th December 1847, with the exception of the

vernment directs it to be notified, that whenever any Person receives an appointment in the Civil Service of this Government, he must proceed to his station, and enter upon the duties without delay.

Whenever a Civil Servant desires to be absent from his duties he must, whenever practicable, obtain the previous sanction of His Excellency for such absence; but when he is so circumstanced that such previous sanction cannot be obtained, he will transmit, through the proper channel, a full explanation in writing of those circumstances, for His Excellency's consideration. Any disregard whatever of these directions will be visited with His Excellency's severe displeasure.

By His Excellency's Command,

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
7th March 1848.

HIS Excellency the Administrator of the Government being of opinion that the public interests, as well as the personal convenience of the Unofficial Members, will best be consulted by holding the Meetings of the Legislative Council of this Colony at stated periods, and not, as heretofore, by summoning the Members from time to time as circumstances might require;—hereby notifies his intention of holding two Sessions of Council during each year, the first to take place in May, and the other in October.

By His Excellency's Command,

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
22nd March, 1848.

WITH reference to the accompanying Minute of this day's date, which the Administrator of the Government has directed to be published, for general information, respecting the improvement and future management of Gaols, Lock-up Houses, and Houses of Correction; His Excellency has been pleased to appoint the following Gentlemen to be Members of the General Board of Commissioners of Public Prisons:—

The Hon J. MONTAGU, Esq., Chairman.
CLERKE BURTON, Esq.,
WILLIAM HOPE, Esq.,
The Rev. Dr. ADAMSON,
Dr. INNES.

By Command of His Excellency the Administrator of the Government,

(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

Government House, 22nd March 1848.

IN no department of the Government of this Colony does there exist a more urgent necessity for extensive and substantial improvement, than in Prisons and Prison Discipline.

Previous to the institution of the present system of Convict discipline in 1844, all sentences of imprisonment, either with or without hard labour, were carried out in the District Gaols and the Penal Establishment on Robben Island.

At that time my predecessor Sir George Napier thus remarks on the state of Prisons and Prison discipline:—"The present system does not only not contemplate, but by its very arrangements either neutralises or wholly counteracts that process of reformatory discipline, which is essential to the salutary exercise of Penal Justice,—a process, which while it strictly regards the extent and degree of punishment awarded for the offence committed, seeks, both on moral and political grounds, to rescue the delinquent from the power of vicious habits or degrading propensities, and aims to restore him, if possible, to society, prepared to resist its temptations from a higher motive than the dread of punishment consequent on crime."

No description of mine can more forcibly or truly depict the evils resulting from the state in which both Prisons and Prison discipline now are, than that I have just quoted.

And, although the system of Convict discipline instituted in 1844 has been attended with the most beneficial results, in respect to all Male Convicts sentenced to imprisonment with hard labour for periods exceeding three months, yet the evil remains in all its intensity as it regards those on whom its baneful influence is most to be deplored. I allude to female and untried prisoners, and to those convicted of petty offences and misdemeanours.

From the Returns annually made by the Resident Magistrates, it appears that there are in all twenty-three Gaols throughout the Colony. Were the principle of separation, now being extensively practised in the Gaols of England, adopted here, these Gaols would not be capable of accommodating more than 171 Prisoners; whilst, according to the practice that has hitherto obtained, they are reported as capable of containing 1235,—an amount wholly disproportionate to the average dimensions of the cells and the prison accommodation generally, if the ends for which a Prison is solely erected are kept in view, viz: safe custody, punishment, and reformation.

It further appears, as might naturally be inferred from the above statement, that no attempt at classification has ever been made, or could be, beyond the mere separation of the sexes, and that in some instances, but very imperfectly,—that the defective state of the Gaols in some Districts imposes the necessity of the nightly use of fetters, to ensure the safe custody of the Prisoners, whether untried or convicted,—and that air, exercise, and healthy employment form no part of the system. As a natural consequence, punishments for offences within the Prison have been frequent, in the shape of flogging, irons, and solitary confinement.

By Ordinance No. 24, 1847, entitled an Ordinance "for Improving the Gaols of the Colony," I have been vested with full powers, under its provisions, to take such steps as may appear to me advisable for the improvement of the Colonial Prisons, for the due classification of the Prisoners, and for the establishment of such a system of Prison Discipline as appears best calculated not only to punish but to reform.

To effect this, I propose to place all Prisons, Lock-up Houses, and Houses of Correction under the direction and control of a Board, to be called the General Board of Commissioners of Prisons. To this Board will be added Local Boards for the immediate inspection and supervision of the several Gaols, and for aiding the General Board in carrying out such measures of improvement as shall from time to time receive my sanction.

To the General Board will be committed the charge of administering the funds that are voted by the Legislative Council for the erection of new Gaols and the improvement of the old.

(Signed) H. G. SMITH.

ROWLAND'S KALYDOR,

An Eastern Botanical Discovery of surprising efficacy for rendering the

SKIN SOFT, CLEAR, AND FAIR,

and for best wing a Healthy Roseate Hue on the Complexion.

As a CREATOR and CONSERVATOR of a transparently fair skin ROWLAND'S KALYDOR may be said to exert an almost magical power. BALMY, ODORIFEROUS, CREAMY, and perfectly free from all mineral admixture, it is distinguished for its extremely bland, purifying, and soothing effects upon the skin; while by its action on the pores and minute secretory vessels, expels all impurities from the surface, allays every tendency to inflammation, and thus effectually dissipates all REDNESS, TAN, PIMPLES, SPOTS, FRECKLES, DISCOLORATIONS and other unsightly Cutaneous Visitations. The radiant bloom it imparts to the FACE; the softness and delicacy which it induces on the HANDS, ARMS and NECK; its capability of soothing irritation, removing Cutaneous defects, and all unsightly appearances, render it indispensable to every Toilet.

AN INFALLIBLE HAIR DYE.

ROWLANDS' MELECOMIA.

The most successful LIQUID PREPARATION ever known in this or any other country, for Dying the HAIR of the HEAD, WHISKERS, MUSTACHIOS, and EYEBROWS, a natural and permanent BROWN or BLACK, so exactly resembling the natural colour of the Hair as to defy detection. It is perfectly innocent in its nature, is free from unpleasant smell, and can be used by any Lady or Gentleman with the greatest ease and secrecy. Its effects are so permanent, that neither water nor perspiration will influence them; and it is entirely free from those properties (usual in Hair Dyes) which give an unnatural red or purple tint to the Hair.—Price 5s

The following Testimonial is one of many thousands addressed to Messrs. Rowlands and Sons, 20, Hatton Garden, London.

Gentlemen.—I consider it almost an imperative duty to state the valuable efficacy of your excellent MACASSAR OIL. For the last fifteen years I have been bald, occasioned by a most dreadful fever while in India. I have used almost every means to procure a head of hair again, but all my efforts seemed fruitless, until, accidentally, a friend advised the use of your valuable Hair Restorer—(I can give it no better name,) and after using a 3s. 6d. bottle every symptom of a new head of hair began to show itself, to the surprise not only of myself, but my family. I resolved on having another, and obtained a 7s. bottle, and before the whole of which was used I had and have now, as handsome a head of hair as ever man enjoyed and I earnestly recommend all who have not tried this most excellent Oil, will not fail to do so.

I am Sirs,
Your most grateful and obedient servant.

J. WALKER, Colonel.

KWhitly Lodge, near Taunton,

LADIES travelling or otherwise exposed to the scorching rays of the sun, will find ROWLAND'S KALYDOR a most refreshing preparation and auxiliary to comfort, dispelling the cloud of languor and relaxation from the Complexion, and immediately affording the pleasing sensation attending elasticity of the Skin. The numerous varieties of CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS, SUN-BURN, FRECKLES, TAN, and DISCOLORATIONS are pleasingly eradicated by the KALYDOR, and the skin rendered delicately clear and soft. Its purifying and refreshing properties have obtained its exclusive selections by the COURT, and the ROYAL FAMILY OF GREAT BRITAIN, and those of the CONTINENT OF EUROPE together with the "ELITE" of the Aristocracy and "Haute Volée."

The high reputation it bears, induces UNPRINCIPLED SHOP-KEEPERS to offer their spurious "KALYDORS" for sale composed of the most deleterious ingredients, containing mineral astringents, utterly ruinous to the Complexion, and by their repellent action endangering health. It is therefore imperative on purchasers to see that the words

re on the ENVELOPE (an Engraving of exquisite beauty from a steel plate by Messrs. Perkins, Bacon & Co.) ALL OTHERS ARE FRAUDULENT COUNTERFEITS!!

GENTLEMEN,

I think it but an act of justice to inform you of the benefit I have derived from the use of your admirable Macassar Oil. About six months ago I found my hair getting daily more weak and thin, and much discoloured; fearing that I should lose it entirely, and hearing of the efficacy of your Macassar Oil, I have for some time past constantly used it, and the result is, that my hair is now perfectly restored and much improved in appearance and colour, having become thick, dark and glossy; it also curls freely without the use of paper, which it never did before. To all my friends I have warmly recommended your Macassar Oil as an excellent restorative and preservative for the hair. As I have an objection to see my name in print, I beg you will not publish it, but you are at liberty to show this letter, or make any other use you please of it, and refer applicants to me, if necessary, in proof of the efficacy of your Macassar Oil.

Yours obedient servant,

The following interesting communication was sent to Messrs ROWLAND and SONS, 20, Hatton Garden, London.

23, Mason Street, Old Kent Road.

GENTLEMEN.—About August, 1839, my hair began to fall off, and in so rapid a manner, that in the space of a month my head was almost divested of hair. I tried several preparations for its recovery without the slightest benefit, when one day your circular, in "Collins' Memoranda," caught my eye. I ventured on the purchase of a small bottle of ROWLAND'S MACASSAR OIL, after using which I found my hair was beginning to re-appear, and accordingly I purchased a larger bottle, which when finished, I felt satisfied that I had proved in my own person all you profess as to its restorative qualities; in short, after two months steady perseverance in its use, I had as good a head of hair as at any time of my life, for which permit me to offer my thanks. I have delayed writing to you for six months (from the time of leaving off the Oil) wishing to test the permanence of its restoration. I find it continues as firm and thick as before it began to fall off, with every prospect of its continuance.

I am, gentlemen,
Yours obediently,
JOHN FOSTER.

PROCLAMATION

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH,
Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Administrator of the Government of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice Admiral of the same; and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the Affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS by the 3rd Section of the Ordinance No. 11, of the 10th March 1846 entitled "an Ordinance for amending the Law relative to the Licensing of Retail Shops," it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Governor of the Colony, by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be by him issued for that purpose, to declare and make known, from time to time, as occasion shall require, any other towns, villages or places, in which it shall have become just and equitable that the obligation of taking out such licences as aforesaid, should be imposed, and from and after whatever time shall be fixed in and by any such Proclamation as the time from and after which it shall be incumbent for all keepers of retail shops in any particular town, village, or place, to have such licences as aforesaid, it shall be so incumbent precisely as if such licences were by this Ordinance expressly directed and required to be taken out:—Now, therefore, in pursuance of the before-mentioned Section of the Ordinance referred to, and by virtue of the provisions therein contained, I hereby declare and make known that from and after the 1st of May next, it shall be incumbent for all keepers of retail shops at any one of the towns, villages, or places mentioned in the annexed Schedule to have such licences as aforesaid, and I further direct that every such licence shall be issued by the Distributor of Stamps of the District within which the intended retail shop shall be situated; and such distributor shall issue such licences, to commence and be in force for the year 1848, from the 1st May next, and he shall allow a rebate of one-third of the amount of every such licence for the said year;
but every such licence as aforesaid, for every succeeding year, shall commence from, and continue in force for twelve months after the 1st January in every such year.

And whereas by the 4th Section of the Ordinance herein referred to, it is enacted, that, for the purposes of the said Ordinance, the limits of every town, village, or place which shall neither be a municipality, nor have a public market, nor have erected therein or adjacent a Dutch Reformed Church, commonly called or known as the church of such town, village, or place, shall be such limits as the Governor of this Colony, by a Proclamation, or Proclamations to be by him issued, shall from time to time fix and determine.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the beforementioned Section of the Ordinance referred to, and by virtue of the provisions therein contained, I hereby declare that the limits of each of the undermentioned four places shall be as follows:—

Salem to comprise a "rayon" of three miles of ground around the Wesleyan Chapel there.

Fort Peddie to comprise a "rayon" of two miles of ground around the Fort.

Waterloo Bay or Fort Albert to comprise a "rayon" of two miles of ground around the building now used as a Custom House.

The Port of East London to comprise a "rayon" of two miles of ground around, as already mentioned in Proclamation of 19th January, 1848.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office,
Cape Town, 6th April, 1848.

HIS Excellency the Administrator of the Government has been pleased to direct the publication of the following Letter of Instructions to the General Board of Commissioners of Public Prisons; and directs all Public officers and servants of the Government to correspond directly with the Board on all matters relating to their functions and duties. The signature of any member of the commission on the part of the Board is to be considered as conveying the sentiments and authority of the whole Board

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,

To the General Board of Commissioners
of Public Prisons.

Colonial Office,
Cape Town, 4th April, 1848.

Gentlemen,—The main objects to be effected by the establishment of the General Board of Commissioners of Public Prisons are stated in the Minute of His Excellency the Administrator of the Government dated 22d. ultimo.

The great ends of penal discipline are, first, the punishment of crime; and, secondly, the reformation of the offender.

Prior to the year 1844 the latter of these objects had been altogether neglected, and the former very inefficiently secured, as it ever must be by a system which contemplates the removal and punishment of individual criminals rather than the diminution of the general mass of crime.

The abolition in 1845, of the penal settlement at Robben Island, and the employment of the convicted criminals upon the public Roads of the Colony was an important step in advance, and it is very satisfactory to find that the system is working beneficially, not only for the general interests of the public, but for the moral improvement of individual offenders.

But the adoption of this system with reference to male convicts, only rendered it more incumbent on the government, than formerly, to take measures for the improvement of the moral condition of the other classes of prisoners viz., female convicts, persons detained for trial, and prisoners whose sentences to labor or confinement are under thirty days.

It is evident that the public benefit to be derived from the labor of the convicts on public roads, was not the sole inducement which led the Government to adopt the system established in 1844. The words of Sir George Napier quoted by His Excellency the Administrator of the Government in his Minute above alluded to, evidently point to a "process of reformatory discipline" as one of the principal objects which the Government was striving to attain.

And that this is an object which should ever be kept in view, in the formation of gaols and prisons is obvious,— the pursuit of it by the government being a duty to society at large as well as to the criminal. It is the only safeguard which society can possess against the constant increase of crime by the periodical enlargement of criminals hardened in vice by companionship with others possibly more degraded than themselves. To the criminal himself every possible exertion on the part of government towards promoting his moral amelioration is also clearly due. Society has no right to create crime under the pretence of punishing it: to confirm the principle of vice in which a criminal has been reared by forcing him into contact with others more hardened than himself; and then to turn him loose upon the world, exposed to temptations which have acquired additional force over his mind by the pernicious associations of a prison. By adopting such a course, what we call the prevention becomes the promotion of crime: and the prison, instead of being an abode of correction, is turned into a school of vice.

These principles which are true wherever they are enunciated, are peculiarly applicable to this colony. There is here a great scarcity of labor, so that the Government can fairly hold out to the reformed criminal the hope of obtaining honest employment on regaining his liberty. The complaint cannot be made here, which is sometimes too justly made in thickly peopled countries, that the criminal on his enlargement from prison finds himself alone in the world, shunned by society, and is thus left only the alternative of a return to his former course of crime, or starvation. Every man who has the disposition to gain an honest livelihood in this colony has also the means of doing so.

Again, as there is a sufficient demand for honest and steady laborers in the Colony, so is there also a peculiar necessity for the promotion of honest and steady habits among the laboring classes. The prevailing vice of the native population is indolence, a vice which is proverbially the fruitful source of crime. For this, therefore, among other reasons, prison discipline ought to be so arranged as to create motives to industry, and promote habits of it.

The great principle that prison discipline ought to have for its object as well the reformation of the criminal as the punishment of crime, was, as has been already observed, practically acknowledged by the Colonial Government in 1844; and it now only remains to carry out the principle with reference to persons detained in the public prisons of the Colony.

The reason why this has not been already done is to be found in the insufficient accommodation provided in the public gaols, whereby the classification of the prisoners was rendered impossible, and the separation of the sexes not always secured; discipline and reformation were out of the question; and even safe custody was so uncertain, that in the single month of March in the present year, no less than ten prisoners escaped from the different gaols.

With a view to obviate these difficulties, an Ordinance has been framed "for improving the gaols of this colony," by which it is proposed to remodel the whole system of prison discipline in the colony, and to provide for the proper discipline and reformation of the prisoners.

By this Ordinance (No. 24, of 1847) the power of making rules for the government of the gaols; the duties to be performed by the several officers attached thereto;
the food and clothing of the prisoners; the periods for the visits of the Resident Magistrates, the introduction of spirituous liquors &c. into the gaols; and other matters connected with their management, is conferred upon the Governor. It is further provided that a gaoler shall reside in each of the prisons, who is to have no other occupation, and is prohibited from selling any articles to the prisoners either directly or indirectly under a penalty of from £5 to £100. The gaoler is to keep a journal which he is bound to produce to the Resident Magistrate of the district on the occasion of his visits of inspection, and in which he is required to enter all matters worthy of note occurring within the prison; he is further strictly prohibited from receiving any fees from the prisoners, and from punishing any of them on his own responsibility; but he may put them in irons in certain cases, which must be immediately reported to the Resident Magistrate.

This latter officer is required to pay periodical visits to all the gaols in his district, and to report to the Governor the state of discipline maintained, the conduct of the gaoler and inferior officers, the number and description of the prisoners, and all other matters of importance connected with the state of the prison. He is also empowered to punish by solitary confinement with or without spare diet, by hard labor, or personal correction, such of the prisoners as may have offended against prison discipline. He is also empowered to try summarily all prisoners attempting to make their escape from gaol.
Gaming and the use of intoxicating drinks are strictly prohibited in the prison.

By the 4th section, which is, perhaps, the most important, it is enacted that the male and female prisoners are to be kept strictly separate, and that the prisoners of each sex are to be divided into six classes, viz:—

- (a) Persons confined under any decree of civil imprisonment.
- (b) Persons committed for want of sureties to keep the peace.
- (c) Persons committed for murder, culpable homicide, rape, robbery, or assault with intent to commit any of those crimes, or in which any dangerous wound is given, arson, house-breaking with intent to commit any crime, or theft of any cattle, sheep, or other property, or other crime of equal degree of guilt with any of the said crimes.
- (d) Persons committed for any crime of a lesser degree of guilt than any of the crimes aforesaid.
- (e) Persons convicted of any such crime as is herein-before in letter c set forth.
- (f) Persons convicted of any such crime as is herein-before in letter d set forth.

The very necessity of such provisions cannot fail to suggest to any thinking mind the mischievous tendency of the system which they are intended to reform, and under which house-breakers, murderers, and criminals of lower degree are all herded together, to contaminate each other by the communication from one to another of that peculiar kind of vice in which he happens to be most proficient.

His Excellency is of opinion, as stated in his Minute, that the provisions of this Ordinance will be most effectually carried out by a General Board of Commissioners of Public Prisons; and, having accordingly appointed you to form such Commission, he has determined to delegate to you (subject to his approval) the powers and duties conferred upon him by the provisions of the Ordinance in question.

In order to aid the General Board in the performance of its duties, Local Boards will be appointed in all the Country Districts, which will consist of the Resident Magistrate, who will be Chairman ex officio, and two other members, who should be respectable and influential inhabitants of the District.

It will be the duty of the General Board to suggest for His Excellency's approval the names of such Persons in each District as may appear best fitted for this important duty, and at the same time willing to undertake it.

It will also be the duty of the General Board to draw up, for His Excellency's approbation, regulations for the District Boards, who will correspond with the Government through the General Board only.

The first duty of the General and Local Boards will be to turn their attention to the construction of gaols, and providing such prison accommodation as the circumstances of the country seem to require. Security connected with that degree of accommodation which tends to preserve health, is the first object to be sought after, as the constant escape of criminals from the public prisons cannot, on any account, be allowed to continue. But in order to carry out the views of the Legislative Council with reference to the classification of prisoners, it is obvious most of the gaols will require considerable enlargement. Previous to the passing of the Prison Ordinance, a voluminous correspondence took place between the Secretary to Government and several Magistrates resident in the country districts, the whole of which His Excellency has directed to be laid before the General Board for its information. The Board will communicate to His Excellency with all convenient despatch, the course which they would recommend him to adopt in each of the several cases brought under his notice in this correspondence, as well as any general suggestions they may have to make relative to the mode of constructing gaols most convenient for purposes of Prison Discipline.

His Excellency desires that the General Board will keep up such a correspondence with the Local Board as will keep the former in full possession of all necessary information relative to the state of every prison with reference to discipline; the healthy condition and cleanliness of the cells and other parts of the building; the personal cleanliness of the prisoners; their conduct and demeanour in every respect; and all other matters connected with the internal economy of the prisons, and the general working of the system.

His Excellency is also of opinion that it might lead to beneficial results if, in addition to the information to be thus obtained from the Local Boards, periodical inspections of all gaols, Lock-up-Houses, and Houses of Correction were to be made by some member of the General Board, or by an agent appointed by them from time to time. This, however, is to be understood as a suggestion thrown out for the consideration of the Board rather than as a direction for their guidance; and the Board will take an early opportunity of reporting to His Excellency whether they consider such direct supervision and control to be practicable or advisable.

From the information obtained by these means the Board are requested to draw up an annual report to be laid by His Excellency upon the table of the Legislative Council, in which they will detail their proceedings, and those of the District Boards as reported to them from time to time, and will also make any suggestions which may occur to them relative to the improvement of prison discipline. This report will be accompanied by a detailed account of their disposal of the funds voted by the Legislative Council for the erection and improvement of gaols, the administration of which will rest with the Board.

The Board are requested to understand that the provisions of the Ordinance No. 24 of 1847 are not to be considered as incapable of amendment. In the course of their administrative duties it is not improbable that many valuable amendments may occur to them, which when brought under his notice, will always receive His Excellency's most anxious attention. This remark is particularly applicable to the subject of the classification of the prisoners. In forming rules for the construction of new prisons and for the future government of those already built it will probably be found advisable to make provision for a further sub-division of the classes enumerated in the clause of the Ordinance quoted above, and as a general rule the Board is to understand that the classification directed in that clause is what must at least, be made;—but that any more minute classification may be made where the means are available and the Board consider it desirable. The Board will therefore avail themselves of all the information on this important subject which the experience of Europe and America so abundantly supplies, and will not fail, as occasion offers, to submit for His Excellency's sanction such additional improvements in the classification or entire separation of Prisoners, as they may think it advisable to recommend.

Another subject of the utmost importance, and which ought to occupy the early attention of the Board is, providing moral and religious education for the prisoners. His Excellency looks upon this as the basis of all reformatory discipline, and feels assured that it is only necessary for him to name it to the Board to obtain for it their most anxious attention, and their cordial co-operation with his efforts to make the provision required.

With reference to the penal system, and the general constitution of the prisons, His Excellency does not think it necessary to give the Board minute instructions, feeling certain that these matters may safely be left to their discretion, and desiring only to state to the Board the general principles upon which he conceives that a well-organized system of prison discipline ought to be founded.

The Board will understand that not only gaols but all Houses of Correction, Lock-up-Houses, and all places devoted to the reception of female prisoners and convicts are equally placed under their administration and control; and in order to assist them as much as possible in the discharge of the duties which they have undertaken gratuitously, all public officers and servants of the Government will be instructed to correspond directly with the Board on all matters relating to their duties and functions.

As the Ordinance for improving the gaols of the colony does not provide for the appointment of general and local Boards, but confers the powers to be exercised by them upon the Governor and Executive Council, it will be necessary for the Board to obtain His Excellency's sanction previous to carrying any of their measures into effect.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU.

GOUVERNEMENTS KENNISGEVING.

Koloniale Secretary, 5 April 1849.

ZYNE Excellentie de Administrateur des Gouvernements heeft goed gevonden den volgende Brief van instructie aan het algemeene College van Commissarissen van Publieke Gevangenissen, te publiceren, en gelast alle publieke Ambtenaren en Dienaars des Gouvernements om dadelyk te corresponderen met het College, over alle zaken betrekkelijk hunne functien en pligten. De teekening van ieder Lid der Commissie, namens het College, moet worden beschouwd als gevende de gevoelens en het gezag van het geheele College.

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. Excellentie den Administrateur des Gouvernements.

(Get.) JOHN MONTAGU,

Aan het Generale College van Commissarissen van Publieke Gevangenissen.

Koloniale Secretary, 4 April 1848.

MYNHEER.—De hoofdbedoelingen welke beoogd worden door het oprigten van het Generale College van Commissarissen van Publieke Gevangenissen, zijn vermeld in de Minute van Zyne Excellentie den Administrateur des Gouvernements, gedateerd 22 dezer.

De groote einden van strafrecht zijn, eerst, de straf voor de misdaden, en ten tweede, de verbetering van den overtreders.

Voor het jaar 1844 is dit laatste doel geheel en al verzuimd, en het eerste zeer gebrekkig, verzeerd zoo als altyd het geval moet zijn by een stelsel dat eerder het wegvoeren, en de straf van individuele misdaders bedoeld dan de vermindering van de algemeene massa van misdaden.

De afschaffing in 1845 van de straf Kolonie op Robben Eiland, en het gebruik van de veroordeelde misdadigers aan de publieke wegen van de Kolonie, was een belangrijke stap in den voortgang, en het is zeer voldoende te bevinden dat het stelsel heilzaam werkt, niet alleen voor de algemeene belangen van het publiek, maar voor de zedelyke verbetering van individuele misdadigers.

Maar het aannemen van dit stelsel met betrekking tot mannelijke Bandieten alleen, maakt het dringender voor het Gouvernement dan voorheen om maatregelen te nemen tot het verbeteren van den zedelyken stand van de andere klassen van gedetineerden, t.w., vrouwelyke bandieten, personen in hechtenis gehouden voor teregtstelling, en gedetineerden wier vonnis van dwang arbeid of confinemment minder is dan dertig dagen.

Het is opvallend dat het publieke voordeel dat moet getrokken worden uit den arbeid van de gedetineerden aan de publieke wegen, niet het eenige was dat het Gouvernement overhaalde om het stelsel aan te nemen, dat in 1844 was ingesteld. De woorden van Sir George Napier aangehaald door Zyne Excellentie den Administrateur des Gouvernements, in zyne Minute boven bedoeld, toont ten klaarsten een "voortgang van hervormende tucht," als een der bedoelingen welke het Gouvernement streefde te bereiken.

En dat dit doel altyd in het oog moet worden gehouden, by het aanleggen van Gevangenissen is opvallend, zynde het streven daarnaar een pligt jegens de maatschappij in het algemeen, zoowel als jegens den misdadiger. Het is het eenige behoudmiddel dat de maatschappij bezit, tegen het bestendig vermeerdren van misdaden door het opgezette tyden loslaten van misdadigers, verhard in het kwaad door den omgang met anderen, misschien nog meer verlaagd dan zy zelf. De misdadiger heeft duidelyk aanspraak op alle mogelyke pogingen van de zyde des Gouvernements, om zynen zedelyken stand te verbeteren. De maatschappij heeft geen recht misdaad te scheppen onder het voorwendsel van de zelve te straffen; het grondbeginsel van misdaad te bevestigen, waarin een misdadiger is opgebracht, door hem in aanraking te brengen met anderen meer verhard dan hy zelf; en hem dan los te laten in de wereld blootgesteld aan verleidingen, welke vermeerdere kracht over zynen geest hebben bekomen door den nadeligen omgang in eene Gevangenis. Door het volgen van zulk eenen gang wordt hetgeen men noemt, de voorkoring van misdaad, deszelfs aanmoediging, en de Gevangenis, in plaats van een huis van verbetering, wordt veranderd in eene School van misdaad.

Deze grondbeginselen welke waar syn waar dezelve worden geuit, zyn byzonder toepasselyk op deze Kolonie. Er is hier een groot gebrek van arbeiders, zoodat het Gouvernement aan den hervormden misdadiger gerustelyk de hoop kan geven van het bekomen van een eerlyke kostwinning dadelyk na hy zyne vryheid terug bekomt. Hier kan men niet klagen, zoo als men dikwyls doet in dicht bevolkte landen dat de gevangene by syn ontslag uit de gevangenis zich alleen bevindt in de wereld, verlaten door de maatschappij en dus genoodzaakt terug te keeren tot zynen vorigen gang van misdaad, of te verhongeren. Een ieder in deze Kolonie die gezond is eerlyk zyn brood te verdienen heeft het middel om zulks te doen.

Wederom, daar er genoege vraag in deze Kolonie is, naar eerlyke en bekwaame arbeiders zoo bestaat en ook eene byzondere noodzakelykheid om gewoonten van eerlykheid en vlyt onder de arbeidende kolonisten aan te moedigen. De herschende ondeugd onder de inlandsche bevolking is traagheid, eene ondeugd welke spreekwoordelyk de kweekster van misdaad is; om deze, zoowel als om andere redenen behoort de gevangenis tucht zoo te worden geschiedt, dat dezelve aanspoort tot vlyt en arbeidzaamheid en de hebbykheid daarvan bevordert.

Het groote principe dat gevangenis tucht zoo wel de hervorming van den misdadiger, als de straf der misdaad beoogt is, zoo als alreeds aangemerkt, alreeds in 1844 door het Gouvernement erkend, en niets blijft nu over dan het principe in werking te brengen ten aanzien van de personen in de publieke gevangenissen van de Kolonie, gedetineerd.

De reden waarom dit niet gedaan is, moet men vinden in de ongenoezaamheid geryven in de publieke Gevangenissen voorzien, waaronder de klassificatie van de gevangenen onmogelyk werd, en de scheiding der sexen niet altyd mogelyk; tucht en hervorming waren uit de kwestie, en zelfs de veilige bewaring was zoo onzeker, dat in de enkele maand Maart in het tegenwoordige jaar, er niet minder dat tien gevangenen ontsnappt zyn.

Ten einde deze moeijelykheden te ontgaan, is eene Ordonnantie gemaakt "tot het verbeteren van de Gevangenissen van deze Kolonie," welke berdoelt het geheele stelsel van gevangenissen te hervormen, en te voorzien voor de tucht en bevordering der gedetineerden.

By deze Ordonnantie (No. 21, 1847) is het vermogen van het maken van regulatie voor de Gevangenissen; de pligten te worden volbragt, door de onderscheidene beambten daaraan gehecht, het voedsel en de kleeding der gedetineerden, de tyden voor de bezoeken der Resident Magistrate, het inbrngen van sterke dranken, enz., in de Gevangenissen, en andere zaken, verbonden met derzelve bestuur, gevestigd in den Gouverneur. Het is verder bepaald dat een cipier zal huisvesten in iedere Gevangenis, die geen andere bezigheid zal mogen hebben, en dien het verboden is eenige artikel aan de gevangenen te verkoopen, hetzy direct of indirect, onder eene boete van £5 tot £100. De cipier moet een dagboek houden, dat hy aan den Resident Magistraat van het district moet produceren, by gelegenheid van zyne bezoeken van inspectie, en waarin hy alle zaken die opletting waard zyn die in de Gevangenis voorvallen moet aantekenen; het is hem verder volstrekkelyk verboden van de gevangenen eenig geld aan te nemen, of hen te straffen op zyne eigen verantwoordelykheid; maar in zekere gevallen kan hy hem in boeien slaan, hetgeen dadelyk aan den Resident Magistraat moet gerapporteerd worden.

Deze laatste ambtenaar moet op gezette tyden al de Gevangenissen in zyn district bezoeken, en aan den Gouverneur rapporten, van den staat van tucht die onderhouden wordt, het gedrag van den cipier, en lagere suppoosten, het getal, en de beschryving der Gevangenen, en alle andere zaken van aangelang, met de Gevangenis in verband staande. Hy is mede geregtigd tot het straffen met solitair confinemment, met of zonder schraal dieet, door dwang arbeid of lichaams kastyding, van zoodanige gevangenen die tegen de gevangenis tucht misdaden hebben. Hy heeft mede de magt summierlyk alle gevangenen teregt te stellen die hebben getracht uit de gevangenis te ontkomen. Dobbelen, en het gebruik van sterke dranken is ten sterksten in de Gevangenis verboden.

By de 4de Sectie, welke misschien de belangrijkste is, is bepaald, dat mannelijke en vrouwelyke gedetineerden stricteiyk van elkander gescheiden zullen worden gehouden en dat de gedetineerden van ieder sexe zullen moeten worden verdeeld in zes klassen.

- (a) Personen onder eenig decreet van gyzeling.
- (b) Personen gecommiteerd uit gebrek van horgtocht om de rust te houden.
- (c) Personen gecommiteerd voor moord, misdadig mantslag, roo, vrouwen echennis, of aanranding met bedoeling om eenige dier misdaden te plegen of waar eenige gevaarlyk woord is toegebragt, brandstichting, huisbraak met voornemen om eenige misdaad te plegen, of het stelen van eenig vee, schapen of bokken, of anderen misdaad van gelijken aard van schuld als eenige dezer misdaden.
- (d) Personen gecommiteerd voor eenige misdaad van mindere graad van schuld dan eenige der vermelde misdaden.
- (e) Personen overtuigd van eenige zoodanige misdaad als beschreven in letter c.
- (f) Personen overtuigd van eenig misdaad als beschreven in letter d.

De volstrakte noodzakelykheid van zoodanige voorzieningen moeten aan iederen denkenden geest de kwade strekking toonen van het stelsel dat dezelve bestemd zyn te hervormen, en waaronder huisbrekers, moordenaars en misdadigers van lagere graad allen byeen waren, om eldander te belemmen door de mededeling aan eldander van die soort van misdaad waarin zy het meest bedreven zyn.

Zyn Excellentie is van gevoelen, als vermeld in zyn minute, dat de voorzieningen van deze Ordonnantie ten krachdigste zullen kunnen worden uitgewerkt door een Generaal College van Commissarissen van publieke Gevangenissen; en, u gevolgelyk hebbende aangesteld om zoodanig College uit te maken, aan u, (onderwerpen aan zyne goedkeuring) de vermogens en pligten toe te vertrouwen aan hem gegeven door de voorzieningen van de bedoelde Ordonnantie.

Ten einde het Algemeene College te helpen in het volvoeren van dezelve pligten, zullen plaatselyk Collegien worden aangesteld in allen buiten districten, welke zullen bestaan uit den Resident Magistraat, die de voorzitter zal zyn, en twee andere leden, dat respectabele en aanzienlyke inwoners van het district moeten zyn.

Het zal mede de pligt zyn van het Generale College, om ter Zynen Excellenties goedkeuring, Regulation te maken voor de Districts Collegien, die met het Gouvernement zullen moeten corresponderen, door middel van het Generale College.

De eerste pligt van de Generale en Districts Collegien zal wezen hunne aandacht te vestigen op het bouwen van Gevangenissen, en het voorzien van zoodanige Gevangenissen Huizing, als de omstandigheden des lands zullen schynen te vorderen. Zekerheid, vereenigd met dien graad van gemak, welke de gezondheid in stand houdt, is de eerste zaak waar naar getracht moet worden, daar het gestadig ontkomen van gedetineerden uit de Gevangenissen niet langer geduld kan worden. Maar het is klaar dat ten einde de inzichten van den Wetgevenden Raad, met betrekking tot de klassificatie der Gedetineerden in werking te brengen, velen der Gevangenissen aanzienlyke vergoeding behoeven. Voor het passeren van de Gevangenis Ordonnantie heeft eene volumineuse correspondentie plaats gevonden tusschen den Secretaris des Gouvernements en verscheiden Magistrate resident in de Buiten Districten, welke Zyne Excellentie gelust heeft in zyn geheel aan het Generale College voor te leggen, tot deszelfs narigt. Het College zal met alle mogelyke spoed aan Zyne Excellentie den gang mededeelen, welke hetzelfde verlangt hem aan te bevelen, in ieder onderscheiden gevallen in deze correspondentie onder zyne opmerking gebragt, zoowel als alle algemeene voordragten betreffelyk het bouwen van Gevangenissen, het best geschikt voor Gevangenis tucht.

persoonlyke zindelijkheid van de gedetineerden, en het gedrag in ieder opzigt, en alle zaken in verband met de inwendige bestiering van de Gevangenis, en het algemeen werken van het stelsel.

Zyne Excellentie is mede van gevoelen dat het tot voordelige gevolgen zou leiden, indien boven het narigt dus bekomen van de plaatselyke Collegien, eene geregelde examinatie van alle Gevangenissen, Wachtuizen, en Tuchtuizen, geschieden door eenig lid van het algemeene College, of door eenen agent door hem in der tyd aangesteld. Dit moet echter eer worden beschouwd als een voordragt, gedaan ter overweging van het College, eer dan als een last tot hunne rigting, en het College zal de eerste gelegenheid moeten waarnemen om aan zyne Excellentie te rapporteren of het zulk direct toezigt en beguur mogelyk of raadzaam oordeelt.

Uit het narigt bekomen door deze middelen, wordt het College verzocht een jaarlyksch rapport op te maken, om door Zyne Excellentie ter tafel van den Wetgevenden Raad te worden gelagd, waarin het deszelfs handelingen zal moeten detaileren, en mede alle voordragten onder welke betrekking hebben tot de verbetering van gevangenis tucht. Dit rapport zal moeten verzeld zyn van een gedetailleerd verslag, van hunne beschikking van de fondsen door den Wetgevenden Raad gevoteerd voor bethouwen en verbeteren van Gevangenissen, waarvan de administratie by het College verhylen zal.

Het College wordt verzocht te verstaan dat de voorzieningen van de Ordonnantie No. 24 1847, niet moeten worden beschouwd als onvatbaar voor verbetering. Het is niet onwaarschynlyk dat er zich in den loop van deszelfs administratie pligten vele nuttige verbeteringen zullen voordoen, welke ter zynen kennis gebragt, altyd Zynen Excellenties grootste of lettendheid zullen genieten. Deze aanmerking is byzonder toepasselyk op het onderwerp van de klassificatie van gevangenen. In het maken van regelen voor het bouwen van Gevangenissen, zal men het waarschynlyk raadzaam vinden, schikking te maken voor een verdere onderverdeeling van de klassen, vermeld in de clausule van de Ordonnantie boven aangehaald, en als een algemeene regel moet het College in het oog houden, dat de classificatie in de clausule vervalt, die is welke voor het allerminste moet gemaakt worden, maar dat eene nauwere scheiding moet worden gemaakt waar het College zulks noodig oordeelt; en de middelen het toelaten. Het College moet daarom gebruik maken van alle onderdrikt op dit belangryk onderwerp, dat de ondervinding van Europa en Amerika in zulke ruime mate verstrekt, en niet verzuimen, wanneer de gelegenheid zich voordoet ter Zynen Excellenties goedkeuring zoodanige verbeteringen voor te dragen als hetzelfde geraden zal vinden aan te bevelen.

Een ander onderwerp van het hoogste belang, en dat de vroegtijdige oplettenheid van het College moet bezig houden, is het voorzien voor het zedelyk en godsdienstig Onderwys der Gedetineerden. Zyne Excellentie beschouwt dit als den grondslag van alle hervormende tucht, en voelt zich verzekerd dat het hem alleen noodig is dit aan het College te noemen, om deszelfs hartelyke medewerking met zyne inspanningen om deze regel algemeen te maken te verzekeren.

Met betrekking tot het strafstelsel en de algemeene inrigting der Gevangenissen, acht Zyne Excellentie het niet noodig nauwe instructie aan het College te geven, overtuigd zynde dat deze punten veilig aan deszelfs discretie kunnen worden overgelaten, en alleen verlangende het College die principes te milien waarop hy geloofd dat een wel georganiseerd stelsel van Gevangenis tucht behoort te grondvest te zyn.

Het College moet verstaan dat niet alleen Gevangenissen, maar alle Huizen van opsluiting en Tuchtuizen, en alle plaatsen bestemd tot het innemen van Vrouwelyke Gevangenen en Bandieten gelykelyk onder deszelfs bestuur en dwang zyn; en ten einde het zoo veel als mogelyk is te helpen in de volbrenging van de pligten welke het onbetwist aangenomen heeft, zullen alle Publieke Ambtenaren en Dienaars des Gouvernements gelast worden directelyk te corresponderen met het College, op alle onderwerpen betreffende deszelfs pligten en functien.

Daar de Ordonnantie voor het verbeteren van de gevangenissen van de Kolonie niet voorziet voor de aanstelling van algemeene en plaatselyk Collegien, maar de vermogens door dezelve te worden uitgeoefend schenkt aan den Gouverneur en den Uitvoerenden Raad, zal het College gehouden zyn de goedkeuring van Zyne Excellentie te bekomen voor het eenige van deszelfs maatregelen in werking brengt.

Ik heb de eer te zyn, myne Heeren,

Uw onderdanige Dienaar,
(Get.) JOHN MONTAGU.

GOUVERNEMENTS KENNISGEVING.

(Zie de Namen in het Engelsch)

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. E. den Administrateur des Gouvernements, (Get.) JOHN MONTAGU,
Gouvernements Secretaris

GOUVERNEMENTS KENNISGEVING.

ZYNE Excellentie de Administrateur van het Gouvernement, van gevoelen zynde dat de publieke belangen zoowel als het personeel gemak van de Onofficiële Leden het best zullen worden geadpleegd door het houden van de Byeenkomsten van den Wetgevenden Raad op bepaalde tyden, en niet zoo als tot nu toe door het oproepen der Leden van tyd tot tyd, naar mate de omstandigheden zulks vorderen;—geeft hy deze kennis van zyn voornemen, om twee zittingen van den Raad te houden, de eerste in de maand Mei, en de tweede in October.

Ter Ordonnantie van Zyne Excellentie den Administrateur des Gouvernements,

Gouvernements Secretaris

SEE SUPPLEMENT.

GOUVERNEMENTS KENNISGEVING.

Koloniale Secretary, 8 Maart 1848.

Waar het ter kennis van den Administrateur des Gouvernements is gebracht dat sommige Plaatsen geacht zijn aan, of een deel maken van Afdelingen of Districten, welke met meer geryf deelen zouden kunnen worden gemaakt van aangrenzende Districten of Afdelingen, zoo heeft Zyne Excellentie gelast bekend te maken, dat iedere eigenaar, die ongelukkig zal lyden uit zoodanige oorzaak verzocht wordt zulks bekend te maken aan dit Kantoor, opdat hem relief zal kunnen worden geschonken door het overbrengen van zyne Plaats tot een aangrenzend District of Afdeling.

Zyne Excellentie verlangt niet dat de bestaande Grenzen, hetz van Veldkornetschappen, Districten, of Afdelingen, in eenige mate het algemeene of private gemak zullen belemmeren, zynde het enige verlangen van het Gouvernement is het bepalen der limiten, het bevorderen van het gemak der Ingezetenen, door het verkorten, zooveel als mogelijk is, van de Afstanden welke zy moeten reizen om zich voor eenen Civilen Commissaris of Resident Magistraat te begeven.

Gemak van toegang, ontstaande uit het afzinken van Gebergten of andere wezenlyke hinderpalen, te gelyk met dichtheid van bevolking, op eenige byzondere plek, zal altyd behoorlyk worden in aanzien genomen in het bepalen van Grenzen van Districten of Afdelingen, daar het opvallend moet zyn dat personen die het naaste wonen aan den naasten Magistraat, in sommige gevallen minder ongerief zouden lyden, door een grooter afstand te reizen naar eenen meer verwijderden, dan in het overkomen van grooter hinderpalen om den naasten te bereiken.

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. E. de Administrateur des Gouvernements,

(Get.) JOHN MONTAGU,
Gouvernements Secretaris.

By Order of His Excellency
Her Majesty's High Commissioner,
(Signed) RICHARD SOUTHEY, Secretary.

MANIFESTO.

WHEREAS some evil-minded Persons, prone to wickedness, to mischief, and to evil ways, have been in the Territory beyond the Orange River over which I have proclaimed the Sovereignty of Her Majesty; have been calling meetings to pervert the true spirit and meaning of my Proclamations of the 3d and 10th February; and have been assuming the characters of my Agents to gain the will of the people for the purposes of wicked excitement; and have been showing my signature to the Proclamation of the 3d February, professing it to be a document containing far different sentiments from the reality;—I deem it my duty to publish an explanation of the motives which have induced me to establish a Government over deluded, disappointed, and dissatisfied men, who have expatriated themselves from the Land of their Fathers—from the homes which reared them—from relatives and friends, with whom their social intercourse contributes to their happiness,—from their Pastors, their Churches, and consequently their God. Many of these men, indeed the majority, are personally known to me,—their hospitality I have received in their former comfortable homes and good houses,—their services I have admired when in the field under my command against a common enemy. These bonds of affection, which originated in 1835—6, have subsequently been cemented by various events. I was invited from within the Colony and from beyond the Orange River, to see the condition of these my friends; and to devise some measures to bring them back to social comforts, to harmony and confidence in one another, to their Church, and to their neglected God, who teaches us to gather together in prayer and thankfulness to Him. I established, under the blessing of Divine Providence, I trust a lasting peace with the Gaika and T'Slambie Kaffirs, and in 54 days from my landing I was among my old friends, who had thus invited Colonel Smith to see their condition and to ameliorate it. I was received every where with unmistakable marks of affection, with addresses, rejoicings, firings, and every demonstration of delight. Upon one occasion about thirty assembled near the Drakenberg, and after receiving me with every expression of personal regard, told me they had been endeavouring to establish a Government of their own, and hoped to succeed. We parted in amity. I had not proceeded two miles when several followed me, assuring me such was not the voice of half the number. They depicted their state of misery from want of Churches and Laws, declared that they had not seen a Church for ten years, they could neither marry their daughters nor bury their dead, that their Children were uneducated, and that they should become ignorant Barbarians, and Slaves to the Black Natives, who had Missionaries, Schools, and Chapels, while they were totally unprovided. They stated, with tears in their eyes, that they feared to speak before one another, that there was no mutual confidence, no reliance upon one another's actions. I told one of the party a leading part of what I proposed to do. He begged me to delay issuing the Proclamation until some meetings in contemplation should have taken place. I said, "Very well, I shall not do it until I have seen your great guide." Upon my seeing him, he urged upon me to issue it, promised to explain that he recommended it, as it would strengthen his hands to induce all to a system of rule; and the equity of the Land Question was such it carried conviction with it. If he did so he has acted up to his word; if he did not he has deceived both you and me.

You have indeed had no Government for years, are you happier? Are you richer? Are you better Christians? You are miserable, you are paupers, the half of you ruined. You are receding from your Faith, with no ministers of the Holy Gospel to consult and to confide in: while your brothers, your cousins, your friends, under a just and free Government, are happy and con-

MANIFEST, OF OPENBARE VERKLARING.

NADEMAAL er eenige boosaardige personen, geneigd tot snoodheid, ondeugd, en kwaadgezindheid, in het Landgebied aan de overzyde van de Oranje Rivier, over hetwelk ik de Souvereiniteit van Hare Majesteit heb geproclameerd, geweest zyn;—byeenkomsten hebben gehouden om de ware bedoeling en meening van myne Proclamatien van den 3 en 10 February te verdraaijen; en hebben voorgegeven myne Agenten te zyn om de neiging van het volk te gewinnen, tot eindigen van kwaade opwekking; en myne naamteekening onder de Proclamatie van den 3 February hebben aangegeven, voorgevende dat dezelve een Document is dat gevoelens geheel verschillend van de ware behelst;—acht ik het myn pligt een uitleg te publiceren vande beweegredenen welke my noopten om een Gouvernement daartestellen over misleide, teleurgestelde, en misnoegde menschen, die uit het Land hunner Vadersen zyn uitgeweken,—de woningen daar zy in groot geworden zyn hebben verlaten,—afgescheiden van bloedverwanten en vrienden, de gezellige omgang met wien strekte tot hun geluk,—van hunne leeraren, hunne kerken, en gevolgelyk ook hun God. Velen dezer menschen, inderdaad, de meeste hunner, zyn my persoonlyk bekend,—hunne gastvryheid heb ik gesmaakt in hunne vorige genoegelyke huisgezinnen en goede woningen;—hunne diensten heb ik met bewondering gade geslagen wanneer zy onder myn bevel in het veld waren tegen eenen algemeenen vyand. Deze banden van toegeneigdheid, welke in 1835—6, ontstaan zyn, zyn naderhand door verschillende gebeurtenissen versterkt geworden. Ik ben genoodigd geworden van binnen de Kolonie en van de andere zyde van de Oranje Rivier, om te zien in welken staat myne vrienden zich bevinden, en eenige middelen te beramen om hen tot den gezelligen kring terug te brengen, tot eensgezindheid en vertrouwen in elkander, tot hunne Kerk, en tot hunnen verwaarloosden God, die ons leert te zamen te vergaderen in den gebede en dankzegging tot Hem. Ik heb, onder den zegen des Allerhoogsten, zoo ik vertrouw, eenen bestendigen vrede hersteld met de Gaika en T'Slambie Kafferstammen, en in 54 dagen sedert myne aankomst was ik onder myne oude vrienden, die aldus Kolonel Smith hadden verzocht om hunnen toestand te komen bezien en denzelven te verbeteren. Ik ben overal ontvangen geworden met de allerduidelykste blyken van toegenegenheid, met adressen, verheugingen, salutschoten, en alle betooningen van blydschap. Op eene zekere gelegenheid zyn omtrent dertig personen naby Drakenberg te zamen gekomen, en na my met alle betooning van persoonlyk respect ontvangen te hebben, maakten zy my bekend dat zy getracht hadden hun eigen Gouvernement daartestellen, en hoopten daarin te zullen slagen. Wy scheidden in vriendschap. Ik had naauwelyks twee mylen afgelegd, wanneer verscheiden my navolgden, en my verzekerden dat zulks niet de stem van de helft van hun getal was. Zy schilderden den staat van ellende in welken zy verkeerden uit gebrek aan Kerken en Wetten; verklaarden dat zy in geen tien jaren eene Kerk hadden gezien; zy konden hunne dochters niet getrouwd krygen, noch hunne dooden begraven; dat hunne kinderen zonder opvoeding blyven; en dat zy onkundige Barbaren en Slaven van de Zwarte Natien zouden worden, die Zendelingen, Scholen, en Kerken hadden, terwyl zy van alles ontbloot waren. Zy verklaarden, met betraande oogen, dat zy bevreesd waren om in elkanders byzyn te spreken, want er bestond geen wederkerig vertrouwen, en men kon niet op elkanders handelwyze staat maken. Ik maakte aan een hunner bekend de voornaamste zaken welke ik voornemens was te verrigten. Hy verzocht my de uitvaardiging der Proclamatie te vertragen tot dat eenige byeenkomsten welke bestemd waren, zouden zyn afgeloopen. Ik zeide, "Zeer wel, ik zal het niet doen voor dat ik uw groote leidsman zal gezien hebben." Toen ik hem zag, spoorde hy my aan om dezelve uittevaardigen, beloofde dat hy zoude verklaren dat hy zulks aanbevolen had, daar het zyne handen zoude versterken om alle tot een stelsel van regeringsvorm te bewegen; en de billykheid van de Land questie was zoodanig, dat zy overtuiging met zich voerde. Indien hy zulks gedaan heeft, dan heeft hy zyn woord bevestigd; indien hy zulks niet gedaan heeft, dan heeft hy beide u en my bedrogen.

Gy hebt inderdaad sedert jaren geen Gouvernement gehad. Zyt gy gelukkiger? zyt gy ryker? zyt gy betere Christenen?—Gy zyt ellendig, gy zyt armen, de helft uwer zyn geruineerd. Gy wykt af van uw geloof, zonder leeraars om mede te raadplegen of in te vertrouwen; terwyl uwe broeders, uwe neven, uwe vrienden, onder een regtvaardig en vry Gouvernement, tented, are shipping wool and corn, selling valuable horses, sheep, and cattle; and enjoying all the blessings a good conscience effects, and Civilisation and Christianity ensure—going to their church on a Sunday with their elegant spans of Horses and Wagons, with their happy wives and children,—while your Sundays are spent in your miserable huts,—not the good houses you were reared in,—wretched and unhappy,—your manly and truly good hearts desiring a state of things, the wicked endeavour to thrust from your grasp; but which they shall not.

I shall now proceed to lay before you and the world, the motives which have actuated me, comprised in two words,—“your benefit.” You have called on me to assist you, I have done so,—vide my Proclamations of the 3rd of February and the 8th of March, in which last I have endeavoured, clearly, distinctly, and unequivocally, to set forth the Government calculated to render you—what you are not now—happy.

The ill-disposed have endeavoured to pervert facts—to startle the credulous—to alarm the timid—and to excite all to aid their own restless and uncontrollable dispositions. First, then, let us consider the practical effect of my paternal feelings for your welfare, for the satisfaction of your friends and relations within the Colony, who so desire to see you preserved in civilization, with a home to dwell on, a school for your children, and a church for you to pray in.

By the Treaties and Arrangements entered into in February 1845, between Sir Peregrine Maitland and Adam Kok, and other Native Chiefs occupying the Territories North of the Great Orange River, it was settled “that all agreements entered into by British Subjects residing in that Territory, with Natives, for the purchase of Land, should be of non-effect, or be held to be only the lease of the said Land for forty years, at the expiration of that period, the land with all improvements should revert to the original proprietors without any remuneration to the farmer for buildings, &c., and that all Lands held on leases of shorter dates, should on the expiration of the lease revert to the Natives on the same conditions.

That a certain portion of the Land then occupied by British Subjects between the Orange River and a Branch of the Riet River, called the “Kromelembog Spruit,” should be termed “Unalienable Territory,” and which, as the leases fall in, should not be re-let, but the occupants quit those places, and retire without the line of demarcation, the Riet River.

That portion of the Territory North and East of the Kromelembog Spruit, should be termed “Alienable Territory,” which the Natives might, if they chose, at the termination of the current leases, re-let at such exorbitant rates as they might fix, so that as leases expired the Natives could raise the rents according to the increased value of the property caused by the labour and expenditure of the Farmers upon it, and without making any payment for such labour and expenditure, notwithstanding the Farmer, during the existence of the lease, was obliged to pay quitrents, one half of which went to the Natives! A state of things most unsatisfactory to all parties, was the cause of constant quarrels and dissensions, and the Farmer felt himself an outcast, and subject to the will of uncivilized men.

This state of doubt and uncertainty has immediately changed by my visit; a fresh agreement entered into with Captain Adam Kok, the Farmer holds his Lands upon a first and indisputable right from Her Majesty of England, for which, you all know, you, at the time, shed tears of gratitude, and called down blessings upon me.

I have taken you from your King, Captain Kok, and the Great Chiefs whose Serfs you were, holding your Land on insecure tenure, and in constant apprehension of being turned off.—Was this right for a manly Africaner? Have I not rescued you from so degrading, so uncertain, a state?

Thus do you hold your Lands in perpetuity in Captain Adam Kok's Country. I then entered into engagements with the great Chiefs Moshesi, Morokko, Moletsani, Sikonyella, &c. They rejoiced in what I proposed, and every Burgher now holds his Lands on the Faith of Her Majesty and from no Native whatever; while protection is afforded to the white man as well as to the black.

My every act has been the study of your benefit, the desire to place in your own hands, to every practicable extent, the governing of yourselves by yourselves. You are to choose your own Field-Commandants, your own Field-Cornets, you are to have one of yourselves upon the Land Commission, you are to give your free opinion to the Magistrates whom I place among you, that I may hear your wants, desires, and wishes, with the sole view of supplying them. Every fraction of the Revenue, arising from the trifling Quitrents demanded of you, is for your benefit, for your rule, for your Schools, for your Churches, for your God. You go to bed at night returning thanks to the Omnipotent Protector of all,—“This is my home, my own undisputed home, home, sweet home;—my wife will be protected, my children educated, my devotion ensured, markets will be established for my worldly benefit.” You sleep the sleep of happiness, for God is with you. You rise in the morning; and with devotional effusion of gratitude, ere you proceed to your daily labour, you see your wife and your children around you without fear or trembling, without doubt or uncertainty. Excitement is succeeded by content, and the voice at first whispers,—“We thank our old friend Colonel Smith for what he has done.” Shortly the voice loudly exclaims,—“Smith is our Governor; he it is who has induced us to rule ourselves under his fostering care; we thank him as our Governor.”

What have I done for your Countrymen in Natal, part of Her Majesty's dominions? I found them wandering, they knew not whither, from their homes, their standing crops, and their excellent gardens cultivated by their own hands; their wives, and children, and flocks, and herds exposed to the miseries of a rainy season. I took such steps as to ensure their return to their comfortable homes; and I appointed the man who has great influence with you one of a Land Commission, the result of the labours of which would ensure the great point,—undisputed right of possession of your Land.

Pause then, I pray you, my friends, ere you allow wicked agitators to excite you to permit your well-disposed minds to drive peace, happiness, and

gelukkig en te vrede zyn, wol en koorn afschepen, kostbare paarden, schapen en vee verkoopen, en alle zegeningen genieten welke een goed geweten opleveren, en beschaving en godsdienst daarstellen, 's Zondags naar de Kerk gaan met hunne fraaije spannen paarden en wagens, met hunne vergenoegde vrouwen en kinderen, terwijl uwe Zondagen doorgebracht worden in uwe ellendige hutten, niet in de goede huizen waarin gy opgevoed zyt, maar woest en onvergenoegd, uwe mannelijke en waarlyk goede harten begeeren een staat van zaken welke de kwaadgezinde buiten uw bereik trachten te stellen, doch hetgeen zy niet zullen doen.

Ik zal nu overgaan om voor u en de wereld de beweegredenen open te leggen die my hebben bestuurd, toen ik de twee woorden gebruikte “uw voordeel.” Gy hebt tot my geroepen om u te helpen: dit heb ik gedaan; zie myne Proclamatiën van den 3den February, en 8ten Maart, waarin ik getracht heb duidelyk, klaar, nadrukkelyk, en ondubbelzinnig te doen verstaan, dat het gouvernement ten doel had om u te maken, hetgeen gy thans niet zyt,—namelyk, gelukkig.

De kwalijkgezinden hebben getracht de waarheid te verdraaijen, den ligt-geloovigen te verschrikken, den vreesachtigen te beangstigen, en allen aan te sporen om behulpzaam te zyn in hunne eigene rusteloze en ontentbare geneigdheden. Laat ons dan ten eerste de werkdadige uitkomst overwegen van myne vaderlyke gevoelens tot uwe welvaart, ter voldoening van uwe vrienden en betrekkingen binnen de kolonie, die zoo zeer begeeren u te vestigen te zien in de beschaving, met een huis om in te wonen, een school voor uwe kinderen, en eene kerk om in te bidden.

Door de Tractaten en Schikkingen gemaakt in February 1845, tusschen Sir Peregrine Maitland en Adam Kok, en andere plaatselyke Opperhoofden, in bezit van de Landstrecken ten Noorden van de Oranje Rivier, werd bepaald, “dat alle overeenkomsten gemaakt tusschen Britsche Onderdanen in die landstrecken woonachtig en Inboorlingen, voor het koopen van Land, van geene kracht zouden wezen, of gehouden zullen worden slechts eene verhuring te zyn van het gez. Land voor veertig jaren, na verloop waarvan, het land, met al de verbeteringen, terug zoude vallen op de oorspronkelyke eigenaren, zonder eenige vergoeding aan den boer voor gebouwen, enz., en dat alle landeryen voor een korteren tyd verhuurd, na verloop van het huurcontract, zouden terug vallen op de Inboorlingen onder dezelfde voorwaarden.

Dat een zeker gedeelte van het land, toen bewoond door Britsche Onderdanen tusschen de Oranje Rivier en de Tak van de Riet Rivier, genaamd de “Kromelleboog Spruit,” genoemd zoude worden “Onvervreemdbaar Grondgebied,” hetwelk, nadat de huurcontracten zyn verlopen, niet weder moest worden verhuurd, maar de bewoners de plaatsen moesten verlaten, en zich zoude begeven buiten de bepaalde linie—de Riet Rivier.

Dat gedeelte van de landstreek ten noorden en oosten van de Kromelleboog Spruit moest genoemd worden “Vervreemdbaar Grondgebied,” hetwelk de Inboorlingen, indien zy zulks verkozen, na verloop van de onvolbrachte huurcontracten, wederom konden verhuren voor zulke buitensporige pryzen als zy mogten bepalen; zoo dat de Inboorlingen, na elk verloop van een huurcontract, de huurpryzen konden verhoogen volgens de vermeerderde waarde van het eigendom, veroorzaakt door den arbeid en uitgaaf der boeren op hetzelfde, en zonder iets te betalen voor zoodanigen arbeid en uitgaaf, niet-tegenstaande de boer gedurende het bestaan des huurcontracts verplicht was de Erfpacht te betalen, de helft waarvan de Inboorlingen kregen!—een staat van zaken, zeer ongenoeglyk voor alle partijen, was de oorzaak van vele twisten en verdeeldheden, en de boer gevoelde zich een verworping, en onderworpen aan den wil van onbeschaafde menschen.

Deze staat van twyfel en onzekerheid is dadelyk veranderd door myn bezoek; eene nieuwe overeenkomst werd gemaakt met Adam Kok; de Boer behoudt zyn land met een eerst en onbetwistbaar regt, van Hare Majesteit van Engeland, waarvoor, zoo als gy allen weet, gy, te dier tyd, tranen van dankbaarheid stortet, en den zegen des hemels voor my afmeektet.

Ik heb u afgenomen van uren koning, Kapitein Kok, en de groote Opperhoofden, wiens knechten gy waart, uw land onder een onzeker regt bezittende, en in eene gedurige vrees van verjaagd te worden. Was dit regt voor eenen mannelijken Afrikaander? Heb ik u niet gered uit zulk eenen verlagenden, zulk eenen onzekeren toestand.

Op deze wyze blyft gy uw land bezitten in eeuwigduurendheid, in het grondgebied van Adam Kok. Ik heb toen onderhandelingen gemaakt met de groote Opperhoofden Moshesi, Morokko, Moletsani, Sikonyella, enz. Zy verheugden zich in hetgeen ik voorstelde, en ieder burger bezit nu zyn land onder de trouw van Hare Majesteit, en van geen Inboorling hoegenaamd; terwijl bescherming wordt verleend zoowel aan blanken als aan zwarten.

Elk myner daden was eene ernstige overdenking van uw voordeel, eene begeerte om, zoo verre als het doenlyk was, u te laten regeren door uzelf. Gy hebt de magt uw eigene Veld-commandanten te kiezen, uw eigen Veldkornetten,—een van u moet eene plaats hebben in de Land-Commissie. Gy moet uw gevoelens openlyk aan den dag leggen aan de Magistraten die ik onder u plaats, opdat ik uwe ontberingen, begeerten, en wenschen moge hooren, met het eenig oogmerk, om dezelve te vervullen. Iedere penning van de Inkomsten, voortschuitende uit de Erfpacht van u geëischt, is tot uw voordeel, tot uwe regering, tot uwe scholen, tot uwe kerken, tot uwen God. Gy gaat 's avonds naar bed, den almachtigen beschermder der wereld dankende.—“Dit is myn huis, myne eigene onbetwiste woning, hier ben ik te huis, hoe aangenaam! myne vrouw zal worden beschermd, myne kinderen opgevoed, myne godsdienst gevestigd,—markten zullen worden opgericht tot myn tydelyk voordeel.” Gy slaapt de slaap des geluks, want God is met u. Gy staat op in den morgen, en met eene godsverheerlykende uitstorting van dankbaarheid, ziet gy, voor dat gy u naer uwen dage ykschen arbeid begeeft, uwe vrouw en uwe kinderen om u heen zonder vrees of beving, zonder twyfel of onzekerheid. Opgewondenheid wordt door tevredenheid opgevolgd, en ten eerste fluistert de stem “Wy zeggen onze oude vriend Kolonel Smith dank voor hetgeen hy gedaan heeft.” Niet lang daurt het of de stem roept luidkeels uit:—“Smith is onze Gouverneur; hy is het die ons aangespoord heeft onszelven te regeren, onder zyne minzame zorg; wy danken hem als onze Gouverneur.”

Wat heb ik voor uwe landgenooten gedaan te Natal, een gedeelte van Hare Majesteits Bezittingen? Ik vond hen dwalende, zy wisten niet waarheen, van hunne woningen, hun oningeoogste producten, hunne uitmuntende tuinen die zy met hunne eigene handen hebben bearbeid, hunne vrouwen, hunne kinderen, en kudden en vee troepen blootgesteld aan de ellende van een regenachtig jaargety. Ik nam zulke maatregelen welke de terugkeering tot hunne geryfelyke woningen konden verzekeren; en ik stelde eenen man die veel invloed onder u heeft aan als een van de Land Commissie, de uitslag van welken arbeid de verzekering moest daarstellen van die groote zaak,—onbetwist regt van de bezittingen uws lands.

Sta dan stil, bid ik u, myne vrienden, voor dat gy u door aanhitzers laat opwinden, om uwe, ten goede geneigde gemoederen, toe te laten, vrede, geluk,

comforts, now within your grasp, from your doors. What object had I in wandering, an exile as it were, among you; when duty commanded me to repair to the seat of Government, where my services were so much required, in travelling hundreds of miles and living in a wagon, but that of endeavouring to do good to old friends who required one to show himself to them? On my return your Countrymen poured down blessings on my head for my exertions in your behalf. Are such devoted acts for your welfare, are your own interests, to be cast aside? Is your future prospect of happiness, your future hope in Eternal Life, to be driven from you by wicked designers and ambitious men, who have their own ends alone to serve? Are your wives to be left in tears for your absence, or to be rendered widows, and are your children to be uneducated and homeless? Is base ingratitude to usurp the seat of reason?

The prosperity of a nation is materially dependent on a just system of Government and Finance,—the leading principles of which are, that every individual shall contribute to the maintenance of a Government in proportion to the property he possesses, to protect him from domestic tyranny or foreign aggression; and that every individual contributing a quota shall have a voice in regulating the scheme of his Government and the disbursement of the revenue.—I have given you this in every practicable form.

When at Winberg, on the presentation of an Address, I was asked for Soldiers;—I exclaimed "Soldiers! You around me are my Soldiers," meaning that peaceable Citizens are their own Soldiers, and require no military aid whatever. This expression has been perverted; and you have been taught to believe, not thinking for the moment, that I am to make you all Soldiers! For what? Because I love Peace, and require no military in my operations to carry out what I desire? Is not all Southern Africa the seat of Peace, without one drop of blood having been shed by my authority, or one blow struck? Am I the man to require soldiers for any ordinary purpose? But there are causes so sacred to the Lord and in the eyes of the world, as to demand military interference;—hence I have proclaimed that you hold your Lands subject to military service; and I do so for the sole purpose of providing for the time of need. But if you never load your firelock until I ask you, it may be turned into what all arms are best fitted for—Plough-shares.

Now, my friends!—my half lost friends and wavering christians! I have addressed you as Colonel Smith, I have appealed to your feelings as men, as fathers of families, as reasoning human beings possessing immortal souls. I have exerted myself to the extent of my abilities and my energies. I now turn from Colonel Smith to the Governor of this Colony;—and I PROCLAIM TO YOU that I will carry out, or die in the attempt, the provisions of the Proclamations I have framed for your exclusive benefit and by your own desire, and the factious demagogue shall tremble at that name which he even now respects, and for which you all so far, and wide, and loudly proclaimed your love. You well know I never forfeited my word. You well know, for many of you have served with me in the field, the velocity with which I wield the sword. Do not suppose that I have stripped myself of the means by sending home troops. I tell you, and tell you truly and honestly, I hold in readiness a force of guns, cavalry, and tried British Soldiers, who in fifteen days should be among you, men capable of causing stouter hearts than yours to quail. When I commanded you were brave; now! you have no head you dare confide in, your hearts are in the wrong place, your cause being unjust,—an ignorant, discontented few endeavouring to excite the many. Do you talk of resistance and assemblages,—you whom two years ago a few dragoons rode over like sheep? Do you presume to imagine that you are able to do what no mass of demagogues has ever yet done,—the undisciplined to resist, and successfully maintain a protracted resistance against, the disciplined force of a regular Government?

But oh! how I hate and detest the name of war and commotion! The many battle scenes I have witnessed arise like phantoms to my imagination. But as I abhor war, so will I terribly wield its power if you drive me from your affection. If you compel me to wield the fatal sword, after all I have attempted for you, the crime be upon your own heads; and while my Troops shall exult in Victory, I will weep, as you have seen me do, over the fallen, the defeated, the deluded; your lands shall be wrested from you, your houses destroyed, your herds swept off, your own hearts blackened by wicked ingratitude, and your faithful, your generous friend, who has exerted himself for your exclusive benefit, turned into the Avenger of Evil! You shall become like the Ishmaelites of old, "your hand shall be against every man, and every man's hand shall be against you." "Vengeance is mine," saith the Lord; and in His name, and for the benefit of His creatures, would I smite those I so love, and to whom I have so endeavoured to prove that I do so.

There are limits to the extent of the most virtuous feelings in this worldly and uncertain trial of Life. Aid me, as I desire you, to preserve them to us; and as in generous and uncorrupted minds the superiority of Religion carries us through the calamities of this transient life, let us together thus pray:—

Lord of all Power and Might, Disposer of all Things, good and evil, deign to look down upon us frail and sinful creatures; teach us who are our true friends, preserve and strengthen us in all the trials of temptation, defend us from the evil practices of wicked men, teach us to worship Thee with our hearts, our minds, our souls, devoted unto Thee through Jesus Christ; direct our hearts and our actions towards our neighbour; teach us so to live that our course in this life may lead us to Life Eternal; teach us to forgive our enemies and to love our friends; teach us after a peaceable life to look forward to that re-union in Heaven, the fountain of our hopes on Earth, the happy place of rest for our immortal souls. When we must put off the mortal garment, and lie down on the bed of Death, let us be at Peace with Thee Oh Lord, at Peace with the world, and at Peace with our own hearts!!! This grant us, O Lord, Our God Almighty, through Jesus Christ.—Amen.

Government House,

en genoeglykheid, nu in uw bereik, van uwe deuren te dryven. Welk oogmerk had ik in het rondzwerven onder u, een balling als het ware, toen de pligt my gebod naar de zetel van het Gouvernement my te begeven, waar myne diensten zoo zeer werden vereischt; in het overreizen van honderden van mylen, en wonende in een wagen; dan een poging om aan oude vrienden goed te doen die slechts wenschten iemand te hebben die zich aan hen vertoonde? By myne terugkomst hebben uwe landgenooten zegeningen over myn hoofd geregend voor myne inspanningen tot uw welzyn. Moeten zulke toegewyde daden tot uw welzyn, moeten uwe eigene belangen ter zyde worden geworpen? Moet uwe toekomstige vooruitzichten van geluk, uwe hoop hiernamaals in het eeuwige leven, van u worden verwyderd door goddelooze ontwerpers en heerschzuchtige menschen, die slechts hunne eigene eind-oogmerken willen bereiken? Moeten uwe vrouwen en tranen worden gelaten voor uw afzyn, of weduwen worden gemaakt, en moeten uwe kinderen onopgevoed en huizeeloos worden gelaten? Moet lage ondankbaarheid de zitplaats der rede in bezit nemen?

De voorspoed eener natie is byzonder afhankelijk van een regtvaardig stelsel van Regering en Financie, de voornaamste grondbeginselen van welke zyn, dat elk persoon iets zal bydragen ter onderhouding van het Gouvernement, in evenredigheid tot het eigendom dat hy bezit, om hem voor plaatselyke dwingelandy of vreemden aanval te beschermen; en dat ieder persoon die iets bydraagt een stem zal hebben in het regelen van de plannen van zyn Gouvernement, en het beschikken van de Inkomsten. Ik heb u dit in iedere uitvoerbare wyze gegeven.

Toen ik te Winberg, by gelegenheid van het presenteren van een Adres, gevraagd werd om soldaten,—riep ik uit: "Soldaten! gy, rondom my, zyt myne Soldaten," daardoor te kennen gevende, dat vreedzame Burgers hunne eigene soldaten zyn, en geen militaire hulp hoegenaamd noodig hebben. Deze uitdrukking is verdraaid geworden, en gy zyt geleid geworden te gelooven, voor de oogenblik niet bezinnende, dat ik van u allen soldaten wilde maken! Waarom? Omdat ik de vrede lief heb en geene krygsmagten noodig heb in myne handelingen om hetgeen ik begeer uit te werken? Is niet geheel Zuid Afrika de zetel van vrede, zonder dat een dropel bloeds op myn gezag werd vergoten, of een slag is gedaan? Ben ik de man die soldaten voor een gewoon oogmerk vereischen zal? Maar er zyn oorzaken zoo heilig aan den Heer en in de oogen der wereld, dat zy de tusshenkomst van eene legermagt noodzakelyk maken;—hierom heb ik geproclameerd dat gy uwe landeryen behoudt, onderworpen aan de Burgerdienst; en ik doe zulks met het eene oogmerk om te zorgen voor den tyd van nood. Maar als gy nooit uw geweer laadt voor dat ik het van u begeer, kan hetzelfde worden veranderd in het geen alle wapenen het meest geschikt toe zyn—namelyk ploegscharen.

Nu myne vrienden! myne half-verloren vrienden, en aarzelende christenen! Ik heb u aangesproken als Kolonel Smith,—ik heb my beroepen op uwe gevoelens als menschen, als vaders van huisgezinnen, als redelyke menschelyke wezens, onsterfelyke zielen bezittende. Ik heb gedaan wat ik kon zoo ver myn vermogens en krachten my toelieten. Nu spreek ik tot u, niet meer als Kolonel Smith, maar als de Gouverneur dezer Volkplanting, en ik PROCLAMEER AAN U, dat ik de voorzieningen van de Proclamatie, die ik tot uw uitsluitelyk voordeel, en op uwe eigene begeerte heb vervaardigd, ten uitvoer zal brengen, of in de poging sneven zal. De twistzieke volkschreeuw zal sidderen by den naam die hy nu zelfs eerbiedigt, en voor welken gy allen, wyd en zyd en luidkeels uwe gehechtheid licht verklaart. Gy weet wel dat ik nooit myn woord heb verzaakt. Gy weet wel, want velen van u hebben met my in de oorlog gediend, de snelheid waarmee ik het zwaard hanteer. Denk niet dat ik my van de middelen beroofd heb door het naar huis zenden der troepen. Ik zeg u, en ik zeg het u als een opregt en eerlyk man, ik houd een magt in gereedheid van kanonnen, ruitery, en beproefde Britsche soldaten, die binnen vyftien dagen onder u zullen zyn, mannen geschikt om stouter harten dan de uwe te doen beven. Toen ik het bevel over u had, waart gy dapper; nu! hebt gy geen opperhoofd waarin gy vertrouwen stellen kunt, uwe harten zyn in de verkeerde plaats, omdat uwe zaak onregtvaardig is,—eenige weinige domme misnoegde menschen trachtende de menigte aan te hitsen. Spreekt gy van wederstand en byeenkomsten, gy, die twee jaren geleden door een klein getal dragonders als schapen omver gereden werd? Durft gy u verbeelden dat gy in staat zyt te doen, hetgeen eene menigte van oproermakende windzakken nimmer hebben kunnen doen,—de ongeoeffenden, de geoeffende legermagt van een geregeld Gouvernement te wederstaan, en een langdurige wederstand volthouden?

Dan ach, welk een afschuw heb ik zelfs voor den naam van oorlog en beroering. De vele veldslagen welke ik bygewoond heb, komen als schimmen voor mynen geest. Doch even als ik den oorlog haat, zal ik deszelfs verschrikkelijke kracht handhaven wanneer gy my van uwe toegenegenheid afscheidt. Indien gy my noopt het noodlottige zwaard te zwaayen, na al hetgeen ik voor U beproefd heb, zoo blyve de misdaad op uw eigen hoofd; en hoewel myne troepen in triomf zullen juichen, zal ik wenen, gelyk gy my hebt zien doen, over de gevallen, de verslagenen, de misleiden,—uwe landen zullen u ontnomen worden; uwe huizen vernield, uwe kudden weggevaagd, uwe eigene harten zwartgeverwd door goddelooze ondankbaarheid; en uwe getrouwe, uwe edelmoedige vriend, die zich ten uwen behoeve heeft afgesloofd, veranderd in een wreker van het kwaad.—Gy zult worden gelyk de Ismaelieten van ouds, "uwe hand zal tegen elk man zyn, en elk mans hand zal tegen u zyn." "Wraak is de myne," zegt de Heere; en in zynen naam, en tot nut van zyne schepselen, zou ik hen tuchtigen, die ik zoo bemin, en wien ik getracht heb te bewyzen dat ik zulks doe.

Er bestaan grenspalen voor de deugdzaamste gevoelens in deze wereldsche en onzekere beproeving des levens. Komt my te hulp, gelyk ik u verzoek, om dezelve te bewaren; en zoo als in weldadige en onbedorvene harten, de verhevenheid van Godsdienst ons door moeyelykheden van dit voorbygaand leven voortvoert, laten wy te zamen bidden:—

Heer van alle Kracht en Magt, Beschikker van alle dingen, goed en kwaad, verwaardig U nedertezien op ons, zwakke en zondige Schepselen; leer ons wie onze ware vrienden zyn; bewaar en versterk ons in alle beproevingen en verzoekingen; behoed ons tegen de slechte daden van goddelooze menschen, leer ons U te aanbidden met onze harten, onze zinnen, onze zielen, U toegedaan door Jezus Christus; rigt onze harten en onze daden jegens onze naasten; leer ons alzo te leven dat onze loop in dit leven ons brengen mag tot het eeuwige leven; leer ons onze vyanden te vergeven, en onze vrienden lief te hebben; leer ons, na een vreedzaam leven, uit te zien na die vereeniging in den hemel, de bron van onze hoop op aarde, de gelukkige plaats der rust voor onze onsterfelyke zielen.—Wanneer wy het sterfelyk kleed moeten afleggen, en op het doodsbed nederliggen, laten wy Vrede hebben met u, o Heer! Vrede met de wereld, en Vrede met onze eigene harten!!! Schenk ons dit, o Heer, onze Almagtige God, door Jezus Christus.—AMEN.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office,
Cape Town, 5th April, 1848.

HIS Excellency the Administrator of the Government has been pleased to direct the publication of the following Letter of Instructions to the General Board of Commissioners of Public Prisons; and directs all Public officers and servants of the Government to correspond directly with the Board on all matters relating to their functions and duties. The signature of any member of the commission on the part of the Board is to be considered as conveying the sentiments and authority of the whole Board.

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,

To the General Board of Commissioners
of Public Prisons.

Colonial Office,
Cape Town, 4th April, 1848.

Gentlemen,—The main objects to be effected by the establishment of the General Board of Commissioners of Public Prisons are stated in the Minute of His Excellency the Administrator of the Government dated 22d. ultimo.

The great ends of penal discipline are, first, the punishment of crime, and, secondly, the reformation of the offender.

Prior to the year 1844 the latter of these objects had been altogether neglected, and the former very inefficiently secured, as it ever must be by a system which contemplates the removal and punishment of individual criminals rather than the diminution of the general mass of crime.

The abolition in 1845, of the penal settlement at Robben Island, and the employment of the convicted criminals upon the public Roads of the Colony was an important step in advance, and it is very satisfactory to find that the system is working beneficially, not only for the general interests of the public, but for the moral improvement of individual offenders.

But the adoption of this system with reference to male convicts, only rendered it more incumbent on the government, than formerly, to take measures for the improvement of the moral condition of the other classes of prisoners viz., female convicts, persons detained for trial, and prisoners whose sentences to labor or confinement are under thirty days.

It is evident that the public benefit to be derived from the labor of the convicts on public roads, was not the sole inducement which led the Government to adopt the system established in 1844. The words of Sir George Napier quoted by His Excellency the Administrator of the Government in his Minute above alluded to, evidently point to a "process of reformatory discipline" as one of the principal objects which the Government was striving to attain.

And that this is an object which should ever be kept in view, in the formation of gaols and prisons is obvious,—the pursuit of it by the government being a duty to society at large as well as to the criminal. It is the only safeguard which society can possess against the constant increase of crime by the periodical enlargement of criminals hardened in vice by companionship with others possibly more degraded than themselves. To the criminal himself every possible exertion on the part of government towards promoting his moral amelioration is also clearly due. Society has no right to create crime under the pretence of punishing it: to confirm the principle of vice in which a criminal has been reared by forcing him into contact with others more hardened than himself: and then to turn him loose upon the world, exposed to temptations which have acquired additional force over his mind by the pernicious associations of a prison. By adopting such a course, what we call the prevention becomes the promotion of crime: and the prison, instead of being an abode of correction, is turned into a school of vice.

These principles which are true wherever they are enunciated, are peculiarly applicable to this colony. There is here a great scarcity of labor, so that the Government can fairly hold out to the reformed criminal the hope of obtaining honest employment on regaining his liberty. The complaint cannot be made here, which is sometimes too justly made in thickly peopled countries, that the criminal on his enlargement from prison finds himself alone in the world, shunned by society, and is thus left only the alternative of a return to his former course of crime, or starvation. Every man who has the disposition to gain an honest livelihood in this colony has also the means of doing so.

Again, as there is a sufficient demand for honest and steady laborers in the Colony, so is there also a peculiar necessity for the promotion of honest and steady habits among the laboring classes. The prevailing vice of the native population is indolence, a vice which is proverbially the fruitful source of crime. For this, therefore, among other reasons, prison discipline ought to be so arranged as to create motives to industry, and promote habits of it.

The great principle that prison discipline ought to have for its object as well the reformation of the criminal as the punishment of crime, was, as has been already observed, practically acknowledged by the Colonial Government in 1844; and it now only remains to carry out the principle with reference to persons detained in the public prisons of the Colony.

The reason why this has not been already done is to be found in the insufficient accommodation provided in the public gaols, whereby the classification of the prisoners was rendered impossible, and the separation of the sexes not always secured; discipline and reformation were out of the question; and even safe custody was so uncertain, that in the single month of March in the present year, no less than ten prisoners escaped from the different gaols.

With a view to obviate these difficulties, an Ordinance has been framed "for improving the gaols of this colony," by which it is proposed to remodel the whole system of prison discipline in the colony, and to provide for the proper discipline and reformation of the prisoners.

By this Ordinance (No. 24, of 1847) the power of making rules for the government of the gaols; the duties to be performed by the several officers attached thereto; the food and clothing of the prisoners; the periods for the visits of the Resident Magistrates, the introduction of spirituous liquors &c. into the gaols; and other matters connected with their management, is conferred upon the Governor. It is further provided that a gaoler shall reside in each of the prisons, who is to have no other occupation, and is prohibited from selling any articles to the prisoners either directly or indirectly under a penalty of from £5 to £100. The gaoler is to keep a journal which he is bound to produce to the Resident Magistrate of the district on the occasion of his visits of inspection, and in which he is required to enter all matters worthy of note occurring within the prison; he is further strictly prohibited from receiving any fees from the prisoners, and from punishing any of them on his own responsibility; but he may put them in irons in certain cases, which must be immediately reported to the Resident Magistrate.

This latter officer is required to pay periodical visits to all the gaols in his district, and to report to the Governor the state of discipline maintained, the conduct of the gaoler and inferior officers, the number and description of the prisoners, and all other matters of importance connected with the state of the prison. He is also empowered to punish by solitary confinement with or without spare diet, by hard labor, or personal correction, such of the prisoners as may have offended against prison discipline. He is also empowered to try summarily all prisoners attempting to make their escape from gaol. Gaming and the use of intoxicating drinks are strictly prohibited in the prison.

By the 4th section, which is, perhaps, the most important, it is enacted that the male and female prisoners are to be kept strictly separate, and that the prisoners of each sex are to be divided into six classes, viz:—

- (a) Persons confined under any decree of civil imprisonment.
- (b) Persons committed for want of sureties to keep the peace.
- (c) Persons committed for murder, culpable homicide, rape, robbery, or assault with intent to commit any of those crimes, or in which any dangerous wound is given, arson, house-breaking with intent to commit any crime, or theft of any cattle, sheep, or goats, or other crime of equal degree of guilt with any of the said crimes.
- (d) Persons committed for any crime of a lesser degree of guilt than any of the crimes aforesaid.
- (e) Persons convicted of any such crime as is hereinbefore in letter c set forth.
- (f) Persons convicted of any such crime as is hereinbefore in letter d set forth.

The very necessity of such provisions cannot fail to suggest to any thinking mind the mischievous tendency of the system which they are intended to reform, and under which house-breakers, murderers, and criminals of lower degree are all herded together, to contaminate each other by the communication from one to another of that peculiar kind of vice in which he happens to be most proficient.

His Excellency is of opinion, as stated in his Minute, that the provisions of this Ordinance will be most effectually carried out by a General Board of Commissioners of Public Prisons; and, having accordingly appointed you to form such Commission, he has determined to delegate to you (subject to his approval) the powers and duties conferred upon him by the provisions of the Ordinance in question.

In order to aid the General Board in the performance of its duties, Local Boards will be appointed in all the Country Districts, which will consist of the Resident Magistrate, who will be Chairman ex officio, and two other members, who should be respectable and influential inhabitants of the District.

It will be the duty of the General Board to suggest for His Excellency's approval the names of such Persons in each District as may appear best fitted for this important duty, and at the same time willing to undertake it.

It will also be the duty of the General Board to draw up, for His Excellency's approbation, regulations for the District Boards, who will correspond with the Government through the General Board only.

The first duty of the General and Local Boards will be to turn their attention to the construction of gaols, and providing such prison accommodation as the circumstances of the country seem to require. Security connected with that degree of accommodation which tends to preserve health, is the first object to be sought after, as the constant escape of criminals from the public prisons cannot, on any account, be allowed to continue. But in order to carry out the views of the Legislative Council with reference to the classification of prisoners, it is obvious most of the gaols will require considerable enlargement. Previous to the passing of the Prison Ordinance, a voluminous correspondence took place between the Secretary to Government and several Magistrates resident in the country districts, the whole of which His Excellency has directed to be laid before the General Board for its information. The Board will communicate to His Excellency with all convenient despatch, the course which they would recommend him to adopt in each of the several cases brought under his notice in this correspondence, as well as any general suggestions they may have to make relative to the mode of constructing gaols most convenient for purposes of Prison Discipline.

His Excellency desires that the General Board will keep up such a correspondence with the Local Board as will keep the former in full possession of all necessary information relative to the state of every prison with reference to discipline; the healthy condition and cleanliness of the cells and other parts of the building; the personal cleanliness of the prisoners; their conduct and demeanour in every respect; and all other matters connected with the internal economy of the prisons, and the general working of the system.

His Excellency is also of opinion that it might lead to beneficial results if, in addition to the information to be thus obtained from the Local Boards, periodical inspections of all gaols, Lock-up-Houses, and Houses of Correction were to be made by some member of the General Board, or by an agent appointed by them from time to time. This, however, is to be understood as a suggestion thrown out for the consideration of the Board rather than as a direction for their guidance; and the Board will take an early opportunity of reporting to His Excellency whether they consider such direct supervision and control to be practicable or advisable.

From the information obtained by these means the Board are requested to draw up an annual report to be laid by His Excellency upon the table of the Legislative Council, in which they will detail their proceedings, and those of the District Boards as reported to them from time to time, and will also make any suggestions which may occur to them relative to the improvement of prison discipline. This report will be accompanied by a detailed account of their disposal of the funds voted by the Legislative Council for the erection and improvement of gaols, the administration of which will rest with the Board.

The Board are requested to understand that the provisions of the Ordinance No. 21 of 1847 are not to be considered as incapable of amendment. In the course of their administrative duties it is not improbable that many valuable amendments may occur to them, which when brought under his notice, will always receive His Excellency's most anxious attention. This remark is particularly applicable to the subject of the classification of the prisoners. In forming rules for the construction of new prisons and for the future government of those already built it will probably be found advisable to make provision for a further sub-division of the classes enumerated in the clause of the Ordinance quoted above, and as a general rule the Board is to understand that the classification directed in that clause is what must at least be made;—but that any more minute classification may be made where the means are available and the Board consider it desirable. The Board will therefore avail themselves of all the information on this important subject which the experience of Europe and America so abundantly supplies, and will not fail, as occasion offers, to submit for His Excellency's sanction such additional improvements in the classification or entire separation of Prisoners, as they may think it advisable to recommend.

Another subject of the utmost importance, and which ought to occupy the early attention of the Board is, providing moral and religious education for the prisoners. His Excellency looks upon this as the basis of all reformatory discipline, and feels assured that it is only necessary for him to name it to the Board to obtain for it their most anxious attention, and their cordial co-operation with his efforts to make the provision required.

With reference to the penal system, and the general constitution of the prisons, His Excellency does not think it necessary to give the Board minute instructions, feeling certain that these matters may safely be left to their discretion, and desiring only to state to the Board the general principles upon which he conceives that a well-organized system of prison discipline ought to be founded.

The Board will understand that not only gaols but all Houses of Correction, Lock-up-Houses, and all places devoted to the reception of female prisoners and convicts are equally placed under their administration and control; and in order to assist them as much as possible in the discharge of the duties which they have undertaken gratuitously, all public officers and servants of the Government will be instructed to correspond directly with the Board on all matters relating to their duties and functions.

As the Ordinance for improving the gaols of the colony does not provide for the appointment of general and local Boards, but confers the powers to be exercised by them upon the Governor and Executive Council, it will be necessary for the Board to obtain His Excellency's sanction previous to carrying any of their measures into effect.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
22nd March, 1848.

WITH reference to the accompanying Minute of this day's date, which the Administrator of the Government has directed to be published for general information, respecting the Improvement and future management of Gaols, Lock-up Houses, and Houses of Correction; His Excellency has been pleased to appoint the following Gentlemen to be Members of the General Board of Commissioners of Public Prisons:—

The Hon. J. MONTAGU, Esq., Chairman.
CLERKE BURTON, Esq.,
WILLIAM HOPE, Esq.,
The Rev. Dr. ADAMSON,
Dr. INNES.

By Command of His Excellency the Administrator of the Government,

(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

MINUTE.

Government House, 22nd March 1848.

IN no department of the Government of this Colony does there exist a more urgent necessity for extensive and substantial improvement, than in Prisons and Prison Discipline.

Previous to the institution of the present system of Convict discipline in 1844, all sentences of imprisonment, either with or without hard labour, were carried out in the District Gaols and the Penal Establishment on Robben Island.

At that time my predecessor Sir George Napier thus remarks on the state of Prisons and Prison discipline:—"The present system does not only not contemplate, but by its very arrangements either neutralises or wholly counteracts that process of reformatory discipline, which is essential to the salutary exercise of Penal Justice,—a process, which while it strictly regards the extent and degree of punishment awarded for the offence committed, seeks, both on moral and political grounds, to rescue the delinquent from the power of vicious habits or degrading propensities, and aims to restore him, if possible, to society, prepared to resist its temptations from a higher motive than the dread of punishment consequent on crime."

No description of mine can more forcibly or truly depict the evils resulting from the state in which both Prisons and Prison discipline now are, than that I have just quoted.

And, although the system of Convict discipline instituted in 1844 has been attended with the most beneficial results, in respect to all Male Convicts sentenced to imprisonment with hard labour for periods exceeding three months, yet the evil remains in all its intensity as it regards those on whom its baneful influence is most to be deplored. I allude to female and untried prisoners, and to those convicted of petty offences and misdemeanours.

From the Returns annually made by the Resident Magistrates, it appears that there are in all twenty-three Gaols throughout the Colony. Were the principle of separation, now being extensively practised in the Gaols of England, adopted here, these Gaols would not be capable of accommodating more than 171 Prisoners; whilst, according to the practice that has hitherto obtained, they are reported as capable of containing 1235,—an amount wholly disproportionate to the average dimensions of the cells and the prison accommodation generally, if the ends for which a Prison is solely erected are kept in view, viz: safe custody, punishment, and reformation.

It further appears, as might naturally be inferred from the above statement, that no attempt at classification has ever been made, or could be, beyond the mere separation of the sexes, and that in some instances, but very imperfectly,—that the defective state of the Gaols in some Districts imposes the necessity of the nightly use of fetters, to ensure the safe custody of the Prisoners, whether untried or convicted,—and that air, exercise, and healthy employment form no part of the system. As a natural consequence, punishments for offences within the Prison have been frequent, in the shape of flogging, irons, and solitary confinement.

By Ordinance No. 24, 1847, entitled an Ordinance "for Improving the Gaols of the Colony," I have been vested with full powers, under its provisions, to take such steps as may appear to me advisable for the improvement of the Colonial Prisons, for the due classification of the Prisoners, and for the establishment of such a system of Prison Discipline as appears best calculated not only to punish but to reform.

To effect this, I propose to place all Prisons Lock-up Houses, and Houses of Correction under the direction and control of a Board, to be called the General Board of Commissioners of Prisons. To this Board will be added Local Boards for the immediate inspection and supervision of the several Gaols, and for aiding the General Board in carrying out such measures of improvement as shall from time to time receive my sanction.

To the General Board will be committed the charge of administering the funds that are voted by the Legislative Council for the erection of new Gaols and the improvement of the old.

(Signed) H. G. SMITH.

Colonial Office, Cape Town,
8th March 1848.

IT having been represented to the Administrator of the Government, that some Farms (or places) are attached to or form part of Divisions or Districts, which might be more conveniently made to form parts of adjacent Divisions or Districts, His Excellency has directed it to be notified, that any proprietor who may be inconvenienced from such a cause, is requested to communicate thereon to this Office, with a view to relief being afforded by the transfer of his place to an adjacent Division or District.

His Excellency does not wish existing boundaries, either of Fields, Cornetries, Districts, or Divisions, in any way to influence the general or individual convenience—the sole desire of the Government in fixing boundaries being, to promote the convenience of the inhabitants, by shortening as much as is practicable the distances they have to travel to attend upon a Civil Commissioner or Resident Magistrate.

Facility of access arising from the absence of Mountain Barriers or other material obstructions, equally with density of population, at any particular locality, will always be duly considered in defining boundaries of Divisions and Districts, since it must be obvious that persons residing nearer to the nearest seat of Magistracy would, in some cases, be less inconvenienced by travelling a greater distance to a more remote one, than by overcoming greater obstacles to reach the nearest.

By His Excellency's Command

Secretary to Government.

1. A market for the sale of all articles of produce, live stock, and cattle shall be held at Alice on every day of the year excepting Sundays, Christmas Day, New Year's Day and Good Friday, at such place as shall be fixed upon by the civil commissioner.
2. The market shall be under the superintendence of a market master who shall be appointed by the civil commissioner, and it shall be competent for the civil commissioner to dismiss such market master for misconduct, and to appoint some other person to such office.
3. The market master before entering upon his office shall be required to give good and sufficient security for the proper discharge of his duties, and for the due payment of all monies passing through his hands as market master.
4. The market master shall be provided with the necessary books, stationery and office furniture, and also with standard weights and measures, to regulate purchases made on the market. He shall keep a correct and true account of all articles passing the market, stating the name of the owner of the goods, the quantity of each description of article brought on the market, the price the same was sold at, the name of the purchaser, the total amount of such goods, the date of sale and the percentage paid thereon. He shall also keep a correct register of all wagons passing the market, and which account and register he shall produce to the civil commissioner whenever required so to do.
5. The market shall commence at nine o'clock in the morning during the year.
6. All sales on the market shall be for cash, unless the seller at the time shall declare that the same shall be sold at a credit the terms and conditions of which he shall then fix, but the market master shall not be responsible to the seller, or guarantee the payment of the amount in such case.
7. If a dispute arise between any bidders, the lot shall be put up again, and no bid shall be taken after the word "gone" has been uttered by the market master.
8. All articles of produce or stock shall be put up by the market master in such quantities or lots as the seller shall direct, and should the prices offered not be considered sufficient by the seller, he shall be at liberty to withdraw such articles of produce or stock from the market, and dispose of them in any other manner he may think proper, either by putting them up at any other time on the market or selling them elsewhere.
9. 10. The seller shall be provided by the market master with a sale note, stating the quantity or weight of the articles to be delivered to each separate purchaser, and their names and places of abode, which sale note shall be signed by the purchaser on the articles being delivered to him, and thereafter returned by the seller to the market master.
11. Any seller failing to deliver the articles of produce with the exception aforesaid, or purchaser refusing to receive such articles when tendered to him, or to sign the sale note as in the preceding section mentioned, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Five Pounds Sterling.

12. All purchasers shall pay to the market master, on or before two o'clock in the afternoon of the day on which the purchase has been made, the full amount of the purchases made by him with the percentage payable thereon, and if the same be not then paid, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Five Pounds Sterling, and shall further be liable to all costs, charges and damages, which may be sustained or incurred by the seller, in consequence of the non-payment of the amount due by such purchasers.

13. The market master shall have the right at any subsequent sale to demand from any party who has made default in the payment of any amount due by him for purchases on the market, to lodge with him the amount of the probable sum of the intended purchase before receiving his bid.

14. The market master shall be responsible to the seller for all articles sold for cash, and shall pay the whole amount thereof, after deducting the percentage hereinafter mentioned, to the seller before three o'clock in the afternoon of the day on which the articles of produce, stock, &c., were sold.

15. Provided that no such percentage shall be charged to either party upon the sale of any vegetables, fruit or fish, the price or value of which do not exceed one pound sterling.

17. All articles of produce requiring weighing or measuring shall be weighed or measured by the market master in the presence of the seller and purchaser or their respective agents, should they wish to be present, but the weight or quantity ascertained by the market master and certified by him shall be deemed conclusive upon all parties.

18. The market master shall not be allowed to purchase any articles on the market, either on his own account or on commission, except such articles as he may require bona fide for his own consumption.

19. The civil commissioner shall assign to the market master the amount of salary to be received by him, and the same from time to time to alter, increase, or diminish as the circumstances of the funds to be raised will admit of, and to provide the scales, weights and other things necessary and proper for the service of such market.

GOUVERNEMENTS KENNISGEVING.

Koloniale Secretary, 5 April 1848.

ZYNE Excellentie de Administrateur des Gouvernements heeft goed gevonden den volgende brief van instructie aan, het algemeene College van Commissarissen van Publieke Gevangenissen, te publiceren, en gelast alle publieke Ambtenaren en Dienaars des Gouvernements om dadelijk te corresponderen met het College, over alle zaken betrekkelijk hunne functien en pligten. De teekening van ieder Lid der Commissie, namens het College, moet worden beschouwd als gevende de gevoelens en het gezag van het geheele College.

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. Excellentie den Administrateur des Gouvernements.

(Get.) JOHN MONTAGU,

Aan het Generale College van Commissarissen van Publieke Gevangenissen.

Koloniale Secretary, 4 April 1848.

MYNHEER,—De hoofdbedoelingen welke beoogd worden door het oprigten van het Generale College van Commissarissen van Publieke Gevangenissen, zijn vermeld in de Minute van Zyne Excellentie den Administrateur des Gouvernements, gedateerd 22 dezer.

De groote einden van strafucht zijn, eerst, de straf voor de misdaad, en ten tweede, de verbetering van den overtreders.

Voor het jaar 1844 is dit laatste doel geheel en al verzuimd, en het eerste zeer gebrekkig, verzekerd zoo als altyd het geval moet zijn by een stelsel dat eerder het wegvooien, en de straf van individuele misdadigers bedoeld dan de vermindering van de algemeene massa van misdaad.

De afschaffing in 1815 van de Straf Kolonie op Robben Eiland, en het gebruik van de veroordeelde misdadigers aan de publieke wegen van de Kolonie, was een belangrijke stap in den voortgang, en het is zeer voldoende te bevinden dat het stelsel heilzaam werkt, niet alleen voor de algemeene belangen van het publiek, maar voor de zedelyke verbetering van individuele misdadigers.

Maar het aannemen van dit stelsel met betrekking tot mannelijke bandieten alleen, maakt het dringender voor het Gouvernement dan voorheen om maatregelen te nemen tot het verbeteren van den zedelyken stand van de andere klassen van gedetineerden, t.w., vrouwelyke bandieten, personen in hechtenis gebonden voor teregtstelling, en gedetineerden wier vorms van dwang arbeid of confinement minder is dan dertig dagen.

Het is opvallend dat het publieke voordeel dat moet getrokken worden uit den arbeid van de gedetineerden aan de publieke wegen, niet het enige was dat het Gouvernement overhaalde om het stelsel aan te nemen, dat in 1844 was ingesteld. De woorden van Sir George Napier aangehaald door Zyne Excellentie den Administrateur des Gouvernements, in zyne Minute boven bedoeld, tonen ten klaarsten een "voortgang van hervormende tucht," als een der bedoelingen welke het Gouvernement streefde te bereiken.

En dat dit doel altyd in het oog moet worden gehouden, by het aanleggen van Gevangenissen is opvallend, zynde het streeven daarnaar een pligt jegens de maatschappij in het algemeen, zoowel als jegens den misdadiger. Het is het eenige behoudmiddel dat de maatschappij byzit, tegen het bestendig vermeenderen van misdaad door het op gezette tyden loslaten van misdadigers, verhard in het kwaad door den omgang met anderen, misschien nog meer verlaagd dan zy zelf. De misdadiger heeft dadelijk aanspraak op alle mogelyke pogingen van de zyde des Gouvernements, om zynen zedelyken siad te verbeteren. De maatschappij heeft geen recht misdaad te scheppen onder het voorwendsel van dezelve te straffen; het grondbeginsel van misdaad te bevestigen, waaraan een misdadiger is opgebracht, door hem in aanraking te brengen met anderen meer verhard dan hy zelf: en hem dan los te laten in de wereld blootgesteld aan verleidingen, welke vernederde kracht over zynen geest hebben bekomen door den onnatuurlyken omgang in eene Gevangenis. Door het volgen van zulk eenen gang wordt hetgeen men noemt, de voorkoming van misdaad, deszelfs aanmoediging, en de Gevangenis, in plaats van een huis van verbetering, wordt veranderd in eene School van misdaad.

Deze grondbeginselen welke waar zijn naar dezelve worden geuit, zijn byzonder toepasselyk op deze Kolonie. Er is hier een groot gebrek van arbeiders, zoodat het Gouvernement aan den hervormden misdadiger gerustelyk de hoop kan geven van het bekomen van een eerlyke kostwinning dadelijk na hy zyne vryheid terug bekomt. Hier kan men niet klagen, zoo als men dikwyls doet in dicht bevolkte landen dat de gevangene by zyn ontslag uit de gevangenis zich alleen bevindt in de wereld, verlaten door de maatschappij en dus genoodzaakt terug te keeren tot zynen vorigen gang van misdaad, of te verhongerren. Een ieder in deze Kolonie die gezond is eerlyk zyn brood te verdienen heeft het middel om zulks te doen.

Wederom, daar er genoegzame vraag in deze Kolonie is, naar eerlyke en bekwaame arbeiders zoo bestaat en ook eene byzondere noodzakelykheid om gewoonten van eerlykheid en vlyt onder de arbeidende kolonisten aan te moedigen. De heerschende ondeugd onder de inlandsche bevolking is traagheid, eene ondeugd welke spreekwoordelyk de kweekster van misdaad is; om deze, zoowel als om andere redenen behoort de gevangenisucht zoo te worden geschikt, dat dezelve aanspoort tot vlyt en arbeidzaamheid en de hebbelykheid daarvan bevordert.

Het groote principe dat gevangenisucht zoo wel de hervorming van den misdadiger, als de straf der misdaad beoogt is, zoo als alreeds aangemerkt, alreeds in 1844 door het Gouvernement erkend, en niets blijft nu over dan het principe in werking te brengen ten aanzien van de personen in de publieke gevangenissen van de Kolonie, gedetineerd.

De reden waarom dit niet gedaan is, moet men vinden in de ongenoegzame geryven in de publieke Gevangenissen voorzien, waaronder de klassificatie van de gevangenen onmogelyk werd, en de scheiding der sexen niet altyd mogelyk; tucht en hervorming waren uit de kwestie, en zelfs de vrylge bewaring was zo onveilig, dat in de enkele maand Maart in het tegenwoordige jaar, er niet minder dan tien gevangenen ontsnappt zijn.

Ten einde deze moeijeligheden te ontgaan, is eene Ordonnantie gemaakt "tot het verbeteren van de Gevangenissen van deze Kolonie," welke berdoelt het geheele stelsel van gevangenissen te hernieuwen, en te voorzien voor de tucht en bevordering der gedetineerden.

By deze Ordonnantie (No. 21, 1847) is het vermogen van het maken van regulatie voor de Gevangenissen; de pligten te worden volbragt, door de onderscheide beambten daaraan gehecht, het voedsel en de kleeding der gedetineerden, de tyden voor de bezoeken der Resident Magistrate, het inbrengen van sterke dranken, enz. in de Gevangenissen, en andere zaken, verbonden met derzelve bestuur, gevestigd in den Gouverneur. Het is verder bepaald dat een cipier zal huisvesten in iedere Gevangenis, die geen andere bezigheid zal mogen hebben, en dien het verboden is eenige artikel aan de gevangenen te verkoopen, hetzy direct of indirect, onder eenige boete van £5 tot £100. De cipier moet een dagboek houden, dat hy aan den Resident Magistraat van het district moet produceren, by gelegenheid van zyne bezoeken van inspectie, en waarin hy alle zaken die opletting waard zijn die in de Gevangenis voorvallen moet aantekenen; het is hem verder volstrekkelyk verboden van de gevangenen eenig geld aan te nemen, of hen te straffen op zyne eigen verantwoordelykheid; maar in zekere gevallen kan hy hem in boeien slaan, hetgeen dadelijk aan den Resident Magistraat moet gerapporteerd worden.

Deze laatste ambtenaar moet op gezette tyden al de Gevangenissen in zyn district bezoeken, en aan den Gouverneur rapport doen, van den staat van tucht die onderhouden wordt, het gedrag van den cipier, en lagere suppoosten, het getal, en de beschryving der Gevangenen, en alle andere zaken van aangebelang, met de Gevangenis in verband staande. Hy is mede gerechtigd tot het straffen met solitaire confinement, met of zonder schraal dieet, door dwang arbeid of lichaams kastyding, van zoodanige gevangenen die tegen de gevangenisucht misdaad hebben. Hy heeft mede de magt summerlyk alle gevangenen teregt te stellen die hebben getracht uit de gevangenis te ontkomen. Dobbelen, en het gebruik van sterke dranken is ten sterksten in de Gevangenis verboden.

By de 4de Sectie, welke misschien de belangrijkste is, is bepaald dat mannelijke en vrouwelyke gedetineerden strictlyk van elkander gescheiden zullen worden gehouden en dat de gedetineerden van ieder sexe zullen moeten worden verdeeld in zes klassen.

(a) Personen onder eenig decreet van gyzeling.

(b) Personen gecommiteerd uit gebrek van borgtocht om de rust te houden.

(c) Personen gecommiteerd voor moord, misdadig manslag, roo, vrouwen schennis, of aanranding met bedoeling om eenige dier misdadaden te plegen of waar eenige gevaarlyk woord is toegebracht, brandstichting, huisbraak met voornemen om eenige misdaad te plegen, of het stelen van eenig vee, schapen of bokken, of anderen misdaad van gelyken aard van schuld als eenige dezer misdaden.

(d) Personen gecommiteerd voor eenige misdaad van mindere graad van schuld dan eenige der vermelde misdaden.

(e) Personen overtuigd van eenige zoodanige misdaad als beschreven in letter c.

(f) Personen overtuigd van eenig misdaad als beschreven in letter d.

De volstrakte noodzakelykheid van zoodanige voorzieningen moeten aan iederen denkenden geest de kwade strekking tooneefvan het stelsel dat dezelve bestemd zijn te hervormen, en waarvoor r huisbrekers, moordenars en misdadigers van lagere graad allen byeen waren, om eldander te besmetten door de mededeling aan eldander van die soort van misdaad waarin zy het meest bedreven zijn.

Zyne Excellentie is van gevoelen, als vermeld in zyn minute, dat de voorzieningen van deze Ordonnantie ten krachtigste zullen kunnen worden uitgewerkt door een Generaal College van Commissarissen van publieke Gevangenissen; en u gevolgelyk hebbende aangesteld om zoodanig College uit te maken, aan u, (onderwerpen aan zyne goedkeuring) de vermogens en pligten toe te vertrouwen aan hem gegeven door de voorzieningen van de bedoelde Ordonnantie.

Ten einde het Algemeene College te helpen in het volvoeren van dezelve pligten, zullen plaatselyk Collegien worden aangesteld in allen buiten districten, welke zullen bestaan uit den Resident Magistraat, die de voorzitter zal zijn ex officio en twee andere leden, dat respectabele en aanzienlyke inwoners van het district moeten zijn.

Het zal mede de pligt zijn van het Generale College, om ter Zyne Excellenties goedkeuring, Regulatie te maken voor de Districts Collegien, die met het Gouvernement zullen moeten corresponderen, door middel van het Generale College.

De eerste pligt van de Generale en Districts Collegien zal wezen hunne aandacht te vestigen op het bouwen van Gevangenissen, en het voorzien van zoodanige Gevangenissen Huisvesting, als de omstandigheden des lands zullen schynen te vorderen. Zekerheid, verenigd met dien graad van gemak, welke de gezondheid in stand houdt, is de eerste zaak waar naar getracht moet worden, daar het gestadig outkomen van Gedetineerden uit de Gevangenissen niet langer geduld kan worden. Maar het is klaar dat ten einde de inzigten van den Wetgevenden Raad, met betrekking tot de klassificatie der Gedetineerden in werking te brengen, velen der Gevangenissen aanzienlyk vergoeding behoeven. Voor het passeren van de Gevangenis Ordonnantie heeft eene volumineuse correspondentie plaats gevonden tusschen den Secretaris des Gouvernements en verscheiden Magistraten residentende in de Buiten Districten, welke Zyne Excellentie gelast heeft in zyn geheel aan het Generale College voor te leggen, tot deszelfs narigt. Het College zal met alle mogelyke spoed aan Zyne Excellentie den gang mededeelen, welke hetzelfde verlangt hem aan te bevelen, in ieder onderscheiden gevallen in deze correspondentie onder zyne opmerking gebragt, zoowel als alle algemeene voordragten betreffelyk het bouwen van Gevangenissen, het best geschikt voor Gevangenisucht.

Zyne Excellentie verlangt dat het generale College zoodanige correspondentie zal aanhouden met de plaatselyke Collegien, welke dezelve in vol bezit zal houden van al het noodige narigt betreffende den staat van iedere Gevangenis, met betrekking tot tucht, de gezonde staat en zinde.

NOTICE.

Government House,
Cape Town, 29th March 1848.

By Order of His Excellency
Her Majesty's High Commissioner,
(Signed) RICHARD SOUTHEY, Secretary.

MANIFESTO.

WHEREAS some evil-minded Persons, prone to wickedness, to mischief, and to evil ways, have been in the Territory beyond the Orange River over which I have proclaimed the Sovereignty of Her Majesty; have been calling meetings to pervert the true spirit and meaning of my Proclamations of the 3d and 10th February; and have been assuming the characters of my Agents to gain the will of the people for the purposes of wicked excitement; and have been showing my signature to the Proclamation of the 3d February, professing it to be a document containing far different sentiments from the reality;—I deem it my duty to publish an explanation of the motives which have induced me to establish a Government over deluded, disappointed, and dissatisfied men, who have expatriated themselves from the Land of their Fathers—from the homes which reared them—from relatives and friends, with whom their social intercourse contributes to their happiness,—from their Pastors, their Churches, and consequently their God. Many of these men, indeed the majority, are personally known to me,—their hospitality I have received in their former comfortable homes and good houses,—their services I have admired when in the field under my command against a common enemy. These bonds of affection, which originated in 1835—6, have subsequently been cemented by various events. I was invited from within the Colony and from beyond the Orange River, to see the condition of these my friends; and to devise some measures to bring them back to social comforts, to harmony and confidence in one another, to their Church, and to their neglected God, who teaches us to gather together in prayer and thankfulness to Him. I established, under the blessing of Divine Providence, I trust a lasting peace with the Gaika and T'Slambie Kaffirs, and in 54 days from my landing I was among my old friends, who had thus invited Colonel Smith to see their condition and to ameliorate it. I was received every where with unmistakable marks of affection, with addresses, rejoicings, firings, and every demonstration of delight. Upon one occasion about thirty assembled near the Drakenberg, and after receiving me with every expression of personal regard, told me they had been endeavouring to establish a Government of their own, and hoped to succeed. We parted in amity. I had not proceeded two miles when several followed me, assuring me such was not the voice of half the number. They depicted their state of misery from want of Churches and Laws, declared that they had not seen a Church for ten years, they could neither marry their daughters nor bury their dead, that their Children were uneducated, and that they should become ignorant Barbarians, and Slaves to the Black Natives, who had Missionaries, Schools, and Chapels, while they were totally unprovided. They stated, with tears in their eyes, that they feared to speak before one another, that there was no mutual confidence, no reliance upon one another's actions. I told one of the party a leading part of what I proposed to do. He begged me to delay issuing the Proclamation until some meetings in contemplation should have taken place. I said, "Very well, I shall not do it until I have seen your great guide." Upon my seeing him, he urged upon me to issue it, promised to explain that he recommended it, as it would strengthen his hands to induce all to a system of rule; and the equity of the Land Question was such it carried conviction with it. If he did so he has acted up to his word; if he did not he has deceived both you and me.

You have indeed had no Government for years, are you happier? Are you richer? Are you better christians? You are miserable, you are paupers, the half of you ruined. You are receding from your Faith, with no ministers of the Holy Gospel to consult and to confide in; while your brothers, your cousins, your friends, under a just and free Government, are happy and con-

ZYNE Excellentie de Hooze Commissaris heeft goedgevonden te gelasten dat het volgende Manifest gepubliceerd worde.

Op last van Zyne Excellentie den Hooze Commissaris, (Get.) RICHARD SOUTHEY, Secretaris.

NADEMAAL er eenige boosaardige personen, geneigd tot snoodheid, ondeugd, en kwaadgezindheid, in het Landgebied aan de overzyde van de Oranje Rivier, over hetwelk ik de Souvereiniteit van Hare Majesteit heb geproclameerd, geweest zyn;—byeenkomsten hebben gehouden om de ware bedoeling en meening van myne Proclamatien van den 3 en 10 February te verdraaijen; en hebben voorgegeven myne Agenten te zyn om de neiging van het volk te gewinnen, tot einden van kwaade opwekking; en myne naamteekening onder de Proclamatie van den 3 February hebben aangegeven, voorgevende dat dezelve een Document is dat gevoelens geheel verschillend van de ware behelst;—acht ik het myn plicht een uitleg te publiceren vande beweegredenen welke my noopten om een Gouvernement daartestellen over misleide, teleurgestelde, en misnoegde menschen, die uit het Land hunner Vadersen zyn uitgeweken,—de woningen daar zy in groot geworden zyn hebben verlaten,—afgescheiden van bloedverwanten en vrienden, de gezellige omgang met wien strekte tot hun geluk,—van hunne leeren, hunne kerken, en gevolgelyk ook hun God. Velen dezer menschen, inderdaad, de meeste hunner, zyn my persoonlyk bekend,—hunne gastvryheid heb ik gesmaakt in hunne vorige genoegelyke huisgezinnen en goede woningen;—hunne diensten heb ik met bewondering gade geslagen wanneer zy onder myn bevel in het veld waren tegen eenen algemeenen vyand. Deze banden van toegenueidheid, welke in 1835—6, ontstaan zyn, zyn naderhand door verschillende gebeurtenissen versterkt geworden. Ik ben genoodigd geworden van binnen de Kolonie en van de andere zyde van de Oranje Rivier, om te zien in welken staat myne vrienden zich bevinden, en eenige middelen te beramen om hen tot den gezelligen kring terug te brengen, tot eensgezindheid en vertrouwen in elkander, tot hunne Kerk, en tot hunnen verwaarloosden God, die ons leert te zamen te vergaderen in den gebede en dankzegging tot Hem. Ik heb, onder den zegen des Allerhoogsten, zoo ik vertrouw, eenen bestendigen vrede hersteld met de Gaika en T'Slambie Kafferstammen, en in 54 dagen sedert myne aankomst was ik onder myne oude vrienden, die aldus Kolonel Smith hadden verzocht om hunnen toestand te komen bezien en denzelven te verbeteren. Ik ben overal ontvangen geworden met de allerduidelykste blyken van toegenueidheid, met adressen, verheugingen, salutschoten, en alle betooningen van blydschap: Op eene zekere gelegenheid zyn omtrent dertig personen naby Drakenberg te zamen gekomen, en na my met alle betooning van persoonlyk respect ontvangen te hebben, maakten zy my bekend dat zy getracht hadden hun eigen Gouvernement daartestellen, en hoopten daarin te zullen slagen. Wy scheidden in vriendschap. Ik had naauwelyks twee mylen afgelegd, wanneer verscheiden my navolgden, en my verzekerden dat zulks niet de stem van de helft van hun getal was. Zy schilderden den staat van ellende in welken zy verkeerden uit gebrek aan Kerken en Wetten; verklaarden dat zy in geen tien jaren eene Kerk hadden gezien; zy konden hunne dochters niet getrouwd krygen, noch hunne dooden begraven; dat hunne kinderen zonder opvoeding blyven; en dat zy onkundige Barbaren en Slaven van de Zwarte Natien zouden worden, die Zendelingen, Scholen, en Kerken hadden, terwyl zy van alles ontbloot waren. Zy verklaarden, met betraande oogen, dat zy bevreesd waren om in elkanders byzyn te spreken, want er bestond geen wederkerig vertrouwen, en men kon niet op elkanders handelwyze staat maken. Ik maakte aan een hunner bekend de voornaamste zaken welke ik voornemens was te verrigten. Hy verzocht my de uitvaardiging der Proclamatie te vertragen tot dat eenige byeenkomsten welke bestemd waren, zouden zyn afgeloopen. Ik zeide, "Zeer wel, ik zal het niet doen voor dat ik uw groote leidsman zal gezien hebben." Toen ik hem zag, spoorde hy my aan om dezelve uittevaardigen, beloofde dat hy zoude verklaren dat hy zulks aanbevolen had, daar het zyne handen zoude versterken om alle tot een stelsel van regeringsvorm te bewegen; en de billykheid van de Land questie was zoodanig, dat zy overtuiging met zich voerde. Indien hy zulks gedaan heeft, dan heeft hy zyn woord bevestigd; indien hy zulks niet gedaan heeft, dan heeft hy beide u en my bedrogen.

Gy hebt inderdaad sedert jaren geen Gouvernement gehad. Zyt gy gelukkiger? zyt gy ryker? zyt gy betere Christenen?—Gy zyt ellendig, gy zyt armen, de helft uwer zyn geruineerd. Gy wykt af van uw geloof, zonder leeraars om mede te raadplegen of in te vertrouwen; terwyl uwe broeders, uwe neven, uwe vrienden, onder een regtvaardig en vry Gouvernement,

1, are shipping wool and corn, selling valuable horses, sheep, and cattle; and enjoying all the blessings a good conscience effects, and Civilisation and Christianity ensure—going to their church on a Sunday with their elegant spans of Horses and Wagons, with their happy wives and children,—while your Sundays are spent in your miserable huts,—not the good houses you were reared in,—wretched and unhappy,—your manly and truly good hearts desiring a state of things, the wicked endeavour to thrust from your grasp; but which they shall not.

I shall now proceed to lay before you and the world, the motives which have actuated me, comprised in two words,—“your benefit.” You have called on me to assist you, I have done so,—vide my Proclamations of the 3rd of February and the 8th of March, in which last I have endeavoured, clearly, distinctly, and unequivocally, to set forth the Government calculated to render you—what you are not now—happy.

The ill-disposed have endeavoured to pervert facts—to startle the credulous—to alarm the timid—and to excite all to aid their own restless and uncontrollable dispositions. First, then, let us consider the practical effect of my paternal feelings for your welfare, for the satisfaction of your friends and relations within the Colony, who so desire to see you preserved in civilization, with a home to dwell on, a school for your children, and a church for you to pray in.

By the Treaties and Arrangements entered into in February 1845, between Sir Peregrine Maitland and Adam Kok, and other Native Chiefs occupying the Territories North of the Great Orange River, it was settled “that all agreements entered into by British Subjects residing in that Territory, with Natives, for the purchase of Land, should be of non-effect, or be held to be only the lease of the said Land for forty years, at the expiration of that period, the land with all improvements should revert to the original proprietors without any remuneration to the farmer for buildings, &c., and that all Lands held on leases of shorter dates, should on the expiration of the lease revert to the Natives on the same conditions.

That a certain portion of the Land then occupied by British Subjects between the Orange River and a Branch of the Riet River, called the “Kromelenbog Spruit,” should be termed “Unalienable Territory,” and which, as the leases fall in, should not be re-let, but the occupants quit those places, and retire without the line of demarcation, the Riet River.

That portion of the Territory North and East of the Kromelenbog Spruit, should be termed “Alienable Territory,” which the Natives might, if they chose, at the termination of the current leases, re-let at such exorbitant rates as they might fix, so that as leases expired the Natives could raise the rents according to the increased value of the property caused by the labour and expenditure of the Farmers upon it, and without making any payment for such labour and expenditure, notwithstanding the Farmer, during the existence of the lease, was obliged to pay quitrents, one half of which went to the Natives! A state of things most unsatisfactory to all parties, was the cause of constant quarrels and dissensions, and the Farmer felt himself an outcast, and subject to the will of uncivilized men.

This state of doubt and uncertainty has immediately changed by my visit; a fresh agreement entered into with Captain Adam Kok, the Farmer holds his Lands upon a first and indisputable right from Her Majesty of England, for which, you all know, you, at the time, shed tears of gratitude, and called down blessings upon me.

I have taken you from your King, Captain Kok, and the Great Chiefs whose Serfs you were, holding your Land on insecure tenure, and in constant apprehension of being turned off.—Was this right for a manly Africander? Have I not rescued you from so degrading, so uncertain, a state?

Thus do you hold your Lands in perpetuity in Captain Adam Kok's Country. I then entered into engagements with the great Chiefs Moshesh, Morokko, Moletsani, Sikonyella, &c. They rejoiced in what I proposed, and every Burgher now holds his Lands on the Faith of Her Majesty and from no Native whatever; while protection is afforded to the white man as well as to the black.

My every act has been the study of your benefit, the desire to place in your own hands, to every practicable extent, the governing of yourselves by yourselves. You are to choose your own Field-Commandants, your own Field-Cornets, you are to have one of yourselves upon the Land Commission, you are to give your free opinion to the Magistrates whom I place among you, that I may hear your wants, desires, and wishes, with the sole view of supplying them. Every fraction of the Revenue, arising from the trifling Quitrents demanded of you, is for your benefit, for your rule, for your Schools, for your Churches, for your God. You go to bed at night returning thanks to the Omnipotent Protector of all,—“This is my home, my own undisputed home, home, sweet home;—my wife will be protected, my children educated, my devotion ensured, markets will be established for my worldly benefit.” You sleep the sleep of happiness, for God is with you. You rise in the morning; and with devotional effusion of gratitude, ere you proceed to your daily labour, you see your wife and your children around you without fear or trembling, without doubt or uncertainty. Excitement is succeeded by content, and the voice at first whispers,—“We thank our old friend Colonel Smith for what he has done.” Shortly the voice loudly exclaims,—“Smith is our Governor; he it is who has induced us to rule ourselves under his fostering care; we thank him as our Governor.”

What have I done for your Countrymen in Natal, part of Her Majesty's dominions? I found them wandering, they knew not whither, from their homes, their standing crops, and their excellent gardens cultivated by their own hands; their wives, and children, and flocks, and herds exposed to the miseries of a rainy season. I took such steps as to ensure their return to their comfortable homes; and I appointed the man who has great influence with you one of a Land Commission, the result of the labours of which would ensure the great point,—undisputed right of possession of your Land.

Pause then, I pray you, my friends, ere you allow wicked agitators to excite you to permit your well-disposed minds to drive peace, happiness, and

gelukkig en te vrede zyn, wol en koorn afscheppen, kostbare paarden, schapen, en vee-verkopen, en alle zegeningen genieten welke een goed geweten opleveren, en beschaving en godsdienst daarstellen, 's Zondags naar de Kerk gaan met hunne fraaije spannen paarden en wagens, met hunne vergenoegde vrouwen en kinderen, terwyl uwe Zondagen doorgebracht worden in uwe ellendige hutten, niet in de goede huizen waarin gy opgevoed zyt, maar woest en onvergenoegd, uwe mannelijke en waarlyk goede harten begeeren een staat van zaken welke de kwaadgezinde buiten uw bereik trachten te stellen, doch hetgeen zyniet zullen doen.

Ik zal nu overgaan om voor u en de wereld de beweegredenen open te leggen die my hebben bestuurd, toen ik de twee woorden gebruikte “uw voordeel.” Gy hebt tot my geroepen om u te helpen: dit heb ik gedaan; zie myne Proclamatie van den 3den February, en 8sten Maart, waarin ik getracht heb duidelyk, klaar, nadrukkelek, en ondubbelzinnig te doen verstaan, dat het gouvernement ten doel had om u te maken, hetgeen gy thans niet zyt,—namelyk, gelukkig.

De kwalijkgezinden hebben getracht de waarheid te verdraaijen, den ligt-geloovigen te verschrikken, den vreesachtigen te beangstigen, en allen aan te sporen om behulpzaam te zyn in hunne eigene rusteloze en ontentbare geneigdheden. Laat ons dan ten eerste de werkdadige uitkomst overwegen van myne vaderlyke gevoelens tot uwe welvaart, ter voldoening van uwe vrienden en betrekkingen binnen de kolonie, die zoo zeer begeeren u bevestigd te zien in de beschaving, met een huis om in te wonen, een school voor uwe kinderen, en eene kerk om in te bidden.

Door de Tractaten en Schikkingen gemaakt in February 1845, tusschen Sir Peregrine Maitland en Adam Kok, en andere plaatselyke Opperhoofden, in bezit van de Landstreken ten Noorden van de Oranje Rivier, werd bepaald, “dat alle overeenkomsten gemaakt tusschen Britsche Onderdanen in die landstreken woonachtig en Inboorlingen, voor het koopen van Land, van geene kracht zouden wezen, of gehouden zullen worden slechts eene verhuuring te zyn van het gez. Land voor veertig jaren, na verloop waarvan, het land, met al de verbeteringen, terug zoude vallen op de oorspronkelyke eigenaren, zonder eenige vergoeding aan den boer voor gebouwen, enz., en dat alle landeryen voor een korteren tyd verhuurd, na verloop van het huurcontract, zouden terug vallen op de Inboorlingen onder dezelfde voorwaarden.

Dat een zeker gedeelte van het land, toen bewoond door Britsche Onderdanen tusschen de Oranje Rivier en de Tak van de Riet Rivier, genaamd de “Kromelleboog Spruit,” genoemd zoude worden “Onvervreemdbaar Grondgebied,” hetwelk, nadat de huurcontracten zyn verlopen, n'et weder moest worden verhuurd, maar de bewoners de plaatsen moesten verlaten, en zich zoude begeven buiten de bepaalde linie—de Riet Rivier.

Dat gedeelte van de landstreek ten noorden en oosten van de Kromelleboog Spruit moest genoemd worden “Vervreemdbaar Grondgebied,” hetwelk de Inboorlingen, indien zy zulks verhozen, na verloop van de onvolbrachte huurcontracten, wederom konden verhuren voor zulke buitensporige pryzen als zy mogten bepalen; zoo dat de Inboorlingen, na elk verloop van een huurcontract, de huurpryzen konden verhoogen volgens de vermeerderde waarde van het eigendom, veroorzaakt door den arbeid en uitgaaf der boeren op hetzelfde, en zonder iets te betalen voor zoodanigen arbeid en uitgaaf, niet-tegenstaande de boer gedurende het bestaan des huurcontracts verplicht was de Erfpacht te betalen, de helft waarvan de Inboorlingen kregen!—een staat van zaken, zeer ongenoeglyk voor alle partyen, was de oorzaak van vele twisten en verdeeldheden, en de boer gevoelde zich een verworping, en onderworpen aan den wil van onbeschaafde menschen.

Deze staat van twyfel en onzekerheid is dadelyk veranderd door myn bezoek; eene nieuwe overeenkomst werd gemaakt met Adam Kok; de Boer behoudt zyn land met een eerst en onbetwistbaar regt, van Hare Majesteit van Engeland, waarvoor, zoo als gy allen weet, gy, te dier tyd, tranen van dankbaarheid stortte, en den zegen des hemels voor my afmeekte.

Ik heb u afgenomen van uwen koning, Kapitein Kok, en de groote Opperhoofden, wiens knechten gy waart, uw land onder een onzeker regt bezittende, en in eene gedurige vrees van verjaagd te worden. Was dit regt voor eenen mannelijken Afrikaander? Heb ik u niet gered uit zulk eenen verlagenden, zulk eenen onzekeren toestand?

Op deze wyze blyft gy uw land bezitten in eeuwigdurendheid, in het grondgebied van Adam Kok. Ik heb toen onderhandelingen gemaakt met de groote Opperhoofden Moshesh, Morokko, Moletsani, Sikonyella, enz. Zy verheugden zich in hetgeen ik voorstelde, en ieder burger bezit nu zyn land onder de trouw van Hare Majesteit, en van geen Inboorling hoegenaamd; terwyl bescherming wordt verleend zoowel aan blanken als aan zwarten.

Elk myner daden was eene ernstige overdenking van uw voordeel, eene begeerte om, zoo verre als het doenlyk was, u te laten regeren door uzelf. Gy hebt de magt uw eigene Veld-commandanten te kiezen, uw eigen Veldkornetten,—een van u moet eene plaats hebben in de Land-Commissie, gy moet uw gevoel openlyk aan den dag leggen aan de Magistraten die ik onder u plaats, opdat ik uwe ontberingen, begeerten, en wenschen moge hooren, met het eenig oogmerk, om dezelve te vervullen. Iedere penning van de Inkomsten, voortsdruijende uit de Erfpacht van u geëischt, is tot uw voordeel, tot uwe regering, tot uwe scholen, tot uwe kerken, tot uwen God. Gy gaat 's avonds naar bed, den almachtigen beschermder der wereld dankende,—“Dit is myn huis, myne eigene onbetwiste woning, hier ben ik te huis, hoe aangenaam! myne vrouw zal worden beschermd, myne kinderen opgevoed, myne godsdienst gevestigd,—markten zullen worden opgericht tot myn tydelijk voordeel.” Gy slaapt de slaap des geluks, want God is met u. Gy staat op in den morgen, en met eene godsverheerlykende uitstorting van dankbaarheid, ziet gy, voor dat gy u naar uwen dage yksehen arbeid begeeft, uwe vrouw en uwe kinderen om u heen zonder vrees of beving, zonder twyfel of onzekerheid. Opgewondenheid wordt door tevredenheid opgevolgd, en ten eerste fluistert de stem “Wy zegen onze oude vriend Kolonel Smith dank voor hetgeen hy gedaan heeft.” Niet lang duurt het of de stem roept luidkeels uit:—“Smith is onze Gouverneur; hy is het die ons aangespoord heeft onszelf te regeren, onder zyne minzame zorg; wy danken hem als onze Gouverneur.”

Wat heb ik voor uwe landgenooten gedaan te Natal, een gedeelte van Hare Majesteits Bezittingen? Ik vond hen dwalende, zy wisten niet waarheen, van hunne woningen, hun oningeoogste producten, hunne uitmuntende tuinen die zy met hunne eigene handen hebben bearbeid, hunne vrouwen, hunne kinderen, en kudde en veestroomen blootgesteld aan de eilende van een regengeryflike woningen konden verzekeren; en ik stelde eenen man die veel invloed onder u heeft aan als een van de Land Commissie, de uitslag van welker arbeid de verzekering moest daarstellen van die groote zaak,—onbetwist regt van de bezittingen uws lands.

Sta dan stil, bid ik u, myne vrienden, voor dat gy u door aanhitzers laat opwinden, om uwe, ten goede geneigde gemoederen, toe te laten, vrede, geluk.

comforts, now within your grasp, from your doors. What object had I in wandering, an exile as it were, among you; when duty commanded me to repair to the seat of Government, where my services were so much required, in travelling hundreds of miles and living in a wagon, but that of endeavouring to do good to old friends who required one to show himself to them? On my return your Countrymen poured down blessings on my head for my exertions in your behalf. Are such devoted acts for your welfare, are your own interests, to be cast aside? Is your future prospect of happiness, your future hope in Eternal Life, to be driven from you by wicked designers and ambitious men, who have their own ends alone to serve? Are your wives to be left in tears for your absence, or to be rendered widows, and are your children to be uneducated and homeless? Is base ingratitude to usurp the seat of reason?

The prosperity of a nation is materially dependent on a just system of Government and Finance,—the leading principles of which are, that every individual shall contribute to the maintenance of a Government in proportion to the property he possesses, to protect him from domestic tyranny or foreign aggression; and that every individual contributing a quota shall have a voice in regulating the scheme of his Government and the disbursement of the revenue.—I have given you this in every practicable form.

When at Winberg, on the presentation of an Address, I was asked for Soldiers;—I exclaimed "Soldiers! You around me are my Soldiers," meaning that peaceable Citizens are their own Soldiers, and require no military aid whatever. This expression has been perverted; and you have been taught to believe, not thinking for the moment, that I am to make you all Soldiers! For what? Because I love Peace, and require no military in my operations to carry out what I desire? Is not all Southern Africa the seat of Peace, without one drop of blood having been shed by my authority, or one blow struck? Am I the man to require soldiers for any ordinary purpose? But there are causes so sacred to the Lord and in the eyes of the world, as to demand military interference;—hence I have proclaimed that you hold your Lands subject to military service; and I do so for the sole purpose of providing for the time of need. But if you never load your firelock until I ask you, it may be turned into what all arms are best fitted for—Plough-shares.

Now, my friends!—my half lost friends and wavering christians! I have addressed you as Colonel Smith, I have appealed to your feelings as men, as fathers of families, as reasoning human beings possessing immortal souls. I have exerted myself to the extent of my abilities and my energies. I now turn from Colonel Smith to the Governor of this Colony;—and I PROCLAIM TO YOU that I will carry out, or die in the attempt, the provisions of the Proclamations I have framed for your exclusive benefit and by your own desire, and the factious demagogue shall tremble at that name which he even now respects, and for which you all so far, and wide, and loudly proclaimed your love. You well know I never forfeited my word. You well know, for many of you have served with me in the field, the velocity with which I wield the sword. Do not suppose that I have stripped myself of the means by sending home troops. I tell you, and tell you truly and honestly, I hold in readiness a force of guns, cavalry, and tried British Soldiers, who in fifteen days should be among you, men capable of causing stouter hearts than yours to quail. When I commanded you were brave; now! you have no head you dare confide in, your hearts are in the wrong place, your cause being unjust,—an ignorant, discontented few endeavouring to excite the many. Do you talk of resistance and assemblages,—you whom two years ago a few dragoons rode over like sheep? Do you presume to imagine that you are able to do what no mass of demagogues has ever yet done,—the undisciplined to resist, and successfully maintain a protracted resistance against, the disciplined force of a regular Government?

But oh! how I hate and detest the name of war and commotion! The many battle scenes I have witnessed arise like phantoms to my imagination. But as I abhor war, so will I terribly wield its power if you drive me from your affection. If you compel me to wield the fatal sword, after all I have attempted for you, the crime be upon your own heads; and while my Troops shall exult in Victory, I will weep, as you have seen me do, over the fallen, the defeated, the deluded; your lands shall be wrested from you, your houses destroyed, your herds swept off, your own hearts blackened by wicked ingratitude, and your faithful, your generous friend, who has exerted himself for your exclusive benefit, turned into the Avenger of Evil! You shall become like the Ishmaelites of old, "your hand shall be against every man, and every man's hand shall be against you." "Vengeance is mine," saith the Lord; and in His name, and for the benefit of His creatures, would I smite those I so love, and to whom I have so endeavoured to prove that I do so.

There are limits to the extent of the most virtuous feelings in this worldly and uncertain trial of Life. Aid me, as I desire you, to preserve them to us; and as in generous and uncorrupted minds the superiority of Religion carries us through the calamities of this transient life, let us together thus pray:—

Lord of all Power and Might, Disposer of all Things, good and evil, deign to look down upon us frail and sinful creatures; teach us who are our true friends, preserve and strengthen us in all the trials of temptation, defend us from the evil practices of wicked men, teach us to worship Thee with our hearts, our minds, our souls, devoted unto Thee through Jesus Christ; direct our hearts and our actions towards our neighbour; teach us so to live that our course in this life may lead us to Life Eternal; teach us to forgive our enemies and to love our friends; teach us after a peaceable life to look forward to that re-union in Heaven, the fountain of our hopes on Earth, the happy place of rest for our immortal souls. When we must put off the mortal garment, and lie down on the bed of Death, let us be at Peace with Thee Oh Lord, at Peace with the world, and at Peace with our own hearts!!! This grant us, O Lord, Our God Almighty, through Jesus Christ.—Amen.

(Signed) H. G. SMITH.

Government House,

en genoeglykheden, nu in uw bereik, van uwe deuren te dryven. Welk oogmerk had ik in het rondzwerven onder u, een balling als het ware, toen de pligt my gebod naar de zetel van het Gouvernement my te begeren, waar myne diensten zoo zeer werden vereischt; in het overreizen van honderden van mylen, en wonende in eenen wagen; dan een poging om aan oude vrienden goed te doen die slechts wenschten iemand te hebben die zich aan hen vertoonde? By myne terugkomst hebben uwe landgenooten zegeningen over myn hoofd geregend voor myne inspanningen tot uw welzyn. Moeten zulke toegewyde daden tot uw welzyn, moeten uwe eigene belangen ter zyde worden geworpen? Moet uwe toekomstige vooruitzichten van geluk, uwe hoop hierna maals in het eeuwige leven, van u worden verwyderd door goddelooze ontwerpers en heerschzuchtige menschen, die slechts hunne eigene eind-oogmerken willen bereiken? Moeten uwe vrouwen in tranen worden gelaten voor uw afzyn, of weduwen worden gemaakt, en moeten uwe kinderen onopgevoed en huizeloos worden gelaten? Moet lage, ondankebaarheid de zitplaats der rede in bezit nemen?

De voorspoed eener natie is byzonder afhankelijk van een regtvaardig stelsel van Regering en Financie, de voornaamste grondbeginselen van welke zyn, dat elk persoon iets zal bydragen ter onderhouding van het Gouvernement, in evenredigheid tot het eigendom dat hy bezit, om hem voor plaatselyke dwingelandy of vreemden aanval te beschermen; en dat ieder persoon die iets bydraagt een stem zal hebben in het regelen van de plannen van zyn Gouvernement, en het beschikken van de Inkomsten. Ik heb u dit in iedere uitvoerbare wyze gegeven.

Toen ik te Winberg, by gelegenheid van het presenteren van een Adres, gevraagd werd om soldaten,—riep ik uit: "Soldaten! gy, rondom my, zyt myne Soldaten," daardoor te kennen gevende, dat vreedzame Burgers hunne eigene soldaten zyn, en geen militaire hulp hoegenaamd noodig hebben. Deze uitdrukking is verdraaid geworden, en gy zyt geleid geworden te gelooven, voor de oogenblik niet bezinnende, dat ik van u allen soldaten wilde maken! Waarom? Omdat ik de vrede lief heb en geene krygsmagten noodig heb in myne handelingen om hetgeen ik begeer uit te werken? Is niet geheel Zuid Afrika de zetel van vrede, zonder dat een druppel bloeds op myn gezag werd vergoten, of een slag is gedaan? Ben ik de man die soldaten voor een gewoon oogmerk vereischen zal? Maar er zyn oorzaken zoo heilig aan den Heer en in de oogen der wereld, dat zy de tusschenkomst van eene legermagt noodzakelyk maken;—hierom heb ik geproclameerd dat gy uwe landeryen behoudt, onderworpen aan de Burgerdienst; en ik doe zulks met het eene oogmerk om te zorgen voor den tyd van nood. Maar als gy nooit uw geweer laadt voor dat ik het van u begeer, kan hetzelfde worden veranderd in het geen alle wapenen het meest geschikt toe zyn—namelyk ploegscharen.

Nu myne vrienden! myne half-verloren vrienden, en aarzelende christenen! Ik heb u aangesproken als Kolonel Smith,—ik heb my beroepen op uwe gevoelens als menschen, als vaders van huisgezinnen, als redelyke menschelyke wezens, onsterfelyke zielen bezittende. Ik heb gedaan wat ik kon zoo ver myn vermogens en krachten my toelieten. Nu spreek ik tot u, niet meer als Kolonel Smith, maar als de Gouverneur dezer Volkplanting, en ik PROCLAMEER AAN U, dat ik de voorzieningen van de Proclamatie, die ik tot uw uitsluitelyk voordeel, en op uwe eigene begeerte heb vervaardigd, ten uitvoer zal brengen, of in de poging sneven zal. De twistzieke volkschreeuw zal sidderen by den naam die hy nu zelfs eerbiedigt, en voor welken gy allen, wyd en zyd en luidkeels uwe gehechtheid hebt verklaart. Gy weet wel dat ik nooit myn woord heb verzaakt. Gy weet wel, want velen van u hebben met my in de oorlog gediend, de snelheid waarmede ik het zwaard hanteer. Denk niet dat ik my van de middelen beroofd heb door het naar huis zenden der troepen. Ik zeg u, en ik zeg het u als een opregt en eerlyk man, ik houd een magt in gereedheid van kanonnen, ruitery, en beproefde Britsche soldaten, die binnen vyftien dagen onder u zullen zyn, mannen geschikt om stoutere harten dan de uwe te doen beven. Toen ik het bevel over u had, waart gy dapper; nu! hebt gy geen opperhoofd waarin gy vrouwen stellen kunt, uwe harten zyn in de verkeerde plaats, omdat uwe zaak onregtvaardig is,—eenige weinige domme misnoegde menschen trachtende de menigte aan te litsen. Spreekt gy van wederstand en byeenkomsten, gy, die twee jaren geleden door een klein getal dragonders als schapen omver gereden werd? Durft gy u verbeelden dat gy in staat zyt te doen, hetgeen eene menigte van oproermakende windzakken nimmer hebben kunnen doen,—de ongeoeffenden, de geoeffende legermagt van een geregeld Gouvernement te wederstaan, en een langdurige wederstand volthouden?

Dan ach, welk een afschuw heb ik zelfs voor den naam van oorlog er beroering. De vele veldslagen welke ik bygewoond heb, komen als schimmen voor mynen geest. Doch even als ik den oorlog haat, zal ik deszelfs verschrikkelyke kracht handhaven wanneer gy my van uwe toegenegenheid afscheidt. Indien gy my noopt het roodlottige zwaard te zwaayen, na al hetgeen ik voor U beproefd heb, zoo blyve de misdaad op uw eigen hoofd; en hoewel myne troepen in triomf zullen juichen, zal ik wenen, gelyk gy my hebt zien doen, over de gevallen, de verslagenen, de misleiden,—uwe landen zullen u ontnomen worden; uwe huizen vernield, uwe kudden weggevaagd, uwe eigene harten zwartgeverwd door goddelooze ondankebaarheid; en uwe getrouwe, uwe edelmoedige vriend, die zich ten uwen behoeve heeft afgesloofd, veranderd in een wreker van het kwaad.—Gy zult worden gelyk de Ismaelieten van ouds, "uwe hand zal tegen elk man zyn, en elk mans hand zal tegen u zyn." "Wraak is de myne," zegt de Heere; en in zynen naam, en tot nut van zyne schepselen, zou ik hen tuchtigen, die ik zoo bemijn, en wien ik getracht heb te bewyzen dat ik zulks doe.

Er bestaan grenspalen voor de deugdzaamste gevoelens in deze wereldsche en onzekere beproeving des levens. Komt my te hulp, gelyk ik u verzoek, om dezelve te bewaren; en zoo als in weldadige en onbedorvene harten, de verhevenheid van Godsdienst ons door moeilijkheden van dit voorbygaand leven voortvoert, laten wy te zamen bidden:—

(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,

To the General Board of Commissioners
of Public Prisons.

Colonial Office.

Cape Town, 4th April, 1848.

Gentlemen,—The main objects to be effected by the establishment of the General Board of Commissioners of Public Prisons are stated in the Minute of His Excellency the Administrator of the Government dated 22d. ultimo.

The great ends of penal discipline are, first, the punishment of crime; and, secondly, the reformation of the offender.

Prior to the year 1844 the latter of these objects had been altogether neglected, and the former very inefficiently secured, as it ever must be by a system which contemplates the removal and punishment of individual criminals rather than the diminution of the general mass of crime.

The abolition in 1845, of the penal settlement at Robben Island, and the employment of the convicted criminals upon the public Roads of the Colony was an important step in advance, and it is very satisfactory to find that the system is working beneficially, not only for the general interests of the public, but for the moral improvement of individual offenders.

But the adoption of this system with reference to male convicts, only rendered it more incumbent on the government, than formerly, to take measures for the improvement of the moral condition of the other classes of prisoners viz., female convicts, persons detained for trial, and prisoners whose sentences to labor or confinement are under thirty days.

It is evident that the public benefit to be derived from the labor of the convicts on public roads, was not the sole inducement which led the Government to adopt the system established in 1844. The words of Sir George Napier quoted by His Excellency the Administrator of the Government in his Minute above alluded to, evidently point to a "process of reformatory discipline" as one of the principal objects which the Government was striving to attain.

And that this is an object which should ever be kept in view in the formation of gaols and prisons is obvious,—the pursuit of it by the government being a duty to society at large as well as to the criminal. It is the only safeguard which society can possess against the constant increase of crime by the periodical enlargement of criminals hardened in vice by companionship with others possibly more degraded than themselves. To the criminal himself every possible exertion on the part of government towards promoting his moral amelioration is also clearly due. Society has no right to create crime under the pretence of punishing it; to confirm the principle of vice in which a criminal has been reared by forcing him into contact with others more hardened than himself; and then to turn him loose upon the world, exposed to temptations which have acquired additional force over his mind by the pernicious associations of a prison. By adopting such a course, what we call the prevention becomes the promotion of crime; and the prison, instead of being an abode of correction, is turned into a school of vice.

These principles which are true wherever they are enunciated, are peculiarly applicable to this colony. There is here a great scarcity of labor, so that the Government can fairly hold out to the reformed criminal the hope of obtaining honest employment on regaining his liberty. The convict cannot be made here, which is sometimes too justly made in thickly peopled countries, that the criminal on his enlargement from prison finds himself alone in the world, shunned by society, and is thus left only the alternative of a return to his former course of crime, or starvation. Every man who has the disposition to gain an honest livelihood in this colony has also the means of doing so.

Again, as there is a sufficient demand for honest and steady laborers in the Colony, so is there also a peculiar necessity for the promotion of honest and steady habits among the laboring classes. The prevailing vice of the native population is indolence, a vice which is proverbially the fruitful source of crime. For this, therefore, among other reasons, prison discipline ought to be so arranged as to create motives to industry, and promote habits of it.

The great principle that prison discipline ought to have for its object as well the reformation of the criminal as the punishment of crime, was, as has been already observed, practically acknowledged by the Colonial Government in 1844; and it now only remains to carry out the principle with reference to persons detained in the public prisons of the Colony.

The reason why this has not been already done is to be found in the insufficient accommodation provided in the public gaols, whereby the classification of the prisoners was rendered impossible, and the separation of the sexes not always secured; discipline and reformation were out of the question; and even safe custody was so uncertain, that in the single month of March in the present year, no less than ten prisoners escaped from the different gaols.

With a view to obviate these difficulties, an Ordinance has been framed "for improving the gaols of this colony," by which it is proposed to remodel the whole system of prison discipline in the colony, and to provide for the proper discipline and reformation of the prisoners.

By this Ordinance (No. 24, of 1847) the power of making rules for the government of the gaols; the duties to be performed by the several officers attached thereto; the food and clothing of the prisoners; the periods for the visits of the Resident Magistrates, the introduction of spirituous liquors &c. into the gaols; and other matters connected with their management, is conferred upon the Governor. It is further provided that a gaoler shall reside in each of the prisons, who is to have no other occupation, and is prohibited from selling any articles to the prisoners either directly or indirectly under a penalty of from £5 to £100. The gaoler is to keep a journal which he is bound to produce to the Resident Magistrate of the district on the occasion of his visits of inspection, and in which he is required to enter all matters worthy of note occurring within the prison; he is further strictly prohibited from receiving any fees from the prisoners, and from punishing any of them on his own responsibility; but he may put them in irons in certain cases, which must be immediately reported to the Resident Magistrate.

This latter officer is required to pay periodical visits to all the gaols in his district, and to report to the Governor the state of discipline maintained, the conduct of the gaoler and inferior officers, the number and description of the prisoners, and all other matters of importance connected with the state of the prison. He is also empowered to punish by solitary confinement with or without spare diet, by hard labor, or personal correction, such of the prisoners as may have offended against prison discipline. He is also empowered to try summarily all prisoners attempting to make their escape from gaol. Gaming and the use of intoxicating drinks are strictly prohibited in the prison.

By the 4th section, which is, perhaps, the most important, it is enacted that the male and female prisoners are to be kept strictly separate, and that the prisoners of each sex are to be divided into six classes, viz:—

- (a) Persons confined under any decree of civil imprisonment.
- (b) Persons committed for want of sureties to keep the peace.
- (c) Persons committed for murder, culpable homicide, rape, robbery, or assault with intent to commit any of those crimes, or in which any dangerous wound is given, arson, house-breaking with intent to commit any crime, or theft of any cattle, sheep, or goats, or other crime of equal degree of guilt with any of the said crimes.
- (d) Persons committed for any crime of a lesser degree of guilt than any of the crimes aforesaid.
- (e) Persons convicted of any such crime as is hereinbefore in letter c set forth.
- (f) Persons convicted of any such crime as is hereinbefore in letter d set forth.

The very necessity of such provisions cannot fail to suggest to any thinking mind the mischievous tendency of the system which they are intended to reform, and under which house-breakers, murderers, and criminals of lower degree are all herded together, to contaminate each other by the communication from one to another of that peculiar kind of vice in which he happens to be most proficient.

His Excellency is of opinion, as stated in his Minute, that the provisions of this Ordinance will be most effectually carried out by a General Board of Commissioners of Public Prisons; and, having accordingly appointed you to form such Commission, he has determined to delegate to you (subject to his approval) the powers and duties conferred upon him by the provisions of the Ordinance in question.

In order to aid the General Board in the performance of its duties, Local Boards will be appointed in all the Country Districts, which will consist of the Resident Magistrate, who will be Chairman ex officio, and two other members, who should be respectable and influential inhabitants of the District.

It will be the duty of the General Board to suggest for His Excellency's approval the names of such Persons in each District as may appear best fitted for this important duty, and at the same time willing to undertake it.

It will also be the duty of the General Board to draw up, for His Excellency's approbation, regulations for the District Boards, who will correspond with the Government through the General Board only.

The first duty of the General and Local Boards will be to turn their attention to the construction of gaols, and providing such prison accommodation as the circumstances of the country seem to require. Security connected with that degree of accommodation which tends to preserve health, is the first object to be sought after, as the constant escape of criminals from the public prisons cannot, on any account, be allowed to continue. But in order to carry out the views of the Legislative Council with reference to the classification of prisoners, it is obvious most of the gaols will require considerable enlargement. Previous to the passing of the Prison Ordinance, a voluminous correspondence took place between the Secretary to Government and several Magistrates resident in the country districts, the whole of which His Excellency has directed to be laid before the General Board for its information. The Board will communicate to His Excellency with all convenient despatch, the course which they would recommend him to adopt in each of the several cases brought under his notice in this correspondence, as well as any general suggestions they may have to make relative to the mode of constructing gaols most convenient for purposes of Prison Discipline.

His Excellency desires that the General Board will keep up such a correspondence with the Local Board as will keep the former in full possession of all necessary information relative to the state of every prison with reference to discipline; the healthy condition and cleanliness of the cells and other parts of the building; the personal cleanliness of the prisoners; their conduct and demeanour in every respect; and all other matters connected with the internal economy of the prisons, and the general working of the system.

His Excellency is also of opinion that it might lead to beneficial results if, in addition to the information to be thus obtained from the Local Boards, periodical inspections of all gaols, Lock-up-Houses, and Houses of Correction were to be made by some member of the General Board, or by an agent appointed by them from time to time. This, however, is to be understood as a suggestion thrown out for the consideration of the Board rather than as a direction for their guidance; and the Board will take an early opportunity of reporting to His Excellency whether they consider such direct supervision and control to be practicable or advisable.

From the information obtained by these means the Board are requested to draw up an annual report to be laid by His Excellency upon the table of the Legislative Council, in which they will detail their proceedings, and those of the District Boards as reported to them from time to time, and will also make any suggestions which may occur to them relative to the improvement of prison discipline. This report will be accompanied by a detailed account of their disposal of the funds voted by the Legislative Council for the erection and improvement of gaols, the administration of which will rest with the Board.

The Board are requested to understand that the provisions of the Ordinance No. 24 of 1847 are not to be considered as incapable of amendment. In the course of their administrative duties it is not improbable that many valuable amendments may occur to them, which when brought under his notice, will always receive His Excellency's most anxious attention. This remark is particularly applicable to the subject of the classification of the prisoners. In forming rules for the construction of new prisons and for the future government of those already built it will probably be found advisable to make provision for a further sub-division of the classes enumerated in the clause of the Ordinance quoted above, and as a general rule the Board is to understand that the classification directed in that clause is what must at least, be made;—but that any more minute classification may be made where the means are available and the Board consider it desirable. The Board will therefore avail themselves of all the information on this important subject which the experience of Europe and America so abundantly supplies, and will not fail, as occasion offers, to submit for His Excellency's sanction such additional improvements in the classification or entire separation of Prisoners, as they may think it advisable to recommend.

Another subject of the utmost importance, and which ought to occupy the early attention of the Board is, providing moral and religious education for the prisoners. His Excellency looks upon this as the basis of all reformatory discipline, and feels assured that it is only necessary for him to name it to the Board to obtain for it their most anxious attention, and their cordial co-operation with his efforts to make the provision required.

With reference to the penal system, and the general constitution of the prisons, His Excellency does not think it necessary to give the Board minute instructions, feeling certain that these matters may safely be left to their discretion, and desiring only to state to the Board the general principles upon which he conceives that a well-organized system of prison discipline ought to be founded.

The Board will understand that not only gaols but all Houses of Correction, Lock-up-Houses, and all places devoted to the reception of female prisoners and convicts are equally placed under their administration and control; and in order to assist them as much as possible in the discharge of the duties which they have undertaken gratuitously, all public officers and servants of the Government will be instructed to correspond directly with the Board on all matters relating to their duties and functions.

As the Ordinance for improving the gaols of the colony does not provide for the appointment of general and local Boards, but confers the powers to be exercised by them upon the Governor and Executive Council, it will be necessary for the Board to obtain His Excellency's sanction previous to carrying any of their measures into effect.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
22nd March, 1848.

WITH reference to the accompanying Minute of this day's date, which the Administrator of the Government has directed to be published for general information, respecting the Improvement and future management of Gaols, Lock-up Houses, and Houses of Correction; His Excellency has been pleased to appoint the following Gentlemen to be Members of the General Board of Commissioners of Public Prisons:—

The Hon J. MONTAGU, Esq., Chairman.
CLERKE BURTON, Esq.,
WILLIAM HOPE, Esq.,
The Rev. Dr. ADAMSON,
Dr. INNES.

By Command of His Excellency the Administrator of the Government,

(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

Government House, 22nd March 1848.

IN no department of the Government of this Colony does there exist a more urgent necessity for extensive and substantial improvement, than in Prisons and Prison Discipline.

Previous to the institution of the present system of Convict discipline in 1844, all sentences of imprisonment, either with or without hard labour, were carried out in the District Gaols and the Penal Establishment on Robben Island.

At that time my predecessor Sir George Napier thus remarks on the state of Prisons and Prison discipline:—"The present system does not only not contemplate, but by its very arrangements either neutralises or wholly counteracts that process of reformatory discipline, which is essential to the salutary exercise of Penal Justice,—a process, which while it strictly regards the extent and degree of punishment awarded for the offence committed, seeks, both on moral and political grounds, to rescue the delinquent from the power of vicious habits or degrading propensities, and aims to restore him, if possible, to society, prepared to resist its temptations from a higher motive than the dread of punishment consequent on crime."

No description of mine can more forcibly or truly depict the evils resulting from the state in which both Prisons and Prison discipline now are, than that I have just quoted.

And, although the system of Convict discipline instituted in 1844 has been attended with the most beneficial results, in respect to all Male Convicts sentenced to imprisonment with hard labour for periods exceeding three months, yet the evil remains in all its intensity as it regards those on whom its baneful influence is most to be deplored. I allude to female and untried prisoners, and to those convicted of petty offences and misdemeanours.

From the Returns annually made by the Resident Magistrates, it appears that there are in all twenty-three Gaols throughout the Colony. Were the principle of separation, now being extensively practised in the Gaols of England, adopted here, these Gaols would not be capable of accommodating more than 171 Prisoners; whilst, according to the practice that has hitherto obtained, they are reported as capable of containing 1235,—an amount wholly disproportionate to the average dimensions of the cells and the prison accommodation generally, if the ends for which a Prison is solely erected are kept in view, viz: safe custody, punishment, and reformation.

It further appears, as might naturally be inferred from the above statement, that no attempt at classification has ever been made, or could be, beyond the mere separation of the sexes, and that in some instances, but very imperfectly,—that the defective state of the Gaols in some Districts imposes the necessity of the nightly use of fetters, to ensure the safe custody of the Prisoners, whether untried or convicted,—and that air, exercise, and healthy employment form no part of the system. As a natural consequence, punishments for offences within the Prison have been frequent, in the shape of flogging, irons, and solitary confinement.

By Ordinance No. 24, 1847, entitled an Ordinance "for Improving the Gaols of the Colony," I have been vested with full powers, under its provisions, to take such steps as may appear to me advisable for the improvement of the Colonial Prisons, for the due classification of the Prisoners, and for the establishment of such a system of Prison Discipline as appears best calculated not only to punish but to reform.

To effect this, I propose to place all Prisons Lock-up Houses, and Houses of Correction under the direction and control of a Board, to be called the General Board of Commissioners of Prisons. To this Board will be added Local Boards for the immediate inspection and supervision of the several Gaols, and for aiding the General Board in carrying out such measures of improvement as shall from time to time receive my sanction.

(Signed) H. G. SMITH.

PROCLAMATION

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH,

Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Administrator of the Government of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice Admiral of the same; and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the Affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c. &c.

And whereas by the 4th Section of the Ordinance herein referred to, it is enacted, that, for the purposes of the said Ordinance, the limits of every town, village, or place which shall neither be a municipality, nor have a public market, nor have erected therein or adjacent a Dutch Reformed Church, commonly called or known as the church of such town, village, or place, shall be such limits as the Governor of this Colony, by a Proclamation, or Proclamations to be by him issued, shall from time to time fix and determine.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
25th April 1848.

HIS Excellency, the Administrator of the Government, has directed the publication of the following Letter for general information.

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

Office of the Central Board of Commissioners of Public Roads, 19th April 1848.

To the Hon'ble
The Secretary to Government.

SIR,—I am directed by the Central Board of Commissioners of Public Roads to submit, for the information of His Excellency the Administrator of the Government, a Report of their proceedings, and of the disposal of the labour and funds entrusted to them for Road and Convict purposes for the service of the year 1847.

Before doing so, however, I am instructed by the Board to express their regret at the loss they have sustained, in the course of the past year, by the removal of two valuable public servants, both of whom have throughout afforded them important assistance.

Lieutenant-Colonel MICHELL, the talented Surveyor General and Civil Engineer of the Colony, under whose able direction the various great works which the Board have undertaken, have all been planned and accomplished, has left the Colony in a state of health which renders it but too probable that he is not destined to return. It would be superfluous here to expatiate on the many important public works which, but for his high scientific and professional acquisitions, could never have been attempted in this Colony. Such a record is not required: nor could it serve to lighten the respect and esteem entertained towards him. The Board, however, cannot deny themselves the pleasure of advertizing to two of his greatest engineering triumphs, by which he has succeeded in removing obstacles to internal communication and traffic, which were previously considered insurmountable:—the Hard Road which has been carried for 24 miles across the sandy desert of the Cape Flats, and over which vehicles can proceed with the same speed and convenience as through the streets of our metropolis:—and the "Montagu Pass," the magnificent road over the formidable Cradock Mountain, which has elicited the wonder and admiration of all who have seen it.

The Board have sustained another loss in the death of their late Secretary, Mr. WILLIAM TENNANT,—a gentleman who not only greatly aided them in the discharge of their anxious duties, by his own diligent attention, zeal, and ability; but won for himself the good will of all who had to transact business with the Board, by his uniform affability, and constant readiness to afford whatever information or assistance was required of him.

Adverting to the proceedings of the Board during the past year, I am to observe, that great progress has been made in improving several parts of the Main Road between Cape Town and Graham's Town. Considerable impediments to traffic have, however, been experienced from the white sand on the Cape Downs; the drift of which has been, in a great measure, increased by the mischievous practice of rooting up the bushes, for firing for bakens and others in Cape Town, and by the constant trampling on it of large numbers of sheep and cattle.

The difficulty of arresting this sand will be appreciated when it is stated that it is carried to the Hard Road, by the wind, from a space of about 1,000 acres of land, and the violence and volume of it are so great that, at one period, as much as one mile and a half of that road was covered with deep sand. It appeared to the Board that the most effectual means for arresting it would be to bind the sand by vegetation. This has been attempted with various kinds of shrubs and plants; but that which has succeeded the best—and indeed completely—is the Horsetail, and by means of it about 300 acres at the source, or furthest point, of the tract of shifting sand has been planted and completely covered, so that the drift from that part has been effectually stopped. About 300 acres more will, it is hoped, be planted in the course of the present year, and the remainder in 1849, after which period the Board fully contemplate that no further inconvenience will be felt from this cause.

The whole of the road injured by this drift, with the exception of about a quarter of a mile, has been completely cleared of sand, and has been reseeded, and having been raised, in some parts as much as 16 or 17 feet, so as to present a more effectual barrier to the sand in future, no further fear need be entertained as to the ultimate and permanent removal of this difficulty. The expense of planting has amounted to £1,755 in 1847.

The remainder of the Hard Road to the Eerste River is in good repair, and the arrangement for keeping it so by station parties, at intervals of 4 miles along the road, answers the purpose completely. The traffic along the line is consequently rapidly on the increase.

From the Eerste River to Sir Lowry's Pass the road and bridges have been kept in good condition.

A part of Sir Lowry's Pass which, for want of width, was considered dangerous, has been widened, and the Pass will shortly undergo further improvements.

From the top of Sir Lowry's Pass to the Palmiet River a new and nearly straight line, of easy ascent, has been performed, of about six miles, which is a great improvement over the old winding path previously travelled.

The Board has also purchased a sufficiency of teak-wood for the formation of a pile bridge, of 36 feet in width and 241 in length, over the Palmiet River. The wood has been deposited on the spot, and the work will be commenced as soon as the means at the disposal of the Board will justify it.

From the Palmiet River to the old Toll House at the Poes

Pas Vallei, Houw Hoek, the present every undulating road has been kept in repair: but it is of such inferior construction, and so badly laid out, as to be undeserving of any considerable outlay. A new, less circuitous, and more level line can be constructed between these points by following the course of the Vallei, but the Board have not the means at their disposal, at present, to attempt it.

In place of the old road from the old Toll House at Poes Pas Vallei to the Village of Houw Hoek over a precipitous and dangerous hill (Roode Hoogte), a new, level, and shorter road at the base of that hill, following the course of the Vallei, has been constructed, and was opened to the public on the 5th instant.

The whole of the succession of steep, lofty, and in many parts dangerous hills from Poes Pas Vallei, Houw Hoek, to the Bot River, have now been overcome by a new line of level road of about ten miles in length, the whole of which has been constructed at an expense of £5,196.

From the Bot River to the Buffelsjacht River the road has been kept in a state of fair repair.

The bridge at Buffelsjacht River is in progress:—but some delay has occurred from the scarcity of labor and the difficulty of procuring transport for the stone. This has however been partially obviated by the restoration of peace, and the work is now proceeding more rapidly. The expense of it during 1847 was £2,158.

The Board hope that this important structure will be completed in the course of the current year.

The road from Buffelsjacht River to Gouritz River has also been kept in good repair.

From the Gouritz River, upon which an iron punt will, ere long, be established by the Board, a new line of road has been surveyed to the Little Brak River, which will be completed in the present year, and will avoid the present bad line, by substituting in its place a shorter and less rugged road.

Over the Little Brak River the Board have decided upon building a causeway, with a small opening in the centre for a bridge of boats, which will render that river always passable. The work is in hand and will be completed during this year.

From the Little to the Great Brak River the road has been improved, and over the last mentioned river a solid causeway will be erected and will also be completed during this year.

From the Great Brak River height to the pass in the Cradock Mountain (now "Montagu Pass") and George Town, new lines of road have now been constructed, the greater portion of which were used by the public in December last.

By these alterations the distances between the Great Brak River and George Town and Montagu Pass have been reduced, in regard to time, by one-half, and by one-fourth in distance; and in place of being carried precipitously, as were the old lines of road, up the faces of the ravines of the Malagas, Malgaten, Quayang, and Brak River, the new lines deviate very slightly from level, and render locking of wheels unnecessary.

The Cradock Pass, which was formerly the great, and almost insurmountable, barrier to any communication inland between the Eastern and Western Districts of the Colony, has been overcome, and the beautiful and easy passage through the Cradock Mountain by the Montagu Pass has been substituted for it. The progress which has been made in this great work, which has, at length, been completed, has been, from time to time, reported by the Board. The work is now finished, and the Pass was opened for public traffic on the 19th of January last.

Some estimate of its value can be formed from the fact that by the opening of Montagu Pass the farmers are now enabled to perform in two or three hours, with an ordinary draught, that which it formerly took them 18 hours, and sometimes as much as three days and nights, to effect with a double draught. The passage of this mountain is now performed with comfort and safety, and without the hazard of the accidents and dangers, which were the causes of the former delays.

The whole expense of the construction of Montagu Pass amounted to £35,799 on the 31st December 1847. Of this amount £21,322 have been expended in the charges attending the convicts stationed there: £8,958 on free labour; £4,956 on stores and tools of various descriptions; and no less than £1,755 on gunpowder; a circumstance, in itself, sufficient to illustrate forcibly the stupendous, difficult, and tedious nature of the work; 5½ miles of the Pass having been blasted out of the solid rock.

Immediately after quitting the Montagu Pass, to enter the Long Kloof, there is a small obstacle to encounter—the Kleine Berg Mountain—but which will be completely removed in two or three weeks from this time. On that being effected, this line of road is good, until it reaches the Keur Boom's River's Hoogte, which is an obstruction of no mean magnitude, and must be overcome. To that point, however, wheel carriages of every description, either with or without springs, and with moderate power of draught compared to what was indispensable but four years ago, can now travel from Cape Town—a distance of about 360 miles.

From the Keur Boom's Hoogte the road, through the Long Kloof, the Kromme River, and the Uitenhage and Albany Divisions to Graham's Town, has been kept in fair repair, although far inferior to what it ought to have been and what the Board desired it should have been.

Unfortunately the means, both of money and men, at the Board's disposal, did not enable them to accomplish more rapidly all that they felt to be required, and to dare to undertake, more especially after the succession of heavy floods during the last year.

Irrespective of many important improvements to drifts over the numerous small rivers, which ought to be made between the Keur Boom's Hoogte and Graham's Town, and various other minor difficulties which ought to be removed, there are others of a formidable character which must be conquered before a certain, rapid, and frequent communication can be carried on between the capitals of the Western and Eastern Provinces.

As already mentioned the first in order is the Keur Boom's Hoogte. A minute survey of this part of the line has been made, and the difficulties carefully examined. The whole can be effectually removed, and the line made of such an easy gradient as to place it on a par with that already available for spring carriages.

The next difficulty is from the Kromme River Hoogte to Essensbosch, a distance of about 25 miles, which, at present, is frequently impassable after rains, and is always attended with accidents and detentions most oppressive to the farmer. Here the Board have ascertained that they could form a road on one side of the river for the whole distance, which would be level and always available, and thus avoid the present rugged path and the eight or nine crossings and recrossings of this deceptive, dangerous river, which cannot now be escaped.

The third is between Essensbosch and Gamtoos River, and from that river to the Western Bank of Van Staden's Rivier, a distance of about 75 miles, which, without entering into details, has many serious difficulties which must be removed, and all of which the Board have satisfied themselves can be effected with great advantage to general traffic and postal communication.

The fourth is the passage of the Van Staden's Rivier. Over that river a suspension bridge ought to be erected, if possible, and which the Board have reason to believe can be done; but if no part of it should be found sufficiently narrow for such a structure, the descent to the drift can be materially improved and shortened; and that at all events, ought to be done.

The fifth difficulty is the Sunday's River, which must be bridged. The importance of this work is too well known to require remark. During portions of the year 1847 and of this year, the Board have had a party at work to improve the drift at that section of the river which is generally used on the main line between Uitenhage and Graham's Town, and between Port Elizabeth and Graham's Town:—but their endeavours to do so, at an expense, including the roads leading to it, of £935, have completely failed, the floods and other causes rendering it a useless undertaking.

The sixth will be found at many points of the line between the Sunday's River and Howison's Poort, the main entrance to Graham's Town. The road through that Poort, the Board regret to say, is in a very bad state, and although the large sum of £4,819 has already been expended upon it, much more must be provided before it can be placed in the state its importance to the trade of Graham's Town demands at the Board's hands.

The road from Port Elizabeth to Sunday's River does not require much work to put it in a proper state for the great traffic which is always passing along it; and the difficulties upon it must be removed by the time the bridge over that river is completed. The Board are of opinion that all the obstacles and difficulties which have thus been enumerated might be, and ought to be, removed in the course of the current year: so that on and after the 1st January 1849 far more facility and a much greater rapidity and certainty might be secured to traffic generally, and in the transmission of the mails; but they, at the same time, feel that so much of their general resources have been expended upon promoting the interests of the divisions through which this main road passes, that they cannot command the funds necessary for completing this great design. Under these circumstances I am to express the hope of the Board that His Excellency, taking into consideration the extreme importance to the whole community of the works proposed, and the great advantages which would be derived from their completion, will propose to the Legislative Council a special grant, for this main line of road, of such sum as may be necessary, to enable the Board to complete the project in the course of the present year. If the aid requested be granted, the Board feel confident that the mail can be conveyed, after the 1st January next in carriages, the whole distance between Cape Town and Graham's Town; and more frequently than at present; in between 60 and 70 hours each way.

Next after the Main Line of Road commented upon, the most important trunk line is that over the Zuurberg Mountain, in the Divisions of Somerset and Uitenhage. In July last, the Acting Surveyor General, Mr. KESTERSON, proceeded to the Zuurberg for the purpose of selecting the most eligible line through those mountains, and preparing accommodation for the convicts who were to be employed upon its formation. His work having been completed in a most masterly style, a party of convicts was despatched to the spot in December last, and the undertaking is now in a state of progress. The Road will be 23 miles in length—the steepest gradient, (and that in a few spots only) will be but 1 in 17—and the whole line will be passable for the heaviest wagon with an ordinary team, without locking a wheel; and, by thus opening up to the Divisions of Somerset and Cradock, an easy and much shorter access to Port Elizabeth, will enable the farmer to bring his produce to a sea-port town in three or four days, which he cannot now do in as many weeks:—of course the same advantages will be extended to, and felt by, the Divisions of Graaff-Reinet, Beaufort, and Colesberg, and the country beyond the Orange River, upon the completion of this great and scientific work. The expense of the Zuurberg Road, it is estimated, will be about £20,000, and it will take about two years to complete from its commencement.

Next in importance is the New Pass which was commenced in October 1846, through the Mostert's Hoek, in the Division of Worcester.

The difficulties, as well as the advantages, of this Pass were so fully detailed in the Board's last Report, that it is not deemed necessary to recapitulate them. The work has been conducted with great energy and executed with great ability. The convicts at the station, during the year 1847, have averaged 240, and the expense incurred under every head to the 31st December last, amounted to £8,945, of which £5,591 was for convict purposes.

This Pass will be completed and opened for public traffic on the 1st Sept, next, and the City and Port of Cape Town will be the first to feel the great benefits arising therefrom. It is difficult to say what amount of grain the opening of this Pass may be the means of bringing to that market. Hundreds and thousands of acres in the Warm and Cold Bokkevels must, without it, have remained for ever uncultivated and as nature left them; all of which will, ere long, be converted into fields of industry and wealth.

The preparations for this transition are very great, and so clearly are the advantages of removing this frightful barrier felt, that no man in those Districts now knows how to ask enough for his property, from the numerous purchasers who are greedy to possess them as their own.

In their last annual Report, the Board stated that, upon the completion of Mosterd's Hoek, it was their intention to open a road thence direct to Cape Town through Bain's Kloof, in the mountain range which separates the Worcester from the Cape District. The road from Mosterd's Hoek to the opening of Bain's Kloof has been surveyed and decided upon, and will very shortly, be in train. It will be nearly level, ten miles in extent, and will avoid, or overcome, the various deep and rapid branches of the Breede River, which run through the Kom of Tulbagh. In short, it will be an available road throughout the whole year. Bain's Kloof has also been surveyed, and will be commenced immediately after the completion of the Mosterd's Hoek Pass.

The advantages which will be derived from opening the Bain's Kloof having been fully stated in the last report, it is now only necessary to add that its completion will enable the Bokkeveld farmers, and all in that neighborhood, to send their produce direct to Cape Town, without having to encounter the difficulties of the Tulbagh or Roode Zand's Kloof, and at the same time diminish the distance by one third, or 35 miles.

The Board has also, during the year 1847, had a party of laborers on the steep and rugged Gydow Pass, which separates the Cold and Warm Bokkevels. So precipitous is this pass at present, although not more than about 3 miles in length, that the farmers of the Cold Bokkeveld and the country to the northward and westward of it are almost unable to travel it with wagons; and to avoid it they prefer sending their produce to their only market—Cape Town, as far as Tulbagh, over the precipitous mountains of the Witzenberg and Schurftberg, on the backs of horses.

The Gydow Pass will also be completed and opened by the first of next September, and it has cost in its construction, to the 31st December last, £187.

The manner in which the works of the Board are calculated to develop the resources of the colony, by affording the farmers certain, safe, and easy, means of bringing their produce to market, cannot receive more satisfactory illustration than from the consideration of the advantages of the Gydow and Mosterd's Hoek Passes; and it cannot be doubted that there are many other tracts of land in the colony equally capable of contributing to its wealth and prosperity, and equally debarred from doing so, by the want of internal communication, but which the continuance of the present road system will, in due time, every where equalize.

The opening, either of the Elsie's Hoogte, or Hottentots' Kloof in the High Mountain Range at the North End of the Warm Bokkeveld, at about 30 miles from Mosterd's Hoek, which will be commenced this year, will in like manner remove the then only existing road impediment to sending cattle from Beaufort, Graaff-Reinet, Colesberg, and the country beyond the Orange River, to Cape Town.

The importance of this work in connexion with the Mosterd's Hoek and Bain's Kloof can hardly be over-estimated, when it is borne in mind that the supply of animal food for the establishments of Cape Town and the neighbourhood are, in a great degree, derived from the country abovementioned.

The increased gains of the producers of it will be greatly enhanced by thus diminishing the heavy charges now incurred in bringing the animals to market; and the diminished cost to the inhabitants of Cape Town and its vicinity of this important, but at present expensive, item of housekeeping, will soon be experienced.

The accounts of the Board's revenue and expenditure for 1847 are herewith transmitted for His Excellency's information.

Having taken a review of their proceedings during the past year, it seems desirable for the Board, before closing this Report, to advert briefly to the principles by which they have been guided in their disposal of the labor and funds committed to them during the first four years of their commission, and also to what are their prospects for the useful continuance of the administration which has been entrusted to them.

By Ordinance No. 8, of 1843 the Board are invested with the power of imposing and collecting three rates,—none of them to exceed one penny in the pound on all immoveable property in the Colony valued at £50 and upwards, and they are required by that law to expend a sum equal, at least, to the amount of the rates levied by them in any division, upon the main roads of that division. The loss to the public which would have resulted from this enactment had it been carried out to the extent of making the expenditure upon the main roads of each division concurrently with the collection of each rate within it, soon became apparent. The small amount of free labor available for the purposes of the Board, and, still more, the want of proper superintendents to direct a great number of extensive works at the same time, in the different divisions of the Colony, rendered it clear to the Board that they would not be working most efficiently for the public benefit by frittering away the means at their command, by employing them at one and the same time in the several divisions of the Colony. Under this conviction, the Board determined, as far as it was possible, to bring their main force, with the necessary staff, to bear upon each successive point where their exertions were most required; and by adopting this principle they have been enabled to complete the various great works they have undertaken, and to accomplish the very extensive and numerous improvements they have been engaged upon. Moreover, it was equally apparent that the expenditure within any division of the Colony of nothing more than the small amount of the rates received from it would not permit the Board to undertake, in such a case, any roads of general utility or of a comprehensive character; and hence it was soon conclusive that the permanent interests of each division would be best promoted by the Board's providing for the wants of each in succession, according to their urgency on importance. Moreover, it is impracticable, consistently with the present system of Convict Discipline, to separate Convicts into small parties and appropriate their labour more generally.

The Board have accordingly proceeded steadily on that principle, and have already finished (substantially) their labors in many divisions of the Colony, as already described. But the consequence of this line of conduct has been that the rates have not been equally distributed according to the amount levied in each division. In some divisions the expenditure has not equalled the amount of their rates, in others it has far exceeded it. But the Board had no hesitation in taking this course, as they felt no doubt that a system, which, it is admitted on all hands, has worked so beneficially for the Colony, would not be interrupted for some years, so that they would in due time be enabled to mete out to those divisions which did not, at the beginning, derive benefit from their administration, the same measure of justice which they have already bestowed upon those divisions in which the most important roads of the Colony happened to be placed.

In order to illustrate the financial position the Board has in consequence been placed in, I am requested to draw His Excellency's attention to the annexed statement which shows the amount of property in each division of the Colony, liable to be assessed for Road Rate; the amount payable in each, at one penny in the pound; the number and value of rates already assessed in each; the amount received on each to the 31st ultimo; and the amount due but unpaid in each at that date; also the amount expended by the Board on each division to the same date. From this it will be seen that the Board's expenditure in each of the undernamed divisions has exceeded the three rates they are empowered to levy in them, by the following sums, viz:—

In the Cape Division,	Convict Charges, £8,492	£50,236
	All other Expenses, 41,744
Swellendam,	Convict Charges, ..	8,793
	All other Expenses, 8,793
Stellenbosch,	Convict Charges, ..	12,586
	All other Expenses, 5,793
George,	Convict Charges, ..	37,964
	All other Expenses, 16,642
Worcester,	Convict Charges, ..	7,832
	All other Expenses, 2,241
Albany,	Convict Charges, ..	4,698
	All other Expenses, 4,698

Making a Total of..... £122,109

And it will be further seen from the same statement that the Board must expend in the following divisions the sums stated opposite to each, to satisfy the requirements of the law, viz:—

Beaufort,	£274
Clanwilliam,	1,034
Colesberg,	391
Uitenhage,	1,158
Graaff-Reinet,	902
Cradoek,	525
Somerset,	530

Making a total of £1,814

But with respect to the divisions of Somerset and Uitenhage, the deficiency in respect to which amounting to £1,688, will be more than met by the expenditure in the Zuurberg Trunk line now in course of formation, before the termination of the present quarter, leaving £3,126 to be provided for in respect to the remaining districts.

In addition to this demand upon them, they must provide, from the rates to be received, the sum of £25,000, which they have at various times raised by loans on the security of the rates.

The unpaid rates of the divisions in which the Board's expenditure has been in excess of their rates, together with the third rate to be levied and collected from them, will produce £31,983 to liquidate their debt, but the payment, at this time, of this loan must preclude them from undertaking, with their ordinary resources, any fresh work in any division already in excess of expenditure; or, from expending, in any of the other divisions, any money beyond the mere amount of rates which they have respectively contributed.

Under these circumstances, it becomes imperative for the Board to learn the mind of His Excellency, with regard to applying to the Legislature to continue to them for some further period, the power to receive further rates, for the construction of the Main Roads of the Colony, when those which they are now empowered to levy shall have been received. In the opinion of the Board, three more rates, not to exceed one penny in the pound, would enable them to extend equal benefits to every part of the Colony. If this be granted, the Board feel confident that no additional call will have to be made on landed proprietors, and as, upon the introduction of the system, it was understood that sufficient means would be provided for ten years for carrying on their works, in order that the plan should not be defective and of a temporary character, they feel no doubt whatever, that, in five or six years hence, all the main barriers and obstacles to traffic will, with the aid of the rates suggested, be removed by them throughout the Colony; and that a sufficient revenue from tolls can thereafter be collected to keep all their roads in good repair, and at the same time effect any further small improvements in them which might be deemed desirable. The Board knows the desire of the farmers throughout the Colony to participate in the improvements which have been already made, in so many places, and that they are not averse to a continuance of the rates, for the Central Board's operations, for a limited period.

Indeed, the case seems so strong in favour of that course, that the Board entertain no doubt of the consent of the Council to it, if His Excellency should see fit to propose it: for unless the roads be completed, throughout the Colony, the heavy expenditure already incurred would, in a great measure, be lost, and, at all events, come far short of its object. In this view the Board feel convinced that the Legislature cannot but admit—in consequence of the principle adopted by them, of applying all their strength to the roads, of one division at a time, and thus employing the funds placed at their disposal for the benefit of the entire Colony, rather than of the particular divisions in which the rates were raised,—that some divisions have in fact been contributing funds for the improvement of the main roads in others. The Board is now desirous, in pursuance of the same system, to devote their attention to the improvement of the Main Roads in those divisions which have not, as yet been touched, as well as in those which, although in excess, require some important roads, such for example as the road from Uitenhage to Port Elizabeth, from Graham's Town to the Kowie—from Cradoek to Graham's Town, by the Dagga Boer's Neck—from Beaufort to Mossel Bay, Port Beaufort, and the Kuyasa through the Zwa teberg and Tzitzekamma Mountains—from Graaff-Reinet to Colesberg by the Oude Berg—and to Cradoek by the Wagen Pad's Berg, and also from Graaff-Reinet to the Zuurberg trunk line—from the Oliphants Rivier to Port Elizabeth—from Alice and Fort Peddie to Graham's Town—from Albert to Cradoek, and a sea port town, as well as several others in other parts of the Colony.

When the exposition I have been directed to submit becomes public, the Board do not anticipate opposition to so moderate and equitable a proposal, either from the people of those divisions who already know by experience the advantages of the system, and who, having received benefits from the funds of their neighbours cannot be expected to be either so unjust or so ungenerous as to object to reciprocate and extend similar benefits to those who have so largely contributed to their own; nor from those to whose more immediate benefit its future action will be devoted.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,
WM. DE SMIDT, Secretary.

GENTLEMEN,

I think it but an act of justice to inform you of the benefit I have derived from the use of your admirable Macassar Oil. About six months ago I found my hair getting daily more weak and thin, and much discoloured; fearing that I should lose it entirely, and hearing of the efficacy of your Macassar Oil, I have for some time past constantly used it, and the result is, that my hair is now perfectly restored and much improved in appearance and colour, having become thick, dark and glossy; it also curls freely without the use of paper, which it never did before. To all my friends I have warmly recommended your Macassar Oil as an excellent restorative and preservative for the hair. As I have an objection to see my name in print, I beg you will not publish it, but you are at liberty to show this letter, or make any other use you please of it, and refer applicants to me, if necessary, in proof of the efficacy of your Macassar Oil.
Yours obedient servant.

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. Excellentie den Administrateur Gouvernements.

(Get.) JOHN MONTAGU,

Aan het Generale College van Commissarissen van Publieke Gevangeniszen.

Koloniale Secretary, 4 April 1848.

MYNHEER,—De hoofdbedoelingen welke beoogd worden door het oprigten van het Generale College van Commis-sarissen van Publieke Gevangeniszen, zyn vermeld in de Minute van Zyne Excellentie den Administrateur des Gou-vernements, gedateerd 22 dezer.

De groote einden van strafrecht zyn, eerst, de straf voor de misdaden, en ten tweede, de verbetering van den overtreder.

Voor het jaar 1844 is dit laatste doel geheel en al ver-zuimd, en het eerste zeer gebrekkig, verzekerd zoo als altijd het geval moet zyn by een stelsel dat eerder het wegvoeren, en de straf van individuele misdadigers bedoeld dan de vermindering van de algemeene massa van misdaden.

De afschaffing in 1845 van de straf Kolonie op Robben Eiland, en het gebruik van de veroordeelde misdadigers aan de publieke wegen van de Kolonie, was eene belaagryke stap in den voortgang, en het is zeer voldoende te bevinden dat het stelsel heilzaam werkt, niet alleen voor de algemeene belangen van het publiek, maar voor de zede-lyke verbetering van individuele misdadigers.

Maar het aannemen van dit stelsel met betrekking tot mannelyke Bandieten alleen, maakt het dringender voor het Gouvernement dan voorheen om maatregelen te nemen tot het verbeteren van den zedelyken stand van de andere klassen van gedetineerden, t.w., vrouwelyke bandieten, personen in hechtenis gehouden voor teregtstelling, en ge-detineerden wier vonnis van dwang arbeid of confnement minder is dan dertig dagen.

Het is opvallend dat het publieke voordeel dat moet ge-trokken worden uit den arbeid van de gedetineerden aan de publieke wegen, niet het eeuwige was dat het Gouvernement overhaalde om het stelsel aan te nemen, dat in 1844 was ingesteld. De woorden van Sir George Napier aan-gehaald door Zyne Excellentie den Administrateur des Gouvernements, in zyne Minute boven bedoeld, toont ten klaarsten een "voortgang van hervormende tucht," als een der bedoelingen welke het Gouvernement streefde te bereiken.

En dat dit doel altyd in het oog moet worden ge-houden, by het aanleggen van Gevangeniszen is opvallend, zynde het streven daarnaar eene plicht jegens de maatschappy in het algemeen, zoowel als jegens den misdadiger.
Het is het eenige behoudmiddel dat de maatschappij bezit, tegen het bestendig vermeederen van misdaden door het op gezette tyden loslaten van misdadigers, verhard in het kwaad door den omgang met anderen, misschien nog meer verlaagd dan zy zelf. De misdadiger heeft duidelyk aanspraak op alle mogelyke pogingen van de zyde des Gouvernements, om zynen zedelyken stand te verbeteren.
De maatschappij heeft geen regt misdaden te scheppen onder het voorwendsel van dezelfde te straffen; het grond-beginsel van misdaden te bevestigen, waaraan een misdadiger is opgebragt, door hem in aanraking te brengen met anderen meer verhard dan hy zelf: en hem dan los te laten in de wereld blootgesteld aan verleidingen, welke vermeer-derde kracht over zynen geest hebben bekomen door den nateligen omgang in eene Gevangenis. Door het volgen van zulk eenen gang wordt hetgeen men noemt, de voor-koning van misdaden, deszelfs aanmoediging, en de Gevan-genis, in plaats van een huis van verbetering, wordt veranderd in eene School van misdaden.

Deze grondbeginselen welke waar zyn waar dezelve worden geuit, zyn byzonder toepasselyk op deze Kolonie.
Er is hier een groot gebrek van arbeiders, zoodat het Gouvernement aan den hervormden misdadiger gerustelyk de hoop kan geven van het bekomen van een eerlyke kost-winning dadelyk na hy zyne vryheid terug bekomt. Hier kan men niet klagen, zoo als men dikwyls doet in dicht bevolkte landen dat de gevangene by zyn ontslag uit de gevangenis zich alleen bescijnt in de wereld, verlaten door de maatschappij en dus genoodzaakt terug te keeren tot zynen vorigen gang van misdaden, of te verhoorgeren. Een eider in deze Kolonie die gezond is eerlyk zyn brood te verdiene heeft het middel om zulks te doen.

Wederom, daar er genoegzame vraagin deze Kolonie is, naar eerlyke en hekwaame arbeiders zoo bestaat en ook eene byzondere noodzakelykheid om gewoonten van eerlykheid en vlyt onder de arbeidende kolonisten aan te moedigen.
De heerschende ondeugd onder de inlandse bevolking is traagheid, eene ondeugd welke spreekwoordelyk de kweekster van misdaden is; om deze, zoowel als om andere redenen behoort de gevangenissticht zoo te worden ge-schikt, dat dezelve aanspoort tot vlyt en arbeidzaamheid en de hebbelykheid daarvan bevordert.

Het groote principe dat gevangenissticht zoo wel de hervorming van den misdadiger, als de straf der misdaden beoogt is, zoo als alreeds aangemerkt, alreeds in 1844 door het Gouvernement erkend, en niets blyft nu over dan het principe in werking te brengen ten aanzien van de personen in de publieke gevangeniszen van de Kolonie, gedetineerd.

De reden waarom dit niet gedaan is, moet men vinden in de ongenoegzame geryen in de publieke Gevangeniszen voorzien, waarouder de klassificatie van de gevangenen onmogelyk werd, en de scheiding der sexen niet altyd mogelyk; tucht en hervorming waren uit de kwestie, en zifls de veilige bewaring was zoo onzeker, dat in de enkele maand Maart in het tegenwoordige jaar, er niet minder dan tien gevangenen ontsnap zyn.

Ten einde deze moeijelykheid te ontgaan, is eene Or-donnantie gemaakt "tot het verbeteren van de Gevangenissen van deze Kolonie," welke berdoelt het geheele stelsel van gevangeniszen te hervormen, en te voorzien voor de tucht en bevordering der gedetineerden.

By deze Ordonnantie (No. 24, 1847) is het vermogen van het maken van regulatien voor de Gevangeniszen; de pligten te worden volbragt, door de onderscheidene beam-ten daaraan gehecht, het voedsel en de kleeding der gedetineerden, de tyden voor de bezoeken der Resident Magis-traten, het inbrengen van sterke dranken, enz., in de Gevangenis, en andere zaken, verbonden met derzelve bestuur, gevestigd in den Gouverneur. Het is verder bepaald dat een cipier zal huisvesten in iedere Gevangenis, die geen andere bezigheid zal mogen hebben, en dien het verboden is eenige artikel aan de gevangenen te verko-pen, hetzy direct of indirect, onder eene boete van £5 tot £100. De cipier moet een dagboek houden, dat hy aan den Resident Magistraat van het district moet produceren, by gelegenheid van zyne bezoeken van inspectie, en waarin hy alle zaken die oplettend waard zyn die in de Gevan-genis voorvallen moet aantekenen; het is hem verder volstrekkekyk verboden van de gevangenen eenig geld aan te nemen, of hen te straffen op zyne eigen verantwoordelykheid; maar in zekere gevallen kan hy hem in boeien slaan, hetgeen dadelyk aan den Resident Magistraat moet gerap-porteerd worden.

Deze laatste ambtenaar moet op gezette tyden al de Gevangeniszen in zyn district bezoeken, en aan den Gouverneur rapport doen, van den staat van tucht die onderhouden wordt, het gedrag van den cipier, en lagere suppoosten, het getal, en de beschryving der Gevangenen, en alle andere zaken van aabang, met de Gevangenis in verband taande. Hy is mede gerechtigd tot het straffen met solitair confnement, met of zonder schraal dieet, door dwang arbeid of lichaams kastyding, van zoodanige gevangenen die tegen de gevangenissticht misdaden hebben.
Hy heeft mede de magt summerlyk alle gevangenen teregt te stellen die hebben getracht uit de gevangenis te ontkomen. Dobbelen, en het gebruik van sterke dranken is ten sterksten in de Gevangenis verboden.

By de 4de Sectie, welke misschien de belangrykste is, is bepaald dat mannelyke en vrouwelyke gedetineerden strectelyk van elkander gescheiden zullen worden gehouden en dat de gedetineerden van ieder sexe zullen moeten worden verdeelt in zes klassen.

(a) Personen onder eenig decreet van gyzeling.

(b) Personen gecommittteerd uit gebrek van borgtocht om de rust te houden.(c) Personen gecommittteerd voor moord, misdadige manslag roo, vrouwen schennis, of aanranding met bedoeling om eenige dier misdaden te plegen of waar eenige gevaarlyk woord is toegebragt, brandstichting, huisbraak met voornemen om eenige misdaden te plegen, of het stelen van eenig vee, schapen of bokken, of anderen misdaden van gelijken aard van schuld als eenige dezer misdaden.(d) Personen gecommittteerd voor eenige misdaden van mindere graad van schuld dan eenige der vermelde misdaden.(e) Personen overtuigd van eenige zoodanige misdaden als beschreven in letter c.(f) Personen overtuigd van eenig misdaden als beschreven in letter d.

De volstrakte noodzakelykheid van zoodanige voorzie-ningen moeten aan iederen denkenden geest de kwade strekking toonen van het stelsel dat dezelve bestemd zyn te hervormen, en waarouder huisbrekers, moordenaars en mis-dadigers van lagere graad allen byeen waren, om eldauder te besmetten door de mededeling aan eldauder van die soort van misdaden waarin zy het meest bedroven zyn.

Zyne Excellentie is van gevoelen, als vermeld in zyn minute, dat de voorzieningen van deze Ordonnantie ten krachtigste zullen kunnen worden uitgewerkt door een Generaal College van Commissarissen van publieke Gevangenissen; en, u gevolgelyk hebbende aangesteld om zoodanig College uit te maken, aan u, (onderwerpen aan zyne goedkeuring) de vermogens en pligten toe te vertrouwen aan hem gegeven door de voorzieningen van de bedoelde Ordonnantie.

Ten einde het Algemeene College te helpen in het volvoeren van dezelve pligten, zullen plaatselyk Collegien worden aange-teld in allen buiten districten, welke zullen bestaan uit den Resident Magistraat, die de voorzitter zal zyn, x oficio en twee andere leden, dat respectabele en aanzienlyke inwoners van het district moeten zyn.

Het zal mede de plicht zyn van het Generale College, om ter Zyner Excellenties goedkeuring, Regulatien te maken voor de Districts Collegien, die met het Gouvernement zullen moeten corresponderen, door middel van het Generale College.

De eerste plicht van de Generale en Districts Collegien zal wezen hunne aandacht te vestigen op het bouwen van Gevangeniszen, en het voorzien van zoodanige Gevangenis Huisvesting, als de omstandigheden des lands zullen schynen te vorderen. Zekerheid, vereenigd met dien graad van gemak, welke de gezondheid in stand houdt, is de eerste zaak waar naar getracht moet worden, daar het gestadig ontkomen van Gedetineerden uit de Gevangenissen niet langer geduld kan worden. Maar het is klaar dat ten einde de inzigten van den Wetgevenden Raad, met betrekking tot de klassificatie der Gedetineerden in werking te brengen, velen der Gevangeniszen aanzienlyke vergoeding behoeven. Voor het passeren van de Gevangenis Ordonnantie heeft eene volumineuse correspondentie plaats gevonden tusschen den Secretaris des Gouvernements en verscheiden Magistraten resident in de Buiten Districten, welke Zyne Excellentie gelast heeft in zyn geheel aan het Generale College voor te leggen, tot deszelfs narigt. Het College zal met alle mogelyke spoed aan Zyne Excellentie den gang mededeelen, welke hetzelfde verlangt hem aan te bevelen, in ieder onderscheiden gevallen in deze cor-respondentie onder zyne opmerking gebragt, zoowel als alle algemeene voordragten betreffelyk het bouwen van Gevangeniszen, het best geschikt voor Gevangenissticht.

Zyne Excellentie verlangt dat het generale College zoodanige correspondentie zal aanhouden met de plaatselyke Collegien, welke dezelve in vol bezit zal houden van al hetnoodige narigt betreffende den staat van iedere Gevan-genis, met betrekking tot tucht, de gezonde staat en zindelykheid der cellen, en andere deelen van het gebouw; de persoonlijke zindelijkheid van de gedetineerden, derzelver edrag in ieder opzicht, en alle zaken in verband met de inwendige bestiering van de Gevangenis, en het algemeen werke van het stelsel.

Zyne Excellentie is mede van gevoelen dat het tot voordeelige gevolgen zou leiden, indien boven het narigt dus bekomen van de plaatselijke Collegien, eene geregelde examinatie van alle Gevangenen, Wachthuizen, en Tuchtthuizen, geschieden door eenig lid van het algemeene College, of door eenen agent door hem in der tyd aangesteld. Dit moet echter eer worden beschouwd als eene voordragt, gedaan ter overweging van het College, eer dan als eene last tot hunne rigting, en het College zal de eerste gelegenheid moeten waarnemen om aan zyne Excellentie te rapporteren of het zulk direct toezicht en bestuur mogelijk of raadzaam oordeelt.

Uit het narigt bekomen door deze middelen, wordt het College verzocht een jaarlyksch rapport op te maken, om door Zyne Excellentie ter tafel van den Wetgevenden Raad te worden gelegd, waarin het deszelfs handelingen zal moeten detaileren, en mede alle voordragten doen welke betrekking hebben tot de verbetering van gevangenisacht. Dit rapport zal moeten verzeld zyn van een gedetailleerd verslag, van hunne beschikking van de fondsen door den Wetgevenden Raad gevoterd voor het bouwen en verbeteren van Gevangenissen, waarvan de administratie by het College verblyven zal.

Het College wordt verzocht te verstaan dat de voorzieningen van de Ordonnantie No. 24 1847, niet moeten worden beschouwd als onvatbaar voor verbetering. Het is niet onwaarschijnlijk dat er zich in den loop van deszelfs administratieve pligten vele nuttige verbeteringen zullen voordoen, welke ter zyner kennis gebragt, altyd Zynere Excellenties grootste oplettendheid zullen genieten. Deze aanmerking is byzonder toepasselyk op het onderwerp van de klassificatie van gevangenen. In het maken van regelen voor het bouwen van Gevangenissen, zal men het waarschijnlijk raadzaam vinden, schikking te maken voor eene verdere onderverdeling van de klassen, vermeld in de clausus van de Ordonnantie boven aangehaald, en als een algemeene regel moet het College in het oog houden, dat de classificatie in de clausule vervat, die is welke voor het allerminste moet gemaakt worden, maar dat eene nauwere scheiding moet worden gemaakt waar het College zulks noodig oordeelt; en de middelen het toelaten. Het College moet daarom gebruik maken van alle onderrigt op dit belangryk onderwerp, dat de onderrinding van Europa en Amerika in zulke ruime mate verstrekt, en niet verzuimen wanneer de gelegenheid zich voordoet ter Zynere Excellenties goedkeuring zoodanige verbeteringen voor te dragen als hetzelve geraden zal vinden aan te bevelen.

Een ander onderwerp van het hoogste belang, en dat de vroegtydige oplettendheid van het College moet bezig houden, is het voorzien voor het zedelyk en Godsdienstig Onderwys de Gedetineerden. Zyne Excellentie beschouwt dit als den grondslag van alle hervormende tucht, en voelt zich verzekerd dat het hem alleen noodig is dit aan het College te noemen, om deszelfs hartelyke medewerking met zyne inspanningen om deze regel algemeen te maken te verzekeren.

Met betrekking tot het strafstelsel en de algemeene rigting der Gevangenen, acht Zyne Excellentie het niet noodig nauwe instructies aan het College te geven, overtuigd zynde dat deze punten veilig aan deszelfs discretie kunnen worden overgelaten, en alleen verlangende het College die principes te milden waarop hy geloofd dat een wel georganiseerd stelsel van Gevangenisacht behoort gegrondvest te zyn.

Het College moet verstaan dat niet alleen Gevangenen, maar alle Huizen van opsluiting en Tuchtthuizen, en alle plaatsen bestemd tot het innemen van Vrouwelyke Gevangenen en Bandieten gelykelyk onder deszelfs bestuur en dwang zyn; en ten einde het zoo veel als mogelijk is te helpen in de volbrenging van de pligten welke het onbetaald aangenomen heeft, zullen alle Publieke Ambtenaren en Dienaars des Gouvernements gelast worden directelyk te corresponderen met het College, op alle onderwerpen betreffende deszelfs pligten en functien.

Daar de Ordonnantie voor het verbeteren van de gevangenen van de Kolonie niet voorziet voor de aanstelling van algemeene en plaatselijke Collegien, maar de vermogens door deszelfs te worden uitgeoefend schenkt aan den Gouverneur en den Uitvoerenden Raad, zal het College gehouden zyn de goedkeuring van Zyne Excellentie te bekomen voor het eenige van deszelfs maatregelen in werking brengt.

Ik heb de eer te zyn, myne Heeren,
Uw onderdanige Dienaar,

Gouvernements Secretaris.

MINUTE.

Gouvernements Huis, den 22 Maart 1848.

In geene departementen van het Gouvernement dezer Kolonie bestaat er eene dringender noodzakelykheid ter uitbreiding en stellige verbetering, dan in Gevangenissen en Gevangenisacht.

Voor de daarstelling van het tegenwoordig stelsel van bandieten tucht in 1844, werden alle vonnissen tot gevangenisacht, met of zonder dwangarbeid, voltrokken binnen de distrikte gevangenissen en het straf etablissement te Robben Eiland.

Destyds maakte myn voorganger Sir George Napier deze aanmerking over den staat van gevangenissen en gevangenisacht:—"Het tegenwoordige stelsel bevoegt niet alleen niet, maar vrydelt of werkt door deszelfs schikkingen dat beloop van hervormende tucht tegen, hetwelk onmisbaar is voor de heilzame uitoefening van strafregt; een beloop hetwelk, terwyl het nauwkeurig let op de uitgestrektheid en de mate van opgelegde straf voor de gepleegde misdaad, zoo wel op zedelyke als staatkundige gronden, den misdadiger zoekt te ontwringen aan de magt van slechte gewoonte of vernederende eigenschappen; en streeft om hem, indien mogelijk, terug te geven aan de maatschappij, voorbereid om hare verleidingen te wederstaan uit een hooger beginsel dan de vrees voor straf welke misdaad achtervolgt."

Geene beschrijving door myzelven kan een krachtadiger of nauwkenriger taferel ophangen van het kwaad outstaande uit den staat waarin gevangenissen en gevangenisacht thans zyn, dan die, pas door my aangehaald.

En hoewel het stelsel van bandietentucht in 1844 daargesteld, vergezeld is gegaan van de aller voordeeligste gevolgen in opzicht tot alle mannyke bandieten, govnissid tot gevangenisacht met dwangarbeid voor tyden drie maanden te bovengaan, blyft evenwel het kwaad in al deszelfs groothed heerschen, wat betreft diegenen op wien deszelfs schadelijken invloed het meest te betreuren is. Ik bedenk vrouwelyke en onveroordeelde gevangenen, en diegenen die van kleine misdaden en overtredingen zyn overtuigd.

Uit de jaarlyksche opgaven van Resident Magistraten blykt het dat er in het geheel 23 gevangenen in de Kolonie zyn. Indien het grondbeginsel van afzondering, in de gevangenissen van Engeland zoo algemeen in zwang, alhier werd ingevoerd, zouden deze gevangenen niet meer dan 171 gevangenen kunnen geryven: tervyl dezelve, volgens de tot hertoe bestaande gewoonte, gezegd worden 1235 te kunnen bevatten—een getal geheel en al ongeevenredigd aan de gemiddelde grootte der cellen en gevangenis geryf in het algemeen, indien men let op de eiiden waartoe een gevangenis alleen is daargesteld, namelyk, veilige bewaring, straf en hervorming.

Het blykt verder, gelyk natuurlyk uit bovenstaande opgaaf kan worden afgeleid, dat geene poging ter klassificatie immer is of kon worden gedaan, buiten de bloote afzondering seksen, en dit, in alle gevallen, slechts ten deele;—de gebrekkige staat der gevangenissen in eenige distrikten legt de noodzakelykheid op om 's nachts gebruik te maken van hoelien ter verzekering van de gevangenen, hetzy veroordeeld of niet—en dit lucht, beweging en gezonde bezigheid geen gedeelte van het stelsel uitmaken. Als een natuurlyk gevolg, zyn straffen binnen de gevangenis menigvuldig geweest, in de gedaante van geeseling, kettings en eenzame opsluiting.

Door Ordonnantie, No. 21—1847, getituleerd eene Ordonnantie, "Ter verbetering van de Gevangenissen in de Kolonie," ben ik met volle magt bekleed, onder derzelver voorzieningen, om zoodanige stappen te nemen, als my raadzaam mogen voorkomen, ter verbetering der koloniale gevangenissen, ter behoorlyke klassificatie van gevangenen, en ter daarstelling van gevangenisacht, als het best berekend zullen zyn niet alleen ter straffing maar ook ter hervorming.

Om dit te doen, stel ik voor, alle gevangenen en verbeterthuizen te stellen onder opzicht en beheer van een collegie, te worden genoemd het Algemeen College van Commissarissen van Gevangenissen. By dit collegie zullen gevoerd worden plaatselyke collegien voor de onmiddelyke inspectie en het toezigt over de onderscheidene gevangenissen, en ter ondersteuning van het algemeen collegie in het uitvoeren van zoodanige maatregelen van verbetering als van tyd tot tyd door my zullen worden goedgekeurd.

(Get.) H. G. SMITH.

PROCLAMATION

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH,

Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Administrator of the Government of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice Admiral of the same; and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the Affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS by the 3rd Section of the Ordinance No. 11, of the 10th March 1846, entitled "an Ordinance for amending the Law relative to the Licensing of Retail Shops," it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Governor of the Colony, by any Proclamation of Proclamations to be by him issued for that purpose, to declare and make known, from time to time, as occasion shall require, any other towns, villages, or places, in which it shall have become just and equitable that the obligation of taking out such licences as aforesaid, should be imposed, and from and after whatever time shall be fixed in and by any such Proclamation as the time from and after which it shall be incumbent for all keepers of retail shops in any particular town, village, or place, to have such licences as aforesaid, it shall be so incumbent precisely as if such licences were by this Ordinance expressly directed and required to be taken out:—Now, therefore, in pursuance of the before-mentioned Section of the Ordinance referred to, and by virtue of the provisions therein contained, I hereby declare and make known that from and after the 1st of May next, it shall be incumbent for all keepers of retail shops at any one of the towns, villages, or places mentioned in the annexed Schedule to have such licences as aforesaid, and I further direct that every such licence shall be issued by the Distributor of Stamps of the District within which the intended retail shop shall be situated; and such distributor shall issue such licences, to commence and be in force for the year 1848, from the 1st May next, and he shall allow a rebate of one-third of the amount of every such licence for the said year but every such licence as aforesaid, for every succeeding year, shall commence from, and continue in force for twelve months after the 1st January in every such year.

And whereas by the 4th Section of the Ordinance herein referred to, it is enacted, that, for the purposes of the said Ordinance, the limits of every town, village, or place which shall neither be a municipality, nor have a public market, nor have erected therein or adjacent a Dutch Reformed Church commonly called or known as the church of such town, village, or place, shall be such limits as the Governor of this Colony, by a Proclamation, or Proclamations to be by him issued, shall from time to time fix and determine.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the before-mentioned Section of the Ordinance referred to, and by virtue of the provisions therein contained, I hereby declare that the limits of each of the undermentioned four places shall be as follows:—

To the Board of Commissioners

GENTLEMEN,—I am directed by His Excellency the Administrator of the Government to communicate to you the regulations by which he desires you to be guided, in the formation and superintendence of a Botanical Institution in Cape Town.

His Excellency desires that you will not consider your duties to be confined to the formation of a Botanical Garden, but to extend to its superintendence when formed. His Excellency, therefore, desires that you will undertake the duties of a permanent Commission, and reserves to himself the right of supplying all vacancies, appointing additional members, or removing members, if necessary.

You will consider the whole of that part of the Government Garden which lies on the right hand side, upon entering it from the Heerengracht, to be under your superintendence;—and all sums, however raised, for the purposes of the Institution, to be under your control.

You will lay out and maintain in good order this ground, solely with a view of its being converted into a Public Botanic Garden.

The sole internal management of the Garden shall be in your hands, subject to His Excellency's approbation; with this exception, that all appointments of persons receiving permanent salaries, shall emanate from the Governor himself.

All regulations regarding the rights of the public to entrance into, or advantage from, the Garden, shall require His Excellency's sanction to give them effect.

I am to add, that for the purpose of enabling you to carry out these Instructions, His Excellency is prepared to propose to the Legislative Council to vote a sum of £300 per annum for the purposes of the Institution, and a further sum equal to whatever amount may be subscribed by the Public for the same purpose.

Zyne Excellentie verlangt dat gy uwe pligten niet zult beschouwen als bepaald tot het aanleggen van een Plantentuin, maar dezelve uitstrekken tot het bestuur over dezelve.

Zyne Excellentie verlangt daarom dat gy de pligten zult ondernemen van een blyvend Comité, en behoud aan zich het aanvullen van alle vacatures, het aanstellen van additionele leden, of het afzetten van leden indien het noodig zy.

Gy zult het geheele deel van de Gouvernements Tuin, liggende rechts van den ingang van de Heeregracht beschouwen als onder uw bestuur, en alle sommen, hoe ook bveengebragt, tot het einde der instelling zullen onder uw beheer zyn.

Gy zult den Grond aanleggen en in goede orde houden, met het inzicht van eene Publieke Plantentuin.

Het geheele inwendige bestuur van de Plantentuin zal onder uw bestuur zyn, onderworpen aan Zyner Excellenties goedkeuring met deze uitzondering, dat de aanstelling van alle personen, ontvangende vaste Salarissen zal komen van Zyne Excellentie zelf.

Alle regulatien betreffende de publieke entree tot voordeel van de Tuin zullen de goedkeuring van Zyne Excellentie vereischen.

Ik moet by voegen dat ten einde het Comité in staat te stellen, deze instructien uit te voeren, Zyne Excellentie aan den Wetgevenden Raad zal voorstellen eene vergoeding van £300 per jaar, voor de einden van de instelling, en eene verdere som gelyk aan het bedrag dat door het Publiek tot dat einden zal worden ingeschreven.
